☞ FOR SALE BY ALL DRUGGISTS.

Important to the Afflicted.
DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, Nos. 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, BOSTON, on all diseases of a PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE. By a long course of study and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. D. has secured the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that have never, since he first introduced them, failed to cure the most alarming cases of GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.
SEMINAL WEAKNESS.—Dr. Dow devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for business or society. Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.—Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving descriptions of your cases. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Caputtes, warranted the best preventive. Order by mail. Three or $1 and a red stamp.
Highly Important to Females
IN DELICATE HEALTH.
Dr. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No. 7 Endicott Street, Boston, is consulted daily for all diseases incident to the female system. Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience in the cure of diseases of women than any other physician in Boston. Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment. Dr. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to an office practice for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United States.
N. B.—All letters must contain one dollar, or they will not be answered. Office hours from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M.
CERTAIN CURE
in all cases, or No Charges Made.
Among the physicians in Boston, none stands higher in the profession than the celebrated DR. DOW, No. 7 Endicott street. Those who need the service of an experienced physician and surgeon should give him a call
P. S.—Dr. Dow imports and has for sale a new article, called the FRENCH SECRET. Order by mail. Two for $1 and a red stamp.
Boston, April 7, 1865. eod&wly

SPANISH ROUGE,
FOR POLISHING,
XL
Or Cleaning Gold, Silver, Silver Plated, Britannia, Brass, Tin, Steel, Iron, Copper, Glass, or Metal of all kinds. For the purpose intended this article cannot be surpassed. Twenty-five cents invested in a package of this, will add more to the looks of a home than one hundred dollars spent in new ware. Every lady who has a care-ful about the house can be kept to look like new. How much pleasanter all are when everything looks bright and clean; how much cause a smile upon the faces of all. The labor of keeping every article of metal polished with the Spanish Rouge is so much more pleasant and pleasant. It removes the tarnish at the brush of the hand. It is a mineral without any composition whatever, therefore can do no harm.
Put up in three different qualities, for the finest Gold to the coarsest Metals.
Try the Spanish Rouge, and it will become a household word and a great assistant. Every person who has a ring or ear-drop, to an engine manufacturer, needs it. For sale by Druggists and Grocery Dealers everywhere.

THE FRIGATE CONGRESS.—The Norfolk (Va.) Day Book gives the following description of the hulk of the United States frigate Congress, raised at Newport News a week or two since:

Her appearance is as uninviting as can well be imagined; the whole of her spar-deck is burned off, and her gun-deck nearly destroyed; the upper part of the stern of the ship, from about ten feet abaft of her mainmast, was blown off when the magazine exploded, but her keel and a portion of the timbers connected with it now remain, and of course, submerged. To enable the contractors to raise her, a bulkhead was put in by two professional divers, who were engaged several months in the huge undertaking.

In the body or "hole" of this ship are hundreds of bushels of oysters, sticking to the wood, the iron, the guns, and everything else they could find to attach themselves to. In addition to the oysters, large numbers of fish and crabs had taken up their quarters in the "hole," and had feasted upon the bodies of the gallant men who fell at their posts when she fought her last fight. The bones of a number of men lie scattered around, mixed in inextricable confusion with shot, shell, iron bolts, guns, and other warlike instruments, which lie around in the mud—sad relics of the once noble ship, and mournful evidences of the terrible struggle in which she was engaged when met by disaster.

Numerous relics were taken from her, a set of teeth, found in a box on board, being one of them. Many foreign and domestic coins have been found, and several navy size Colt pistols have been recovered in a damaged condition.

A number of water tanks are still in her, and the forward magazine is supposed to be intact, as only the magazine in the after part of the ship was blown up. Besides these, there is supposed to be a large quantity of navy stores and supplies still on board, and it is a little singular that out of several rolls of canvas taken from her, the larger portion was in good condition. We observed another singular fact: some of the guns were split from the muzzle to the cascabel, in a line parallel to the axis of the bore, while others were broken in the middle, the fracture being perpendicular to the axis of the bore; others had the trunnions broken off, and few if any, were perfect. On the whole, the ship presents the most perfect picture of a complete wreck we have ever seen; the massive timbers are broken, and huge iron bolts and bars twisted and wrenched by the action of the powder, as if a Hercules, with a ponderous axe, had been amusing himself with her demolition. We understand that she is to be taken up to the navy yard, where she will be made to disgorge all the valuables in the "hole," and the valuable metallic fastenings will be gathered in a pile for auction.

— There are three establishments for the manufacture of linen goods in Massachusetts, with an invested capital of $490,000; cost of labor $73,800; cost of raw material $228,575; employing 159 male and 167 female hands; producing 6,200,000 yards of crash, valued at $515,000.

— The number of battles fought during the late war is 252. Of these the soil of Virginia drank the blood of 89. Tennessee witnessed 37, Missouri 25, Georgia 12, South Carolina 10, North Carolina 11, Alabama 7, Florida 5, Kentucky 14, the Indian Territory and New Mexico 1 each. Once the wave of war rolled into a Northern State, and broke in the great billow of Gettysburg. Of the battles enumerated, 16 were naval engagements.

American and Foreign Patents.
E. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)
76 State street, opposite Kilby street,
Boston.
After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other Foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American and Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered elsewhere. The Testimonials below give proof that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.
The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.
There, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessary of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.
"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.
Mr. E. H. Eddy has secured to me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."
JOHN TAGGART
During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS to the Board of Appeals, in all of which he decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.
E. H. EDDY.

Portsmouth, N. H.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 25, 1865.

☞ Another very careless accident which came near being very serious in its results occurred at about half past 5 o'clock P. M. Wednesday, on the Old Colony Railroad. An excursion train filled with passengers, returning from the Spiritualists picnic at Abington, came in collision with a hand-car, on which two men were proceeding to Weymouth, at a curve between South Weymouth and South Braintree, about two and a half miles the other side of the latter place. The engine, tender, baggage and smoking car, and seven passenger cars were thrown from the track, the first and second of the latter being capsized down the embankment into the bushes. No one was killed.—One man had a leg broken,—one woman badly hurt; a number of people hurt slightly. Two men were on the hand-car at the time of the collision. These men say they were not aware of any train coming at that hour. In the three cars overturned there were about 150 passengers, many of them ladies, and all were taken out by the windows on the upper sides and the tops which were completely shattered. The engine and cars were very much broken up.

THE TRIAL OF WERZ, at Washington, which was suspended by dissolving the first Commission on Tuesday,—was resumed on Wednesday by the new Commission which is appointed and set to work by President Johnson himself, and not by Secretary Stanton as before.

On this change of programme, Hughes, the senior counsel for the prisoner, withdrew from the defence with an insulting speech; the junior counsel also took his name off from the defence, and was about to speechify, when the Judge Advocate asked him, are you counsel for Wrez? Ans., No. The judge Advocate then suggested that the Court did not need his speech—and the counsel departed.

IN KENTUCKY, it is said that a host of dark-skinned laborers in a certain neighborhood resolved before election that they would not work for any man who did not vote the Union ticket. Their employers happened to vote the other way; and on the morning after the election not a darkey was to be seen in the fields of these voters. More than fifty years ago, in Rhode Island, a rich federalist had in his employ a white republican, who was not very rich, but very independent, and who stuttered very badly. The employer said to the other, before election, "Are you going to vote the republican ticket?" Ans. "Yes." "Well, then, if you do, I can't employ you." The laborer then said, "Are—r—r—r—r you goin' to vote the f—f—f—ederal ticket?" Ans. "Yes." "W—w—well then, I w—w—w—won't work for you!" And he didn't. Elder Rexford used to tell this story with great gusto.

WASHINGTON ITEMS. — The World's Washington despatch says it is believed our government will oppose diplomacy to the aggressions of Spain upon St. Domingo, and perhaps stronger measures.

The Veteran Reserve Corps is to be consolidated into six regiments.

Gov. Parsons of Ala., telegraphs to the President to "please suspend all petitions for pardons recommended by me prior to this date."

Admiral Goldeboro writes that not having been invited to be present at the naval review at Brest, he shall allow any of his squadron in that vicinity.

IN MISSISSIPPI.—The Convention have adopted the following amendment to the State Constitution by a vote of 86 to 11.

"The institution of slavery having been abolished in the State of Mississippi, neither slavery nor involuntary servitude, otherwise than in punishment of crime, of which the party shall have been duly convicted, shall hereafter exist in the State, and the Legislature at its next session and thereafter as the public welfare may require, shall provide for the protection and security of the person and property of the freedmen of this State, and guard them and the State from the evils that may arise from their sudden emancipation."

An ordinance passed for a general election at the same time for county, besides district or municipal officers. Also an ordinance declaring the ordinance of secession null and void, and repealing all ordinances of the convention of 1861, excepting the revenue ordinance, which the Legislature will act upon.

The Delegates in their individual capacity, petition the President to pardon Jeff. Davis and Gov. Clark.

— The coal dealers of Boston have put the screws on again, raising the price of coal $1 per ton, and it now sells for $12 for 2000 pounds, though some of the mutual coal companies sell for the sum of $8.50 for 2240 pounds.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

— On Mount Washington's summit, Wednesday morning, the thermometer was 28 above zero, and the ice half an inch thick. Wind west, clear.

— Dr. Bancroft of the Asylum, and Rev. Dr. Parker of the South Cong. Church in Concord, are soon going to Europe.

— The Congregational Churches in Deerfield, Candia, and Raymond, are without pastors.

— A large new tannery is to be built in Wolfeboro'.

— The saw mill of Thos. Glynn, at Plymouth, was burnt on Friday night. Cause, friction. Insured $1,000.

— A recruiting office is opened in Concord, by an officer of the 17th regiment U. S. Infantry.

— Jesse Harrison, aged 86, Elisha Prescott 88, and David Payne. 90, all of Raymond, worked at haying this season, actively, and with pleasure.

— The Camp Meeting at Epping is largely attended, notwithstanding the cool weather and the rain.

— The barns and out-buildings of David M. Dow esq., of North Hampton, and their contents of hay, grain and farm tools were destroyed by fire early Friday morning, being discovered at two o'clock. Loss $1,000. Insurance $300. Cause of fire unknown.

— The city charter granted by the legislature to Keene was rejected at the legal meeting held on Saturday by a vote of 241 in favor of adopting to 411 against. The town voted to adopt the act concerning dealers in old junk.

— The Richmond correspondent of Boston Journal says it is reported that Ex-Chief Justice Samuel D. Bell will decline his appointment as one of the Commissioners to revise the Statute laws of the State of New Hampshire.

SOUTHERN ITEMS.

— On the morning of the 3d inst., the office of the Bossier (La.) Banner was closed, by order of Col. Foley, in command of the U. S. forces there. In the evening the order was countermanded, and the work in the office permitted to go on. The editor had been a little indiscreet, but says: "Next week we shall put our 'muzzle' on, and wear it as gracefully as we know how."

— On the 15th inst., two thieves went to the house of Mr. Dickens, in Henry county, Ky., and robbed him of a gold watch and a large sum of money. Mr. D., with three neighbors, pursued the robbers, came upon them next morning in a barn, and in the firing which ensued, he and one of his friends were mortally wounded, both dying soon after they were taken to their homes. The two robbers escaped unhurt.

— A couple of Mexicans recently entered the store of a druggist in Galveston, Texas, and called for chloroform. Being asked for what purpose they wished to use it, one of them replied it was to place under a man's nose, to put him to sleep, so that they could take his money out of his pockets. They were refused so great an aid to their villainy, much to their discomfiture, although they offered a fabulous price for a small quantity.

— The municipal authorities of the village of St. Jean Baptiste, Canada, have disbanded their police, owing to their frequently improper and outrageous conduct.

— A clergyman called on a poor parishioner, whom he found bitterly lamenting the loss of an only son, a boy of about four or five years of age. In the hope of consoling the afflicted woman, he remarked to her that "one so young could not have committed any very grevious sin; and that no doubt the child had gone to Heaven." "Ah, sir," said the simple-hearted creature, "but Tommy was so shy—and they are all strangers there!"

— Kansas papers say that school teachers are very scarce there.

— The government machine shops at Norfolk have all been discontinued and the hands discharged by orders from Washington.

— A train on the railroad between New London and New Haven, Conn., ran over a cow on Tuesday evening, and two cars rolled down the bank. Nobody killed, but several employees hurt.

— Gen. Fremont, at the head of a company of Eastern men, is about to purchase an extensive tract of mineral lands in Missouri with a view of erecting an establishment for the manufacture of railroad iron.

— The latest news from the Empire of Brazil is that there is an "Abolition party" making its appearance in that great country. Any of our Southern brethren who should emigrate to Brazil in order to enjoy the sort of civilization built upon negro slave-labor, would be liable, at any moment, to find themselves in an atmosphere and on a soil thunderous and earthquaky with the agitations of the spirit of Abolition.

— In the Phenix Bank case the girl Genevive Lyons has been discharged. Brown, her paramour, is held for further action.

Local.

☞ A piece of "condensed peat," so called, has been shown us by a friend, who affirms that in New England at least, it is destined to supersede coal as an article of fuel. It has been questioned by those who have given the matter some attention, whether peat as dug from the earth would take the place of either wood or coal, and very properly too, as it is so light and porous after being dried that it is speedily consumed, and therefore unfit for preserving a steady fire. But a plan has at last been hit upon by which this objection is removed, by concentrating or compressing the peat, and removing the fibre—a process performed by means of machinery adapted to the purpose—which renders it nearly as hard as White Ash coal, weighing about half as much, producing more heat, burning without any waste, and can be furnished at a much less expense than coal. This is what is claimed for it, and we see no reason to doubt the statements. Some of this article of fuel was sent from Massachusetts, where it is manufactured, to B. F. Chandler, Esq., for his examination, who pronounces it a superior article for the purpose for which it is designed.

Several of the most respectable families in our midst have also tested it, and deem it better than coal or wood. Mr. Chandler will answer any questions relating to the matter, and we would advise those who are interested, and who do not wish to be at the mercy of a merciless coal monopoly, to consult him. It is understood that a peat manufactory is soon to be started in our city, and we earnestly hope it may prove a success, and thus save us from the extortion of $10 to $12 per cord for wood, and $12 to $16, and perhaps twenty dollars, per ton for coal.

☞ Myers' Dramatic Troupe, which so pleased our citizens on a former visit, are soon to appear again, with the additonal attraction of the Buchanans.

A GREAT SUCCESS. — The American Publishing Company, of Hartford, Conn., have sold of Albert D. Richardson's book, entitled "The Field, the Dungeon and the Escape," nearly 70,000 copies, and the sales are still increasing. Their presses are running night and day to fill their orders. See advertisement in another column of Agents Wanted.

RICHMOND ITEMS.—Marmaduke Johnson has resigned the position of Commonwealth Attorney, in consequence of the fact that he is ineligible according to the Governor's construction of the Constitution, having held a position in the Confederate service.

The Whig has an article advocating the ratification of the constitutional amendment for the abolition of slavery, and urges the propriety of an extra session of the Legislature on the 1st of November, to give the people an opportunity of putting themselves right and in full accord with the General Government on the subject of slavery before the meeting of Congress.

— The four travellers, Northage, Van Wern, Shay, and Dolan, who abused Mrs., Bates in Boston on the night of Aug. 13th have been found guilty, and sentenced to imprisonment for life. From the testimony, there was no doubt of their guilt, nor of the fact that they are all worthless fellows, as well as the woman and the man who passed as her husband. Several of the witnesses for the defence were also of the same class.

— The 30th Maine regiment, Col. Whitman, sailed from Savannah on the 19th inst., in the steamer Karnak, for Portland

AGENTS WANTED
FOR
The Secret Service, the Field, the Dungeon, and the Escape.
BY ALBERT D. RICHARDSON,
N. Y. Tribune Correspondent.

70,000 Copies Sold in Sixty Days!

The most interesting and exciting book ever published, embracing Mr. Richardson's unparalleled experience for four years. Travelling thro' the South in the secret service of the "Tribune" at the outbreak of the war; with our armies and fleets, both East and West, during the first two years of the rebellion; his thrilling capture; his confinement for twenty months in seven different Rebel prisons; his escape, and almost miraculous journey by night of nearly 400 miles. It will abound in stirring events, and contain more of the fact, incident and romance of the war, than any other work yet published. Horace Greeley says of it:

"A great many books will yet be written concerning this war, in addition to the many already in print; but not one of them will give, within a similar compass, a clearer, fuller, more readable account, entirely from personal observation, of the nature, aims, purposes, tendencies and instrumentalities of the slaveholders' Rebellion, than does the unpretending narrative of Mr. Richardson."

Teachers, ladies, energetic young men, and especially returned and disabled officers and soldiers, in want of profitable employment, will find it particularly adapted to their condition. Send for circulars. Address

A FEW REASONS WHY THE
AMERICAN WATCH
IS THE BEST.

It is made on the best principle, while the foreign watch is generally made on no principle at all. The foreign watch is mostly made by women and boys, BY HAND. While their labor is cheap, their work is dear at any price. Such watches are made without plan, and sold without guarantee. They are irregular in construction, and quite as irregular in movement. They are designed only to sell, and that they do. Those who have kept "secrets," "legislate," and "swiss levers." in proof repair for a few years, will appreciate the truth of our statement.

THE PLAN OF THE AMERICAN WATCH

Instead of being made of several hundred little pieces, screwed together, the body of the American Watch is formed of SOLID PLATES. No jar interferes with the harmony of its working, and no sudden shock can throw its machinery out of gear In riding or any business pursuit, it is all held together as firmly as a single piece of metal. It is just what all machinery should be—

1st. ACCURATE 2d. SIMPLE. 3d. STRONG. 4th ECONOMICAL.

We not only secure CHEAPNESS by our system, but QUALITY. We do not pretend that our Watch can be bought for less money than the foreign make-believes, but that for its real value it is sold for one half the price.

OUR SOLDIER'S WATCH (named Wm. Ellery) is what its name indicates—Solid, Substantial, and always Reliable—warranted to stand any amount of Marching, Riding or Fighting.

OUR NEXT HIGHER QUALITY OF WATCH (named P. S. Bartlett) is similar in size and general appearance, but has more jewels, and a more elaborate finish.

OUR LADIES' WATCH, recently brought out, is put up in a great variety of patterns, many of them of rare beauty and workmanship, is quite small, but warranted to keep time.

THE PROOF of the merits of our Watch may be found in the fact that we now employ over seven hundred workmen in our factories, and that we are still unable to supply the constantly increasing demand.

REMARKABLE CURE OF STIFF KNEE BY ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS.—How many persons, from stepping on a piece of orange peel, have been lamed for life. A case which might have been of this kind has just been brought to our notice. A gentleman from putting the heel of his boot on a piece of orange peel, was suddenly thrown down, and violently sprained his knee. He was six months confined to the house, though he had the best medical advice As a last resort a very eminent physician was called in to see if anything more could be done. After examination he said, "My opinion is, your knee will never be bend again." He recommended that the whole leg and knee should be encased in a plaster of Paris bandage which would accelerate the permanent stiffening of the knee, and said, "the sooner it was done the better." But the patient, before trying this application and having a stiff knee for life, enveloped it in our Porous Plasters, and in less than two months his knee was perfectly cured.

Durno's Celebrated Catarrh Snuff is the best known remedy for Headache, Cold in the Head, Snuffles, Imperfect Voice, Bronchitis, and Catarrh. Few persons appreciate the diseases arising from disordered nasal organs. Sight, hearing, taste, and smell are frequently ruined by a cold in the head. The gas generated by the use of this snuff cleanses the entire head, and restores proper articulation. Its effects are pleasant and wonderful. It contains no tobacco nor other injurious ingredient. Colleges, Societies, States, and the most eminent of the Medical Faculty have awarded it testimonials and premiums.

THE CABINET ORGANS,

Manufactured by

MASON & HAMLIN, Boston,

For Families, Churches, and Schools.

PRICES:—$110, $120, $140, $160, and upward, according to the number of stops and its style of case.

They are elegant as pieces of furniture, occupy little space, are not liable to get out of order, and every one is warranted for five years.

They are recommended by TWO HUNDRED of the most distinguished

Musicians, Organists, and Artists

of America, as unquestionably FAR SUPERIOR to all other similar instruments. Among those who have given written testimonials to the superiority of THE CABINET ORGAN are such men and musicians as embrace a great part of the musical talent of the country.

It must be readily admitted that an instrument which receives the indorsements of such an array of the most competent musical judges, must possess most excellent points of excellence and superiority; and a careful and candid inspection will satisfy any one for himself that such is the case.

All persons interested are invited to send for full description of these instruments, with styles and prices.

Communication.

☞ The U. S. steamer Portfire made an excursion down the harbor to the fishing grounds on Wednesday, having on board a party of very distinguished gentlemen, who had been invited to participate in one of our "down east chowder parties," institutions which have become universally popular throughout the States. A similar affair to to the present one occurred last season, on which occasion the Hon. Vice President Hamlin was a guest, and was fortunate enough to be the first person to catch a fish, a position very much envied at all times.

The excursion of Wednesday might be entitled an Army-Navy-Senatorial-Congressional-Gubernatorial-Civilianical one, for among the persons present we noticed Asst. Sec'y of the Navy Fox, Capts. Goldsborough, Murray and Harrison, also Chief Engineer Bartleman of the Navy Yard, U. S. Senators Daniel Clark and Aaron Hill Cragin, Hon. Edward H. Rollins, M. C., Gov. Frederick Smyth and Col. John E. Bickford of his staff, U. S. Paymaster Emery, Col. Mark F. Wentworth, Naval Storekeeper; Gen. F. D. Warkins of Kentucky, Capt. Young of the U. S. Ship Vandalia, Col. Jones of the Marine Corps, Capt. Daniel Hall, Provost Marshal; Major Andrew Young, U. S. A., Capt. Wallace Tucker, Dr. Boardman, Aaron Young, Esq., et id omne genus. Soon after leaving Portsmouth, it was was suggested that a purse should be made up, of fifty cents each, collected from those on board, to be given to the person who should first take a member of the finny tribe. Without any disrespect to any of the other gentlemen on board, we are pleased to announce that Gov. Smyth won the purse; and we speak of fish-ally when we say that a charitable association will be the recipient of the funds.

To be brief,—a splendid chowder, plenty of good fishing, a beautiful trip around the mouth of the harbor, good view of the fortifications, aided materially by the invention of Robert Fulton, brought the party safely back to the wharf at 4 P. M., all greatly pleased with the entertainment of the day—with one exception—but he is liberal, and says he hopes all parties who go fishing may have a good haul, but he would not go again for a thousand dollars. Capt., why didn't you "send for McGinness?" E. E. T.

☞ We learn that Mr. Alonzo Craige of this city was knocked down near the Eastern depot on Wednesday night, and robbed of $50. He went to the depot about 11 o'clock on the above night to meet a friend whom he expected to come from Boston or New York on the freight train, and on arriving at the depot and seeing the cars standing near the engine house, he walked out on the track, and when just outside of the depot he was seized by two ruffians who rushed upon him from some unknown hiding-place, knocked him down, rendering him senseless, and upon recovering his wits, he found himself with a sore head and an empty pocket. It is to be hoped that the rascals' whereabouts will be discovered.

☞ Three ladies came very near being drowned at the Shoals a few days since. While bathing, they ventured too far down on the plank prow, and their feet slipping, they were instantly submerged in the ocean. Two young men, Messrs. John A. Kendall and John H. Robinson, with remarkable fortitude leaped into the sea, and breasting the heavy waves, saved the lives of all three of the shrieking women, although they came very near losing their own. We do not learn the names of the parties, save one, a Miss Farley of Boston. The brave men who imperilled their lives, and succeeded in rescuing three persons from a watery grave, under such circumstances, deserve public mention. REP.

☞ When such high-handed outrages as the robbery alluded to elsewhere are committed with such boldness, would it not be well for the authorities to increase the force of night watchmen, that some available force may be procured, in such emergencies? If the lack of night police is not the cause of such lawlessness it would not perhaps be out of place to inquire where the watchman were when Mr. Craige was knocked down and robbed.

☞ Commander A. Murray has been detached from the "Inventory Board and Survey," and ordered to the command of the steamer Rhode Island, at New York.

Commander J. Young of the Vandalia, has also been detached from that ship, and ordered to the Navy Yard at California.

GEORGE N. CARLTON.—We are pleased to see that the investigation into the official acts of this gentleman in connection with the late Custom House and Commercial Bank difficulties, has resulted in his complete exoneration, and that he retains the full confidence of the Government. His office is now in the building formerly occupied by the Tennessee National Bank on Madison street, where he will be found ready to transact any unsettled business connected with his former position.—Memphis Bulletin, Aug. 17.

☞ If the heads of our different Departments would order a supply of DR. BICKNELL'S SYRUP, they would not have so many absences from their clerks, or so many that might as well be absent. All summer troubles readily cured by it. Druggists sell it.

'TIS NOT A FABLE.—The immense and universal demand for the Fragrant Sozodont, is a marvel in the annals of Dentistry. It exceeds all other dentifrices combined.—Neither acid from the stomach, nor any other corresponding element generated by indigestion, can effect a set of teeth regularly purified by this Fragrant Vegetable antiseptic and preservative. au21 1wood 3

Morning Chronicle.

— The N. Y. Saturday Press says, Wall street has always been the noisiest locality in New York, but there has been so much howling and screeching there this last week that people are now calling it Caterwaul street.

— Dr. Lancaster, one of the metropolitan coroners, makes the appalling statement that there are 12,000 mothers in London—in the capital of "the most religious country upon earth"—who have murdered their own children. Infanticide—actual, willful child murder—is terribly frequent in England.

— The St. Joseph Union is informed by a gentleman who has lately traveled through DeKalb county, that a few days since he met a citizen of that county by name of Harris, who was 109 years old, and in the enjoyment of good health, though getting somewhat childish.

— The Alumni of Washington and Jefferson College, Pa., have raised $10,000, the interest of which is to be appropriated to the support of Rev. Wm. Smith, D. D., who was for more than forty years a Professor in that College, and who is left poor in his old age. After his death the principal goes to the endowment of the College.

— An English gentleman who has resided for a long time on the shores of the Dead Sea, has a work in press, in which he states many of the stories about the margin of the sea being fatal to animal and vegetable life, to be myths. He suggests that on account of its salt and sulphur springs it should be adopted as a sanatorium.

— The engineers of the Illinois Central Railroad, running the freight trains, have been on a strike for a few days against a reduction of wages, and the machinists and blacksmiths for an increase of wages. The difficulty with the engineers was settled, agreeing to maintain the present wages, and an advance was given to the machinists; but the blacksmiths were discharged, and their places filled by others.

— Thursday's issue of the Albany Evening Journal was printed on paper made from bamboo from Jamaica, by mills in Stockport, Columbia Co. The paper is of good quality and promises well.

— A firm of cotton brokers in Philadelphia recently received from Memphis two bales of cotton, from which they extracted a 12-pound bomb-shell and a piece of iron machinery weighing from 30 to 40 pounds. Another Philadelphia merchant lately received a cake of beeswax weighing about fourteen pounds, which was got up giving a half-inch coat of beeswax to a block of wood.

— On Saturday last, says the New Bedford Mercury, 1450 bbls. of sperm oil were sold in that city, for manufacturing, at $2 25 per gallon—an advance of 15 cents upon the last quotations. At this price sperm oil is cheaper than whale. In Nantucket, last week, 350 bbls. humpback oil was sold to a manufacturer, deliverable there at at $1 25 per gallon.

Coal at Cost.

The Eagle Hill Mutual Coal Company.

The subscriber has succeeded in obtaining a limited number of shares in this popular Company, which has proved such a success in Boston and vicinity, for the purpose of enabling the citizens of Portsmouth to obtain their coal at saving of three or four dollars per ton. Full information will be given and a small amount of stock furnished on application to
JOHN S. HARVEY,
je20 47 Congress st., Portsmouth.

COAL AT COST.

EAGLE HILL MUTUAL COAL COMPANY.

This Company is organized on the mutual plan, the same in principle as the Insurance Companies, and has none of the features of the speculative movements of the day. Its officers are among the solid men of Boston, and are known as gentlemen of integrity, who have never been associated with any of the speculative operations of the times.

The Colliery is one of the best and most extensive in the coal region, produces a coal far superior to any used in this market, and from its advantages can sell cheaper than most others. It has been operation over six months, has more than 4000 stockholders, has delivered coal at a saving of $2 to $4 per ton from regular market prices, and has paid cash dividends of 4 per cent.

Any one who will take the trouble to investigate the facts, will see at once that the charge of coal monopolists have no application to this company, and that it is as safe and sure as any railroad or bank stock in the market.

The Old Established Hospital.
No. 5 Beaver Street, Albany, N. Y.
QUICK CURES AND LOW PRICES.
Over Twenty Thousand Patients Cured Annually!

DR. J. TELLER continues to be confidentially and successfully treated on all forms of private diseases, at his old Established Hospital, No. 5 Beaver Street, Albany, N. Y. Twenty years devoted to this one particular branch of practice enables him to perform cures such as no other Physician can, and his facilities are such (being in correspondence with the most eminent Physicians of the Old World,) of obtaining the safest as well as the latest remedies for these diseases, offer inducements to the unfortunate of a quick and sure cure, to be obtained at no other office in America.

In Syphilis, Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Stricture, Enlargement of the Testicles and Spermatic Cords, Bubo, Ulcerated Throat, Sore Nose, Tender Shin Bones, Cutaneous Eruptions, Biles, Pimples, Ulcers, and all other Impurities of the system, are perfectly under the control of the Doctor's Medicines, and have been tested in more than 23,000 cases annually with immense Success.

YOUNG MEN.

Young Men addicted to secret habits, who have impaired their health and destroyed the vigor of their minds, thus depriving themselves of the pleasure of the Married Life, are notified that in consulting Dr. J. Teller, they will receive the counsel and a Physician who has cured thousands, in almost every part of the United States, who applied to Dr. T. broken down in health, and restored to all that makes life desirable and man happy. The reader is of course aware that the delicacy of this subject will prevent a more minute description of this terrible disease.

DR. TELLER'S GREAT WORK.

A book for everybody.—Startling disclosures. Dr. J. Teller, M. D., on Old Coopers and Private contemplating marriage—200 pages—full of plates—price 25 cts Sent to all parts, under seal, by mail, post paid. Address Dr. J. Teller, Albany, N. Y. THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber would especially call the attention of the public to the
CELEBRATED AND UNEQUALLED
MAGEE COOK STOVE,
as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We invite all those in want of the very best stove in the market, to examine the
MAGEE COOK.
Also on hand an assortment of the different sizes
—of the—
MAGEE PARLOR STOVE
with and without ovens, which are too well known to need any recommendation.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING
FURNACES.
The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable furnace, would ask those about remodeling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable ventilator.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pots is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq.,	Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill,	Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell,	John Sise, and others.

Important to the Afflicted.
DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, No. 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, BOSTON, on all diseases of a PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE. By a long course of study and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. D. has now the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that have never, since he first introduced them, failed to cure the most alarming cases of GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS.—Dr. Dow devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, rendering the unfortunate individual for business or society. Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.—Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving descriptions of your cases. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Capotes, warranted the best preventive. Order by mail. Three or $1 and a red stamp.

Highly Improved to Females
IN DELICATE HEALTH.

Dr. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No. 7 Endicott Street, Boston, is consulted daily for all diseases incident to the female system. Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience in the cure of diseases of women than any other physician in Boston. Hourdons for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment. Dr. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to an office practice for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United States.

N. B.—All letters must contain one dollar, or they will not be answered. Office hours from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M.

CERTAIN CURE
in all cases, or No Charges Made.

Among the physicians in Boston, none stands higher in the profession than the celebrated DR. DOW, No. 7 Endicott street. Those who need the service of an experienced physician and surgeon should give him a call.

P. S.—Dr Dow imports and has for sale a new article, called the FRENCH SECRET. Order by mail. Two for $1 and a red stamp.

SPANISH ROUGE,
FOR POLISHING,
XL
Or Cleaning Gold, Silver, Silver Plated, Britannia, Brass, Tin, Steel, Iron, Copper, Glass, or Steel of any kind. For the purpose of polishing this article cannot be beat. Twenty-five cents invested in a package of this, will add more to the looks, and will last longer than three times spent in new ware. Every article of any kind of metal about the house can be kept to look like new. Ware is a pleasant thing to look at when everything looks bright and clean, which causes a smile upon the faces of all. The labor of keeping every article of metal polished with the Spanish Rouge is reduced to a mere pastime and pleasure. It removes the tarnish at the brush of the hand. It is not injurious to any composition whatever, therefore can do no harm.

Put up in three different qualities, for the finest and coarse work.

Try the Spanish Rouge, and it will become a household word and a great assistant. Every person who has a tin or silver spoon, or an engine manufacturer, needs it. For sale by Druggists and Grocery Dealers everywhere.

THE MAN WHO DESPISED WHISKEY DRINKERS.—It was on one of the river steamers, at dinner, that an able matronly lady remarked in the midst of conversation with a grave-looking gentleman, on the subject of temperance:

"Oh, of all things in the world, I despise whiskey-drinkers!"

The gentleman dropped his knife and fork in the midst of his feelings, extended his hand and took hers within his own, and with emotion that threatened tears over the loss of ruined sons, he replied with faltering words:

"Madame, I respect your sentiments and the heart that dictates them. I permit no one to go beyond me in despising whiskey drinking. I have been disgusted on this very boat, and I say it now before our captain's face. What, I say, can be more disgusting than to see well-dressed, respectable and virtuous-looking young men step up to the bar of this boat, and, without fear of observing eyes, boldly ask for whiskey, when they know that there is in that very bar the best old Cognac brandy?"

NEW HAMPSHIRE BIRD LAW.

AN ACT to promote the interests of Agriculture.

SEC. 1. That if any person shall at any season of the year, take, kill or destroy any of the birds called robins, thrushes, larks, blue-birds, orioles, sparrows, swallows, martins, woodpeckers, bob-o'-links, yellow-birds, linnets, fly-catchers, or warblers; or shall, between the 1st day of March and the 1st day of July in any year, take, kill or destroy any of the birds called snipes, woodcocks, plovers, rails, yellow-legs, or sand-pipers; or shall between the 1st day of March and the 1st day of August in any year, take, kill or destroy, or shall at any season of the year enamare or entrap any of the birds called partridges, or grouse, or quails, or shall within the respective times aforesaid, sell, buy, or have in possession, any of said birds, taken or killed, whether in this State or elsewhere,—he shall forfeit for every rail, partridge, grouse, quail, wood-cock, snipe or plover, taken, killed or had in possession, the sum of Three Dollars; and for each other bird named above, the sum of One Dollar; to be recovered by complaint before any Justice of the Peace.

SEC. 2. Any person owning or occupying land may forbid the destruction of birds on the same at any season of the year, by public notice in any newspaper published in the County, or by posting notice on the land; and any person taking or destroying birds on said land, in defiance of said prohibition, shall be subject to the penalty of One Dollar for each bird so destroyed, in addition to the penalties named in section first of this bill.

SEC. 3. It shall be the duty of the Selectmen of towns, and of the Mayor and Aldermen of cities, throughout this State, to cause the provisions of this act to be enforced within their respective limits.

SEC. 4. All forfeitures or penalties recovered for violation of any of the provisions of this act, shall inure, one-half to the use of the complainant, and one-half to the use of the town or city where the same shall be recovered.

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.
76 State street, opposite Kilby street,
Boston.
After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to obtain Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.
The long and extensive practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions, relative to patents.
These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessary of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.
"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.
Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such a numistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."
JOHN TAGGART
During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.
R. H. EDDY.

Portsmouth, N. H.

SATURDAY, AUGUST 26, 1865.

WASHINGTON ITEMS.—Judge Cochrane and other Georgians represent the work of reconstruction in Georgia as progressing satisfactorily to Union men. He is confident the people of Georgia will accede to all the conditions and settle the principle of the negro's right to vote, subject to such restrictions as are imperatively demanded.

Southern men at present in Washington coincide in the belief that the transition from slave to free labor will produce but little trouble.

General Spinner of the Treasury Department has taken a month's leave of absence, for the first time for four years.

Returns from one precinct in Prince George's County, Maryland, show that 131 voters out of 180 have been disfranchised by the war.

The Times' special despatch denies that all the colored troops are to be mustered out.

IN THE WIRZ TRIAL at Washington, Tuesday, the objections of his counsel were overruled by the Court, and Col. Gibbs testified that Wirz had exclusive control of the prisoners at Andersonville, and that they were dreadfully crowded; and confirmed the current reports about the "dead line." Dr. Bans, who was a rebel physician there, gave testimony against the dreadful treatment of our men while there imprisoned, and said that 75 per cent. of the lives lost there, might in his opinion have been saved by proper care. Both testified to dogs being employed as prison instruments.

MEXICO.—The Matamoras Ranchero of the 18th says numerous troops and trains of artillery continue to arrive at Brownsville. The troops are almost exclusively negroes.

The Times' city of Mexico correspondent of the 20th ult., writes that the Estafette, the French organ, says that but two courses are left open, that France should assume the protectorate of Mexico, as it admits the empire is a failure, and declare it one of its provinces, or their country must be absorbed by the United States. Mexican independence, it says, is impossible. Frequent imperial disasters are reported, as usual.

The recall of the Papal Nuncio by the Pope caused a great sensation among the clergymen, who are also openly opposed to the Emperor.

A threatening article has appeared in the French papers on the demonstration, they say, Gen. Sheridan is making on the frontier. There are a number of bands of idle Confederates in the city, having lost all confidence in Maximillian.

GEORGIA.—The Macon correspondent the Transcript states that cotton is being rapidly bought up and shipped. Immense amounts of goods, including produce, flour, &c., were arriving from Cincinnati and Louisville, which were much needed.

Gen. Weld had ordered Mrs. Robert Toombs to vacate the premises occupied by her in Washington, Ga., intending its occupation for the Freedmen's Bureau; but Gen. Steedman countermanded the order, and the wife of the great rebel remains.

Gov. Johnson of Ga. has issued a proclamation, declaring that all civil officers who have taken the oath, if not embraced within the exceptions, or who have received special amnesty, shall proceed to the discharge of their duties according to the laws existing prior to the first of January, 1861, so far as the latter are not inconsistent with the present condition of the State.

DOUBLE ACCIDENT.—Wednesday evening as Mr. and Mrs. Higginson were on their way from Swampscott to Nahant in their carriage, their horses took fright and ran away, throwing them from the carriage and severely injuring Mrs. Higginson. Mr. Higginson escaped with slight bruises. Mr. Amos A. Lawrence, who was riding near by with his wife at the time, got out to assist in stopping the horses, when his own ran away and broke the carriage, but his wife escaped unharmed.

— The Pennsylvania State Convention of the Democratic party have adopted a platform partly copperhead, and express willingness to support President Johnson in restoring the States, giving them representation in Congress and saving them from the curse of negro equality, but can only give full approval to the administration if he adheres to the Constitution and laws, punishes kidnapping and robbery when committed by his own officers, and suffers no person to be murdered by a military commission.

— Forty-six years ago the late Anson Loomis, of Windsor, Conn., caught a turtle on his father's farm in Bloomfield, and marked it with the date of the year and let it go. The same turtle was caught last week but a short distance from where it was set at liberty nearly a half century ago, by a brother of Mr. Loomis, who now has it in his possession.

— Three years ago, a young woman in Nashua wrote a few sensible words of devotion to the Union, and put the paper with her name in a pair of soldier's drawers she was making for the Nashua Manufacturing Company. The soldier who drew the drawers wrote to her, and the correspondence was kept up. He was promoted to a Lieutenancy, was lately discharged; and later still the couple were married.

—— Adjutant General Head is informed that the Fourth Regiment, numbering about three hundred men and officers, are en route for home via Raleigh, N. C.—They left Raleigh Thursday.

— We are all now under the immediate command of Dan Sickles, who is to run the States of Massachusetts, New Hampshire and Vermont until further notice. His principal duty will be to draw his salary. Newburyport Herald.

That is if the "peace men" behave themselves peaceably and properly. If they don't, perhaps Gen. S. may shoot them. He has behaved bravely during the war; and being thoroughly acquainted with the great democratic party for years past, in New York and elsewhere, and having represented them in Congress, he is well posted in all their tactics.

WRECK AND LOSS OF LIFE.—The steamship Brother Jonathan, from San Francisco July 28 for Portland, Oregon, and Victoria, with between 200 and 300 passengers, was totally lost near Camp Lincoln, Oregon, July 30. Only fourteen men and one woman were saved. Among the passengers were Brig. Gen. Wright and family, Lieut. Waite, Surgeon A. Ingraham of the army, and Capt. Maddock of the Marine Service. Gen. Wright was on route to take command of the Department of Columbia.

—Thomas Purling, of Starksboro,' Vt., is the owner of a pair of oxen of the following dimensions: Length, 8 feet and 5 inches; height, 5 feet 5 1-2 inches; girth, 8 feet 8 1-2 inches: depth, 4 feet 8 inches; fore arm, 36 1-2 inches; width acros the hip, 30 inches. These cattle are seven years old. Their increase in weight for one year past has been seventeen hundred pounds.

— The rate of taxation in Oldtown, Me., is $130 on a 1000. By a vote of the town this pays off their entire debt in one year. Many of the towns are trying (very unwisely) to shoulder at once their whole debt, so that the average rate of taxation in Maine is $45 on a $1000.

— Appollos Wright of Montague, Mass., had his arm amputated last week. It had been paralyzed and the muscles contracted so as to force the ends and nails of the fingers into the palm of his hand.

— The ladies at Newport have introduced the fashion of wearing masks while bathing. These are made of thin white cloth, fitting closely to the face, with places cut for the mouth and eyes. The disguise is perfect, and no doubt will be very generally adopted.

— Steamer Argosy, from Cairo for Cincinnati, with 300 Ohio soldiers, was blown ashore Monday evening, when an explosion took place, and the steam scalded twelve persons, two of whom died. About thirty jumped overboard, of whom eight were drowned.

— The London Index (rebel newspaper) has given up the ghost. The pro-rebel papers of New York and New England would benefit the world by following its example.

— The committees of the "Union Volunteer" and "Cooper Shop Volunteer" Refreshment Saloons of Philadelphia have, after four years' labor, decided to close their institutions on Monday, 28th inst. These institutions will be remembered with emotions of gratitude by thousands of volunteers.

— An ex-Treasury clerk, recently discharged on account of drinking habits, threw himself from the fifth story of the National Hotel at Washington on Tuesday night, and was instantly killed.

— Mrs. Granger and daughter, while driving in Columbus, St. Clair County, Mich., a few days ago, were attacked by bees, and stung so severely that the daughter died. The horses also died in three or four hours.

— At Bangor, Me., in the murder case, State vs. James H. Williams for the killing of James McGrace, the jury returned a verdict of "not guilty." The killing was in self-defence against a half-drunken and dangerous assault.

— Outrages and robberies have prevailed near Augusta, Ga., lately, mostly committed by returned confederate soldiers; but the U. S. military force has reduced them to order.

— The people in the 3d Parish of Portland have presented Rev. Mr. Walton with $500. He may be considered a settled minister.

— Fourteen whaling vessels have been recently destroyed or captured by the anglo-rebel pirate Shenandoah. For all these Great Britain may have to pay; but the captain should be hanged by some Government as a pirate.

WAIFS FROM AN ESTRAY.—Boston, Aug. 25, 1865.—It is some time since an ionic column has graced the pages of your paper, and as all excursionists seem inclined to benefit (?) the public with accounts of their trips, I will do likewise.

A ride in one of the fine Monitor cars of the Eastern Road on a cool, clear morning like this, with P——brick for a "driver," is quite exhilarating. I think the name "Monitor" a misnomer for these cars, as they are the exact opposite of their namesake in comfort, elegance, light and ventilation.

The fences beside the road for many miles have suffered severely from fire during the past month, especially in the vicinity of Hampton, where I notice large quantities of peat set on fire to aid in clearing the bogs. Fire will prove a wasteful ally here, now that such efforts are being made to render peat a cheapener of fuel. The specimen you mentioned in your issue today came from the factory at Lexington, if I am rightly informed, and I think the peat in your vicinity equal in quality to that of Lexington. Great Swamp formerly furnished a considerable quantity of peat for fuel to certain parties within your city limits.

I notice that some of the maples on the low grounds are already appareled in their gorgeous fall raiment, and the numbers of pleasure seekers returning to this city from the beaches and mountains, heralds the approaching close of the summer campaign.

That most thriving adjunct of Boston, the pleasant city of Roxbury, contains within itself two almost distinct settlements—the Roxbury of beauty and refinement, the splendid homes and romantic residences of many Boston merchants forming a great part of it; and the Roxbury of bustle and din and manufacture. Those who have been accustomed to consider Roxbury merely a suburb of Boston, would be surprised at the number of manufactories in the western portion of it, as well as at the extent and massy buildings of some of them. Their number is to be increased by a cotton mill which is to be built on George street, this fall, for Wm. Grey, Jr., and others. It will make sheetings and yarns, and will turn out ten thousand pounds weekly, employing near one hundred hands.

A squib in a paper a day or two since,—raising a query as to which was of greater value, the oath of allegiance taken by the mass of the people at the South or the three cent stamp attached to the certificate of said oath,—recalls to my mind some recollections of the days when Gen. Butler held out the chalice of forgiveness to repentant rebels at New Orleans, and requested the obdurate to register themselves as enemies of the United States. Hardly any business could be carried on unless the persons conducting it had "taken the oath."

Mr. ——, president of one of the insurance companies, making a statement to a gentleman one day, was asked: "Can you swear to that, sir?" "Swear to it?" reiterated he, pulling out his certificate of having taken the oath, "why, my dear sir, I can swear to anything since having taken that oath!"

Dr. T——, a choleric old gentleman, on whose head Time had left ample evidence of his capability as a transmuter of metals, (by silvering o'er a copperhead,) came into the city through the lines, and Col. Butler, who knew him twenty years previously, advised him to take the oath. "What for?" says the Doctor. "To save your property from confiscation." "Confiscate and be d—d," the Doctor blurts out, "I've got no property." "But they'll send you to prison if you don't take it," urged Col. B. "To prison, eh? Well, then, sooner than go there, I'll swear that hell is an ice house, if they want me to."

An old French printer, who had delayed taking the oath until the last moment, on going to take it, found the office where it was administered closed. Determined to have his status defined somewhere, he registered himself an "enemy," an office for that purpose being still open. When the "enemies" were sent from the city, Mossoo received $1200 from a lady in the city to go as a substitute for her husband, who was in the rebel service. This money our typo left with his wife, and this was the only instance which came to my knowledge where aught but sacrifice, hardship or humiliation followed the registry of any one as inimical to the government whose success is the hope of the oppressed the world over. ION.

☞ The N. H. Agricultural Fair at Concord promises to be a complete success. Hon. Moses Humphrey, Mayor of Concord, is at work with his usual zeal arranging the ground, and articles are being entered by the Secretary, Stillman Humphrey, who seems to be an excellent man for the position he occupies. The Fair is to be held on the Merrimack Co. Fair Ground, and the Trustees are rapidly completing the buildings on the ground, wells and other conveniences for the occasion. Those intending to enter articles for premium should lose no time in sending to the Secretary.

— The workingmen and workingwomen of Fall River have had a meeting to consider the subject of a reduction of the hours of labor.

— On Thursday P. M., on a fishing excursion from Swampscott, the eldest son of Stephen Tilton, Esq., of Boston, was instantly killed by a fall from the masthead of the yacht in which he was sailing with his family and friends. The deceased was 19 years old, and recently graduated from the High School.

— John M. Mahoney and James Welsh are in jail in Manchester for robbing one John Moore, a returned soldier, who had been drinking with them.

A FEW REASONS WHY THE
AMERICAN WATCH
IS THE BEST.

It is made on the best principle, while the foreign watch is generally made on no principle at all. The foreign watch is mostly made by women and boys, BY HAND. While their labor is cheap, their work is dear at any price. Such watches are made without plan, and sold without guarantee. They are irregular in construction, and quite as irregular in movement. They are designed only to sell, and the buyer is the party most thoroughly sold. Those who have kept "anchres," "lepines," and "Swiss levers." in professed repair for a few years, will appreciate the truth of our statement.

THE PLAN OF THE AMERICAN WATCH Instead of being made of several hundred little pieces, screwed together, the body of the American Watch is formed of SOLID PLATES. No jar interferes with the harmony of its working, and no sudden shock can throw its machinery out of gear. In riding or any business pursuit, it is all held together as firmly as a single piece of metal. It is just what all machinery should be—

1st. ACCURATE 2d. SIMPLE. 3d. STRONG. 4th. ECONOMICAL.

We not only secure CHEAPNESS by our system, but QUALITY. We do not pretend that our Watch can be bought for less money than the foreign make-believes, but that for its real value it is sold for one half the price.

OUR SOLDIER'S WATCH (named Wm. Ellery) is what its name indicates—Solid, Substantial, and always Reliable—warranted to stand any amount of Marching, Riding or Fighting.

OUR NEXT HIGHER QUALITY OF WATCH (named T. S. Bartlett) is similar in size and general appearance, but has more jewels, and a more elaborate finish.

OUR LADIES' WATCH, recently brought out, is put up in a great variety of patterns, many of them of rare beauty and workmanship, is quite small, but warranted to keep time.

THE PROOF of the merits of our Watch may be found in the fact that we now employ over seven hundred workmen in our factories, and that we are still unable to supply the constantly increasing demand.

REMARKABLE CURE OF STIFF KNEE BY ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS.—How many persons, from stepping on a piece of orange peel, have been lamed for life. A case which might have been of this kind has just been brought to our notice. A gentleman from putting the heel of his boot on a piece of orange peel, was suddenly thrown down, and violently sprained his knee. He was six months confined to the house, though he had the best medical advice. As a last resort a very eminent physician was called in to see if anything more could be done. After examination he said, "My opinion is, your knee will never be bent again." He recommended that the whole leg and knee should be encased in a plaster of Paris bandage which would accelerate the permanent stiffening of the knee, and said, "the sooner it was done the better." But the patient, before trying this application and having a stiff knee for life, developed it in our Porous Plasters, and in less than two months his knee was perfectly cured.

Durno's Celebrated Catarrh Snuff is the best known remedy for Headache, Cold in the Head, Snuffles, Imperfect Voice, Bronchitis, and Catarrh. Few persons appreciate the diseases arising from disordered nasal organs. Sight, hearing, taste, and smell are frequently ruined by a cold in the head. The gas generated by the use of this snuff cleanses the entire head, and restores proper articulation. Its effects are pleasant and wonderful. It contains no tobacco nor other injurious ingredient. Colleges, Societies, States, and the most eminent of the Medical Faculty have awarded it testimonials and premiums.

Sold by all Druggists for 25 cents per box. Can be sent by mail on receipt of 30 cents for one box, or $1 for four boxes. Address JAS. DURNO, P. O. Box 1326, New York City.

A Card to Invalids.
A Clergyman, while residing in South America as a missionary, discovered a safe and simple remedy for the Cure of Nervous Weakness, Early Decay, Diseases of the Urinary and Seminal Organs, and the whole train of disorders brought on by baneful and vicious habits. Great numbers have been already cured by this noble remedy. Prompted by a desire to benefit the afflicted and unfortunate, I will send the recipe for preparing and using this medicine, in a sealed envelope, to any one who needs it, Free of Charge.
Please inclose a stamped envelope, addressed to yourself.

THE CABINET ORGANS,
Manufactured by
MASON & HAMLIN, Boston,
For Families, Churches, and Schools.
PRICES:—$110, $130, $140, $160, and upward, according to the number of stops and style of case.
They are elegant as pieces of Furniture, occupy little space, are not liable to get out of order, and every one is warranted for five years
They are recommended by TWO HUNDRED of the most distinguished
Musicians, Organists, and Artists
of America, as unquestionably FAR SUPERIOR to all other similar instruments. Among those who have given written testimonials to the superiority of THE CABINET ORGAN are such men and musicians as embrace a great part of the musical talent of the country.
It must be readily admitted that an instrument which receives the indorsements of such an array of the most competent musical judges, must possess most excellent points of excellence and superiority; and a careful and candid inspection will satisfy any one for himself that such is the case.
All persons interested are invited to send for full description of these instruments, with styles and prices.

Local.

CENSUS.—The New York papers are disputing over the new census of the city. The notorious Marshal Rynders took the U. S. census in 1860, and probably included all persons doing business in New York, and the occupants of its hotels, in his returns. He had two motives for this—first, that he was paid per head for his labors; and second, as the apportionments were based on his report, there was a chance of gaining Democratic Congressmen, Senators and Legislators in New York, by a liberal construction of the law.

Now the State enumerators probably report the actual, bona fide residents, the people who have their social as well as their business home in New York city, and the floating population thus cut off is about equal to the natural increase during the last five years. These State enumerators have no motive to make the number greater or less than it is, as they are paid by the day.

A similar discrepancy between two census returns took place several years ago in Portsmouth. In 1830, one Coggswell, a very careless man from the country, took the U. S. Census of Portsmouth, and made it 8082, larger than was expected. In 1840, Col. J. G. Hadley, a careful man, living here, took the U. S. Census of Portsmouth, and made it only 7887. It was not supposed the town had gained many inhabitants; but no one who knew anything of the matter believed it had lost. Col. Hadley had taken his census in geographical order, and recorded every family, beginning at Newington line, and ending at Rye. It so happened that a Town Census for School purposes had been taken by T. H. Miller, a year or two before, and that he had taken and recorded it in the same manner. On comparison, these two documents agreed so nearly, as to make it plain that both were correct,—while Mr. Coggswell's enumeration, made at random and recorded in accidental order, was from that date set down as considerably larger than the real number, and entitled to no confidence whatever.

"SO SAY WE, ALL OF US."—The Ballot says, "We have many complaints of subscribers, because they do not receive their papers regularly. We assure them that their annoyance from this cannot equal our own. We pay for the carrying of papers to all town subscribers; but boys are unreliable, and the frequent changes of carriers to which we subjected causes us as well as our patrons much disappointment. If subscribers will notify us when they fail to receive their papers, we will do our best to have the omission rectified." All which we endorse and more — for we find it as difficult to get papers faithfully delivered, as to print them; though we pay as much for a couple of hour's work each morning, as boys get in a store for a long day's work. But there are some good boys, and we are in want of one now.

☞ Commander G. W. Young of the Monticello has been ordered to the Navy Yard at Mare Island, California, and not J. Young of the Vandalia, as reported yesterday.

Capt. C. W. Pickering reported for duty at the Portsmouth Navy Yard on Thursday.

Commander E. T. Nichols has been detached from the Portsmouth Yard, and ordered to the New York Yard. Lieut. Com. Charles H. Cushman was also detached from the Portsmouth station, and ordered to command the Mahaska.

☞ We were pleased to greet our old and valued friend, Mr. S. S. Leavitt, the valued Boston correspondent of the "Ballot," in this city, a day or two ago, while on his summer vacation down east—and were glad also to greet his whole "self" this time. By the way, we should like to know what newspaper has got three better correspondents than "L." of Boston, "Buggins" of Rye, and "Our Local Reporter" in Portsmouth, of the said Ballot?

☞ Uncle Toby had a call one day this week from his old friend Barnum, the showman, who lately lost his "wax fig gers" by fire, but whose own figure is as noble and comely as ever, and whose genial countenance "sharpens that of his friend." Mr. B. was bound for Sir John Smith's Isles on a voayge of pleasure and curiosity.

☞ P. T. Barnum, the showman, John S. Rarey, the celebrated horse tamer, and Joe Cushing of equestrian celebrity, were in town on Wednesday, and visited the Shoals. They are stopping for the present at Dover Point, where Mr. Cushing has a pleasant villa.

☞ By the falling of a staging at the Engine House of the Eastern Depot a few days since, a young man named William Lowd, son of Mr. David Lowd, was severely injured, and at one time his life was despaired of, altho' we are glad to learn that he is now considered out of danger.

☞ A man named Winter, employed on the Navy Yard, had his toes cut off on Wednesday by an axe in the hands of a fellow-workman.

☞ In the City Council on Thursday evening the salary of the Police Justice was increased from $300 per annum to $600.

☞ See Auction advertisements, for sales this morning—by Mr. Hackett, of a fine Piano, (the rest of the goods announced by him being withdrawn;) and by Mr. Wendell of Carriages, Harnesses, Furniture, and Varieties as usual.

☞ Myers' Dramatic Company, and the Buchanans, will give us some grand performances next week.

☞ A drive to Kittery, the Navy Yard, and John Rogers' Nurseries a day or two ago, shew us nearly a dozen good dwelling houses in course of construction on the Foreside, and other substantial evidences of prosperity. The workmen at the Navy Yard have thinned out a good deal, though the fleet of new and old vessels have not; and the old (negro) Fort Sullivan beyond, on the Island, is quite deserted. Love Lane isn't half so lovely as formerly, before "the wild old woods" were cut away; but then the quick march of improvement is more important than the slow tread of lovers—perhaps.

Mr. Rogers we found as busy and stirring as ever, and his grounds well set off with a grand display of phloxes, asters, and other Fall-ish flowers. How the seasons fly! don't they? His pear trees and grape vines are loaded—and we presume his revolver is too. Over the entrance to his garden he has just put up a neat arch, inscribed, "John Rogers, Florist, &c. Established 1847." Getting to be an old fellow, isn't he? But not so old yet, as the original John, his ancestor.

Across the road, from his pretty cottage, he has, by request of many citizens, laid out a burial ground, which already contains several fine fences and ornaments, and evidences considerable taste. The archway across the entrance is inscribed, "Orchard Grove Cemetery, John Rogers Proprietor; Established 1862." At the the summit of the hill is a handsome Soldiers' Monument, with this general inscription:

"Erected 1864, in memory of Citizens of Kittery, who fell in defence of their country's rights, during the Great Rebellion of 1861."

And the names of nineteen fallen soldiers are given, with the place and time of death—members of the 17th, 27th, and 32d Me. regiments, and 2 volunteers in the Navy. The base is square, of granite; and the shaft of Italian marble; and the whole 11 feet high, and very handsomely executed—from the marble works of Mr. Philbrick in this city. It was put up by subscriptions from citizens of the town, at a cost of $700, one of the chief workers in its erection being Mr. John Remick; and certainly it is very creditable to all concerned.

AGENTS WANTED ON
The Secret Service, the Field, the Dungeon, and the Escape.
BY ALBERT D. RICHARDSON,
N. Y. Tribune Correspondent.
70,000 Copies Sold in Sixty Days!
The most interesting and exciting book ever published, embracing Mr. Richardson's unparalleled experience for two years. Travelling thro' the South in the secret service of the "Tribune" at the outbreak of the war; with our armies and fleets, both field and fort, during the first two years of the rebellion; his thrilling capture; his confinement for twenty months in seven different Rebel prisons; his escape, and almost miraculous journey by night of nearly 400 miles. It will abound in stirring events, and contain more of the fact, incident and romance of the war, than any other work yet published. Horace Greeley says of it:
"A great many books will yet be written concerning this war, in addition to the many already in print; but not one of them will give, within a similar compass, a clearer, fuller, more readable account, entirely from personal observation, of the nature, animus, purposes, tendencies and instrumentalities of the slaveholders' Rebellion, than does the unpretending narrative of Mr. Richardson."
Teachers, ladies, energetic young men, and especially returned and disabled officers and soldiers, in want of profitable employment, will find it particularly adapted to their condition. Send for circulars. Address

AFTER THE STORM.

Along the shore, along the shore,
While hushed is now tempest's din,
Except the sullen muffled roar
Of breakers rolling slowly in,
A woman toward the sea-line dark
Turns, as she walks; her tearful eyes:
"I see no sail, no boat, no bark—
Alas! alas!" she weeping cries.

Along the shore, along the shore,
The fisher's wife still hurries on,
And scans the tawny ocean o'er,
Still heaving though the storm has gone.
Last night the gale that fiercely blew
Loud coughed against the window-pane;
She could not weep—ah! well she knew
What bark was on the angry main.

Along the shore—along the shore,
Where roll the waves with ceaseless din,
The fisher's wife shall see no more
The red-sailed lugger coming in.
Alas! where far the dark sea-line
The sky from ocean doth divide,
The bark lies swallowed by the brine
A score of fathoms near the tide!

Along the shore, along the shore,
Though dark her grief, the mourner hears
A voice that whispers, "Weep no more,
For I will wipe away thy tears;
Vain is the tempest's wrath, and vain
The billows' rage with ruin fed:
The lost one I will bring again—
THE SEA SHALL RENDER UP THE DEAD!"

Along the shore, along the shore,
That skirts the everlasting main,
How oft we weep what never more
The waves of Time bring back again!
And while years rolling pass the dirge
Of hopes long swallowed by the brine,
How oft a fruitless search we urge,
And vainly scan the dark sea-line!

—Good Words.

JEFF. DAVIS ON SLAVERY.—Here is a choice passage from our state prisoner, which occurred in a debate in the Senate. We understand that he actually used the word "cows" instead of "cattle" when he declared that "he had no fear of insurrection; " but that he altered the language in the report.

Mr Davis of Mississippi—I do not wish to be considered as participating in the feeling to which the Senator alludes. I have no fear of an insurrection, no more than I have of my cattle. I do not dread such incendiaries. Our slaves are happy and contented. They sustain the happiest relation that labor can sustain to capital. It is a paternal institution. They are rendered miserable only by the unwarrantable interference of those who know nothing of that with which they meddle. I rest this case in no fear of insurrection: I wish it to be distinctly understood that we are able to take care of ourselves and to punish all incendiaries." [See the Washington Union of April 25, 1848.

— Wm. P. Johnson of Brazoria county, Texas, has recently been in Washington, on a visit to his brother the President of the United States, whom he had previously seen only once, at their mother's death-bed, since 1839. William is four years older than the President, being sixty-five years of age, is a carpenter by trade, and uncompromisingly opposed to slavery, but does not believe in giving the ballot to the negroes. On this latter question he says: "Andrew would not give me any definite information as to what he intends to do." William was a strong opponent of secession, and two of his sons were soldiers in the national army.

— Henry Goddard esq., of Portland, who is now aged 80, was thrown down on the sidewalk near his house on Wednesday, by a boy who rushed carelessly round a corner. Mr. G's hip was dislocated by the fall.

Coal at Cost.

The Eagle Hill Mutual Coal Company.

The subscriber has succeeded in obtaining a limited number of shares in this popular Company, which has proved such a success in Boston and vicinity, for the purpose of enabling the citizens of Portsmouth to obtain their coal at a saving of three or four dollars per ton. Full information will be given and a small amount of stock furnished on application to
JOHN S. HARVEY,
Je20 47 Congress st., Portsmouth.

COAL AT COST.

EAGLE HILL MUTUAL COAL COMPANY.

This Company is organized on the mutual plan, the same in principle as the Insurance Companies, and has none of the features of the speculative movements of the day. Its officers are among the solid men of Boston, and are known as gentlemen of integrity, who have never been associated with any of the speculative operations of the times.

The Colliery is one of the best and most extensive in the coal region, produces a coal far superior to any sold in this market, and from its advantages can mine cheaper than most others. It has been operation over six months, has more than 4000 stockholders, has delivered coal at a saving of $3 to $4 per ton from regular market prices, and has paid cash dividends of 4 per cent

Any one who will take the trouble to investigate the facts, will see at once that the crookings of coal monopolists have no application to this company, and that it is as safe and sure as any railroad or bank stock in the market.

THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber would especially call the attention of the public to the
MAGEE COOK STOVE,
as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We invite all those in want of the very best Stove in the market, to examine the

MAGEE COOK.

Also on hand an assortment of the different sizes
—of the—
MAGEE PARLOR STOVE
with and without ovens, which are too well known to need any recommendation.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING
FURNACES.
The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pots is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass out into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heating fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

FOR SALE BY ALL DRUGGISTS.

Important to the Afflicted.
DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, Nos. 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, BOSTON, on all diseases of a PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE. By a long course of study and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. D. has now the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that have never, since he first introduced them, failed to cure the most alarming cases of GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS.—Dr. Dow devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for business or society. Individuals who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charged for board moderate.—Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving descriptions of their cases. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Capotins, warranted the best preventive. Order by mail. Three or $1 and a red stamp.

Highly Impo ant to Females
IN DELICATE HEALTH.

Dr. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No. 7 Endicott Street, Boston, is consulted daily for all diseases incident to the female system. Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience in the cure of diseases of women than any other physician in Boston. Boarding accommodations for patients who wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment. Dr. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to an office practice for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United States.

N. B.—All letters must contain one dollar, or they will not be answered. Office hours from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M.

CERTAIN CURE
in all cases, or No Charges Made.
Among the physicians in Boston, none stands higher in the profession than the celebrated Dr. DOW, No. 7 Endicott street. Those who need the service of an experienced physician and surgeon should give him a call.

N. B.—Dr. Dow is poor and has for sale a new article, called the FRENCH SECRET. Order by mail. Two for $1 and a red stamp.
Boston, April 1, 1865. eod&wly

SPANISH ROUGE,
FOR POLISHING,
XL
Or Cleaning Gold, Silver, Silver Plated, Britannia, Brass, Tin, Steel, Iron, Copper, Glass, or Metal of any kind. For a hundred dollars spent in this article cannot be beat. Twenty-five cents invested in a package of this, will add more to the looks of a household than a hundred dollars spent in new ware. Every article of any kind of metal about the house can be kept to look like new. Every metal ornament will be made to shine, look bright and clean, which causes a smile upon the faces of all. The labor of keeping every article of metal polished with the Spanish Rouge is reduced to a mere pastime and pleasure. It removes the tarnish at the brush of the hand. It is unrivaled by any competition whatever, therefore can do no harm.

Put up in three different qualities, for the finest Gold to the coarsest Iron.

Try the Spanish Rouge, and it will become a household word and a great assistant. Every person who has a ring or one drop, to an engine manufacturer, needs it. For sale by Druggists and Grocery Dealers everywhere.

PAINT! PAINT!
Winter's Metallic Brown Paint
IS THE CHEAPEST!
It is a pure oxide of Iron and Manganese. It mixes readily with Linseed Oil, taking two gallons less per 100 lbs. than any mineral, and possesses more body than any other paint. It forms a glossy, unfading, durable metallic coat, protecting wood from decay, and iron or other metals from rust or corrosion.

It does not require grinding, and is warranted to give satisfaction for painting Railroad Cars Iron Bridges, Houses, Barns, Hills and Decks of Ships, Tin and Shingle Roofs, &c.

NEW HAMPSHIRE BIRD LAW.

AN ACT to promote the interests of Agriculture.

SEC. 1. That if any person shall at any season of the year, take, kill or destroy any of the birds called robins, thrushes, larks, blue-birds, orioles, sparrows, swallows, martins, woodpeckers, bob o'-links, yellow-birds, linnets, fly-catchers, or warblers; or shall, between the 1st day of March and the 1st day of July in any year, take, kill or destroy any of the birds called snipes, woodcocks, plovers, rails, yellow-legs, or sand-pipers; or shall between the 1st day of March and the 1st day of August in any year, take, kill or destroy, or shall at any season of the year ensnare or entrap any of the birds called partridges, or grouse, or quails, or shall within the respective times aforesaid, sell, buy, or have in possession, any of said birds, taken or killed, whether in this State or elsewhere,—he shall forfeit for every rail, partridge, grouse, quail, wood-cock, snipe or plover, taken, killed or had in possession, the sum of Three Dollars; and for each of the other birds named above, the sum of One Dollar; to be recovered by complaint before any Justice of the Peace.

SEC. 2. Any person owning or occupying land may forbid the destruction of birds on the same at any season of the year, by public notice in any newspaper published in the County, or by posting notice on the land; and any person taking or destroying birds on said land, in defiance of said prohibition, shall be subject to the penalty of One Dollar for each bird so destroyed, in addition to the penalties named in section first of this bill.

SEC. 3. It shall be the duty of the Selectmen of towns, and of the Mayor and Aldermen of cities, throughout this State, to cause the provisions of this act to be enforced within their respective limits.

SEC. 4. All forfeitures or penalties recovered for violation of any of the provisions of this act, shall inure, one-half to the use of the complainant, and one-half to the use of the town or city where the same shall be recovered. Approved, June 30, 1865.

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837,)
76 State street, opposite Kilby street,
Boston.
After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to procure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed, by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he may claim that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the interests of applicants more safely cared for.
The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a number of valuable documents of official decisions relative to patents.
These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
Inventors may save the journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.
"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.
Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakeable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."
JOHN TAGGART
During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twelve rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents. R. H. EDDY.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

MONDAY, AUGUST 28, 1865.

AT THE WERZ TRIAL, Friday, Mr. A. W. Barrows testified to having been sent as a prisoner to Andersonville. He was detailed as a surgeon in the prison, but after being there about six months escaped. He gave an interesting account of how the Union prisoners who had attempted to escape were punished with the stocks or the chain-gang. He testified to the insufficiency and unwholesome character of the rations and the absence of medical supplies, and gave a sickening account of the cruelties to prisoners. Blood-hounds were actually employed to capture escaping prisoners. Among other things he said the men were vaccinated with impure matter, from the effects of which many of them died. When the prisoners were being removed from Andersonville one of them fell back, when Wirz knocked him down and jumped upon him.

Mr. Baker moved to strike out the name of Joseph White from the charge of conspiracy, for the reason that White's Christian name is not correctly given, but the Commissioners overruled the motion, thus deciding that the Judge Advocate was privileged to amend it.

WASHINGTON ITEMS.—The newspaper reports that the President has stopped for the present the extending of pardons are contradicted by the fact that he granted six on Friday.

Gen. Ekin advertises the closing sales of Government stock in September. Twenty-five thousand animals, without a single interruption, have been sold under his direction during the present month. The entire proceeds from this source amount to more than $4,000,000.

The foreign immigration to the United States for the six months ending in June comprised nearly 75,000 persons, of whom 42,000 were males.

WASHINGTON ITEMS.—Legal proceedings will soon be instituted against Mayor Wallack to make him disgorge the funds for the colored schools.

Several heavy seizures of whiskey having been made recently in Cincinnati, S. S. Cox has arrived in Washington as attorney for the owners. The property seized is estimated at several millions of dollars.

FROM TEXAS via NEW ORLEANS.—Brownsville is growing amazingly. A lucrative trade has commenced with the Mexican rancheros on the upper Rio Grande. Political news unimportant.

The ship Francis B. Cutting has cleared from Mobile for Liverpool with a cargo of cotton valued at $460,000. This is the first cargo shipped for foreign ports since the occupation of the city by the U. S.

Gen. Woods has issued an order forbidding cotton in Alabama to be taken from the plantations or warehouses at present.

Gov. Parsons has issued a proclamation against cotton and horse stealing, and providing for the re-organization and sitting of the courts to suppress these crimes.

An office to procure white labor in Europe has been opened in Mobile.

Cotton ceases to come into Shreveport, owing to the seizure of nearly all that arrives by the military.

Complaints are general of non-fulfillment of contracts with freedmen.

VIRGINIA.—Richmond correspondence states that developments show questionable transactions with government funds on the part of Lieut. Col. Prinney, paymaster of that department. It is alleged he has paid men in seven thirties and that the banks have charged a discount on redeeming them, thus making large sums for both the banks and himself. It is stated that he has made from $30,000 to $50,000. He has been ordered to Washington to be examined.

Gen. Curtis, commanding at Lynchburg, has ascertained the whereabouts of $78,000 in bullion, formerly belonging to the so-called rebel government. It appears it was appropriated by two agents, to whom it was intrusted to take into the interior, who have been arrested, but they had succeeded in spending all but about $1400.

CROPS IN THE U. S.—The official monthly report of the Agricultural Department for August says the returns of correspondents are very full, and show a slight falling off of the wheat crop in New England, and the Middle States of something over half a million of bushels, a loss of about one and three-quarters millions of bushels in the States of Maryland and Delaware, and a deficiency of over twenty million bushels in the Northern and Northwestern States. The corn crop exhibits the greatest promise and is everywhere good.

The potato crop is almost as good as the corn crop. The other crops harvested will be ample for all domestic purposes, and that of oats will be very large. The prospect, therefore, is that injury to the wheat crop will be more than compensated by the unusual excellence of other crops.

THE PIRATE SHENANDOAH, AND HER OUTLAW CAPTAIN.—In conversation with Capt. Smith, of the ship Wm Thompson, the pirate asked the news. Capt. Smith replied that President Lincoln had been assassinated. "I was prepared to hear that,' said the pirate exultingly. He would not believe that Lee had surrendered.

Among the people on the Shenandoah was an Englishman who seemed to be prospecting for five vessels to be put on a line between Australia and New Zealand, and probably would purchase some of the captures made by the pirate.

The officers of the Shenandoah talked of arming two of the whalers to go up and destroy whalers where they could not get, and were very desirous to enlist the captured crews, in some instances being successful in obtaining Kanakas. An English vessel laden with coal was seen by the ship Wm. Gifford, bound for the Shenandoah.

LABOR AND LABORERS.—Of the 17,000 who landed at New York since August 1, 850 went direct to Richmond, Va., 200 of them were Swiss, with neither money or knowledge of our language; as capable farmers, however, they will be welcomed in the tilling regions. The vast majority of the remainder went to the West.

A call for several hundred colored laborers is before the Freedmen's Bureau from Pennsylvania, a fact which proves that although certain pursuits in particular localities may not be open to some who seek employment, yet the general supply is not equal to the demand.

One who is well acquainted with affairs on the Mississippi, says the Yankees, in less than ten years, will control the lands lying contiguous to the river, and that the powers and influences of Yankee "notions" and industry will be felt through the length and breadth of the Mississippi. The argument is that the Southerners are poor men, and that as the Yankees have money, the present owners will soon be willing to sell portions of their plantations, or perhaps to sell them entire.

THE POTATO ROT.—The Kennebec (Me.) Journal says there is much alarm felt among farmers regarding the potato crop, some fields being entirely blighted by the fungus and by rust, and the roots when dug being found to be infected with unmistakable rust. A gentleman who has noticed the withered state of the potato vines in various parts of New England, and examined them carefully, says that the decay is not caused, in most instances, by disease, but is natural—the potato crop being earlier by several weeks than perhaps it was ever known to be. One thing is very certain, the yield will be immense, and little margin will be left for speculation in potatoes.

RASCALS BROUGHT TO JUSTICE.—A Washington letter to the Boston Journal states that the Briggs Court Martial, before whom Lance Sergeant James McHugh was tried for collusion with bounty jumpers in New York City, have found him guilty, and sentenced him to be dishonorably discharged and drummed out of the service of the U. S., with loss of all pay, to be imprisoned at Fort Delaware for three years, and pay a fine of ten thousand dollars. The finding of the Court shows that McHugh cleared thirty thousand dollars by his transactions in his business while acting as recruiting officer.

Gen. Wilson has recently arrested Harris, the notorious keeper of bloodhounds at Andersonville, and sent him to Washington for trial.

Linton Stephens of Georgia, brother of rebel Vice President Stephens, is in Washington, for the purpose of interceding in behalf of his brother. There is good authority for stating that Gen. Grant, previous to his departure, expressed to a friend his belief in the conviction of Jeff. Davis as guilty of complicity in the assassination plot. He considers the evidence adduced before the late court martial, together with that since received by the Government, as sufficient to convict him.

A BIG STORY AND RATHER A BIG SWAGGER.—A Brownsville, Texas, correspondent of the Herald, Aug. 8th, states that an ex-rebel officer boasted that Sterling Price had been made a Major-General of Maximillian's troops and was empowered to raise a cavalry force of 30,000 men from disbanded rebel armies; also that several other rebel Generals have been commissioned by Max, and it was intended to have 100,000 rebels in Maximillian's service with a year, to keep watch of Sheridan on the Rio Grande.

SOLITARY NAVIGATOR.—As a party of gentlemen from Norwich, Conn., were fishing on Tuesday, in Fishers Island Sound, a large Newfoundland dog swam up to the vessel and was taken on board. Where he came from was quite a mystery, as there was no other vessel in sight in the direction from which he appeared. The animal was very much exhausted, as if from the effects of a prolonged swim. From his collar it appeared that he belonged to a gentleman in Boston.—Boston Herald.

— There was a light frost at Hartford Thursday morning.

— The Jury in a Court at Buffalo, N. Y. have found a verdict that spiritual medium "Colchester" is a juggler, and must pay a tax accordingly. The case did not turn on the question whether spiritualism was jugglery,—but whether Colchester practiced deceptive tricks. It was plainly proved that he did—and hence the verdict.

— Last Tuesday noon a man named Frederick Willey was run over by a freight train, near Northfield depot, Vt., and so shockingly crushed that he survived only a few hours. He was intoxicated at the time of the accident. As the train started he tried to jump aboard. Missing his footing he fell on the track, and eight cars passed over him. He leaves a wife and one child.

— Permelia Barnell, of Jacksonburg, Ind., who lost the power of speech twenty-five years ago, in consequence of getting into a trance at a camp meeting, had it restored to her last week by trying the experiment of getting "beautifully drunk" on whisky, the Cincinnati Gazette says. [Both ends of the story are rather tough.]

— In New York, Friday afternoon, a manufactory of fireworks, at 16 John street, was destroyed by fire, and two persons were burnt to death, in the upper part of the building.

— They are boasting in Northampton, Mass., of broom corn 12 feet and 8 inches high. We don't think they will boast of it much longer.

— Lawrence is now the largest city in Essex County—exceeding Salem by five hundred inhabitants, Lynn about a thousand, and Newburyport about eight thousand. Its increase is greater than the growth of the other three cities combined. It will number 30,000 in twelve months from to-day, and 50,000 by the next census, says an exchange.

— A man named Leopold Jackson stole a watch from a house in Roxbury the other day. He was suspected by a lady, who followed him to Boston in a horse car. On arriving at Tremont street the thief began to run across the Common; fearing that she would lose sight of him the lady cried "stop thief," and he was pursued and arrested, and the watch recovered. That's what we call "running after a man" to some purpose.

— At the Yarmouth Camp meeting there are about forty-two societies, some of whom have as many as three large tents, besides one hundred private tents. It must present quite a familiar appearance to some of the graduates of the tented field.

— On Thursday morning the wife of Patrick Collins, at North Billerica, was killed on the Boston and Lowell Railroad. She stepped from one track to avoid the train coming to Lowell, and on the other in front of the one going to Boston. She was fifty years of age.

— Mr. Charles H. Lane, who was hurt by coming in contact with a bridge while the train conveying Gen. Grant and party was passing between Portland and Augusta, about three weeks ago, died of his injuries in Lowell on Wednesday night. He was twenty-two years of age.

— A man in Michigan has nearly two hundred acres of land planted with peppermint for distillation. The profits of this crop are very large. From one hundred acres devoted to its cultivation last year, he derived a net profit of five thousand dollars.

— One of Dan Rice's elephats got furious in Indianapolis lately, and broke into a graveyard, and destroyed gravestones, monuments, shrubbery, &c. He was finally secured without injuring any one.

— The Great German "Shooting Festival," took place at Bremen about a month ago. A delegation from New York was present. Ten thousand riflemen attended. In the most difficult contest, when only two shots at a target 1000 feet off, were allowed, three men hit the centre with both shots, and drew lots for the prize of $1000.

— A railroad accident occurred between Nashville and Huntsville, Friday. A train ran off from some trestle work, killing dozen people, and injuring others.

— Fourteen hundred colored families have made application to the military authorities at Fort Monroe to purchase land in Virginia, for the purpose of dwelling thereon and cultivating the same. They wish to purchase from or through the agency of the United States Government, feeling assured that by such a course their rights and titles will be respected. They will pay cash.

— Six young negro men from the island of Hayti have entered the Episcopal Theological Seminary of Zambier, Ohio.

Josh Billings says: "I was once axed if I believed in the final salvation of men, and said I did; but let me pick the men."

— A daughter of the celebrated American sculptor, Hiram Powers, was married lately to Mr. Ibbotson, one of the wealthiest merchants of Sheffield, England. She is represented as the most accomplished lady in that part of England.

— Prentice says: "We always thought Bourbon county exhibited 'the right spirit,' but she didn't in the late election."

— On the 11th inst. the New Orleans Delta newspaper establishment was sold at auction for $5200.

— A "car disease" has broken out in the eastern part of New York city. It is said to have its origin in the filthy and overcrowded condition of the street cars. Hundreds of people have been attacked, and the disease is still spreading.

— Accounts from all parts of Pennsylvania represent the prospect for the coming corn crop as unusually promising.

— The Saratoga correspondents report the height of the season at that place as about over, but with so much money made by the landlords, they will not complain of any slackness now in the number of visitors.

Special Notices.

CAUTION FROM THE
AMERICAN WATCH COM'Y.

It having come to our knowledge that imitations of the American Watch have been put upon the market in great number, calculated by their utter worthlessness to injure the reputation of our genuine products, to protect our own interests and the public from imposition, we again publish the trade marks by which our Watches may invariably be known.

We manufacture four styles of Watches.

The FIRST has the name
"AMERICAN WATCH CO., Waltham, Mass.," engraved on the inside plate.

The SECOND has the name
"APPLETON, TRACY & CO., Waltham, Mass.," engraved on the inside plate.

The THIRD has the name
"P. S. BARTLETT, Waltham, Mass.," engraved on the inside plate.

All the above styles have the name American Watch Co. painted on the dial, and are warranted in every respect.

The FOURTH has the name "WM. ELLERY! Boston, Mass.," engraved on the inside plate, and is not named on the dial.

All the above described Watches are made of various sizes, and are sold in gold or silver cases as may be required.

It is hardly possible for us to accurately describe the numerous imitations to which we have alluded. They are usually inscribed with names so near approaching our own as to escape the observation of the unaccustomed buyer. Some are represented as made by the "Union Watch Co., of Boston, Mass.,"—no such company existing. Some are named the "Soldier's Watch," to be sold as our Fourth or Wm Ellery style, usually known as the "Soldier's Watch." Others are named the "Appleton Watch Co.;" others "P. S. BARTLEY," instead of our P. S. Bartlett; besides many varieties named in such a manner as to convey the idea that they are the veritable productions of the American Watch Company.

We also caution the public, and particularly soldiers, against buying certain articles CALLED watches, so freely advertised in illustrated papers as "Army Watches," "Officers' Watches," "Magic Time Observers," "Arcana Watches," &c., the prices of which are stated to be from seven to sixteen dollars. A good watch, in these times, cannot be afforded for any such money.

A little attention from buyers will protect them from gross imposition.

Agents for the American Watch Company,

BRANDRETH'S PILLS A GENERAL ASSISTANT OF NATURE.

What is health? What is disease?

Health is when the supply and expenditure are equal. Disease when the supply and expenditure are unequal.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS impart certain expulsive powers to all matters in the body whose life is below the standard of the surrounding party, or which have remained longer than the time nature designed. So in fevers and in all that class of cases which run into mortification BRANDRETH'S PILL have marvelous curative qualities. Our bodies are continually changing, and it is by this change we live. Should matter remain in organs beyond the time nature designed, pain and inflammation set in, which is nothing more than a preparatory effort for our good. All Brandreth's Pills are supposed from the results to do is simply

ASSISTING THESE EFFORTS OF NATURE.

THE CABINET ORGANS.

Manufactured by
MASON & HAMLIN, Boston,

For Families, Churches, and Schools.

PRICES:—$110, $130, $140, $160, and upward, according to the number of stops and style of case.

They are elegant as pieces of Furniture, occupy little space, are not liable to get out of order, and every one is warranted for five years.

They are recommended by TWO HUNDRED of the most distinguished

Musicians, Organists, and Artists

of America, as unquestionably FAR SUPERIOR to all other similar instruments. Among those who have given written testimonials to the superiority of THE CABINET ORGAN are such men and musicians as embrace a great part of the musical talent of the country.

It must be readily admitted that an instrument which receives the indorsements of such an array of the most competent musical judges, must possess most decided points of excellence and superiority; and a careful and candid inspection will satisfy any one for himself that such is the case.

All persons interested are invited to send for full description of these instruments, with styles and prices.

We have put up and sold this article for over 30 years, and can say in confidence and truth of it what we have never been able to say of any other medicine—never has it failed in a single instance to effect a cure, when timely used. Never did we know an instance of dissatisfaction by any one who used it. On the contrary, all are delighted with its operation, and speak in terms of commendation of its magical effects and medicinal virtues. We speak in this matter of "what we do know," after 30 years experience; and pledge our reputation for the fulfilment of what we here declare. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the syrup administered.

Local.

☞ On Saturday last we had the pleasure of greeting our friend Capt. Orlando G. Robinson, of this city, from Behring's Straits via San Francisco, having lost his ship by the hands of the pirate Shenandoah, now cruising in the Arctic regions. The pirate made the raid upon the fleet of whalers—27 in all—on the 26th of June last, burning and destroying almost everything they could find that was not available for their use. Capt. R.'s statement in regard to his capture, his subsequent treatment and rough fare, is highly interesting; and it is a matter of congratulation that he succeeded in reaching his home again in good health, although he loses heavily by the destruction of his vessel. Among other incidents attending his capture, he mentions the fact that after getting on board of the ship Gen. Pike, (the only vessel that was bonded, and into which 252 men were crowded to be sent home) he (Capt. Robinson) remarked to the captain of another whaler in the hearing of the private captain Waddell, that they wouldn't have provisions enough to last them to San Francisco, whereupon the pirate chief said, "kill your Kanakas and eat them; you have plenty of 'em!" A beautiful specimen of Southern chivalry; two hundred and fifty two men robbed of everything, crowded on board a small whaling barque, with the advice to resort to cannibalism in case their provisions gave out!

Many more incidents of their infamous conduct might be related, would our limited space allow, but enough has been stated to awaken feelings of the utmost indignation against such high-handed villainy.

We, with the numerous friends of Capt. Robinson, rejoice with his family in the fact of his safe arrival home once more, and express the hope that he may live to see Waddell hung higher than Haman.

☞ Mr. B. F. Lowell's advertisement of his talented Stock Company from the Boston Theatres, with the popular favorites Mr. and Mrs. Comersal, who will appear at the Temple in this city to-morrow (Tuesday) evening, will be interesting to all our theatre-going readers.

POLICE COURT, Aug. 26.—Michael Gilligan breaks the spell of quietude which has reigned in this department for the past four days, breaks the peace and dignity of the State, and attempts to break Mrs. Gilligan's head, which slight deviation from the marriage covenant costs him $8.86.

☞ It is rarely indeed, that we have such Dramatic performances as Myers' Company and the Buchanans will give us this week.

☞ It will be seen that Mr. Joy will reopen his Juvenile Singing School next Saturday.

NARROW ESCAPE FROM DROWNING.—Two girls and a boy, while bathing at Rye Beach on Tuesday last, strayed to a part of the beach where a dangerous eddy existed, and came very near being drowned. One of the little girls was a daughter of Alfred A. Marsh, Esq., of Cincinnati. Her screams for help attracted the attention of her mother, who, seeing their danger, with heroic courage and quick presence of mind, rushed into the surf and rescued the children from their dangerous position. Being heavily dressed it was with difficulty she regained the shore, and was carried to the hotel in an exhausted condition, but she soon revived.—Trans.

☞ We learn that Lieut. Sam'l D. Lord of the Amoskeag Veterans—as is the custom now-a-days—has recently been brevetted by Gov. Smyth to the rank of Captain. The Governor seems to be looking out for his boys, that they may have the "name" as well as the game.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—On Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday of last week, at Newport, the General Association of Congregational and Presbyterian Ministers and Churches of New Hampshire held its annual session. The opening sermon was preached by Rev. E. Robie, of Greenland. Rev. Amos Foster, of Acworth, Moderator, Rev. C. B. Humphrey, Scribe, and Rev. M. T. Runnells Assistant Scribe.

A few revivals and a state of general prosperity in the externals of the churches were reported, but the cause of Temperance was spoken of as discouraging. The Anniversary of the N. H. Mission Society, and other exercises were attended. The attendance from abroad was less than usual, but a spirit of harmony pervaded all the exercises.

—Ample preparations are going on in Concord, for the N. H. Agricultural Fair, greatly to the benefit of the city.

—The Lebanon Free Press says that last Tuesday one Thomas Cross while in a state of intoxication, leveled his gun at his own daughter, and snapped it. The cap exploded, but fortunately the gun did not go off. Upon examination it was found to contain a heavy charge of powder and three minie balls. Cross was bound over for trial in the sum of $300. In default of bail he was committed to jail at Haverhill. He is said to have squandered a considerable sum of money within a short time, getting his liquor, as is supposed, in Vermont. The house of Rev. Jonas Scott, of Lebanon, was entered a few nights since, while the family were absent, and despoiled of goods to the amount of about $100. The burglars took plenty of time and made free with everything they could find.

—Porter Dodge, the original inventor and patentee of the soap-stone stove, secured by an iron frame, died at his residence in Perkinsville, Vt., on the 13th inst., aged 64 years, 6 months. He commenced the manufacture of his stoves at Francestown, over thirty years ago.

GOLD, Saturday, 144 1-4.—$750,000 went out to Europe.

—It was rumored in New York city that Ketchum, the forger, was caught there on Saturday.

AGENTS WANTED

FOR

The Secret Service, the Field, the Dungeon, and the Escape.

BY ALBERT D. RICHARDSON,

N. Y. Tribune Correspondent.

70,000 Copies Sold in Sixty Days!

The most interesting and exciting book ever published, embracing Mr. Richardson's unparalleled experience for four years. Travelling thro' the South in the secret service of the "Tribune" at the outbreak of the war; with our armies and fleets, both East and West, during the first two years of the rebellion; his thrilling capture; his confinement for twenty months in seven different rebel prisons; his escape, and almost miraculous journey by night of nearly 400 miles. It will abound in stirring events, and contain more of the fact, incident and romance of the war, than any other work yet published. Horace Greeley says of it:

"A great many books will yet be written concerning this war, in addition to the many already in print; but not one of them will give, within a similar compass, a clearer, fuller, more readable account, entirely from personal observation, of the nature, aims, purposes, influences and instrumentalities of the slaveholders' Rebellion, than does the unpretending narrative of Mr. Richardson."

Teachers, ladies, energetic young men, and especially returned and disabled officers and soldiers, in want of profitable employment, will find it particularly adapted to their condition. Send for circulars. Address

SELF ACCUMULATION.—In 1824 a gentleman put into the Portsmouth Savings Bank $5,00. This has not been disturbed for 41 years. The book this week has been sent in to have the interest entered, and the amount now is $51,00. Should it remain 40 years longer, the amount will probably be $500,00.

In 1884, a gentleman deposited $250. At various times the amount of $407 has been with drawn, and he now stands credited with $361.

In 1829, a deposit of $220 was made by a person, $200 have been withdrawn, and $600 now remain to his credit.

In 1823, a deposit of $20 was made, it has been undisturbed and now amounts to $221,63.

PORTSMOUTH STEAM FACTORY.—The injuction on the sale of the Steam Factory has been sustained by the Court, and the case will come before the December term. In the mean time the property must lie idle.

CITY COUNCIL.—Thursday evening, a resolution passed, providing for a substantial culvert at the creek from Islington st. to the culvert under the Eastern Railroad. It is understood that the owners of the flats between the railroad and the street at that place will have them filled up and thus remove a great nuisance and make several good house lots.

EASTERN RAILROAD.—We have had recent occasion to notice the increasing prosperity of the Eastern Railroad, says the Salem Observer, and now learn that it is doing a greater business this year than ever before. Its passenger and freight business constantly enlarge, and the accommodations of the road for the convenience of the public are correspondingly increased. The road is managed in a manner which is at once popular with the public and profitable to the stockholders. New cars from the Company's shop in East Boston have recently been placed upon the track, and every effort is made to meet the wants of the business and travelling community. Under the careful and prudent oversight of Superintendent Prescott, the cars are run with security to life and property, which in these days of indifferent care, is truly gratifying.

COAL AT COST.

EAGLE HILL MUTUAL COAL COMPANY.

This Company is organized on the mutual plan, the same in principle as the Insurance Companies, and has none of the features of the speculative movements of the day. Its officers are among the solid men of Boston, and are known as gentlemen of integrity, who have never been associated with any of the speculative operations of the times.

The Colliery is one of the best and most extensive in the coal region, produces a much far superior to any used in this market, and from its advantages can mine cheaper than most others. It has been operation over six months, has more than 4000 stockholders, has delivered coal at a saving of $3 to $4 per ton from regular market prices, and has paid cash dividends of 4 per cent.

Any one who will take the trouble to investigate the facts, will see at once that the croakings of coal monopolists have no application to this company, and that it is safe and sure as any railroad or bank stock in the market.

THE MAGEE

COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber would especially call the attention of the public to the

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove; as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We invite all those in want of the very best Stove in the market, to examine the

MAGEE COOK.

Also on hand an assortment of the different sizes

—of the—

with and without ovens, which are too well known to need any recommendation.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"

VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING

FURNACES.

The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodeling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pots used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world;—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

Or Cleaning Gold, Silver, Silver Plated, Britannia, Brass, Tin, Steel, Iron, Copper, Glass, or Metal of all kinds. For the purpose intended this article cannot be beat. Twenty-five cents invested in a package of this, will add more to the looks of a home than one hundred dollars spent in ware and tware. Every article of metal about the house can be kept to look like new. How much pleasanter all are when everything looks bright and clean, which causes a smile upon the faces of all. The labor of keeping every article of metal polished with the Spanish Rouge is reduced to a mere pastime or pleasure. It removes the tarnish at the brush of the hand. It is a mineral without any composition whatever, therefore can do no harm.

Put up in three different qualities, for the finest Gold to the coarsest Metals.

Try the Spanish Rouge, and it will become a household word and a great resistant. Every person who has a ring or car-drop, to an engine manufacturer, needs it. For sale by Druggists and Grocery Dealers everywhere.

Important to the Afflicted.

DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, No. 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, BOSTON, on all diseases of a PRIVATE AND DELICATE NATURE. By a long course of study and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. D. has now the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that have never, since he first introduced them, failed to cure the most lingering cases of GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS.—Dr. Dow devotes a great portion of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate victim for the duties of society. Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant board and every comfort at home. Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving descriptions of your case. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Capottes, warranted the best preventive. Order by mail. Three or $1 and a red stamp.

Highly Important to Females

IN DELICATE HEALTH.

Dr. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No. 7 Endicott Street, Boston, is consulted daily for all diseases incident to the female system. Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience in the cure of diseases of women than any other physician in Boston. Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to remain a few days under his treatment. Dr. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to an office practice, has cured thousands afflicted with Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United States.

N. B.—All letters must contain one dollar, or they will not be answered. Office hours from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M.

VOL. XXVII. PORTSMOUTH, N. H. TUESDAY, AUG. 29, 1865 : 241. No. 50.

The Chronicle.

— An anecdote is told of the late Lord Chancellor of England, whose fall from his high position recently created so much comment. It is said that after the delivery of his grand farewell speech in the House, the first person he met was Lord Embury, who has a hobby for altering the church ritual. "My Lord," said the ex Chancellor to him, "you can now read the burial service over me with whatever alterations you think proper."

— Dick Turner, the notorious turnkey of Libby prison, is still a prisoner in Richmond, notwithstanding the statement that he succeeded in getting to Europe at the time of his escape, about two months since. He was recaptured, and has been confined ever since in a cell 8 by 12 feet, seen by and only seeing the surgeon who daily visits him.

— Seven Major Generals, 35 brevet Major Generals, and 43 Brigadiers, of the U. S. Vols., are to be honorably mustered out of service immediately. The order is dated Aug. 24. The Maj. Gens. are Banks, Casey, Heintzelman, Butterfield, Doubleday, Peck and Hartsoff. This looks like economy, as well as peace.

— A northern firm has leased Jamestown Island, Va., for five years, and will prepare it for cultivation during the coming year. It is to be converted into a vegetable farm. The same firm has leased a plantation on the main land, and will put in this fall several hundred acres of wheat.

— In a cemetery in Sharon, Conn., is a family lot in which are seven graves arranged in a circle. Six stones commemorate six deceased wives of D— S—, while the seventh and more stately slab bears the simple but affecting inscription, "Our Husband."

OUR YOUNG FOLKS, for September, is just published by Ticknor and Fields. It is the best Monthly for Youth we have ever had. In the present number, the true story of The Boy of Chancellorville, is one of deep interest.

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)
76 State street, opposite Kilby street,
Boston.
After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the chances for obtaining Patents so favorable.
The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a valuable collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.
These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessary of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.
"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.
Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."
JOHN TAGGART.
During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SLEIGHS APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.
R. H. EDDY.

Portsmouth, N. H.

TUESDAY, AUGUST 29, 1865.

☞ A Washington item of Sunday says, at the dinner table at Willard's to-day Dr. Dandridge, a brother of Mrs. R. M. T. Hunter, and brother-in-law of Hon. George Pendleton, remarked that the President ought to hang all the white neck-clothes—meaning the anti-slavery clergymen in the North—and that if he was not a coward he would at once issue a proclamation granting pardon to all who had participated in rebellion, irrespective of rank or station. Among the listeners was Chief Justice Carter of the Supreme Court of this district.

The President has requested Attorney Gen. Speed not to send any more pardon applications to him for the present.—Very properly, too, when such miserable dogs are barking as in the above item.

A Washington despatch denies that the Navy Department took no steps to resist or capture the Shenandoah. The Saranac and other vessels were despatched for the scene of operations of the pirate some time in July.

The sale of government horses and mules has been stopped until the magnitude of the Indian depredations in the West is learned.

An officer who had an interview with Jeff. Davis reports him in very good health, except suffering some from a carbuncle on his leg and a slight touch of erysipelas. Davis said he never saw or heard of Werz; but from what he knew of Winder he did not believe he would be guilty of atrocities laid to his charge.

THE WERZ TRIAL is progressing not very rapidly. On Saturday Dr. Barrios and Robt. H. Kellogg testified to the barbarities at Andersonville. It is stated that the counsel of Werz will attempt to show in his defence that he was not in chief command of the post at Andersonville, and therefore should not be held responsible for what took place there; that the miserable rations which were issued to the suffering and dying prisoners were the same as those given to the rebel soldiers stationed there to guard them; that there was no conspiracy at Andersonville, as charged, to kill off Union prisoners; that the poverty of the so-called Confederacy was the reason why better accommodations and food were not provided; that the officers in charge gave the best fare they had, and took the best care of them they could with the means at their command, and that Werz ought not therefore to be held responsible for the starvation of our prisoners.

THE INDIAN WAR IN THE WEST.—Advices from Gen. Connor's expedition to August 21st have been received. On the 17th inst., a detachment of Connor's Pawnee scouts discovered, pursued and killed all of a war party of Cheyennes, numbering 240, who were returning from the mail road with scalps and plunder. No loss on our side. Our men captured 29 horses and mules, and a quantity of white women's and children's clothing, and two infantry coats issued at Fort Laramie last spring, to the Indians, who subsequently killed Capt. Fouls and 4 men of the 9th Iowa cavalry; also a number of letters addressed to men of the 7th Michigan regiment, now on duty on the mail road, which shows they are direct from the mail line. The Indians are all moving north with great rapidity for their villages. Gen. Connor left Powder river on the 22d, moving north and concentrating his columns, ready and eager to meet them.

AN INSULT.—A Washington dispatch to the New York Post says that among the crowd of applicants for pardon that thronged the President's house on Friday there was a man who brought a letter to President Johnson from a distinguished politician. It was to the following purport: "That the bearer was a poor man who was not possessed of the five hundred dollars which he understood was necessary to obtain such a document, and trusted to the generosity of the President to grant the pardon." Those who were present will never forget the language and manner of the President. He declared that the letter was a gross and unwarrantable insult, not only upon himself, but upon every member of his household, even to the humblest page in attendance. The man, by his order, was immediately conducted to the door.

KENTUCKY ELECTION.—The Frankfort, Ky., correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette, in a dispatch of Aug. 25, says:

The official vote for State Treasurer in 108 counties gives Neale, Union, 41,979; Garrard, Opposition, 41,761. Neale's majority, 218. Two counties, Ballard and Wolfe, remain to be heard from. Our information (unofficial) is that Neale's majority in Wolfe is a little short of 200, and that Garrard's majority is a little short of 200 in Ballard. I have no doubt that Neale is elected.

The total vote for members of Congress in the State will be about 100,000, and the opposition will beat us less than 3000 upon the popular vote. One more vote of the people, and we shall wind up the concern.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— One James Hall, alias Ransom Reuborton, a passer of counterfeit bills, broke out of jail at Manchester, last March. He has lately been captured in New York, and is now in jail again, at Manchester.

—— The Mirror says that four score black-legs and robbers from large cities, have been prowling around Concord all summer: and that they dress themselves in soldiers' clothes and commit all sorts of crimes.

—— The Claremont Eagle complains of some boys about 12 years old, who go into a hall of entertainment and disturb the assembly by stamping, clapping, and whistling or screaming. Such are not peculiar to Claremont.

—— Hon. E. W. Harrington of Manchester was appointed Treasurer of the Manchester and Lawrence Railroad, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Hon. Darwin J. Daniels.

—— On Friday afternoon John Milton Dow, a boy 11 years of age, residing near Manchester, accidentally ran against a pitchfork sticking out from a load of hay, and one of the tines passed through his left eye into his brain some two inches. He died the same evening.

—— A Company of State Militia just organized at Lyme has taken the name of "Harriman Guards," in honor of the late commander of the 11th regiment, now Secretary of State at Concord.

—— An unoccupied dwelling house in Alton, belonging to R. S. Webster, Esq., of Concord, was burned to the ground on Saturday last. Probably the work of an incendiary.

—— Rev. T. H. Miller is to preach at South Hampton next Sunday.

—— A new company of N. H. Volunteer State Militia (Infantry) is to be located at Lyme, and designated the "Harriman Guards." Bela Sawyer, Captain; John H. Derby, First Lieut.; Nathan E. Stark, Second Lieut. The rank and file to number forty-eight.

☞ The Saco Democrat said, some weeks ago:

The Democratic party still preserves its organization, though in some localities they seem to have forgotten that it ever contended for principles, or that it ought to proclaim any now. Let it not condescend to stand idle until it can find out whether President Johnson will let it attach itself to his skirts. There was a day when the greatest men in the land were forced to conciliate parties, but now parties are content to cast about for a patron whose name is popular, or who has as political capital a high civil and military position. This course is contemptible and mean.

Since the above was printed, the Democratic party in Maine have done exactly what the Saco Democrat stigmatizes as "contemptible and mean," viz: try to "find out whether Pres. Johnson will let it attach itself to his skirts."

THE CABLE.—On the 17th the Great Eastern arrived at Crookhaven. After the misfortune which befel the cable, four attempts were made to raise it between the 2d and 11th. These were all unsuccessful. The Great Eastern will sail from Crookhaven for Shearness.

CHOLERA.—At the latest dates the cholera continued to rage at Ancona, and at Constantinople it had increased; 384 deaths occurred in one day.

— Young Ketchum was brought before the Court, in New York city, on Monday, charged with feloniously forging gold checks to a large amount; but at his request (he being without counsel) the case was postponed until next Monday. He was committed to the Tombs until that time.

— The Secretary of State, by order of the President, offers to issue passports to pardoned rebels wishing to go abroad, but not return without leave. Also to give passports to other persons implicated in the rebellion, according to their several cases.

— Gov. Sharkey of Mississippi has issued a proclamation calling on the people to form two companies in each county, one of cavalry and the other of infantry, for the purpose of preserving order and putting a stop to murders and robberies.

— Ketchum, the forger, was caught in New York, Saturday; and he had been in the city all the time since his crime was discovered.

— One of Quantrell's cut-throats, who participated in the Lawrence massacre, was arrested near that city a few days since by a colored man.

— Two thousand cords of wood, in two wood-sheds 900 feet long, were burnt on the Central railroad, 8 miles from Albany, Friday afternoon.

— There was a hail-storm in Saugerville, Me., on Monday Aug. 21, damaging crops in a space two miles by four.

— A collision occurred on the Long Island railroad on Monday morning. 4 or 5 persons were killed and many wounded.

— Some of the Insurance Offices refuse to take any new risks on the whale ships.

☞ Hall's Journal of Health for September contains 24 Health Tracts.

GOLD, Monday, 144.

Local.

☞ The Dover people and others find the Dover Point House a very agreeable place of resort; and besides making things pleasant there generally—on Saturday last had a special social time in the shape of a Clam Bake, which institution now presents no "questionable" shape to the invited. Messrs. John E. Bickford, S. M. Wheeler, Wadleigh, Geo. Peirce, and other gentlemen from Dover, appeared to be the head and front of the offending; and among the distinguished guests we noticed Sec. Fox, Gov. Smyth, Adm. Bailey, Rev. Dr. Clark of Dover, Mr. Rarey, Mr. Cushing of Dover, Mr. Blaisdell of Greenland, and others, with ladies—and what is a Clam Bake fit for without ladies? The guests from this city—some of them—drove to Miss Drew's ferry, and blew the "trumpet," to call the "boatman to row them o'er the stream"—though on this occasion the wind was sensible enough to dispense with rowing, and afford all a nice sail.

Soon appeared the little U. S. steamer "Emerald," Adm. Bailey's flag-ship, with a large party of gentlemen and ladies on board, from the Navy Yard and this city. And presently mine host Hanson got his twenty bushels or so of clams into the steaming seaweed, with potatoes, fish, &c., to match; and in due time the gay company did justice to the same, when served smoking hot on tables set on the lawn. And everybody says, that those who haven't helped eat a clam-bake don't know what's good; and all who had, didn't much notice the fine chowder which was served at the same time. There was a little music and some dancing, with other socialities, in the house, and not a little bowling in the alley; but the party generally preferred to lounge away on the green, the fast-fleeting hours of that lovely summer's afternoon—till they early separated for their homes, carrying another pleasant memory.

☞ We are glad to see there are a few new houses being put up in Portsmouth, as well as in Kittery—for nothing is more needed here than tenements, unless it be that indefinable something called "enterprise." Mr. F. B. Johnson is building a cottage on Hanover street, near Vaughan—crowding it in among other buildings which were too thick before—the usual way in this city now-a-days, though it wasn't so in the good old times. And for a new move, Mr. John Bennett has recently sold a couple of lots from his premises on South and Newcastle streets, and Mr. Smart has commenced one house, and Mr. Tucker is preparing to begin another forthwith. A hundred common tenements in this city would find good occupants immediately.

THEATRICAL.—This (Tuesday) evening at the Temple, a Company said to be strong, with a bill all can see is good if well cast—and among the rest, those great favorites the Gomersals. Of course all who like fun alive, and good music, will be on hand.

To-morrow (Wednesday) night, Mr. Myers' Company, and the Buchanans—undoubtedly a fine entertainment.

☞ Hon. J. W. Patterson was in this city on Saturday, stopping until Monday, and leaving in the afternoon for Fort Popham, Me., where he is to deliver an address at the anniversary exercises to be held there.

POLICE COURT, Aug. 28,—John Dame, Jr., drunkenness, fined $3, costs $3.86.

☞ There were nearly 3000 persons in attendance at the Alton Bay camp meeting on Sunday last. Two car-loads went from this city on Monday. It is under the patronage of the Advent denomination, we believe.

☞ A sheep swam ashore at Rye Beach on Sunday afternoon, not far from the Atlantic House, (she knew enough to strike for good quarters, didn't she?) and it was thought she must have come from the Sh—Smith's Isles, seven or eight miles distant. She was seen and watched when a long way off, and was thought at first to be a loon, and afterwards a man; but finally came up on the beach, shook herself, and presently ran to the nearest farm-house at Little Boar's Head. She wore a wooden fetter, one of the leather fastenings to which she had parted, but not till they had badly worn the skin from her ancles. A distinguished visitor at the Beach thought the animal must be a hydraulic ram—quite a dry allusion to a damp voyage.

The repeated statements of a contemplated visit of the President to Richmond are mere speculations.

[So we should think. Gen. Terry is the man for the place; or if he were wanted elsewhere, Gen. Butler, with a good force. Keep them under the military till they learn to be civil. Then give them civil government—but not till then.]

— A new line of steam packets will run between Boston and New Orleans, viz, the Cassandra, 1800 tons, and the Cleopatra, 1100 tons,—both of which will be loading in a few days.

— A decree has been issued ordering the reduction of the Russian army from a semi-warlike to an ordinary peace footing.

Special Notices.

CAUTION FROM THE

AMERICAN WATCH COM'Y.

I: having come to our knowledge that imitations of the American Watch have been put upon the market in great number, calculated by their utter worthlessness to injure the reputation of our genuine products, to protect our own interests and the public from imposition, we again publish the trade marks by which our Watches may invariably be known.

We manufacture four styles of Watches.

The First has the name

"AMERICAN WATCH CO., Waltham, Mass.," engraved on the inside plate.

The SECOND has the name

"APPLETON, TRACY & CO., Waltham, Mass.," engraved on the inside plate.

The THIRD has the name

"P. S. BARTLETT, Waltham, Mass.," engraved on the inside plate.

All the above styles have the name American Watch Co. painted on the dial, and are warranted in every respect.

The FOURTH has the name "WM. ELLERY! Boston, Mass.," engraved on the inside plate, and is not named on the dial.

All the above described Watches are made of various sizes, and are sold in gold or silver cases as may be required.

It is hardly possible for us to accurately describe the numerous imitations to which we have alluded. They are usually inscribed with names so near approaching our own as to escape the observation of the unaccustomed buyer. Some are represented as made by the "Union Watch Co., of Boston, Mass.,"—no such company existing. Some are named the "Soldier's Watch," to be sold as our Fourth or Wm Ellery style, usually known as the "Soldier's Watch." Others are named the "Appleton Watch Co.," others "P. S. BARTLEY," instead of our P. S. Bartlett; besides many varieties named in such a manner as to convey the idea that they are the veritable productions of the American Watch Company.

We also caution the public, and particularly soldiers, against buying certain articles CALLED watches, so freely advertized in illustrated papers as "Army Watches," "Officers' Watches," "Magic Time Observers," "Arcana Watches," &c., the prices of which are stated to be from seven to sixteen dollars. A good watch, in these times, cannot be afforded for any such money.

A little attention from buyers will protect them from gross imposition.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS A GENERAL ASSISTANT OF NATURE.

What is health? What is disease?

Health is when the supply and expenditure are equal. Disease when the supply and expenditure are unequal.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS impart certain expulsive powers to all matters in the body whose life is below the standard of the surrounding party, or which have remained longer than the time nature designed. So in fevers and in all that class of cases which run into mortification BRANDRETH'S PILLS have marvelous curative qualities. Our bodies are continually changing, and it is by this change we live. Should matter remain in organs beyond the time nature designed, pain and inflammation set in, which is nothing more than a preparatory effort for our good. All Brandreth's Pills are supposed from the results to do is simply

ASSISTING THESE EFFORTS OF NATURE.

COLORS STRUCK in FIVE MINUTES.

The above heading of a recent bulletin from

is in all respects applicable to the results of

when brought in contact with hair of any obnoxious tint. Five minutes removes the undesirable color, replacing it with the richest black or brown. No stain is left on the scalp, no damage is done to the hair by this fine emollient vegetable dye. Manufactured by J. CRISTADORO, No. 6 Astor House, New York. Sold by druggists. THE CABINET ORGANS.

Manufactured by
MASON & HAMLIN, Boston,

For Families, Churches, and Schools.

PRICES:—$110, $130, $140, $160, and upward, according to the number of stops and style of case.

They are elegant as pieces of Furniture, occupy little space, are not liable to get out of order, and every one is warranted for five years.

They are recommended by TWO HUNDRED of the most distinguished

Musicians, Organists, and Artists

of America, as unquestionably PAR SUPERIOR to all other similar instruments. Among those who have given written testimonials to the superiority of THE CABINET ORGAN are such men and musicians as embrace a great part of the musical talent of the country.

It must be readily admitted that an instrument which receives the indorsements of such an array of the most competent musical judges, must possess most decided points of excellence and superiority; and a careful and candid inspection will satisfy any one for himself that such is the case.

All persons interested are invited to send for full description of these instruments, with styles and prices.

DR. J. F. HALL,

After twenty-five years' practice in Wolfeboro' and vicinity, will resume his profession in Portsmouth. Residence at MISSES CUTTERS', No. 50 Congress St., Corner Middle.
Portsmouth, August 11, 1865.—4

Local.

☞ Among the many recent improvements at the Navy Yard, is a large "Cupola Blast" for melting the iron in the new furnace just established there. This invention is truly the most novel and best for the purpose for which it is designed, that we ever saw. It also receives the endorsements of both the Chief and Civil Engineers of the Yard, who are especially pleased with its operation. We are not very well posted on machinery technicals, but will try to describe its main features, which are claimed by the inventor as giving it a superiority over all other inventions of the kind.

In shape and form the Cupola is a parallelogram, the blast being introduced on both sides its entire length; only it has not, like all others, a counter-blast or current at both ends,—which improvement causes the iron to melt very fast, requiring less heat than the old method, making sharper iron, even to the last of the "heat," (which last term is of the utmost importance to stove founders.) The melting surface of the one used on the Yard, is 1104 square inches, and has a capacity for melting from six to eight tons to a "heat."

The inventor of this important innovation in the iron foundry business, is Mr. Abiel Pervey, Foreman of the Foundry at he Lowell Machine Shop in Lowell, Mass., (A Moody, Esq., Supt.,) where the Cupola was built. We would advise iron founders and all interested to examine the "Cupola Direct Blast" now in operation on the Yard, and satisfy themselves of the accuracy of what is stated above.

☞ It is seldom so beautiful an appearance is presented to our vision, as that which met our delighted eyes a few days ago, at the residence of Mr. Daniel H. Spinney, near this city. His Pear crop is large and fine this year, as usual, and the tempting fruit literally weighs down many of the trees in his large orchard; while the apple yield is very small, here as everywhere. He has upwards of three hundred bearing pear trees, many of them quite young; and the present yield is estimated to be about 200 bushels, and embraces eighty different varieties, most of them excellent.

Mr. Spinney has been very industrious in the cultivation of fruit trees of all kinds, as well as pears; and his flourishing farm gives full evidence of his skill and perseverance. To show what others may do, we will state that only eighteen years ago, he had not a fruit tree in his now grand nurseries and orchards; and from a couple of pear seeds put down in front of his house eleven years ago, as he was eating fruit, he now has two quite large trees in good bearing.

Mr. Spinney supplies trees of all sorts, as usual, for transplanting and; is always ready to impart valuable information to others, derived from his long and large experience,—and is glad when he can save beginners some of the disappointments and vexations he has himself experienced in the past.

NAVAL.—Assistant Surgeon Howard M. Randlett, of Stratham, has been detached from the Connecticut and ordered to the Powhatan.

Paymaster A. H. Gilman's orders to the Ino have been revoked, and he has been directed to continue on his present duties.

Acting Assistant Paymaster J. P. Loomis has been ordered to the Portsmouth Navy Yard, as an assistant to Paymaster Emery.

Capt. A. Murray left the Navy Yard on Saturday last for New York, where the steamer Rhode Island is being repaired, which steamer he is to take command of. She will not probably be ready for sea for two months or more.

☞ We hear a report that some out of town shoe manufacturer is about to establish a new branch of the business here—the making of men's work for wholesale. We hope it is true—for there is certainly no place where extensive shoe-making could be established to better advantage—the only draw-back being the lack of small tenements.

☞ Talk about your Red Hill, and other places, as you please; but we tell you there is scarcely a finer view, or a prettier picture presented, from any eminence in New Hampshire, than from the hill at the farm of Mr. Isaac Dow, on the river road in Newington. Take an hour's walk, or an half-hour's ride, and enjoy it; before you labor up Agamenticus or struggle up Mount Washington.

☞ We learn that one large fruit-grower in this city, sells all his surplus of pears in Boston, for two dollars the bushel; and another disposes of his in Portland, as they run, for one dollar per bushel. Who says this isn't better than raising potatoes? and why don't farmers set out more pear trees.

☞ The steamship Tonawanda, recently purchased from Government at the Portsmouth Navy Yard, by Isaac Emery, Esq., Capt. C. H. Chase, and others of Portland, was sold on the 24th inst. to Capt. Wm. H. Kinsman of Boston, for $55,000. She is intended to run between Boston and Cuba, for which route she is well adapted.

☞ Some person, full of wanton or malicious mischief, has pulled off and carried away many pieces of the railing from New Castle Bridge; so that on Sunday there were a dozen places where only the top-rail remained, beneath which a child or a drunken man might slip overboard very readily. The destroyer ought to be punished if caught;—and the directors will surely replace the rails without delay,—for their own safety and that of the public.

☞ The steamer Pioneer is announced for a moonlight Excursion to-night, and also on Thursday night.

DEATHS.

In this city, on Sunday evening, Aug. 27, in the 77th year of his age, JACOB WENDELL, Esq., for many years an eminent merchant here, and always a most exemplary and honorable man.

YOU CAN'T OPEN YOUR LIPS, Ladies, without revealing whether you use the Fragrant Sozodont, or not. No occasion for words. Your tooth and breath speak for you. The lustre and purity imparted to the dental machinery by that peerless fluid, and the fragrance it gives to the mouth, cannot be realized by the use of any other article accessible to the human family. 4

Now Ready.

The Praise of Zion. A new collection of Music for Singing Schools, Choirs, Musical Societies and Conventions, and the Home Circle; containing a system of Musical Notation, a variety of Exercises, Songs, Glees, &c., for School and Choir practice; AN EXTENSIVE COLLECTION OF TUNES OF ALL METRES, with a large assortment of Sentences, Anthems and Chants. By SOLON SPENCER and FERDINAND S. DAVENPORT.

The publishers call attention to this new work with much confidence that it will prove one of the most attractive and practically useful works of its class given to the public in many years. Its contents are characterized by freshness, variety, real merit, and adaptedness to popular use. They are derived from many eminent sources, American and foreign. The best old tunes are included, with a rich collection of new music.—Sent free by mail for the price, $1.60. To facilitate its introduction, we will send a single copy for examination to any teacher or choir leader, post paid, on receipt of seventy-five cents.

AGENTS WANTED
FOR
The Secret Service, the Field, the Dungeon, and the Escape.
BY ALBERT D. RICHARDSON,
N. Y. Tribune Correspondent.

70,000 Copies Sold in Sixty Days!

The most interesting and exciting book ever published, embracing Mr. Richardson's unparalleled experience for four years. Travelling thro' the south in the secret service of the "Tribune" at the outbreak of the war; with our armies and fleets, both East and West, during the first two years of the rebellion; his thrilling capture; his confinement for twenty months in seven different rebel prisons; his escape, and almost miraculous journey by night of nearly 400 miles. It will abound in stirring events, and contain more of the fact, incident and romance of the war, than any other work yet published. Horace Greeley says of it:

"A great many books will yet be written concerning this war, in addition to the many already in print; but not one of them will give, within a similar compass, a clearer, fuller, more readable account, entirely from personal observation, of the nature, animus, purposes, tendencies and instrumentalities of the slaveholders' Rebellion, than does the unpretending narrative of Mr. Richardson."

Teachers, ladies, energetic young men, and especially returned and disabled officers and soldiers, in want of profitable employment, will find it particularly adapted to their condition. Send for circulars. Address

ABOUT HUSBANDS.

BY JOHN G. SAXE.

"A man is, in general, better pleased when he has a good dinner upon his table, than when his wife speaks Greek."—Saml. Johnson.

Johnson was right. I don't agree to all
The solemn dogmas of the rough old singer;
But very much approve what one may call
The minor morals of the "Urs Major."

Johnson was right. Although some men adore
Wisdom in women, and with learning cram her,
There isn't one in ten but thinks far more
Of his own grub than of his spouse's grammar.

I know it is the grand theme of all the poets
But who among them, (save, perhaps, myself,)
Returning hungry home, but asks his wife
What beef—not books, she has upon the shelf?

Though Greek and Latin be the lady's boast,
They're little valued by her loving mate;
The kind of tongue that husbands relish most
Is modern, boiled, and served upon a plate.

Or it, as fond ambition may command,
Some home made verse the happy matron show Him,
What mortal spouse but from her dainty hand
Would sooner see a pudding than a poem?

Young ladies!—deep in love with Tom or Harry,
'Tis sad to tell you such a tale as this;
But here's the moral of it:—Do not marry;
Or marrying, take your lover as he is—

A very man—with something of the brute,
(Unless he prove a sentimental noddy,)
With passions strong, and appetites to boot—
A thirsty soul, and with a hungry body!

A very man—not one of nature's clods—
With human failings, whether saint or sinner;
Endowed, after the fashion of Adam from the gods,
But apt to take his TAMPER from his dinner!

Coal at Cost.

The Eagle Hill Mutual Coal Company.

The subscriber has succeeded in obtaining a limited number of shares in this popular Company, which has proved such a success in Boston and vicinity, for the purpose of enabling the citizens of Portsmouth to obtain their coal at a saving of three or four dollars per ton. Full information will be given and a small amount of stock furnished on application to

COAL AT COST.

EAGLE HILL MUTUAL COAL COMPANY.

This Company is organized on the mutual plan, the same in principle as the Insurance Companies, and has none of the losses and risks of the speculative movements of the day. Its officers are among the solid men of Boston, and are known as gentlemen of integrity and ability, not connected with any of the speculative operations of the times.

The Colliery is one of the best and most extensive in the coal region, produces a coal far superior to any used in this market, and from its advantages can make cheaper than most others. It has been operation over six months, has more than 4000 stockholders, has delivered coal at a saving of $2 to $4 per ton from market prices, and has paid cash dividends of 4 per cent.

Any one who will take the trouble to investigate the facts, will see at once that the cackings of coal monopolists have no application to this company, and that it is as safe and sure as any railroad or bank stock in the market.

Important to the Afflicted.

DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, Nos. 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, BOSTON, on the treatment of a PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE. By a long course of study and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. D. has now the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that have never since he first introduced them, failed to cure the most alarming cases of GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS.—Dr. Dow devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those caused by a secret and solitary habit which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for business or society. Patients who wish to remain in the country, can spend a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.—Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving descriptions of your cases. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Capsules, warranted the best preventive. Order by mail. Three or $1 and a red stamp.

Highly Important to Females

IN DELICATE HEALTH.

Dr. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No. 7 Endicott Street, Boston, is consulted daily for all diseases incident to the female system. Dr. Dow has no doubt had more experience in the cure of diseases of women than any other physician in Boston. Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment. Dr. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to an office practice for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United States.

N. B.—All letters must contain one dollar, or they will not be answered. Office hours from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M.

THE MAGEE

COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber would especially call the attention of the public to the

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We invite all those in want of the very best Stove in the market, to examine the

MAGEE COOK.

Also on hand an assortment of the different sizes —of the—

MAGEE PARLOR STOVE

with and without ovens, which are too well known to need any recommendation.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"

VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING

FURNACES.

The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pots is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the dome can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

American and Foreign Patents.
E. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)
76 State street, opposite Kilby street,
Boston.
After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, made on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and may prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.
The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.
These, besides his large library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necess."y of a journey to Washington, to procure patents, and the usual great delay thereby, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.
"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in form to secure to them as early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.
Mr. E. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."
JOHN TAGGART
During eight months, the subscriber, in connection with my practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents. E. H. EDDY.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 30, 1865.

IN THE WIRZ TRIAL, at Washington, Monday, Mr. Thomas A. Allcock, who was a prisoner at Andersonville, testified to Wirz searching and taking from him over $150 in gold and $280 in greenbacks, and a breastpin and ring, which were never returned. He saw Wirz kill a weak man by shooting him with a revolver, merely because he asked to go out and take a little fresh air. The witness, for remonstrating against this act of cruelty, was fastened with a ball and chain, but got loose and made his escape.

Sergeant Boston Corbett gave his account of the Andersonville prison,—two long for our lines,—and not differing much from former accounts.

L. D. Brown and Jacob A Brown, also gave positive testimony against Wirz personally, for cruelty in ordering men shot. Mr. Baker declined to examine the witnesses last named, having taken offense at the ruling of the Court. He said: I desired that my relations should be amicable with the Court, but after what has taken place I think I can be of no further assistance to the prisoner by remaining any longer. I had hoped the mass of the testimony in my possession would have"—

The Court (interrupting)—Do you decline? What is your purpose?

Mr. Baker—I must state that we leave the prisoner to himself.

Schade, the other counsel, also backed out, leaving the prisoner in the hands of the Judge Advocate. It was foreseen by many who knew Baker's petulance and littleness, that he would not get along with the Court. At the withdrawal of his counsel, poor Wirz was very much hurt and imploringly said to Mr. Baker: "You might stay to help, and you should not mind if the Court does sometimes overrule you."

JEFF. D.—An officer on Gen. Grant's staff who recently had an interview with the rebel ex-President, says that Jeff. is furious in his denunciations of Hunter and Stephens, whom he accuses of deliberately betraying the Southern cause into the hands of the Yankees. Had these two men—said Jeff.—representing, as they did, the weak-kneed conservative sentiment in the South, stood firm, the Southern cause would have triumphed. Jeff. appears to be perfectly indifferent to his fate, but still does not think that the full punishment for his crimes will be visited upon him. He told the officer that he had less care upon his mind now, and felt easier than he did when he was President of the Confederacy.

WASHINGTON ITEMS.—During the last week 186 post offices were re-opened in the rebel States, and sixteen routes let, aggregating nearly twelve hundred miles in length. An advertisement is preparing, for contracts for carrying the mails on the old mail routes in the South, to commence July 1, 1866. The prices for mail service in the Southern States will be considerably less than before the war, the Government being determined to render the postal service in that section as nearly self-supporting as possible.

The Treasury printing presses are engaged in running off compound interest notes. Ten millions have been printed and and sent to California for circulation; and another order was given to strike off soon forty millions more. More 5-20 coupon notes are also to be issued.

NORTH CAROLINA.—A Beaufort dispatch says that Gov. Holden having requested Gen. Ruger, commanding at Raleigh, to remand three citizens arrested by the latter for assaulting a freedman, to the county in which the offence was committed, to be tried by a civil tribunal, and calling his attention to the fact that the civil law has been organized in that county, Gen. Ruger replies that it has appeared to him inexpedient to comply with the request, for the reason, among others, that it is the duty of the military to preserve order, and that though magistrates have been appointed they do not take official notice of unlawful violence toward freedmen, although such acts are by no means unfrequent in the different sections of the State. He also says that of late several cases of homicide of freedmen by whites have been brought to his knowledge, but in no case, so far as he had learned, was any arrest made by the magistrates or civil officers, and no attempt made to procure an investigation; and from his own investigation and observation, these acts of violence are becoming more frequent. He therefore thinks that promt trial and punishment by a Military Commission the only adequate remedy for the evil.

— The National Bank of Wellington, Ohio, was robbed on Monday night, o about a hundred thousand dollars in Government bonds and bank deposits. No arrests have been made.

— There are men so constitutionally miserable that they couldn't find contentment in the dictionary.

AUGUSTA, ME., Aug. 28

When last I wrote you from this city, the snow still lay upon the great hill which rears its crest back of the city, and War still reaped his dreadful harvest in our land. Both have disappeared, and with the latter one great feature of Augusta for the last four years—the military; 27 regiments—one-half of all the troops raised in the State—having been quartered here.

Leaving Boston on Friday evening in the steamer Eastern Queen, we had a most delightful trip to Gardiner, the night being clear and the sea scarcely ruffled. Owing to an opposition line to the Kennebec having lately been started, the fare from Boston to Augusta and intermediate points on the river, has been placed at the ridiculously low figure of 25 cents, and as a consequence the boat was crowded. Where one had a comfortable berth secured, 'twas quite an interesting study to watch the crowd of passengers, which, although it seems a paradox, might be called "a motley crew." I should judge we numbered upward of 800, embracing all of Shakespeare's classifications of age. The Ethiop and the Hibernian, the merchant and the loafer, the soldier and the sailor, the lorette and the beau monde, the bishop and the bootblack, all had their representatives on board; and I must do them the justice to say that I have seldom seen so large a crowd conduct themselves equally well.

Entering the mouth of the Kennebec at daylight, we had an opportunity to enjoy the fine scenery of the Kennebec, from that point to this city. Spreading among rocky and wooded islands, sweeping around sudden curves, running far back into some bay or creek, and ever wild in the character of its scenery, the Kennebec affords a rich feast to the eyes of those quick to appreciate the beauties with which Nature has decked New England.

In shipbuilding, our own Piscataqua is far behind the Kennebec in activity just at present. At Bath, two new vessels at the wharves, two nearly ready for launching, six small vessels in course of construction, and the frame of a seventh just setting up. There the riggers have shears erected to put the lower masts in vessels,—a want I have often wondered was not supplied outside of the government yard at Portsmouth. At Richmond the frame for one vessel was setting up, and the keel for a second was laid, while at Gardiner I found a vessel well advanced in construction.

Over the great dam, extending across the river above Augusta, the waste water thunders forth a hymn, of untold interest to those who look to man's advancement,—a pæan to the power of mind that has made the power of matter subservient to his wants. Poised upon the edge of the dam, left thus by the falling stage of water, are numbers of great logs, resembling heavy "quaker guns" bristling from the parapet of a stockaded fortification. The sluiceways carry the cotton mills, and the immense saw-mills on both sides of the river—noble monuments of the energy and industry which has made New England great in a land of greatness.

So far as regards the execution of the State liquor law, Augusta is not one whit behind Portsmouth, and the traffic is openly pursued on every side. The closing of all dram shops on the Sabbath is strictly enforced. ION.

ALABAMA AND MISSISSIPPI.—A Washington dispatch says Gen. Swayne, in command at Montgomery, Ala., reports that the propensity to rob in that section has increased, and the State is kept in turmoil.

Col. Thomas, the commissioner of freedmen in Mississippi, reports that out of 846,000 freedmen in that State, only 3000 are subsisted by the government. The colored colonies and farms are doing finely. The more intelligent Mississippians are represented as willing to assist in developing the new order of things by the employment of interest and means.

TOLERATION IN CHILI.—The Chilian Congress has passed with great unanimity a bill prepared by the government, giving to those who do not profess the Roman Catholic faith, liberty to offer worship within the precincts of individual property. Dissenters are also allowed to found and establish private schools for instructing their own children in the doctrine of their religion. By this legislation, free worship, which has existed in fact in some of the towns of Chili, more especially in Valparaiso, will have acquired the legal sanction which it lacked; and edifices of all denominations may be put up and protected by law.

PHILADELPHIA HOSPITALITY TO THE SOLDIERS.—The Philadelphia Volunteer Refreshment Saloon was closed at noon Saturday, after having during four years and 3 months entertained all the soldiers passing through the city, numbering 1,200,000 persons, without expense to the soldiers or government. The Union Saloon will however still be used to entertain returning veterans as long as any funds remain in the Treasury.

— It is stated on excellent authority that the sale of "Enoch Arden" up to the present time has produced to its author, Mr. Tennyson, the sum of £11,000.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— A good quality of slate, is quarried at Littleton. Copper ore is also found there.

—— A 7-30 U. S. Note for $100 was stolen sometime ago, from Mr. Cady of Manchester. More recently it was found tucked under his front door. Fear of detection, or some better motive, made the thief restore it.

—— At the Methodist Camp Meeting in Epping, last week, a meeting of the New Hampshire Conference, ministers and laymen, was held to consider the feasibility of a New England Convention of Methodists. It was favorably thought of, and the meeting voted that a committee of nine be appointed to confer with a similar committee from each of the other Conferences in New England. The Committee are—Rev. A. C. Manson, Portsmouth; Hon. Thos. L. Tullock, Portsmouth; Dr. Ira E. Chase, Haverhill, Mass.; Rev. E. Adams, Concord; Jacob B. Rand, Concord; Wm. T. Cass, Sanbornton; Rev. J. Thurston, Concord; Horace W. Gilman, Nashua; Hon. Amos Fiske, Marlow. The Convention is expected to take place at a point central and convenient, about October 1.

—— The Lebanon Press says, recently a young man, who had previously sustained a fine character, and who had lately returned from the war, went or was carried home to his grief stricken mother in a state of beastly intoxication. He became crazy, and never knew how he reached home, owing, probably, to the superior quality of the liquor which he said he obtained at the hotel at West Lebanon.

—— A Fortress Monroe dispatch states that the Raleigh train ran off the track near Petersburg Friday, and two men were killed. The 4th New Hampshire regiment, bound home, were on the train, but none of them were seriously injured.

—— A few Sabbaths since five were admitted to the F. W. Baptist Church in Nottingham, under charge of Rev. William Rogers.

—— The Concord correspondent of the Manchester Union notices that, a few days since, a large box car came down from Vermont, containing a thousand geese, besides three pigs and a dozen ducks. The interior was partitioned so as to make four platforms. We do not recollect the dimensions of the car, but a little figuring proved that, giving each goose a square foot, there was room for at least a thousand, and the car was filled. These geese were probably going to Rhode Island to be fatted for Thanksgiving. Poultry from that State usually bears a larger price in Boston market than from up country, owing to to the extra pains given to fattening.

—— The Rockingham Q. M., held its Aug. session with the Free Will Baptist Church in Newmarket. Reports were received from all of the 14 Churches, excepting Kittery and Stratham. Next session at Hampton, commencing Nov. 1st.

—— On Sabbath, Aug. 20, six received the rite of baptism in the Methodist Society at Epping.

☞ The U. S. Steamer Portsmouth arrived at New York the 27th inst., from New Orleans. The officers of the Portsmouth are Acting Volunteers Lieutenant Commander R. B. Smith; Acting Volunteer Lieutenant F. J. Grover; Assistant Surgeon W. P. Baird; Assistant Paymaster Edwin Putnam; Acting Master John H. Allen; Acting Ensigns S. H. Bevins, and J. P. Pearson.

☞ Judge Edmonds of New York has published a letter in review of the case of Colchester, the spiritualist, tried at Albany and declared by a jury to be a common juggler. The Judge contends that the result of this trial will have no depressing effect on the minds of true and intelligent spiritualists, who themselves regard Colchester as little else than a juggler, and he thinks it will be a fortunate thing for spiritualism if the jury's verdict against the accused shall result in silencing him forever. The Judge says he was solicited to become Colchester's counsel, but refused on conscientious grounds.

SMUGGLING.—The government has received information that large quantities of drugs, cigars, silks, and other articles on which there are high duties, have recently been smuggled across the Canadian border. A large force of detectives have been organized to operate upon a new base, and they are already on the track of a number of suspected parties. It is estimated that at least five million dollars' worth of goods have been smuggled across the border within the past four months.

— The New York papers say that, at the fire in St. John street on Friday afternoon, one young girl who was dangerously burned and Mrs. Catherine Cleavland who was burned to death, might have escaped had it not been for their dress. The former tripped and fell by her hoops catching on a nail, and she was held in that predicament until her clothing was nearly burned off. The latter, when her clothes took fire, ran for the street door, she being unable to put out the flames, her hoops preventing her from doing so, and sunk down at the lower part of the main stairway, where her body was found by her husband and identified only by a ring. Not a vestige of clothing remained, except the shapeless frame of hoops which still clung about her blackened limbs.

☞ The old First Church in Boston, Rev. Dr. Ellis pastor, having voted to sell their real estate on Chauncy street, have purchased a lot of land on the corner of Marlborough and Berkley streets, where they are about to erect an edifice of a more modern style of architecture.

— A returned Union soldier named Housley has commenced a civil suit in St. Louis against Sterling Price, Gen. Rains, Col. Cockerel and others, for fifty thousand dollars, for false imprisonment, and other crimes. The defendants are required to file an appearance by the 16th of October, or judgment will be rendered by default. Price and Rains both have property in Missouri never confiscated.

— Mrs. Gen. Grant is soon to be presented with a dress comb, a pair of drop ear-rings and a brooch made in part of the wood of the celebrated Appomattox tree under which Lee surrendered to General Grant.

Wanted,

A BOY, about 15 years old. Good references required. au29 BACHMAN & CO.

Special Notices.

CAUTION FROM THE

AMERICAN WATCH COM'Y.

It having come to our knowledge that imitations of the American Watch have been put upon the market in great number, calculated by their utter worthlessness to injure the reputation of our genuine products, to protect our own interests and the public from imposition, we again publish the trade marks by which our Watches may invariably be known.

We manufacture four styles of Watches.

The FIRST has the name "AMERICAN WATCH CO., Waltham, Mass.," engraved on the inside plate.

The SECOND has the name "APPLETON, TRACY & CO., Waltham, Mass.," engraved on the inside plate.

The THIRD has the name "P. S. BARTLETT, Waltham, Mass.," engraved on the inside plate.

All the above styles have the name American Watch Co. painted on the dial, and are warranted in every respect.

The FOURTH has the name "WM. ELLERY, Boston, Mass.," engraved on the inside plate, and is not named on the dial.

All the above described Watches are made of various sizes, and are sold in gold or silver cases as may be required.

It is hardly possible for us to accurately describe the numerous imitations to which we have alluded. They are usually inscribed with names so near approaching our own as to escape the observation of the unaccustomed buyer. Some are represented as made by the "Union Watch Co., of Boston, Mass.,"—no such company existing. Some are named the "Soldier's Watch," to be sold as our Fourth or Wm Ellery style, usually known as the "Soldier's Watch." Others are named the "Appleton Watch Co.;" others "P. S. Bartley," instead of our P. S. Bartlett; besides many varieties named in such a manner as to convey the idea that they are the veritable productions of the American Watch Company.

We also caution the public, and particularly soldiers, against buying certain articles CALLED watches, so freely advertised in illustrated papers as "Army Watches," "Officers' Watches," "Magic Time Observers," "Arcana Watches," &c., the prices of which are stated to be from seven to sixteen dollars. A good watch, in these times, cannot be afforded for any such money.

A little attention from buyers will protect them from gross imposition.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS A GENERAL ASSISTANT OF NATURE.

What is health? What is disease? Health is when the supply and expenditure are equal. Disease when the supply and expenditure are unequal.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS impart certain expulsive powers to all matters in the body whose life is below the standard of the surrounding party, or which have remained longer than the time nature designed. So in nature and in all that class of cases which run into mortification BRANDRETH'S PILL have marvelous curative qualities. Our bodies are continually changing, and it is by this change we live. Should matter remain in organs beyond the time nature designed, pain and inflammation set in, which is nothing more than a preparatory effort for our good. All Brandreth's Pills are supposed from the results to do is simply

ASSISTING THESE EFFORTS OF NATURE.

THE CABINET ORGANS,
Manufactured by
MASON & HAMLIN, Boston,
For Families, Churches, and Schools.

PRICES:—$110, $130, $140, $160, and upward, according to the number of stops and style of case.

They are elegant as pieces of Furniture, occupy little space, are not liable to get out of order, and every one is warranted for five years.

They are recommended by TWO HUNDRED of the most distinguished

Musicians, Organists, and Artists

of America, as unquestionably FAR SUPERIOR to all other similar instruments. Among those who have given written testimonials to the superiority of THE CABINET ORGAN are such men and musicians as embrace a great part of the musical talent of the country.

It must be readily admitted that an instrument which receives the indorsements of such an array of the most competent musical judges, must possess most decided points of excellence and superiority; and a careful and candid inspection will satisfy any one for himself that such is the case.

All persons interested are invited to send for full description of these instruments, with styles and prices.

DEATH BY DROWNING.—On Monday afternoon a boat with two men in it, visited the Smith's Isles, and obtained some bait of the fishermen there. On Tuesday morning the boat was seen not far off, but on visiting her, one of the men was missing, and the dead body of the other was in the water, fast to the boat, his hands grasping the gunwale, and his feet entangled in a rope. On his stockings was the name "McDuffie;" in his pocket was a gold watch, and in the boat a nice telescope, and a pair of boots probably belonging to the other man. When on shore they gave the fishermen some liquor, and said, there is no such liquor in New Hampshire. They were no doubt amateur fishermen and boatmen. We shall know more about them shortly, but how they came to their death must be matter of conjecture. It is said the boat was on her beams ends when found. The boat, with the body, was towed into our harbor by some of the Gosport people, arriving Tuesday afternoon.

P. S.—Since the above was in type, we have received the following additional sad information from our City authorities, who took the body in charge:

The schooner Rebecca N. Atwood of Rockport, Capt. John Haskell, on Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock, discovered the boat adrift, three miles southeasterly of the Shoals. The boat was on her beam ends, and a man was hanging to the gunwale by his right arm. Capt. Haskell took the boat in tow and brought it to this city.

The body discovered was that of Mr. Freeman H. Whitehouse of Rochester, N. H., formerly the well-known beautiful ball-singer, and recently cashier of the Rochester Bank. He with Mr. George W. McDuffie of Rochester, (who is also undoubtedly drowned, but whose body was not found,) hired a sloop-boat of Mr. Ricker, and left this city on Monday morning. They were seen near the Shoals that evening, and were probably upset at 4 1-2 o'clock on Tuesday morning, as that was the hour Mr. Whitehouse's watch stopped—this, a gold one, being found in his pocket, and upwards of $62 in money.

Still later we learn that both bodies were attached to the boat when found—McDuffie hanging by one arm to the gunwale, and Whitehouse caught in the bight of the sheet, and dragging—but whether the sails were spread or not, we could not learn—and when the schooner drew alongside, the body of McD. was jarred off and sank. It is said McDuffie had been to sea and was a good boatman—and it is not improbable that their boat was run down by some vessels.

☞ We are sorry to learn that Mr. George Barzantee, a worthy young man residing in this city, was severely injured at the Navy Yard on Monday afternoon by falling a distance of thirty feet or more on board the iron-clad Passaconaway, striking upon his back, injuring him fatally, it is feared. At last accounts it was the opinion of the physicians in attendance that the unfortunate man could live but a short time.

☞ It will be seen that the New England Agricultural Fair, at Concord, will begin next Tuesday, and continue four days: and also that an Extra Train at half price on the C. & P. Railroad, is so arranged that people from this city can be in Concord from 9 in the morning till 6 in the evening.

ENGAGEMENT OF McKEAN BUCHANAN AND DAUGHTER.—By reference to our advertising columns it will be seen that McKean Buchanan, the celebrated tragedian, and his accomplished daughter, Miss Virginia Buchanan, have been engaged by Manager John C. Myers and, will make their debut here at the Temple this (Wednesday) evening. These artistes have been playing a most successful engagement at the Walnut Street Theatre, Philadelphia. We append the following notice from the Evening Bulletin:

Under the inspiration of McKean Buchanan and his accomplished daughter, "London Assurance" passed off last evening in a manner worthy of the brightest days of the drama. Mr. Buchanan's personation of Sir Harcourt Courtley was as fine a personation of that character as was ever witnessed in America. It was finished to the very last detail; not overstrained, but literally perfect. His voice, features, costume and manner were really inimitable, and a large audience enjoyed the entertainment most thoroughly. Miss Virginia Buchanan made a most favorable impression as Lady Gay Spanker, and the public will be pleased to see her in other parts.

ATTEMPT AT HIGHWAY ROBBERY.—One afternoon last week, a young man states he started from South Berwick with an ox team, for York. As he drove away from the hotel, he perceived two rough-looking men come out of the house and follow him. In the course of an hour they disappeared from his view; but while in the centre of York woods, they appeared again from the side of the road in front of the team, and came boldly up to it. The driver happened to have a revolver, which he drew, and warned them to keep their distance, or he would fire on them; and they quickly made a retreat into the bushes, leaving the teamster master of the field.

COM.

PEAT.—The project of using this article for fuel is being started in Massachusetts. A company is about being formed to manufacture peat, or rather to prepare it for use by what is technically termed combing. This process is being carried on in an extensive manner at Lexington, Mass., and large tracts of land have been purchased for this purpose. Some gentlemen of this city and vicinity propose to hold a meeting at the Mechanics Association Reading Room and Exchange on Thursday evening at 7 1-2 o'clock, when the subject will be explained by a gentleman conversant with the merits of the affair, and all interested are invited to be present without further invitation.

☞ Mr. Myers' large and talented Dramatic Company, and the Buchanans, (McKean and the charming Virginia) open for a short season, at the Temple to-night. Bill for this evening, "London Assurance," in which Mr. Buchanan and his beautiful daughter have favorite parts.

☞ We learn that Lt. Col. George F. Towle of this city, has recently received the appointment of Assistant Inspector General in the department of North Carolina.

POLICE COURT, Aug. 29th.—Charles Jones, for drunkenness, fined $3 and costs $3.86.

James Cantlin, for keeping his rum-shop open on Sunday, fined $10 and costs $3.86.

TO TEACHERS.—If you will not have your pupils suffer from Pain or Cramp in Stomach or Bowels, Dysentery, Diarrhea, &c., or be absent from school, keep a few bottles of BICKNELL'S SYRUP by you for their relief. It is simple, safe, sure and reliable.

☞ It will be seen that Mr. Joy will reopen his Juvenile Singing School next Saturday.

YOU CAN'T OPEN YOUR LIPS, Ladies, without revealing whether you use the Fragrant Sozodont, or not. No occasion for words. Your teeth and breath speak for you. The lustre and purity imparted to the dental machinery by that peerless fluid, and the fragrance it gives to the mouth, cannot be realized by the use of any other article accessible to the human family. 4

AGENTS WANTED
FOR
The Secret Service, the Field, the Dungeon, and the Escape.
BY ALBERT D. RICHARDSON,
N. Y. Tribune Correspondent.

70,000 Copies Sold in Sixty Days!

The most interesting and exciting book ever published, embracing Mr. Richardson's unparalleled experience four years. Travelling through the South in the secret service of the "Tribune" at the outbreak of the war; with our armies and fleets, both East and West, during the first two years of the rebellion; his thrilling capture; his confinement for twenty months in seven different Rebel prisons; his escape, and almost miraculous journey by night of nearly 400 miles. It will abound in stirring events, and contain more of the fact, incident and romance of the war, than any other work yet published. Horace Greeley says of it:

"A great many books will yet be written concerning this war, in addition to the many already in print; but not one of them will give, within a similar compass, a clearer, fuller, more readable account, entirely from personal observation, of the nature, animus, purposes, tendencies and instrumentalities of the slaveholders' Rebellion, than does the unpretending narrative of Mr. Richardson."

Teachers, ladies, energetic young men, and especially returned and disabled officers and soldiers, in want of profitable employment, will find it particularly adapted to their condition. Send for circulars. Address

STATE LAWS. June Session, 1865.

AN ACT relating to Liens.

Be it enacted, &c.

SECTION 1. That any person, having acquired alien upon any personal property by virtue of the common law or the provisions of the Statutes of this State, by reason of advances made, labor performed, pledge or otherwise, where there is no time limited in which such lien shall be paid and such pledge redeemed by the pledger, or general owner, may sell such property at public auction by posting up notices in two or more public places in the town where such property is situate, and by serving on such pledger or general owner, if he is a resident in the country where such property is situate, and in writing stating the amount of such lien, and the time and place of such sale, twenty days at least before such sale, and the balance of the proceeds of such sale, if any, after the payment of the amount of such lien or pledge, and the reasonable expense of such sale, shall be paid to such pledger or general owner, or any party entitled thereto, on demand, after ten days after said sale. And said holder of such lien shall cause a copy of such notice, and the affidavit of service, with an account of such sale, and the fees and charges thereon, to be recorded in the books of the town, where such sale is had, kept for the recording of personal mortgages; and a certified copy, by the town clerk of said town, of such record may be used in evidence in all cases where evidence of such sale is required.

SEC. 2. Any person having acquired a lien on any personal property in the manner provided in the first section of this act, where a day certain is designated when such lien shall be paid and discharged, and such pledge redeemed, may sell such property at public auction, at any time, on the failure of the pledgor or general owner to pay such lien or redeem such pledge on the day named, or within ten days thereafter, notice being given as is provided in said first section, and the proceeds of such sale in the same manner as is provided in said first section of this act.

SEC. 3. The preceding sections shall not authorize the pledgee to dispose of the pledge contrary to the terms of the contract under which it was pledged, nor the right to dispose of it in any other manner allowed by the contract or rules of law.

SEC. 4. The provisions of this act shall not apply to or affect the lien of mechanics acquired under the provisions of chapter 123 of the Revised Statutes, and chapters 1116 and 2594 of the Compiled Laws.

SEC. 5. This act shall take effect on and after its passage.

Approved June 30, 1865.

AN ACT to change the name of certain persons.

Be it enacted, &c.

SECTION 1. That Frank William Hoyt, of Portsmouth, may take the name of Frank William Rice; William Henry Harrison Cutt, of Sandbornton, may take the name of Henry Harrison Cutt; Lydia R. AN ACT to repeal chapter 2896 of the Pamphlet Laws.

Be it enacted, &c.

SECTION 1. That chapter 2896 of the Pamphlet Laws, entitled An act in addition to an act relating to the jurisdiction in criminal cases of justices of the peace residing in the several cities of this State, be and the same is hereby repealed.

Approved June 30, 1865.

AN ACT in amendment of an act entitled An act authorizing Union School District in Concord to elect a Board of Education, passed June session, 1859.

Be it enacted, &c.

SECTION 1. That any two or more contiguous school districts in the State, having formed a union of said districts under the Seventh Act, may, by major vote of the qualified voters of such union district, present and voting, at a meeting duly notified for the purpose, adopt the provisions of the act entitled An act authorizing Union School District in Concord to elect a Board of Education.

SEC. 2. Whenever said act shall be adopted as aforesaid, by any such union district in the manner aforesaid, such union district shall be entitled to all the privileges and benefits which were conferred or intended to be conferred upon the union school district in Concord by the act entitled as aforesaid.

SEC. 3. This act shall take effect upon the passage thereof.

Approved June 29, 1865.

AN ACT in addition to an act relating to the sale of town meeting-houses, approved June 23, 1858.

Be it enacted, &c.

SECTION 1. Whenever any meeting-house in this State, built by its pew-holders, shall have ceased to be used and occupied as a place of public worship, it shall be lawful for the pew-holders, by a three-fourths vote of those present and voting, at a meeting of the pew-holders notified as hereafter provided, to sell the same at public auction, and to appoint a committee to make such sale and execute a conveyance to the purchaser thereof.

SEC. 2. The meeting of the pew-holders, provided for by the first section of this act, may be called by any three or more of said pew-holders, by posting up three notices of said sale, signed by said pew-holders, in three public meeting-houses, and the other two at two of the most public places in the town in which said meeting-house is situated, at least thirty days before the day of said sale.

Approved June 29, 1865.

Joint Resolution ratifying an amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court convened:

That the following additional article, submitted by a joint resolution of the Congress of the United States, approved February 1, 1865, for the ratification of the Legislatures of the several States, namely:

"ARTICLE XIII.

SECTION 1. Neither slavery nor involuntary servitude, except as a punishment for crime whereof the party shall have been duly convicted, shall exist within the United States, or any place subject to their jurisdiction.

SEC. 2. Congress shall have power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation."

be and the same hereby is ratified and adopted by the Legislature of the State of New-Hampshire, as an amendment to and a part of the Constitution of the United States.

Approved July 1, 1865.

Joint Resolution to facilitate the collection of the bounties advanced by towns due from the United States Government.

Whereas, from December 1, 1863, to May 1, 1864, a large amount of United States bounties were advanced to volunteers and substitutes in the military service by towns and cities of New-Hampshire, under express stipulation of the United States Government that the same should be refunded by it to the said towns and cities; and

Whereas, at the present time the sum of a million and a half of dollars is so advanced, therefore—

Resolved, &c. That the Governor and Council may at any time appoint an agent, with full powers to examine and forward the claims of the same, if in their opinion, the public good requires.

Resolved, That if an agent shall be appointed as aforesaid, he shall be paid a reasonable compensation for his services, and the Governor is hereby authorized to draw his warrant on the treasury therefor.

Approved June 30, 1865.

Joint Resolution of respect to the memory of Hon. DAVID CULVER, of Lyme.

Resolved, &c. That we have received with profound regret the intelligence of the death of Hon. David Culver of Lyme, and that we tender to His Excellency, the Governor, and the remaining members of the Honorable Council, our sympathy for the loss they, in common with all good citizens, have sustained in the decease of one who for years was so intimately associated with the Executive Department of our State Government, and who, in all the relations of life, has entitled himself, by his best efforts and services, to the state, especially by his munificence in aid of education has demonstrated his devotion to the well being of society, and set an example worthy of imitation.

Resolved, That we tender to the family of the deceased, our cordial sympathy in their deep affliction by the death of him who, for so many years, has been their guide and support; commending them for their highest consolation to that Being to whom he was accustomed to look for wisdom and direction amidst the cares and responsibilities of life.

Resolved, That the Secretary of State be requested to present to Mrs. Culver, widow of the deceased, a copy of these resolutions, under the seal of the State.

Coal at Cost.

The Eagle Hill Mutual Coal Company.

The subscriber has succeeded in obtaining a limited number of shares in this popular Company, which has proved such a success in Boston and vicinity, for the purpose of enabling the citizens of Portsmouth to obtain their coal at a saving of three or four dollars per ton. COAL AT COST.

EAGLE HILL MUTUAL COAL COMPANY.

This Company is organized on the mutual plan, the same in principle as the Insurance Companies, and has none of the features of the speculative movements of the day. Its officers are among the solid men of Boston, and are known as gentlemen of integrity, and have never been associated with any of the speculative operations of the times.

The Colliery is one of the best and most extensive in the coal region, produces a coal far superior to any used in this market, and from its advantages can sell cheaper than most others. It has been operation upwards of two years, has more than 4000 stockholders, has delivered coal at a saving of $3 to $4 per ton from regular market prices, and has paid cash dividends of 7 per cent.

Any one who will take the trouble to investigate the facts, will see at once that the croakings of coal monopolists have no application to this company, and that it is as safe and sure as any railroad or bank stock in the market.

QUICK CURES AND LOW PRICES.

Over Twenty Thousand Patients Cured Annually!

DR. J. TELLER continues to be confidentially and successfully consulted on all forms of private diseases, at his old Established Hospital, No. 5 Beaver Street, Albany, N. Y. Twenty years devoted to one branch of the medical profession, enables him to perform cures such as no other Physician can, and his facilities are such (being in correspondence with the most eminent Physicians of the World,) of obtaining the safest and most approved remedies for these diseases, offer inducements to the unfortunate of a quick and rapid cure, to be obtained at no other office in America.

In Syphilis, Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Stricture, Enlargement of the Testicles and Spermatic Cords, Bubo, Ulcerated Throat, Sore Nose, Tender Shin Bones, Cutaneous Eruptions, Biles, Pimples, Abscesses, and all other impurities of the system, are perfectly under the control of the Doctor's Medicines, and have been cured in more than 20,000 cases annually, with immense Success.

YOUNG MEN.

Young Men addicted to secret habits, who have impaired their healths and destroyed the vigor of their minds, thus depriving themselves of the pleasure of the Married Life, are notified that in consulting Dr. J. Teller they will find no mere consoler and a Physician who has cured thousands, in almost every part of the United States, who applied to him, have broken down in health, now rejoice in all that makes life desirable and man happy. The reader is of course aware that the delicacy of this subject will prevent a more minute description of this terrible disease.

DR. TELLER'S GREAT WORK.

A book for everybody.—Startling disclosures. Dr. J. Teller's great work for the Married or those contemplating marriage—200 pages—full of plates—price 25 cts. Sent to all parts, under seal, by mail, post paid, 50,000 copies sold the past year. The single Married and the Married Happy. A lecture on Love, or how to choose a Partner—a complete work on Matrimony, containing hundreds of secrets, never before published.—Warranted to be worth three times the amount asked for it. Sent in sealed letters, postage stamps inclosed, will secure a copy by return mail. Dr. TELLER has devoted a lifetime to the cure of those diseases, and in his books treat.

TO THE LADIES.

Dr. TELLER still remains the only Agency in America, for the sale of Dr. Nichol's Italian Female Monthly Pills. This alone, after years of 1000 boxes establishes their reputation as a female remedy, unapproached, and far in advance of every other medicine, for suppressed, irregularities, and other obstructions in females.

CAUTION.—Married ladies in certain delicate situations should avoid these Pills. For particulars see directions which accompany each package, for the guidance of patients. On the receipt of $1, the price per box, these Pills will be sent, by mail or express, to any part of the world, secure from curiosity or damage.

Office Hours from 9 A. M. to 8 P. M., and on Sundays from 2 to 5 P. M.

N. B.—Persons at a distance can be cured at home by following the advice of Dr. Teller, on disclosing a remittance. Medicines securely packed from observation, sent to any part of the world. All cases warranted. Fee for advice—1.

N. B.—No students or boys employed. Notice this, address all letters to

Important to the Afflicted.

DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, Nos. 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, BOSTON, on all diseases of a PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE. By a long course of study and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. D. has now the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that have never, since he first introduced them, failed to cure the most alarming cases of GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS—Dr. Dow devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of these cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for business or society. Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.—Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving descriptions of your cases. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Capotiles, warranted the best preventive. Order by mail. Three for $1 and a red stamp.

Highly Important to Females

IN DELICATE HEALTH.

Dr. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No. 7 Endicott Street, Boston, is consulted daily for all disease incident to the female system. Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience in the cure of diseases of women than any other physician in Boston. Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment. Dr. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to an office practice for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United States.

N. B.—All letters must contain one dollar, or they will not be answered. Office hours from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M.

THE MAGEE

COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber would especially call the attention of the public to the

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water: also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of a kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We invite all those in want of the very best Stove in the market, to examine the

MAGEE COOK.

Also on hand an assortment of the different sizes

—of the—

MAGEE PARLOR STOVE

with and without ovens, which are to our well known to need any recommendation.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"

VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING

FURNACES.

The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The considerable gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal, They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert E. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

Or Cleaning Gold, Silver, Silver Plated, Brittania, Brass, Tin, Steel, Iron, Copper, Glass, or Metal of all kinds. For the purpose intended this article cannot be beat. Twenty-five cents invested in a package of this, will add more to the look of a house than one hundred dollars spent in new wares. Every article of any kind of metal about the house can be kept to look like new. How much pleasanter all are when everything looks bright and clean, which causes a smile upon the faces of all. The labor of keeping every article of metal polished with the Spanish Rouge is reduced to a mere pastime or sport. It removes the tarnish at the brush of the hand. It is a mineral without any composition whatever, therefore can do no harm.

Put up in three different qualities, for the finest Gold to the coarsest Metals.

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Examiner of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.
76 State street, opposite Kilby street,
Boston.
After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can give, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.
The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.
These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessary of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.
"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.
Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications for patents, on which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability in his profession, I can recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."
JOHN TAGGART
During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications for LETTERS APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.
R. H. EDDY.

THURSDAY, AUGUST 31, 1865.

WASHINGTON ITEMS.—General Swayne telegraphs from Georgia for a large military force to suppress attacks on freedmen in that State, and abuse of loyal white women.

The Boston Herald's dispatch says: "It is erroneously published here that the President has pardoned his old colleague, Ex-Senator Nicholson, and also the ex-rebel Gen. Pillow. The report is entirely a mistake."

The creation of a new Executive Pardon Bureau has been, after consultation on the subject, abandoned until Congress can take action in the matter.

The counsel of Wirz say they will summon at least 150 witnesses. If so, those with the witnesses called for the prosecution, will make 300 in all to be examined, probably extending the trial three months.

THE WIRZ TRIAL, on Tuesday, Aug. 29,—was attended by a large audience. Baker and Schade, the prisoner's counsel, who withdrew from the case Monday, came back at the informal request of the Military Commission and the earnest solicitation of the accused.

Martin E. Hogan testified that he had been in the prison at Andersonville. For attempting to escape, he was, after the most obscene abuse from Wirz, fastened by the neck and feet, and remained so 68 hours. Heard Wirz give orders that he should not have food, but he did obtain food from paroled comrades, who stole it for him. He had seen three of his comrades put in the stocks. Saw Wirz throw a man down because, worn by disease, he could not walk faster, and stamp on him; he died shortly afterward.

SOUTH CAROLINA.—The N. Y. Herald's Charleston correspondence of the 26th says large stocks of cotton have recently come in from the interior, and the city has experienced a very encouraging business revival. The planters are loud in their complaints of the colored people deserting their plantations, saying they cannot be induced to work except under compulsion by the military. In consequence of this desertion, they say the cotton and corn crops of the State will give but little more than half an ordinary yield.

It is estimated that the property in the State, valued in 1860 at 400 millions, has been reduced to 50 millions.

All of Gov. Perry's appointments, with one or two exceptions, are found to be ineligible, in consequence of having held office under Davis's rule. Mr. Leitch, the Surveyor of the port of Charleston, refused to take the oath, and his case has been referred to Washington.

BIG SWINDLE.—The Tribune's despatch says an outrageous swindle upon the government and soldiers by paymasters, has been discovered. Col. Binney, paymaster in charge at Norfolk, in violation of instructions, took $8,000,000 in Treasury checks to Norfolk, had them cashed there, and took in exchange 7-30s, by an arrangement with the National Bank at Norfolk, whose President is a notorious secessionist. Binney received one-half the per centage allowed by Jay Cooke & Co. for the circulation of the 7-30s. The National Banks at Norfolk and Richmond gained largely by the transaction, as the Bonds paid to the soldiers came back to their counters to be exchanged for legal tenders at from 1-2 to 1 per cent. discount. Merchants and sutlers followed suit, and the soldiers could not buy the smallest article with his 7-30s, unless he submitted to this infamous swindle. All the paymasters engaged in the swindle are under arrest, and will be severely punished.

The Herald's Washington despatch says it is not known certain that the Government will lose anything by the late Treasury defalcation. Nearly $1,200,000 were involved, but the chances are, the Government will get it all back.

THE "OPPOSITION" PARTY IN IOWA have dropped the name of Democrats, and adopted that of anti-negro-suffragists. The State convention of the party was to have been held on Tuesday last. Fitz John Porter was a delegate. On Wednesday a convention met at Des Moines, called by the managers of the once-called Democratic organization, for the purpose of entrapping the soldiers into the support of the nominees to be selected on the following day. Quite a large number of soldiers attended, and were so disgusted with the proceedings that they withdrew from the convocation, organized another, and passed resolutions denouncing the Copperheads of Iowa, asserting that they never would affiliate with them, and declaring their purpose to support the Republican State candidates, holding the question of negro suffrage in abeyance. The course of the opponents of the Republicans during the war against the rebels, will be the potent argument against giving them political power for years to come.

EXTRAORDINARY DECISION OF A NEGRO MEETING.—The Mobile Advertiser of the 16th instant makes the following extraordinary announcement, on the authority of a citizen who was present at a meeting of negroes on the previous Sunday, near that city:

"Nine hundred of them assembled to consider their condition, their rights and duties under the new state of existence upon which they have been so suddenly launched. Our informant was surprised at the hard, practical sense and moderation of tone with which the spokesmen of the meeting urged their views. After long talk and careful deliberation, this meeting resolved by a vote of seven hundred voices to two hundred, that they had made a practical trial for three months of the freedom which the war has bequeathed to them; that its realities were far from being so flattering as their imagination had painted it; that they had discovered that the prejudices of color were by no means confined to the people of the South; but on the contrary, that it was stronger and more marked against them in the strangers from the North, than in the home people of the South, among whom they had been reared; that negroes, no more than white men, could live without homes; that their Northern deliverers from bondage had not, as they had expected and been taught to expect, undertaken to provide for their happy existence in their new state of freedom, and that their old masters had ceased to take any interest in them or have a care for them; and finally, that their last state was worse than the first; and it was their deliberate conclusion that their true happiness and well-being required them to return to the homes which they had abandoned in a moment of excitement, and go to work again under their old masters. And so the resolutions were passed, and at last accounts the wanderers were packing up their little stock of movable goods, preparatory to the execution of their sensible purposes."

We give the above as we find it; and when we get the rest of the story, or the other side of it,—perhaps we may give that also. What we give above, seems like a tale, told to serve a turn.

NOT A BAD COUNTRY.—A New York correspondent of the Providence Journal, in giving a sketch of three weeks' summer touring, says:

I travelled some eleven hundred miles, extending through the States of Connecticut, Rhode Island, Massachusetts, Maine, New Hampshire and Vermont; and during that entire route I did not see or hear of one drunken, intemperate or disorderly person. Nor did I hear, throughout the entire route, a profane word or a word that bordered on obscenity. I do not doubt that there are to be found there drunken and disorderly persons; but it so happened that I did not come across them; and the remark I now make was frequently made by the goodly company with which we by chance associated. Everywhere there was to be seen thrift, industry, independence, cheerfulness, health and happiness. Intelligence marked the brow and countenance of every individual, and, though there are undoubtedly boors and clowns in New England, they certainly kept themselves housed while we were in the land of frugality, hospitality and plenty.

No doubt there is some truth in this,—but it is too highly rose-colored to be a true picture of our condition.

PROF. ALPHEUS CROSBY'S ADDRESS before the Phi Beta Kappa of Dartmouth College is one of the ablest and most statesmanlike views of Re-construction we have seen. We read it in the Commonwealth, and had just remarked that it ought to be issued in pamphlet form, when we saw it stated that an edition of 20,000 will soon be ready for circulation. Copies of it should be sent to the President, Cabinet, Senators, and Representatives, Governors of States, &c. Judge Upham has also issued an essay on the same subject, giving his views, which are entitled to great consideration.

— George W. Brega, formerly of the Washington congressional lobby, was arrested in Montreal and committed to jail, for obtaining money by fraud and forgery from Hon. Malcolm Cameron and others. The forged drafts were on Wall street, and indorsed by Cameron and others, and their face afterward changed to large amounts.

— The coroner's inquest in the matter of the Long Island railroad collision is going on at Jamaica. The testimony is somewhat conflicting, but most of it is to the effect that the collision is entirely owing to the inexcusable neglect and carelessness of the railroad employees.

☞ There is another report from Washington, that "The trial of Jefferson Davis will take place before a United States Circuit Court, but what particular one has not yet been designated."

— Slate, copper ore, plumbago and silk, according to reports, are now to be included in the productions of New England. The silk is said to be extremely plentiful and produced by a common caterpillar which has been looked on a pest. It feeds on the leaves of the common scrub oak.

— Champ Ferguson is sinking rapidly. He is now so weak that he cannot walk to the court from the prison, and has to be conveyed in a hack. He still keeps up his indomitable spirit and iron nerve, and cherishes hopes of getting clear.

— It is thought that the Pope will not deem it necessary now to issue any "bull" against the Atlantic Telegraph Cable, since it is already in a state of ex-communication.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— The Daily Copperhead is in agonies over the impending ruin of the negroes by the abolition of slavery—and pleads for the rebels and traitors with much zeal, but little knowledge, and less faith.

—— Geo. C. Williams the absconding cashier of the White Mountain Bank, Lancaster, is in Cuba; he talks of coming home, and of adjusting the affairs of the bank.

—— In Manchester, Tuesday, two boys, for stealing pears from a garden, and damaging the trees, were fined $3 each, 3 64 cost, and paid $4 for pears worth $2.

—— The Postmaster General has appointed Walter H. Bean of Warner, Route Agent between Bradford and Lawrence, vice Tappan resigned. Cyrus T. Lane of Candia, has also been appointed Route Agent between Concord and Portsmouth, in place of Wm. Conn.

—— At the Convention of Wool Growers to be held at Concord, on Thursday evening, Sep. 7, the Hon. George B. Loring, Hon. Daniel Needham, Hon. Hampden Cutts, Dr. Henry Boynton and other gentlemen are expected to take part in the discussions.

—— The Fourth Regiment, N. H. V., Lt. Col. Parker, arrived at Manchester on Wednesday, were handsomely received there, and passed on to Concord in the afternoon.

THE SEASON.—Crops in Vermont are very promising, except apples, which are few, though perhaps enough for home use. The potato and corn crops are excellent.

An apple fever is raging throughout the northern counties of New York, speculators making contracts at the rate of $4 to $4 50 per barrel; and in their eagerness to buy, some of them are purchasing orchards in the lump.

The grape blight throughout Pennsylvania is severe. In some sections the fruit is rotting by the ton.

Crops in Minnesota were less injured than interested parties represented. There will be an abundant yield of all kinds of grain.

Crops of all kinds are much above the average in the northern counties of Wisconsin.

LONDON ITEMS.—Captain Anderson of the Great Eastern, in a letter says it will require ten months to provide proper gear for lifting the Atlantic cable, and to make the necessary repairs to the Great Eastern. He suggested that the new cable should be made and laid in May next, and the old one then picked up and repaired. He has every confidence in the future success of the cable; but thinks it useless to renew the attempt to lay it during the winter months.

The Suez canal was opened on the 17th inst., and a vessel laden with coal passed from the Mediterranean to the Red Sea.

FOOLISH.—Deputy Sheriff Benjamin L. Howe of Groton, as we learn from the Lawrence American, was seriously beaten and shot in his arm at Lawrence on Monday by a party of roughs. He was taking a prisoner named Jack Reynolds to the cars, and imprudently entered a drinking saloon with him to allow him to get a drink, when the fellow turned upon him and knocked him down. Several other ruffians then kicked and beat him savagely, and one of them shot him in the arm, the ball entering the hand and passing up through to the elbow. He grasped the pistol so firmly that he was raised to his feet in the attempt to extricate it, when the gang fled, Reynolds having previously made off. One of his supposed assailants was subsequently arrested.

The prisoner and his party were murderous cowards. And a sheriff, who would go into such a den for such a purpose, richly deserves to be shot.

☞ An exchange speaks of Catholic priests as men "who having nothing to do with the cares of State, devote themselves to religion."—This in theory may have some truth in it;—but in fact a great many of the priests are the busiest and most crafty politicians, not only in our own country but in all lands,—and the politics of Europe have felt their influence for centuries. Nay, the supremacy of the Pope has been the turning point of more than one European revolution.

☞ A correspondent of the Maine Democrat says that the father of Jeff. Davis was born in Maine, and went South when he had nearly arrived at manhood. He was not afterward heard from until Jeff. Davis visited Maine some years ago, when he stated in conversation with a friend that his father was born in Buxton, and had arrived in Mississippi a poor boy. The writer says Davis' parents were not married.

— A few days since, near Prescott, C. W., a cow attempted to butt a railway train off the track, and succeeded. The locomotive and all the cars were thrown off, and some of them, with the engine, fell down the embankment. There was plenty of beef after the collision, but not much cow.

— The London papers tell of a "medium" who holds seances in Fleet street, and, on account of the noisy traffic in that mighty thoroughfare, commences proceedings with the solemn adjuration, "Sperrits is requested to rap up loud, 'cos o' the 'buses."

☞ We have received from Rev. Massena Goodrich of Pawtucket, R. I., a copy of his Address at the Centennial Celebration of that town's corporate existence,—and of the other exercises of the celebration. The address is a valuable and interesting addition to the history of Rhode Island and Providence plantations: embracing many facts bearing on the early history of New England, such as the introduction and improvement of iron, cotton, and other manufactures: and other facts touching the steamboats, the varied industry, the politics, and the religion of the town and State immediately referred to.

☞ It appears on good authority that the reinforcement of the French army in Mexico, recently arrived, numbers only about 850 men. It is thought strange that the Emperor of France should publicly declare that order and civilization are progressing in Mexico, and at the same time feel constrained to send more troops to that country; and the people there consider it equally remarkable that we in the United States, who have so recently expended millions of dollars and sacrificed thousands of lives in order to maintain a humanitarian principle, should remain impassive spectators of the slaughter committed in a sister republic upon the supporters of institutions similar to our own.

☞ A coppery exchange says:

The elections in Kentucky and Tennessee show that the vital principle of Democracy still animates the conservative men of the South, and that they are ready to strike hands with the Democrats of the North in the effort to crush out the Abolition party.

Exactly:—the rebel of the south, is ready to strike hands with the traitor of the north. Nobody need to doubt it.

— Extra Billy Smith is living in quiet retirement on his farm near Warrenton, Va. He was asked a few days ago by a visitor whether he had yet applied for pardon. "Applied for pardon!" indignantly exclaimed Billy—"No; and I'll be d——d if I ever apply for pardon to a traitor!"

— Two Northern men, who had opened a trade store near Tuskeegee, Macon Co., Ala., detected a negro in stealing something from their stock. They tied him up and whipped him all night with such severity that he died soon after being released next morning. The traders afterward fled to Cuba.

— Advices from Cape Haytien show the rebels gaining an advantage, by taking a fort; and Pres. Geffrard's army weakening.

— The President, by proclamation, has removed all restrictions on trade with the South.

CAUTION FROM THE AMERICAN WATCH CO'Y.

It having come to our knowledge that imitations of the American Watch have been put upon the market in great number, calculated by their utter worthlessness to injure the reputation of our genuine products, to protect our own interests and the public from imposition; we again publish the trade marks by which our Watches may invariably be known.

We manufacture four styles of Watches.

The FIRST has the name
"AMERICAN WATCH CO., Waltham, Mass.," engraved on the inside plate.

The SECOND has the name
"APPLETON, TRACY & CO., Waltham, Mass.," engraved on the inside plate.

The THIRD has the name
"P. S. BARTLETT, Waltham, Mass.," engraved on the inside plate.

All the above styles have the name American Watch Co. painted on the dial, and are warranted in every respect.

The FOURTH has the name "WM. ELLERY, Boston, Mass.," engraved on the inside plate, and is not named on the dial.

All the above described Watches are made of various sizes, and are sold in gold or silver cases as may be required.

It is hardly possible for us to accurately describe the numerous imitations to which we have alluded. They are usually inscribed with names so near approaching our own as to escape the observation of the unaccustomed buyer. Some are represented as made by the "Union Watch Co., of Boston, Mass.,"—no such company existing. Some are named the "Soldier's Watch," to be sold as our Fourth or Wm Ellery style, usually known as the "Soldier's Watch." Others are named the "Appleton Watch Co.;" others "P. S. BARTLEY," instead of our P. S. Bartlett; besides many varieties named in such a manner as to convey the idea that they are the veritable productions of the American Watch Company.

We also caution the public, and particularly soldiers, against buying certain articles CALLED watches, so freely advertised in illustrated papers as "Army Watches," "Officers' Watches," "Magic Time Observers," "Arcana Watches," &c., the prices of which are stated to be from seven to sixteen dollars. A good watch, in these times, cannot be afforded for any such money.

A little attention from buyers will protect them from gross imposition.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS A GENERAL ASSISTANT OF NATURE.

What is health? What is disease?

Health is when the supply and expenditure are equal. Disease when the supply and expenditure are unequal.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS impart certain expulsive powers to all matters in the body whose life is below the standard of the surrounding party, or which have remained longer than the time nature designed. So in fevers and in all that class of cases which run into mortification BRANDRETH'S PILL have marvellous curative qualities. Our bodies are continually changing, and it is by this change we live. Should matter remain in organs beyond the time nature designed, pain and inflammation set in, which is nothing more than a preparatory effort for our good. All Brandreth's Pills are supposed from the results to do is simply

ASSISTING THESE EFFORTS OF NATURE.

THE CABINET ORGANS.
Manufactured by
MASON & HAMLIN, Boston,
For Families, Churches, and Schools.

PRICES:—$110, $130, $140, $160, and upward, according to the number of stops and style of case.

They are elegant as pieces of Furniture, occupy little space, are not liable to get out of order, and every one is warranted for five years.

They are recommended by TWO HUNDRED of the most distinguished

Musicians, Organists, and Artists

of America, as unquestionably FAR SUPERIOR to all other similar instruments. Among those who have given written testimonials to the superiority of THE CABINET ORGAN are such men and musicians as embrace a great part of the musical talent of the country.

It must be readily admitted that an instrument which receives the indorsements of such an array of the most competent musical judges, must possess some decided points of excellence and superiority; and a careful and candid inspection will satisfy any one for himself that such is the case.

All persons interested are invited to send for full description of these instruments, with styles and prices.

We have put up and sold this article for over 30 years, and can say in confidence and truth of it what we have never been able to say of any other medicine—never has it failed in a single instance to effect a cure, when timely used. Never did we know an instance of dissatisfaction by any one who used it. On the contrary, all are delighted with its operations, and speak in terms of commendation of its magical effects and medicinal virtues. We speak in this matter of "what we do know," after 30 years experience; and pledge our reputation for the fulfilment of what we here declare. In almost every instance where the inf nt is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the syrup is administered.

Full directions for using will accompany each bottle. None genuine unless the fac-simile of CURTIS & PERKINS, New York, is on the outside wrapper.

Sold by all Druggists throughout the world.

Durno's Celebrated Catarrh Snuff is the best known remedy for Headache, Cold in the Head, Snuffles, Imperfect Voice, Bronchitis, and Catarrh. Few persons appreciate the diseases arising from disordered nasal organs. Sight, hearing, taste, and smell are frequently ruined by a cold in the head. The gas generated by the use of this snuff cleanses the entire head, and restores proper articulation. Its effects are pleasant and wonderful. It contains no tobacco nor other injurious ingredient. Colleges, Societies, States, and the most eminent of the Medical Faculty have awarded it testimonials and premiums.

Sold by all Druggists for 25 cents per box. Can be sent by mail on receipt of 30 cents for one box, or $1 for four boxes. Address JAS. DURNO, P. O. Box 1255, New York City.

To Die in a Bad Cause

as those who fell in the rebel ranks undoubtedly did, is foolish. But on the other hand

Dyeing for a Good Cause, as those who are wise and prudent enough to remedy the defects of nature with

CRISTADORO'S HAIR DYE

are doing every day, in every City of the Union, is eminently praiseworthy. This peaceful revolution is going on throughout the whole land, and thus beauty and harmony supplant homeliness and incongruity. Manufactured by J. CRISTADORO, No. 6 Astor House, New York. Sold by Druggists. Applied by all Hair Dressers. je29

Local.

☞ Very many articles "Lost," are recovered to the owners through the medium (not spiritual exactly) of this Chronicle. Most of the garments, trinkets, &c., advertised are returned; and many sums of money also,—though sometimes the ready rhino proves too strong temptation for the weak-minded finder. And among others who use our counting-room for this sort of an "Intelligence Office," were both the finder and loser of a purse of $1500, a few days ago—which was restored to the owner without publishing at all.

First a poor, laboring man, returning from work on a "gundelow," brought into our counting-room a lady's small-sized reticule, which he saw drop from a chaise as it was driven furiously across Portsmouth bridge, and which he thought was a shoe thrown by the horse; and when he came up to it, the carriage was far away. Then, ere long comes in upon us, a young man who says his mother dropped the money from the carriage, as they were hastening over the bridge, toward York, to escape the cars; and he first tells us the amount of the treasure, $1500 in 7-30s.

Meantime, the "poor but honest" finder, (why don't anybody ever say "rich but honest?" asks Josh Billings,) who lives down at New Castle, has gone out to see if he can find a friend with whom to leave the money till called for,—and we will warrant him plenty of "friends" so long as the money lasts. And as he has not left his address with us, our hurried young friend and the nice old lady must wait a little—which they were quite content to do until next morning, by which time we were happy to be in possession of information to restore the lost "Governments." And to the loser's inquiry how much reward we thought he had better proffer the honest but poor finder, we answered that we deemed a hundred dollars about the fair thing—which we are pleased to say our gondola friend bagged on the occasion, for his honesty.

THEATRE.—A fine and fashionable audience assembled at the Temple last evening to witness the debut of McKean Buchanan and his daughter. The piece selected was Bourricault's sparkling comedy of "London Assurance," and it is but justice to say that the rendition of the principal characters was perfection. The idiosyncrasies of Sir Harcourt were depicted to the life by Mr. Buchanan, and the rattling "Lady Gay" found a fit exponent in Miss Virginia, who is a very charming and attractive young lady. The repeated applause of the audience gave ample testimony of their satisfaction. Were always such first-class entertainments given here, we should be glad. Miss Flora Myers showed rapid improvement since her last visit, and as Grace Harkaway was quite bewitching. Miss Nellie Leslie was piquant and lively as Pert, and looked pretty as need be. Of the gentlemen, all were above the average, Messrs. Pope, Leslie and Cramer especially. To-night Shakespere's grand tragedy of "Macbeth" is announced, and the promise would seem to be for a full house to witness it, as it will be well worth seeing by all who appreciate tragedy. COM.

☞ The performances of the Gomersals, and Mr. Lowell's Dramatic Company generally, on Tuesday evening, gave great satisfaction to the rather small audience present—though it is entirely beyond our comprehension, why the very people who are always growling that "we never have any entertainments in Portsmouth worth attending," don't go to see such first-class performances as this, which fill all the great houses in the large cities.

The "Child of the Regiment" was well put on the stage, and very creditably presented in all its parts—but though Mrs. Gomersal is a charming little actress, and a beautiful singer, and did very finely, we don't think she makes quite so good a "Daughter" as Sallie Holman did. Mr. Gomersal is a rollicking side-splitter, and dyspepsia can't live where he is, sure. The other parts were all sustained, including the neat, clean, crisp piano player. The force of Mr. & Mrs. White, though a little broad, is one of the best things of the sort, and full of sport for the fun-lovers.

☞ The Excursion in the good little steamer Pioneer, this evening, is for the "benefit" of Capt. Amazeen, who has certainly done all he could to promote the comfort of his passengers this season—and we hope this opportunity for his friends to evince their interest in his success, will prove to him a benefit indeed. These moonlight excursions afford a good deal of pleasure for a very little expense. If the weather is unfavorable, the trip will of course be postponed.

☞ Those who are interested in the fuel question, (and what man in this climate, and in these times, is not?) should bear in mind the Meeting which is to be held at the new Exchange this (Thursday) evening, at half-past 7, for the discussion of the matter, to attend which all are invited.

☞ The steamer Tioga arrived at the Navy Yard on Wednesday, having just returned from a two months' cruise on the coast of Maine.

☞ We have but few more details of the sad drowning accident at the Shoals, Monday night. Mr. E. Freeman Whitehouse and Mr. Geo. W. McDuffie, as is well known, were members of the most wealthy and influential families in Rochester; and their sudden and terrible death must fall with great severity on all connected, especially to the young wife of Mr. Whitehouse. We do not know whether Mr. McD. was married or not. On receipt of the fatal news in this city, Tuesday afternoon, Mayor Bailey (who is related to the parties) immediately took the cars to visit the family at Gonic, and convey the sad information; and a suitable coffin was at once procured here, and poor "Free's" body properly prepared for burial. A member of Mr. Whitehouse's family drove to this city, with Mayor Bailey, during Tuesday night,—and the body was conveyed home in the cars on Wednesday.

The young men who are lost were accompanied hither a day or two previously by the father, Hon. N. V. Whitehouse, and several others of the family, and remained here "to have a good time," while the elder Mr. W. and the ladies returned home. Respecting the circumstances of the accident, we learn that the sails of the boat were spread when found; and it is the opinion of the Shoalers that the little craft struck on some reef, and rolled over and partially filled, and afterwards went clear,—though as she is said to have been but about a third full, it seems singular why the young men should both have been out of her. They were last seen at Gosport, just as evening was coming on, and soon left there, seaward, and were found next morning as before described. Truly their end was a sad one indeed.

☞ We learn that the Rev. Mr. Canovan of the Catholic church in this city, contemplates leaving his charge, and accordingly a petition is in circulation requesting the Bishop of the diocese of Portland that he may be retained. It has received the signatures of many of his parish.

AGENTS WANTED
FOR
The Secret Service, the Field, the Dungeon, and the Escape.
BY ALBERT D. RICHARDSON,
N. Y. Tribune Correspondent.

70,000 Copies Sold in Sixty Days!

The most interesting and exciting book ever published, embracing Mr. Richardson's unparalleled experience for four years. Travelling thro' the South in the secret service of the "Tribune" at the outbreak of the war; with our armies and fleets, both East and West, during the first two years of the rebellion; his thrilling capture; his confinement for twenty months in seven different Rebel prisons; his escape, and almost miraculous journey by night of nearly 400 miles. It will abound in stirring events, and contain more of the fact, incident and romance of the war, than any other work yet published. Horace Greeley says of it:

"A great many books will yet be written concerning this war, in addition to the many already in print; but not one of them will give, within a similar compass, a clearer, fuller, more readable account, entirely from personal observation, of the motives, purposes, tendencies and instrumentalities of the slaveholders' Rebellion, than does the unpretending narrative of Mr. Richardson."

Teachers, ladies, energetic young men, and especially returned and disabled officers and soldiers, in want of profitable employment, will find it particularly adapted to their condition. Send for circulars. Address

Morning Chronicle.

SHEEP in the United States have largely increased in number since 1862: and a recent report says the rebellion has given sheep husbandry a higher prosperity than the protective high tariff gave it in former years.—This is probably true in part—but it might be added, that it was a paying business under the high tariff—but when the Calhoun interest prevailed, it was ruined at once.—When the tariff was adjusted to conciliate the nullifiers, a Vermont Representative in Congress said,—"You will put a knife to the throats of the sheep, if you pass this bill."—The bill did pass:—and in less than a year from the time of its going into effect, the writer of this article bought 12 choice sheep, selected out of one thousand, for $3 each. The number of sheep kept, rapidly declined in New England, till the rebellion broke out, and wool became scarce and dear. Since then, Mutton and Lamb have been scarce and dear.—The keeping of Sheep deserves encouragement, for the sake of food, clothing, and improvement of pastures.

HOW ILLINOIS DERIVED ITS NAME.—A Chicago paper says that an exploring party of Frenchmen, in sailing down the Illinois river, found at its confluence with the Mississippi an island thickly wooded with black-walnut. As it was the season when the nuts were ripe, they enjoyed the fruit, and called the island from it, "Isle aux nois," or isle of nuts, which name was also given to the river they had explored, and afterward to the territory and State. The rapid pronunciation of the French name has led to the present name, Illinois.

CHINA.—The latest advices from China are to June 22. A new rebellion is spreading rapidly, and the rebels have advanced within 100 miles of Pekin, where they occupy a strong position. The authorities of Pekin have applied for British military officers to come to their relief.

Col. Burgevine is in the custody of the Mandarins, who refuse to give him up at the demand of the American Consul.

A PEOPLE NOT TO BE DESTROYED.—Rev. Dr. Livingstone, the distinguished missionary, says, "With respect to the African, neither drink, nor disease, nor slavery can root him out of the world. I never had any idea of the prodigious destruction of human life that takes place subsequently to the slave-hunting, till I saw it; and as this has gone on for centuries, it gives a wonderful idea of the vitality of the nation."

— In Burrillville, R. I., on the 20th inst., Nelson Paine, a young man of 18 years, but two weeks home from the army, while carelessly using his gun, shot himself through the head and died instantly. He was resting his chin upon the muzzle of his gun, and touching the hammer with his foot, the contents were soon lodged in his brain.

— The income hats have just been published in St. Louis, and the pork packers take the lead—one of them heads the list with $400,000; two others follow with $299,400 each; a fourth comes in with $176,000, and so on scaling downward to the lowest, which is $28,000.

— A Confederate soldier who had fought fairly and squarely throughout the late war, when he was startled with the intelligence of the surrender of the three armies of Lee, Johnston and Taylor, woke up to a "realizing sense" of the stupendousness of the failure. His surprise broke forth in the exclamation, "D—n the thing, it didn't even flicker, but went right out."

— Thirteen bodies, five of them white, have been recovered from the wrecked cars on Richmond Creek, near Reynolds Station, Tenn. One of the cars is underneath the other in the bed of the Creek, and has not yet been reached. It is said that it contained 20 negro soldiers, who have of course perished.

— In Paris, the increase of lunacy has for some time kept pace exactly with the increase of the tobacco revenue. A member of the Academy of Science says, "The immoderate use of tobacco, more especially of the pipe, produces a weakness in the brain and in the spinal marrow, which causes madness."

— O. M. Shaw of Bangor, owner of the horse Gen. McClellan, challenges Mr. Lang, owner of Gen. Knox, to a trot for a purse of $1000, at the Fair to be holden Sept. 20th and 21st.

Coal at Cost.
The Eagle Hill Mutual Coal Company.
The subscriber has succeeded in obtaining a limited number of shares in this popular Company, which has proved such a success in Boston and vicinity, for the purpose of enabling the citizens of Portsmouth to obtain their coal at a saving of three or four dollars per ton. Full information will be given and a small amount of stock furnished on application to
JOHN S. HARVEY.

COAL AT COST.
EAGLE HILL MUTUAL COAL COMPANY.
This Company is organized on the mutual plan, the same in principle as the Insurance Companies, and has none of the features of the speculative monopoly of the day. The officers are among the solid men of Boston, and are known as gentlemen of integrity, who have never been associated with any of the speculative operations of the times.
The Colliery is one of the best and most extensive in the region, produces a coal which far superior to any used in this market, and from its advantages can mine cheaper than most others. It has been operating for six months, has more than 4000 stockholders, has delivered coal at a saving of $3 to $4 per ton from regular market price, and has paid cash dividends of 5 per cent.
Any one who will take the trouble to investigate the facts, will see at once that the croakings of coal monopolists have no application to the company, and that it is as safe and sure as any railroad or bank stock in the market.

The Old Established Hospital.
No. 5 Beaver Street, Albany, N. Y.
QUICK CURES AND LOW PRICES.
Over Twenty Thousand Patients Cured Annually!
DR. J. TELLER continues to be confidentially and successfully consulted on all forms of private diseases, at his old Established Hospital, No. 5 Beaver Street, Albany, N. Y. Twenty years devoted to this one particular branch of practice, enables him to perform cures such as no other Physician can, and his facilities are such (being in correspondence with the most eminent Physicians of the Old World,) of obtaining the safest as well as the latest remedies for these diseases, offer inducements to the unfortunate to a quick and rapid cure, to be obtained at no other office in America.
In Syphilis, Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Stricture, Enlargement of the Testicles and Spermatic Cords, Bubo, Ulcerated Throat, Sore Nose, Tender Shin bones, Indurations, Erysipelas, Blotches, Ulcers, Abscesses, and all other impurities of the system, are perfectly under the control of the Doctor's Medicines, which he restored to more than 20,000 cases annually, with immense Success.
YOUNG MEN.
Young Men addicted to secret habits, who have impaired their healths and destroyed the vigor of their minds, thus depriving themselves of the pleasure of the Married Life, are notified that in consulting Dr. J. Teller, they will find a friend to console and a Physician who has cured thousands, in almost every part of the United States, who applied to Dr. T. broken down in health, now rejoices in all that makes life desirable and man happy. The reader is of course aware that the delicacy of this subject will prevent a more minute description of this terrible disease.
DR. TELLER'S GREAT WORK.
A book for everybody.—Startling disclosures. Dr. Old Naught's great work for the Married or those contemplating marriage—200 pages—full of plates—price 25 cts. Sent to all parts, under seal, by mail, post paid. 50,000 copies sold the past year. The single Married and the Married Happy. A lecture on Love, or how to choose a Partner—a complete work on Midwifery, it contains hundreds of secrets, never before published.—Warranted to be worth three times the amount asked for it. 25 cents, in specie or postage stamps, inclosed, will secure a copy by return mail. Dr TELLER has devoted a lifetime to the cure of those diseases of which his books treat.
TO THE LADIES.
DR. TELLER still remains the only Agency in America, for the sale of Dr. Nichols's Italian Female Monthly Pills. The sale of more than 50,000 boxes establishes their reputation as a female remedy, unapproached, and far in advance of every other medicine—for stoppages, irregularities, and other obstructions in females.
CAUTION.—Married ladies in certain delicate situations should avoid these pills. Not regardless directions which accompany each package, for the guidance of patients. On the receipt of $1, (the price per box,) these Pills will be sent, by mail or express, to any part of the world, secure from curiosity or damage.
Office hours from 9 A. M. to 8 P. M., and on Sundays from 2 to 5 P. M.
N. B.—Persons at a distance can be cured at home by addressing a letter to Dr. Teller, enclosing a remittance. Medicines securely packed from observation, sent to any part of the world. All cases warranted. No charge for advice. N. B.—Boys and or boys employed. Notice this, address all letters to

Important to the Afflicted.
DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, Nos. 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, BOSTON, on Diseases of a PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE. By a long course of study and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. D. has now the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that have never, since he first introduced them, failed to cure the most alarming cases of GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.
SEMINAL WEAKNESS.—Dr. Dow devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for business or society. Patients who wish to remain at Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate. Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving descriptions of your cases. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Capotes, warranted the best preventive. Order by mail. Three or $1 and a red stamp.
Highly Important to Females
IN DELICATE HEALTH.
Dr. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No. 7 Endicott Street, Boston, is consulted daily for all diseases incident to the female system. Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience in the cure of diseases of women than any other physician in Boston. Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment. Dr. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to an office practice for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United States.
N. B.—All letters must contain one dollar, or they will not be answered. Office hours from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M.
CERTAIN CURE
in all cases, or No Charges Made.
Among the physicians in Boston, none stands higher in the profession than the celebrated DR. DOW, No. 7 Endicott street. Those who need the service of an experienced physician and surgeon should give him a call.
P. S.—Dr. Dow imports and has for sale a new article, called the FRENCH SECRET. Order by mail. Two for $1 and a red stamp.

THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber would especially call the attention of the public to the
MAGEE COOK STOVE,
as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.
There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.
The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.
For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.
We invite all those in want of the very best Stove in the market, to examine the
MAGEE COOK.
Also on hand an assortment of the different sizes
—of the—
MAGEE PARLOR STOVE
with and without ovens, which are too well known to need any recommendation.
"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING
FURNACES.
The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.
For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pots used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.
The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.
To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the
MAGEE FURNACE.
The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.
No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.
This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.
These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.
For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.
They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:
Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

Twenty-five cents invested in a package of this, will add more to the looks of a home than one hundred dollars spent in new ware. Every article of our kind of metal about the house can be kept to look like new. How much pleasanter all are when everything looks bright and clean, which causes a smile upon the faces of all. The labor of keeping every article of metal polished with the Spanish Rouge is reduced to a mere pastime and pleasure. It removes the tarnish at the brush of the hand. It is a mineral without any composition whatever, quite harmless, you do no harm.
Put up in three different qualities, for the finest Gold to the coarsest Metals.
Try the Spanish Rouge, and it will become a household word and a great assistant. Every person who has a ring or ear-drop, to an engine manufacturer, needs it. For sale by Druggists and Grocery Dealers everywhere.

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)
76 State street, opposite Kilby street,
Boston.
After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Models made and Patents for Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and confidently claim, that no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.
The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.
These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full access to Patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessary of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.
"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.
Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, and in all but one of the cases patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leaves me no recourse but to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."
JOHN TAGGART
During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications FIFTEEN APPEALS; EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.
R. H. EDDY.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 1, 1865.

☞ Our copperhead exchanges are publishing parts of a speech of Montgomery Blair, in which he assails Seward, Holt and Stanton, all three of whom have been active and useful in putting down the rebellion. The coppery sheets referred to are highly pleased with this speech—but one of them, as bitter as any, says, "We have not the slightest respect for the author." It is a bad sign of any man, or any performance, to be praised by such papers,—but such praise as this is double condemnation. It is our opinion that Seward, Holt and Stanton are all destined to be held in grateful remembrance for their services in a most trying time. That they should have enemies now is by no means strange.

SAN DOMINGO.—The difficulty with which Spain gives up an idea, especially if it be a bad one, is illustrated in her course toward San Domingo. In 1861 that republic, by an act of violation in the popular will, was surrendered to Spain by President Santana. For about six months the most arbitrary rule was exercised, until, by a general revolt, three of the Spanish garrisons were destroyed. Since that date a desultory warfare has been carried on, the details of which can never be told, but which were so unfavorable to the usurpers that early in the season the Cortes ordered the withdrawal of the Spanish troops. The change, however, which excluded Narvaez from the Cabinet, and put Marshal O'Donnell in his place, has led to a renewed attempt. Spanish vessels are to blockade the ports, and all the trade of San Domingo is to be ruined. The commerce of the country is of some value, and under the better legislation which may be expected to characterize our Government concerning it, a flourishing trade would have resulted. The fact that American influence has not been more favorably felt in developing the resources of the whole island is owing to the adverse effect of pro-slavery policy. The Spanish intervention took place just when this state of things on our part began to be susceptible of improvement.

☞ The N. Y. Herald's Fortress Monroe correspondent says there is no change concerning Davis, Clay and Mitchel; each occupies the cell awarded him, takes his food regularly, reads daily the newspapers and other publications, smokes his pipe and enjoys his hour's promenade. The impression that Davis is permitted the freedom of writing letters is erroneous. The letter to Mr. Gillet, one of his counsel, is the only one he has been allowed to write. He has grumbled a good deal on this score.

The police jurisdiction of Norfolk has been turned over to the Mayor.

NORTH CAROLINA.—Lieut. A. W. Hahn has returned from a special mission through the northeastern portion of this State, where there is no military force, and reports three negroes shot in Northampton county by the County Police for refusing to return to their master after engaging employment elsewhere; that the people refuse to recognizing the freedom of the blacks, who are whipped and tortured most fiendishly for even expressing a desire to be free. He also states that a Union man in Hartford county was driven from his home for employing a colored girl as servant without consulting her former master. A perfect reign of terror exists in that portion of the State.

THE DUTY OF THE DEMOCRACY.—Elijah F. Purdy—a "Tammany" sachem—enlarges, in the New York Leader, upon the duty of the "Democratic" party, and intimates that the people have heretofore been served with such doses by the Copperhead leaders that their powers of endurance were altogether too severely tried. Elijah therefore, recommends the following tactics in future:

The Democracy in our State have been too aspiring; so to say, too good. We have wanted to accomplish too much—to right too many wrongs at one and the same time. We should imitate the example of our missionary bretheren. When they go to reclaim a benighted people, they administer their moral doses precisely in proportion to the condition of the unbelievers. They do not insist at once on the objects of the conversation capitulating to the whole Ten Commandments, the Psalms of David, and all the precepts, conditions, and stipulations of the entire law from the administration of Moses, including the resolutions of '98 and the hymns of Dr. Watts. No; they go in to win, and sometimes they capture whole tribes of the most scary and turbulent heretics with a "moral pocket handkerchief."

NORTHERN MEN IN VIRGINIA.—The Richmond Republic says:

We believe that the old feeling of ostracism toward residents of the Northern States is rapidly giving place among the masses to a hearty and willing welcome to all who come here to become permanent and useful citizens. In fact, we believe that the advent of Northern capitalists, manufacturers, miners and mechanics, farmers and laborers of every description would now be welcomed throughout the entire Commonwealth.

"I love, O how I love to ride,
In a neat post-chaise.
With a couple of bays,
And a pretty girl by my side."

So do we, Dear Chronicle,—but we don't want to drive too far—which almost all of us are liable to do, when we go pleasure-riding; and we prefer the pair of bays ad tandem, too, if they know that trade. But go to Wells Beach, and Old Orchard Beach at Saco, we must; and as the railroad keeps as far off from both as it conveniently can—to please a lot of old fogies in Kennebunk and elsewhere, who were of the sort of men who are always afraid of any kind of a road or other improvement coming near them, and who ought never be allowed out of petticoats; and who are mostly dead now, and never were more than half alive—so, on account of their follies, we of to-day must suffer, and we (your Jotter and comp.) had to go to Saco with horse power—though we wouldn't be understood that our "sufferings" were very severe.

The ride from Portsmouth to Saco is one of the most uninteresting in the world—that is which we ever travelled; the road for most of the way is rather poor, and the scenery along the route is generally uninviting, with the few exceptions along by the Navy Yard, and in York, the sea-views there and in Wells; and the fine village of Kennebunk, which has for a short distance the handsomest street we know of anywhere. Particularly between here and York is this the case, and when you get to that historical old town, it seems as if you entered a new and more fertile country. The old road was better, though a little longer and more crooked; the new one goes more direct, but through a most dreary clay country.

But we went for to see Wells Beach—and see it we did, we are happy to say. Our start was in the afternoon; and with a brief rest at Freeman's old fashioned hostelry at Cape Neddick,—where everybody feels at home always, we were on hand at O. A. Frost's Atlantic House, Wells Beach, in good season for supper,—which we enjoyed with a zest, after our twenty miles' ride or so. And this house is located on the beach, much nearer the surging waters than most such hotels, and the sea prospect thence is fine. There was plenty of company, and it was only through the courteous attention of Mr. Horace Lamos, the clerk, who gave us the nice room belonging to Wink. Perkins, the Great Falls expressman, and took Perkins into his own room,—that we were enabled to procure first-rate quarters. Perk. knows the road well, both the railroad and the post-road; and has a fine-stepping horse which can travel it too. And he knows Wells Beach is a good place to stop at, and you can often find him there.

This Atlantic House is certainly well kept, is clean and neat, and every way inviting; and Mr. Frost has been so full of good company all summer, that he has decided to enlarge the house materially this Fall. On the night we were there, fifteen or twenty more people laid about there than there were rooms for in the house—several, including a big stove-man in Market Street, sleeping on cots in the bowling alley chamber—one of the penalties for not being married. The beach at Wells is very hard and long, and bathing facilities good; and gunners visit the Atlantic long after the "watering" season is past—the house being kept open the entire year.

We should liked to have stayed here a week, but must be off next morning for Saco; and stopping at Kennebunk and Biddeford a few minutes—another twenty-mile ride left us at Old Orchard Beach, three or four miles below Saco. Here our quarters were at the "Saints' Rest," or the Red Castle by the Sea—a club-establishment belonging to Mayor Shaw of Biddeford, and occupied by him, our old friend S. R. Niles of Boston, Mr. Fields of Biddeford, Mr. Woodward of Great Falls, with their families, for the season. And a gay and festive place they made of it, we tell you. The cottage is located near the great Old Orchard House, and has a wide piazza on three sides; and those who agree with the sensible Dr. of our city—as we do—when he says that "a piazza is the best room in a house," would like this feature much. The establishment is painted pink, and somehow put us in mind of those. But no matter—it is a pink of a place, and we hope to always stop there when we visit Old Orchard.

The beach here is one of the longest and finest we ever drove on, and the surf the day we were there and went into it, ran mountains high, (small mountains, you know, of course.) We wished for Joshua of old, to stop the flight of time; but he didn't put in an appearance on this occasion, so we had to put out, for home and business once more—though we don't see what business this "business" has to be always interfering with pleasuring.

So good-by to the "Saint's Rest" on the morning of the third day; and we couldn't get by Wells Beach without dining once more at the Atlantic—then home to supper in good season. But forty miles is a longer day's ride than we banker after, and a quarter part of it is much better. Rarely have we enjoyed anything better than lying on that old sofa under the piazza, for that couple of days—but we couldn't discover "whether the roof was shingled," even after that big shower came. How is it, Niles?

Yours, JOTTER.

DE BOW REDIVIVUS.—Mr. De Bow, the editor of De Bow's Review, is now in Richmond, and is a member of the editorial committee appointed to receive and welcome President Johnson and Cabinet should they visit the capital of Virginia. The Norfolk Post produces an extract from his Review of June, 1861, and wickedly suggests that it be made the basis of his address to the President when the latter visits Richmond. The quotation is as follows:

"The army of the North is as remarkable for its base material as ours for its high morality. Respectable men do not go a-rogueing (this is Mr. De Bow's own word, spelling exactly as he wrote it,) and the attack on the South is avowedly a rogue's expedition. The northern troops are, with very few exceptions, paupers, thieves, ignorant foreigners, murderers, bullies and criminals of every description. They rae not half so well informed as our negroes, and it adds much to the indignation and exasperation of our troops that they have to meet these nomadic scoundrels."

— The Savannah Herald says, Gen. Brannan has issued orders for a tax on citizens to defray the expense of cleaning the streets, &c.; also an order that all arms and accoutrements belonging to the Government be turned in to the Quartermaster. Business is apparently reviving in Savannah. Twenty-three hundred bales of cotton had arrived there during the week ending the 26th.

A COW WORTH HAVING.—Mr. Garrett of Alton farm, Auburn, Va., writes to the Washington Chronicle, noticing an article which has been extensively published about a cow to be exhibited at the New England Fair, to be held at Concord, Sept. 5th, which the owner says he has refused $500 for, and which he offers to bet $200 will give more milk and produce more butter than any other cow in the United States. Mr. Garrett says he is not a betting man, but he owns an imported Kerry cow, Dairymaid, three and a half feet high, very heavily bodied and short-legged, that gives thirty-two quarts of milk per day, and makes ten pounds of butter per week,—and certificates to that effect can be produced from reliable gentlemen.

INGRATITUDE REWARDED.—Paris has just lost an admirable wit and Bohemian in Alexander Bouchet. Here is one story about him: Perceiving one day, after a heavy fall of rain, a well dressed young woman standing at the edge of the side-walk of a boulevard, much perplexed as to the best method of crossing the sea of mud before her, he gallantly advanced, took her up in his arms and carried her across. On being set down the lady expressed her gratitude in the following words: "You are an insolent fellow." Whereupon M. Bouchet took her up again, carried her back to the spot from which he brought her, and having thus repaired the wrong, took leave of her with a profound salutation.

ODD OR EVEN.—In this country we are discussing the policy of allowing negro suffrage. In Hayti the negro revolutionists are demanding that all white residents shall be debarred all governmental privileges. These different results are obtainable under governments which each race and color respectively controls.

— Rev. Dr. Eli Ballou, the proprietor and editor of the Vermont Repository, a weekly paper at Montpelier, together with Mrs. B. and his brother-in-law, Mr. Wheelock, and Mrs. W., were on a visit to their relatives in Central New York and while decending a hill the horses became unmanageable. Dr. B. jumped from the vehicle, Mr. W. was instantly killed and the ladies and Dr. B. were much injured. The escape of any of the party from death seems a miracle.

— The New York State Convention of Universalists have raised $25,000 to endow a Professorship at the Canton Theological Seminary.

— At Memphis, Tenn., on Tuesday, Brig. Gen. M. J. Wright and Col. Loony, late of the rebel army, were arrested by the U. S. Marshal, to answer an indictment of treason in the District Court, found in 1862.

— Major Eddy, Paymaster, who was lost on the Brother Jonathan, had $200,000 with him to pay off the Oregon and Washington troops.

— Ostrander H. Wesson of Worcester, son of Samuel Wesson, Jr., was drowned while bathing in Lake Quinsigamond, on Sunday. He could not swim and got beyond his depth.

— Dry salt fish may be preserved in fine order for family use by packing them in a box with dry hay. This prevents their sweating or becoming hardened.

— The Augusta (Ga.) Chronicle prints the notorious letter in which Ex-President Pierce before the war encouraged the Southern secessionists to make what demands they pleased, and takes occasion to warn the Southerners to beware of linking their political fortunes with Pierce and men like him.

— There is said to be some trouble with the negroes on Roanoke Island.

— A dwelling house and shed on Beach Hill, in Hopkinton, owned by Wm. Webber, were destroyed by fire Tuesday afternoon. A considerable part of the furniture was saved. The fire caught on the roof of of the house.

— The Providence Journal says the drouth begins to be severely felt on some of the principle manufacturing streams, and the production of cotton cloth is diminished. Many mills are running on short time, and unless there is speedy relief, some of them will be obliged to stop altogether.

— Ex-Governor Sprague's mother is so pleased with his five weeks old boy that she has given its mother $500,000, and settled $100,000 on the little youngster.

— The Lowell News, speaking for the neighborhood around that city, says the cranberry crop this year will be very large.

SUFFERERS

From Dyspepsia

READ! REFLECT!! ACT!!!

TARRANT & CO.

Gentlemen,

I am a resident of Curacoa, and have often been disposed to write to you concerning the real value of your SELTZER APERIENT as a remedy for Indigestion and dyspepsia. I desire to express to you my sincere gratitude for the great benefit the SELTZER has done my wife.

For four or five years my wife has been sadly afflicted with Dyspepsia, and after being under the treatment of several Doctors for two or three years, she was finally induced to seek the advice of a learned Physician, Doctor Cabialis, of Venezuela, who immediately treated her with your EFFERVESCENT SELTZER APERIENT. She began to improve at once and is now PERFECTLY WELL.

I feel it to be my duty for the good of humanity to make this statement, feeling that a medicine so valuable should be widely known.

Trusting that you will give this publicity, and repeating my earnest gratitude and thanks,

I am very respectfully yours,

S. D. C. HENRIQUES,
Merchant, Curacoa, S. A,

New York, June 28th, 1865.

WE ASK

CAUTION FROM THE

AMERICAN WATCH COM'Y.

It having come to our knowledge that imitations of the American Watch have been put upon the market in great number, calculated by their utter worthlessness to injure the reputation of our genuine products, to protect our own interests and the public from imposition, we again publish the trade marks by which our Watches may invariably be known.

We manufacture four styles of Watches.

The FIRST has the name
"AMERICAN WATCH CO., Waltham, Mass.," engraved on the inside plate.

The SECOND has the name
"APPLETON, TRACY & CO., Waltham, Mass.," engraved on the inside plate.

The THIRD has the name
"P. S. BARTLETT, Waltham, Mass.," engraved on the inside plate.

All the above styles have the name American Watch Co. painted on the dial, and are warranted in every respect.

The FOURTH has the name "WM. ELLERY, Boston, Mass.," engraved on the inside plate, and is not named on the dial.

All the above described Watches are made of various sizes, and are sold in gold or silver cases as may be required.

It is hardly possible for us to accurately describe the numerous imitations to which we have alluded. They are usually inscribed with names so near approaching our own as to escape the observation of the unaccustomed buyer. Some are represented as made by the "Union Watch Co., of Boston, Mass.,"—no such company existing. Some are named the "Soldier's Watch," to be sold as our Fourth or Wm Ellery style, usually known as the "Soldier's Watch." Others are named the "Appleton Watch Co.," others "P. S. Bartley," instead of our P. S. Bartlett; besides many varieties named in such a manner as to convey the idea that they are the veritable productions of the American Watch Company.

We also caution the public, and particularly soldiers, against buying certain articles CALLED watches, so freely advertized in illustrated papers as "Army Watches," "Officers' Watches," "Magic Time Observers," "Arcana Watches," &c., the prices of which are stated to be from seven to sixteen dollars. A good watch, in these times, cannot be afforded for any such money.

A little attention from buyers will protect them from gross imposition.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS A GENERAL ASSISTANT OF NATURE.

What is health? What is disease?

Health is when the supply and expenditure are equal. Disease when the supply and expenditure are unequal.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS impart certain expulsive powers to all matters in the body whose life is below the standard of the surrounding party, or which have remained longer than the time nature designed. So in fevers and in all that class of cases which run into mortification BRANDRETH'S PILL have marvelous curative qualities. Our bodies are continually changing, and it is by this change we live. Should matter remain in organs beyond the time nature designed, pain and inflammation set in, which is nothing more than a preparatory effort for our good. All Brandreth's Pills are supposed from the results to do is simply

ASSISTING THESE EFFORTS OF NATURE.

COLORS STRUCK in FIVE MINUTES.

The above heading of a recent bulletin from

The Seat of War,

is in all respects applicable to the results of

CRISTADORO'S HAIR DYE,

when brought in contact with hair of any obnoxious tint. Five minutes removes the undesirable color, replacing it with the richest black or brown. No stain is left on the scalp, no damage is done to the hair by this fine emollient vegetable dye. Manufactured by J. CRISTADORO, No. 6 Astor House, New York. Sold by druggists. Applied by all Hair Dressers. 4

IMPORTANT QUALITIES.

They will cure a Weakness in the Back, Pain in the Side, a Lameness of the Knee, or of the Ankles, or Cold Feet, sooner and with more comfort than any other application.

Knoxville, Albany Co., Jan. 16, 1862.

Dr. T. ALLCOCK—Dear Sir: Seventeen years ago I was nearly injured in my back. At length I was induced to use your plasters. I wore one constantly for six months, and did more hard work during that six months than in the preceding fifteen years. I have not worn a plaster for over eighteen months, and have had no return of the gnawing pain and weakness in my back, but have been entirely well.

THE CABINET ORGANS,

Manufactured by

MASON & HAMLIN, Boston,

For Families, Churches, and Schools.

PRICES:—$110, $130, $140, $160, and upward, according to the number of stops and style of case.

They are elegant as pieces of Furniture, occupy little space, are not liable to get out of order, and every one is warranted for five years.

They are recommended by TWO HUNDRED of the most distinguished

Musicians, Organists, and Artists

of America, as unquestionably FAR SUPERIOR to all other similar instruments. Among those who have given written testimonials to the superiority of THE CABINET ORGAN are such men and musicians as embrace a great part of the musical talent of the country.

It must be readily admitted that an instrument which receives the endorsements of such an array of the most competent musical judges, must possess most decided points of excellence and superiority; and a careful and candid inspection will satisfy any one for himself that such is the case.

All persons interested are invited to send for full description of these instruments, with styles and prices.

Local.

☞ Mr. Myers' Dramatic Company with the Buchanans, gave Macbeth last evening to an appreciative audience, and to good acceptance. To night is their last appearance, and all lovers of tragedy will of course improve the opportunity to hear Hamlet. Concerning this performance, the London Sunday Times said in 1857:

Mr. Buchanan in Hamlet, has stamped himself as an original, dignified and finished artist, in the first sphere in dramatic art. Most personators of Hamlet permit the auditor to go to sleep—Mr. Buchanan keeps you wide awake. You cannot take your eye from him without losing a beatiful position or a useful piece of bye-play. Of course, all this has been acquired by days and nights of the sternest application, and like all well directed labor, will be rewarded.

POLICE COURT, August 31.—John Kehoe for an assault on Dennis Meade, fined $1 without costs.

Patrick Dwire was complained of by Mary Manox for bastardy. Ordered to give bonds in the sum of $400 for his appearance at the October court. After considering the matter awhile, Patrick concluded that the bonds of matrimony would be preferable, and therefore spoke the mystic words which caused Miss Manox to be Mrs. Dwire. This adjustment satisfied justice, and he was released from further custody.

☞ Among the changes constantly going on with naval officers, we notice that Capt. Alexander Murray, recently the executive officer attached to the Navy Yard at this station, has been ordered to the command of the U. S. steamer "Rhode Island," now fitting for sea at the New York Navy Yard. He carries with him the respect and best wishes of all whom business has brought in contract with him, for his urbanity and kindness of manner, in the discharge of his duties; while his genial and social qualities have rendered him deservedly popular with a wide circle of acquaintances formed by his connection with this community, who wish his future success in the line of his profession to be as successful and brilliant, as his connection with this naval station has been pleasant and agreeable. X.

☞ Hon. J. W. Patterson, with one or two other gentleman from this city, visited the Navy Yard on Wednesday, and after looking at the various objects of interest in and about the Yard, they were tendered thro' the courtesy of Admiral Bailey the little ferry boat Emerald to convey the party across the river.

☞ Mr. James K. Medbery, of this city, has accepted the position of assistant editor of the Trenton, N. J., Daily Monitor. Mr. Medbery has contributed many able articles to the New York press, and will undoubtedly prove an acquisition to the Monitor, which is a young and enterprising paper.

☞ All who have heard Free Whitehouse sing his favorite song of the Dying Boy, which he executed so beautifully and so pathetically, will be touched when they think on the sad and terrible death the poor fellow met. Dragging overboard, by the sheet of his boat, for nobody can ever know how long; with his brother near by, in the same condition—the two no doubt struggling desperately, and vainly shouting for help against the pitiless dark sea, till the waters surged over them, and hushed that sweet voice in death—what could be more sad!

OLD CHIPS FOR THE POOR.—One of the most charitable things which has been done for three or four summers to help the poor, is the hauling of a large quantity of old chips and waste stuff from the Navy Yard, the ship yards and carpenters' shops in Charlestown, on to the Mystic River Corporation Wharf at Chelsea bridge, where, they are filling up the flats. Nearly every day cart-loads of old rubbish and chips are landed upon the wharf, and as soon as the carts are unloaded the "chip pickers" commence their daily work. Hundreds of poor men, women and children, with wheelbarrows, baskets and bags, are on the spot overhauling and collecting the best of the chips for firewood. By this means a large number of poor families are supplied, without cost, with their daily firewood, and many of the "chip pickers" during the summer months collect and lay up apiles for the winter. Those who land chips and old rubbish upon the Mystic River Company's flats are doing as much good for the poor families in supplying them with fuel, as are all the organized societies which are got up for the purpose of giving a foot or two of wood to the poor in the winter.—Boston Herald.

Messrs Editors, Chronicle: At our Navy Yard we have noticed great quantities of ordinary refuge chips, from which it would seem many families might derive their yearly firewood. To the writer it did seem too bad that so much warmth should be thrown away, when hard wood (of which most of the chips were made,) is ten dollars per cord, and costs two or three more to get it in pieces. As our City Government yearly dispenses, I think, about three hundred cords of wood, to out-door people, would it not be well for them to consider the subject? In some families where their is no one to saw and split wood, chips would be more convenient. Would it not be well for somebody to put sides to a gondola, and freight over perhaps a thousand cords per year, of the chip? B.

☞ The Mr. McDuffee drowned with Mr. Whitehouse, was not George, but Joseph, an elder brother. It will be seen that a liberal reward will be paid for the recovery of his body.

GOLD, Thursday, 144 1-4.

— What is called conservatism in Kentucky is neither more nor less than radical reactionism in disguise, at once bitter, shuffling and dishonest, says the Louisville Journal.

A skeleton hanging to a tree in the woods near Worcester has occasioned much surprise as to who it represents.—Ex.

We see no cause for doubt on that point, as it was evidently meant to represent one of the "skeleton skirts" of the city.

— An item in the Boston Journal of Monday informed the public that "all the military telegraph officers in Missouri were closed." Considering the garbled dispatches that emanate from some of the telegraph offices, we think the public would be the gainer if more of the officers were "shut up."

— The Werz trial on Wednesday, received testimony of three or four witnesses, and adjourned over to Friday, for the purpose of arranging and classifying the testimony.

— English papers announce the loss, by sinking, of the ship Samuel Dunning, from Rangoon for Liverpool, by which 25 lives were lost. The survivors were obliged to eat leather belts and pitch to keep from starvation.

— The Richmond Times contains three and a half columns of advertisements of private schools and academies in various sections of Virginia. This is one of the most hopeful signs for the regeneration of the "Old Dominion" on the right basis, and in striking contrast with the state of things when Henry A. Wise boasted in Congress that there was not a school-house nor a printing press in his district.

— A man on trial for murder in Bangor, Me., last week, secured his acquittal by his own simple, frank and apparently truthful evidence, taken under the new law of that State, allowing all persons accused of crime to be witnesses in their own behalf.

☞ It will be seen that Mr. Joy will reopen his Juvenile Singing School next Saturday.

YOU CAN'T OPEN YOUR LIPS, Ladies, without revealing whether you use the Fragrant Sozodont, or not. No occasion for words. Your teeth and breath speak for you. The lustre and purity imparted to the dental machinery by that peerless fluid, and the fragrance it gives to the mouth, cannot be realized by the use of any other article accessible to the human family. 4

AGENTS WANTED

FOR

The Secret Service, the Field, the Dungeon, and the Escape.

BY ALBERT D. RICHARDSON,

N. Y. Tribune Correspondent.

70,000 Copies Sold in Sixty Days!

The most interesting and exciting book ever published, embracing Mr. Richardson's unparalleled experience for four years. Travelling thro' the South in the secret service of the "Tribune" at the outbreak of the war; with our armies and fleets, both East and West, during the first two years of the rebellion; his thrilling capture; his confinement for twenty months in seven different Rebel prisons; his escape, and almost miraculous journey by night of nearly 400 miles. It will abound in stirring events, and contain more of the fact, incident and romance of the war, than any other work yet published. Horace Greeley says of it:

"A great many books will yet be written concerning the war, in addition to the many already in print; but not one of them will give, within a similar compass, a clearer, fuller, more readable account, entirely from personal observation, of the nature, animus, purposes, tendencies and instrumentalities of the slaveholders' Rebellion, than does the unpretending narrative of Mr. Richardson."

Teachers, ladies, energetic young men, and especially returned and disabled officers and soldiers, is most of profitable employment, will find it particularly adapted to their condition. Send for circulars. Address

Morning Chronicle.

— Two laborers went under the Atlantic wharf, Portland, to catch smelts in a boat. They had good luck and were so engaged in their work that they did not notice the rising tide. Little by little the water came up, until they found themselves being imprisoned within the timbers, but not till their heads pressed against the planking did they fully realize their danger, and not till the gunwales of the boat were sinking did they scramble out.

— Cyrus Wheeler, esq., a well known citizen of West Waterville, Me., died suddenly very recently. He was standing by the counter in a store, discussing his favorite subject of temperance with a neighbor, and without notice of illness, bowed his head and settled back to the floor. Not a single indication of life was discovered after he was raised up.

— The Washington Chronicle publishes the particulars of a horrid outrage upon a freedman named Griffin by a rebel surgeon named Williams. It appears that the surgeon, in his rage, deliberately cut off the feet of his victim at the ankle joints, and threw them away! The poor man is now in Washington, a living victim of this unparalleled crime.

— In a Chicago street car, the other day, a pale but pretty young woman gave up her seat to a one-legged soldier, and the gracious act led to the recognition of the man as her husband, long mourned as dead. The scene closes with each in the other's arms.

— The reason assigned by those who ought to know for the withdrawal of the names of Robert E. Lee and several others from the charge of conspiracy with Wirz, is that those persons are actually or constructively in the custody of the United States, but not on trial.

COAL AT COST.

EAGLE HILL MUTUAL COAL COMPANY.

This Company is organized on the mutual plan, the same in principle as the Insurance Companies, and has none of the features of the speculative mercantile of the day. Its officers are among the solid men of Boston, and are known as gentlemen of integrity, who have never been associated with any of the speculative operations of the times.

The Colliery is one of the best and most extensive in the coal region, produces a coal far superior to any used in this market, and from its advantages can mine cheaper than most others. It has been operating for the six months has more than 4000 stockholders, has delivered coal at a saving of $3 to $4 per ton from regular market prices, and has paid a dividend of 4 per cent.

Any one who will take the trouble to investigate the facts, will see at once that the crookings of coal monopolists have no application to this company, and that it is as safe and sure as any railroad or bank stock in the market.

QUICK CURES AND LOW PRICES.

Over Twenty Thousand Patients Cured Annually

DR. J. TELLER continues to be confidentially and successfully consulted on all forms of private diseases, at his old Established Hospital, No. 5 Beaver Street, Albany, N. Y. Twenty years devoted to this one particular branch of practice, enables him to perform cures such as no other Physician can, and his facilities are such (being in correspondence with the most eminent Physicians of the Old World,) of obtaining the safest as well as the latest remedies for these diseases, offer inducements to the unfortunate of a quick and rapid cure, to be obtained at no other office in America.

In Syphilis, Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Stricture, Enlargement of the Testicles and Spermatic Cords, Bubo, Ulcerated Throat, Sore Nose, Tender Shin Bones, Pimples on the Face, Eruptions, Blotches, Ulcers, Diseases, and all other impurities of the system, are perfectly under the control of the Doctor's Medicines, which have been tested in more than 20,000 cases annually, with immense Success.

YOUNG MEN.

Young Men addicted to secret habits, who have impaired their healths and destroyed the vigor of their minds, thus depriving themselves of the pleasure of the Married Life, are notified that in consulting Dr. J. Teller, they will find a friend to console and a Physician who has cured thousands, in almost every part of the United States, who applied to Dr. T. broken down in health, new vigorous in all that makes life desirable and man happy. The reader is of course aware that the delicacy of this subject will prevent a more minute description of this terrible disease.

DR. TELLER'S GREAT WORK.

A book for everybody.—Startling disclosures! Dr. Teller's great work for the Married or those contemplating marriage—200 pages—full of plates—price 25 cts. Sent to all parts, under seal, by mail, post paid, 50,000 copies sold the past year. The single Married and the Married Happy. A lecture on Love, or how to choose a Partner—a complete Guide to Midwifery, containing hundreds of secrets, never before published.—Warranted to be worth three times the amount asked for it. 25 cents in specie or postage stamps, inclosed, will secure a copy by return mail. Dr Teller has devoted a lifetime to the cure of those diseases upon which his books treat.

DR. TELLER'S FEMALE PILLS.

Dr. Teller still remains the only Agency in America, for the sale of Dr. Vichol's Italian Female Monthly Pills. Ten years of success in 50,000 boxes establishes their reputation as a female remedy, unapproached, and far in advance of every other medicine—for stoppages, irregularities, and other obstructions in females.

CAUTION.—Married ladies in certain delicate situations should avoid these pills. For complete use directions which accompany each package, for the guidance of patients. On the receipt of $1, (the price per box,) these Pills will be sent, by mail or express, to any part of the world, secure from curiosity or damage.

Office hours from 8 A.M. to 8 P.M., and on Sundays from 2 to 5 P.M.

N.B.—Persons at a distance can be cured at home by addressing a letter to Dr. J. Teller, enclosing a remittance. Medicines will be forwarded from observation, sent to any part of the world. All cases warranted. No charge for advice.—N.B.—Consultations on Diseases of Nature. Notice this, address all letters to

Important to the Afflicted.

DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, Nos. 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, BOSTON, on all diseases of a PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE. By a long course of study and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. D. has now the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with a remedy that have never, since he first introduced them, failed to cure the most alarming cases of GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS.—Dr. Dow devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases attended by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for business or society. Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate—Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving descriptions of your cases. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Capsules, warranted the best preventive. Order by mail. Three or $1 and a red stamp.

Highly Important to Females

IN DELICATE HEALTH.

Dr. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No. 7 Endicott Street, Boston, is consulted daily for all diseases incident to the female system. Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience in the cure of diseases of women than any other physician in Boston. Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment. Dr. Dow; since 1846, having confined his whole attention to an office practice for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United States.

N. B.—All letters must contain one dollar, or they will not be answered. Office hours from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M.

THE MAGEE

COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber would especially call the attention of the public to the

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and and-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We invite all those in want of the very best Stove in the market, to examine the

MAGEE COOK.

Also on hand an assortment of the different sizes

FURNACES.

The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pots used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

Or Cleaning Gold, Silver, Silver Plated, Britannia, Brass, Tin, Steel, Iron, Copper, Glass, or Metal of all kinds. For the purpose intended this article cannot be beat. Twenty-five cents invested in a package of this Rouge will add more to the looks of a house than one hundred dollars spent in new ware. Every article of any kind of metal about the house can be kept in good look like new. Rouge makes pleasanter all are when everything looks bright and clean, which causes a smile upon the faces of all. The labor of keeping every article in metal polished with the Spanish Rouge is reduced to a mere pastime and pleasure. It removes the tarnish at the touch of the hand. It is a mineral without any composition whatever, therefore can do no harm.

Put up in three different qualities, for the finest Gold to the coarsest Metals.

Try the Spanish Rouge, and it will become a household word and a great assistant. Every person who has a ring, pin, gold-pen, or an engine manufacturer, needs it. For sale by Druggists and Grocery Dealers everywhere.

ONE OF THE NEW MEMBERS OF PARLIAMENT.—The following is related among the curious incidents of the recent Parliamentary elections in the mother country:—

"Last month, one Mr. Reardon, a Connaught man, who keeps a provision shop in London, stopped a night at Althone, Ireland, on his way to Galway; made himself very friendly with the 'boys' in that borough, who were all dissatisfied with their late member; treated them all round to drink, and talked politics between each tumbler of punch; was waked up early one morning and invited to go to the hustings to witness the nominations; heard the late member proposed for re-election, and two of his new acquaintances propose 'Patrick Reardon esq;' replied in a dashing manner to the candidate's feeble speech; received the greatest 'show of hands;' and, his opponent having retired in disgust, was duly declared member for the ancient borough of Althone, as much to his own surprise as satisfaction.

SUFFERERS
From Dyspepsia
READ! REFLECT!! ACT!!!

TARRANT & CO.
Gentlemen,
I am a resident of Curacoa, and have often been disposed to write to you concerning the real value of your SELTZER APERIENT as a remedy for Indigestion and Dyspepsia. I desire to express to you my sincere gratitude for the great benefit the SELTZER has done my wife.
For four or five years my wife has been sadly afflicted with Dyspepsia, and after being under the tre tment of several physicians for two or three years, she was finally induced to seek the advice of a learned Physician, Doctor Cabialis, of Venezuela, who immediately treated her with your EFFERVESCENT SELTZER APERIENT. She began to improve at once and is now PERFECTLY WELL.
I feel it to be my duty for the good of humanity to make this statement, feeling that a medicine so valuable should be widely known.
Trusting that you will give this publicity, and repeating my earnest gratitude and thanks,
I am very respectfully yours,
S. D. C. HENRIQUEZ,
Merchant, Curacoa, S. A,
New York, June 28th, 1865.

WE ASK
The suffering millions in our land to give this remedy a trial, convinced that by its timely use many may be relieved, many cured of Dyspepsia, Heartburn, Sour Stomach, Sick Headache, Dizziness, Indigestion, Piles, Costiveness, Bilious Attacks, Liver Complaints, Rheumatic Affections, &c.
Read the Pamphlet of Testimonials with each bottle, and do not use the medicine against the advice of your Physician.

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.
PORTSMOUTH, N. H.
76 State street, opposite Kilby street,
Boston.
After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services more moderate.
The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.
These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessary of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.
"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.
Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications for patents, in form of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability in his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."
JOHN TALCARD
During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on thirty rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.
R. H. EDDY.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 2, 1865.

SOUTHERN EPISCOPAL CONVENTION.—At the recent session of the Episcopal Convention of Georgia, held at Athens, the Committee on Re-union of the Episcopal Church North and South submitted two resolutions, which were adopted. The first resolution declares that the Diocese of Georgia will resume its connection with the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States, whenever the Bishop shall consider such course consistent with the good faith which this diocese owes to the Bishops in the late Confederate States. The second resolution provides that deputies shall be elected to the General Council of the Church in the Southern States, with the understanding that if, in the judgment of the Bishop, any contingency shall arise to render a representation in the General Convention of the United States necessary, the same deputies shall attend that body.

Well, well: says Uncle Toby, these rebel ministers exhibit their pride and politics in a very shameless way—but they don't seem fit to rush back into the bosom of the Church according to Bishop Hopkins' plan of silent reconstruction. Not they:—perhaps they would like to have all loyal churchmen, and all who stood neutral, make apology for not joining the rebels. On these terms, perhaps they might come back if it were necessary.

☞ A large meeting of citizens was held in Richmond Tuesday afternoon, desiring reconstruction, complimenting Gov. Pierpont, trying to wheedle Pres. Johnson, and denouncing the radicals. The animus of the meeting may be guessed at, as the N. Y. Herald's Richmond correspondent says:—

At the Union meeting held Tuesday P. M., the national flag was raised and "Yankee Doodle" and the "Star Spangled Banner" were played by the Band. All the speakers six months ago were prominent supporters of Jeff. Davis.

Speeches were made and the action of the Government in relation to the election in Richmond commented upon as wrong and uncalled for.

These people are hardly civil yet.

The reports that the Government sale of horses had been stopped is said to have been started by speculators in oats, who wished to influence operations at the West. The sales will go on.—Exchange.

No kind or amount of lying is too mean for a covetous man who "will be rich" at whatever expense or suffering by others. But such men "drown their souls in destruction and perdition."

THE WASHINGTON ITEMS of Friday are a droll budget of unreliable statements, viz: that the President and Sec. Stanton are in favor of a civil trial for Jeff. D.; that Gen. Butler is to be one of the prosecuting counsel; that the Wirz commission throws out Boston Corbett's testimony; that the records of Andersonville prison pen are missing; and that Wirz hands over documents to show that he only obeyed the proper rebel orders, in his cruelties, &c., &c.

FROM JAMAICA, rumors come of drouth there, so severe that the cultivators of the soil are in want; of such disaster in Hayti to Geffrard's prospects that he is preparing to flee from the Island; and of the spunky Dominicans being so angry with Spain for the new blockade, that they mean to commission privateers.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— Rev. Mr. Savage, of Bedford, has been pastor there forty years: his people, the other day, made up a purse of $1000 for his benefit.

—— Foster Marsh of Concord, brakeman on the Northern Railroad, was instantly killed Tuesday morning at Canaan. He was standing upon a turn-table, when the engine backed over him. He was a young man about thirty years of age, and leaves a wife and three children.

—— A Company of N. H. Militia (Infantry) is to be located at Manchester, and designated the "Sheridan Guards." Cornelius Healy, Captain; Michael J. Connolly, First Lieut.; Peter Fahey, Second Lt.

— The wife of Lewis Washington of Blair, Va., is now importuning for the restoration of their farm, which was confiscated in consequence of the rebellion of her husband. Lewis Washington is a relative of the father of his country, and was taken prisoner at Harper's Ferry by old John Brown.

— The U. S. steamer Saranac sailed from Asminalt, British Columbia, on the 23d ult. in pursuit of the Shenandoah. The Sawnee arrived at the same port on the 24th, and would soon follow the Saranac.

☞ The re-constructed blockade running steamer Savannah, from Texas, has arrived at Fortress Monroe, out of coal. Her cargo consists of 500 bales cotton from New Orleans for New York.

— At Washington, on Thursday, Judge Advocate Chipman was engaged in classifying the witnesses for the Wirz trial; many of those heretofore subpœned will be dispensed with, and only the more important once be held for examination.

GOLD, Friday, 144 3-4.

WAIFS FROM AN ESTRAY.—Boston, Aug. 29, 1865.—In my letter from Augusta space obliged me to omit some things I will now add. Fort Popham, where the 258th anniversary of the founding of the first English colony on the shores of New England is to be celebrated to-day, is a semi-circular granite fortification in process of erection at the mouth of the Kennebec, and should English or French undertake to make a raid up the river, they'd find the lower tier of guns ready mounted to pop 'em.

Fifteen miles from Bath, but a little to one side from the mouth of the river, on the seacoast, is Small Point, said to have been settled as Augusta in days long syne, and now a small seaside resort. The remains of a fort, erected by the first settlers and burned by the Indians, are still shown, while a well made there by the same settlers is still in good repair and is used at the present day.

Phipsburg and Parker's Head, settlements below Bath, like all the towns on the river, are of wood, and like the city of Bath need a coat of paint. Bath has within itself some very pretty places, but the ensemble of the city as viewed from the river is the same as that of a regiment of raw recruits on a forced march—straggling. Better that, I say, than the packing of buildings a la sardine, as has been the rule in your city. At Hallowell the granite quarries are soon to be worked on an extensive scale. At Richmond, on the farm of George Gaubert, a lead mine has recently been discovered; excavations are now being made and the mine promises to be very productive.

Of Gardiner and Augusta, I don't know that I need reiterate what I wrote last spring. The latter city, in its dress of green, realizes the idea I formed of it at that time. The new Congregational church, of stone, is being pushed forward to completion, on the spot where its wooden predecessor was burned. Undeterred by the fate of the old building, the railroad company is erecting a large wooden depot on the site of the former one. The rotunda of the State House, hung with the stained and battle-rent flags of the different regiments, is deserving a visit.

At the foot of State street I noticed a brick kiln with more natural advantages for that business than I have ever elsewhere seen conjoined. On the side of a steep hill, the upper stratum of nice sand, the next of clay, a pond of water at the foot of the clay, its fuel the waste from the great saw-mills a quarter of a mile distant, and its market just as near; I don't know what more the proprietor could ask, unless somebody to give him his bricks all made.

Conspicuous among the public buildings is the Augusta House. Thoroughly refitted within a year, at a cost of over $40,000, with fine rooms, a good table and courteous attendants, it is pleasantly situated near the beautiful grounds of the State House and overlooks those of the U. S. Arsenal. The house will accommodate more than 200 guests, and is under the superintendence of Harrison Baker, who knows how to keep a hotel. While enjoying nice lodgings and appetizing food, his guests are not subject to exorbitant charges.

The trip from Boston to Augusta is a pleasant one, the daylight at each end of the route affording a chance to view Massachusetts Bay as well the shores of the Kennebec. The Eastern Queen, partially destroyed by fire in 1860, was rebuilt that year, and is a stanch and comfortable boat of 1057 tons, with accommodations for 250 passengers, but carried more than four times that number each way under the impetus given to travel by the low fare. Her engine, of 300 horse power, is one of the smoothest working pieces of machinery we have seen for some time. The number of revolutions made from Boston to Gardiner is 13,000. Capt. Jason Collins, in command, has been thirty years in the business, having been on the first steamer running to the Kennebec. For some years engaged on the Pacific steamships, the principal portion of his long service has been upon the Kennebec. An efficient officer and a gentleman in his intercourse with others, Capt. C. is also a thorough engineer, and therefore unlikely to take command of any but a good boat. The proprietors of the Eastern Queen have contracted with Messrs. John Englis & Son, New York, for a new boat to be placed upon this route next spring. She is to be 34 feet wide by 240 long, a first-class passenger boat in every respect, and is intended to be fast.

The Daniel Webster, the opposition boat, has been in government service for some years past, a portion of the time, we are told, as a hospital boat; and all who have tried army life know what that means, so far as one of Pharaoh's plagues is concerned. A Boston paper says the Eastern Queen "has always given satisfaction, furnishing every accommodation and running at reasonable rates for passage. If the business had become a monopoly, competition is the best corrective that could be applied. But when a shoddy opposition puts on a shoddy boat, with no apparent intention of running a regular line and for the purpose, it would seem, of being bought off, it becomes the duty, as it is the interest of the public to stick by the regular line." The public, meanwhile, reaps the benefit of the competition in a trip at one-tenth the regular fare. ION.

— A singular anniversary has lately been celebrated at Aix-la-Chapelle. A woman servant has completed the fiftieth year of her service in one family, and was presented on the occasion with a handsome gift from the magistrates of the town, in addition to many substantial marks of esteem which she received from her employers.

TRUE ENJOYMENT.—"Love of pleasure" is one of the fundamental principles of our nature. Future pain is dreaded, past suffering willingly forgotten; but true enjoyment—rich treats of happiness—the mind will delight to recall, as long as memory's tablet shall remain. How ready and eager, then, should we be to lay away in the picture gallery of the soul, charming reminiscences for future enjoyment. How many of those who shared in the rare pleasures of the Moonlight Excursion down our beautiful river on the eve of Aug. 9th, will ever cease to enjoy it? Long years may pass away; the mind may be crowded with pressing cares; but "the heart will hold its memory of this." We understand that another opportunity will soon be given, so that those who were deprived of enjoying the last, may avail themselves of the privilege of charming both the ear and eye—the ear with the enlivening strains of our own Portsmouth Cornet Band;—the eye with the beauties of nature, lovely beyond comparison, with which the Gods have decked our majestic river and harbor. Let none neglect the golden opportunity.

NATURE.

☞ A sweet tooth and considerable cheek, that fellow must have had, who stole those two boxes full of honey from the premises of Mr. Branscom, at the Plains, the other night. And it would seem that there must have been two of them, for the boxes were jammed in so hard when he put them in, Mr. B. thought they never would come out; and he would not have missed them for the present, but for seeing the door of the hive ajar. We believe it is a State Prison offence to rob bee-hives; and Mr. Branscom thinks the mean rascals might have brought the boxes back at least.

☞ Mr. William H. Fernald, of this city, has recently removed to Pleasant Valley, Iowa, and bought out a variety Store, and now we see is appointed Postmaster of the village. Henry is a smart fellow, and we hope his lines may continue in pleasant places, even if he is out West.

☞ A very rare chance indeed in this city, (though quite common in Boston and elsewhere,) is offered to-day, to purchase an entirely new House at Auction. It is Pleasantly situated, certainly, on the Street of that name; is a fine-looking house, and well built. To be sure it is rather crowded in among other buildings; but then that is the fashion here, and who would be out of fashion?

An extensive sale of Varieties is also advertised at the Navy Yard, by the Paymaster, (Navy Agent.)

AN EXCELLENT INSTITUTION.—We desire to call especial attention to the advertisement of the Concord Business College, now under the energetic and practical management of Messrs. Worthington and Warner. The Coos Republican says, "The institution is the very best of its character in the section, and the young men will do well to secure its advantages. We most cordially recommend its course of training, and assure the public that it is in every respect worthy its extensive and continued patronage."

☞ Mr. G. C. Berry has brought in a couple of ears of straw-colored corn, thoroughly ripe and fit for grinding. A good kind of early seed.

☞ Mr. A. M. Collins, late of Charlestown, S. C., is to deliver a lecture in behalf of the Sons of Temperance, at the Methodist Church, on Monday evening.—His subject is Temperance and the Union. He has been a popular lecturer in Maine.

☞ Rig out the little folks and send 'em all to Mr. Joy's Singing School, at Mercantile Hall, this (Saturday) afternoon.

☞ It will be seen by our advertising columns that a large amount of Provisions, Clothing, and other Government Stores, will be sold at the Navy Yard at 12 o'clock to-day.

JOHN SAXE AND PAUL DILLINGHAM.—In the days of Democratic ascendancy, but when the party in Vermont, as now, could do no more for their conspicuous men than nominate them for office, John G. Saxe was candidate for governor on the Democratic ticket. How long he stood in that place is immaterial; but in due time Paul Dillingham was put in the same position, and was voted for by the party. During the candidacy of Mr Dillingham, his predecessor on the ticket—Mr. Saxe—wrote and published the following:

Dear Paul: I am extremely delighted at learning,
The recent concertings has proved so discerning
And given your servant—an honor indeed—
At least a successor who ought to succeed;
A pacificst, orator, gentleman; strong
In upholding the right and resisting the wrong;
And here let me say, while I'm thinking upon't,
The best looking man in the State of Vermont!
O eloquent Paul!—venerable nomen!
Of our success an excellent omen:
If they don't put you into the Governor's chair,
The people will make, I am free to declare,
A blunder this year that will quite have our passed. A similar one they committed last year.

In the course of time Mr. Dillingham becomes candidate for Governor on the Union Republican ticket, and in a few days will be chosen Chief Magistrate of Vermont by the usual overwhelming majority.—Statesman.

☞ The cause of the failure of the Atlantic Telegraph enterprise is quite clear from the following jeu d' esprit:

Some screw is loose, machines won't work;
Or wires have given the lines a jerk:
Or rocks, with sharpen'd edge, have cut
Clean through the wire and percha gut.

Therefore, do not expect this eve
From England, tidings to receive Through ocean's depths. Dispel the dream!
'Tis an impracti-CABLE scheme!

— Reports from Labrador say the fishery is good. The weather off there is uncommonly fine.

AGENTS WANTED

FOR

The Secret Service, the Field, the Dungeon, and the Escape.

BY ALBERT D. RICHARDSON,

N. Y. Tribune Correspondent.

70,000 Copies Sold in Sixty Days!

The most interesting and exciting book ever published, embracing Mr. Richardson's unparalleled experience for four years, travelling thro' the South in the secret service of the "Tribune" at the outbreak of the war; with our armies and fleets, both East and West, during the first two years of the rebellion; his thrilling capture; his confinement for twenty months in seven different Rebel prisons; his escape and almost miraculous journey by night of nearly 400 miles. It will abound in stirring events, and contain more of the fact, incident and romance of the war, than any other work yet published. Horace Greeley says of it:

"A great many books will yet be written concerning this war, in addition to the many already in print; but not one of them will give, within a similar compass, a clearer, fuller, more readable account, entirely from personal observation, of the nature, animus, purposes, tendencies and instrumentalities of the slaveholders' Rebellion, than does the unpretending narrative of Mr. Richardson."

Teachers, ladies, energetic young men, and especially returned and disabled officers and soldiers, in want of profitable employment, will find it particularly adapted to their condition. Send for circulars. Address

CAUTION FROM THE

AMERICAN WATCH COM'Y.

It having come to our knowledge that imitations of the American Watch have been put upon the market in great number, calculated by their utter worthlessness to injure the reputation of our genuine products, to protect our own interests and the public from imposition, we again publish the trade marks by which our Watches may invariably be known.

We manufacture four styles of Watches.

The FIRST has the name

"AMERICAN WATCH CO., Waltham, Mass.," engraved on the inside plate.

The SECOND has the name

"APPLETON, TRACY & CO., Waltham, Mass.," engraved on the inside plate.

The THIRD has the name

"P. S. BARTLETT, Waltham, Mass.," engraved on the inside plate.

All the above styles have the name American Watch Co. painted on the dial, and are warranted in every respect.

The FOURTH has the name "WM. ELLERY, Boston, Mass.," engraved on the inside plate, and is not named on the dial.

All the above described Watches are made of various sizes, and are sold in gold or silver cases as may be required.

It is hardly possible for us to accurately describe the numerous imitations to which we have alluded. They are usually inscribed with names so near approaching our own as to escape the observation of the unaccustomed buyer. Some are represented as made by the "Union Watch Co., of Boston, Mass.,"—no such company existing. Some are named the "Soldier's Watch," to be sold as our Fourth or Wm Ellery style, usually known as the "Soldier's Watch." Others are named the "Appleton Watch Co.;" others "P. S. BARTLEY," instead of our P. S. Bartlett; besides many varieties named in such a manner as to convey the idea that they are the veritable productions of the American Watch Company.

We also caution the public, and particularly soldiers, against buying certain articles CALLED WATCHES, now freely advertised in the public papers as "Army Watches," "Officers' Watches," "Magic Time Observers," "Arcana Watches," &c., the prices of which are stated to be from seven to sixteen dollars. A good watch, in these times, cannot be afforded for any such money.

A little attention from buyers will protect them from gross imposition.

THE BEST STRENGTHENING Plaster is the Porous Plaster of Dr. Allcock. They are warranted to keep good twenty years, but may be returned for fresh plasters without charge.

IMPORTANT QUALITIES.

They will cure a Weakness in the Back, Pain in the Side, a Lameness of the Knee, or of the Ankles, or Cold Feet, sooner and with more comfort than any other application.

Knoxville, Albany Co., Jan. 16, 1862.

Dr. T. ALLCOCK—Dear Sir: Seventeen years ago I was sorely injured in my back. At length I was induced to use your plasters. I wore one constantly for six months, and did more hard work during that six months than in the preceding fifteen years. I have not worn a plaster for over eighteen months, and have had no return of the gnawing pain and weakness in my back, but have been entirely well.

I am your obedient servant,

BRANDRETH'S PILLS A GENERAL ASSISTANT OF NATURE.

What is health? What is disease?

Health is when the supply and expenditure are equal. Disease when the supply and expenditure are unequal.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS impart certain expulsive powers to all matters in the body whose life is below the standard of the surrounding party, or which have remained longer than the time nature designed. So in fevers and in all that class of cases which run into mortification BRANDRETH'S PILL have marvelous curative qualities. Our bodies are continually changing, and it is by this change we live. Should matter remain in organs beyond the time nature designed, pain and inflammation set in, which is nothing more than a preparatory effort for our good. All Brandreth's Pills are supposed from the results to do is simply

ASSISTING THESE EFFORTS OF NATURE.

THE CABINET ORGANS,

Manufactured by

MASON & HAMLIN, Boston,

For Families, Churches, and Schools.

PRICES:—$110, $130, $140, $160, and upward, according to the number of stops and style of case.

They are elegant as pieces of Furniture, occupy little space, are not liable to get out of order, and every one is warranted for five years.

They are recommended by TWO HUNDRED of the most distinguished

Musicians, Organists, and Artists

of America, as unquestionably PAR SUPERIOR to all other similar instruments. Among those who have given written testimonials to the superiority of THE CABINET ORGAN are such men and musicians as embrace a great part of the musical talent of the country.

It must be readily admitted that an instrument which receives the indorsements of such an array of the most competent musical judges, must possess most decided points of excellence and superiority; and a careful and candid inspection will satisfy any one for himself that such is the case.

All persons interested are invited to send for full description of these instruments, with styles and prices.

☞ The hotels and boarding-houses at Rye Beach have done a large business this season, as all watering places have, almost every where. The fact is, the world is not going to stop, despite of croakers; and live men are not dead ones, and don't mean to lie still till they are, but rather to have a good time so long as they can.

The new Ocean House has received an immense amount of company—more, the proprietors told us incidentally, in conversation, a few days ago, in the month of July alone, than ever before in the old house through a whole season. The very spacious (and as it proves, also, very firm and substantial, comfortable and convenient) edifice, has been thronged in every part, so that beds had to be put up in all the parlors but the public one, and the clerks, &c. to sleep nowhere, as this class of people so often do when business is good; and like the undertaker, are glad to be called upon to do it, though probably they don't directly enjoy the infliction more than other people.

The Messrs. Jenness may well congratulate themselves upon their complete success; and especially Mr. Job Jenness, who has shown great skill and indomitable energy in putting up so costly a structure at such a time and under all the circumstances. Rye owes him a debt of gratitude she can never pay, for the benefits he has conferred on the town and its inhabitants, by his enterprise; and ten men like him would carry Rye ahead of Portsmouth in a generation, we candidly believe. The Ocean House is to be considerably enlarged forthwith, by an extension of the dining-room and the addition of twenty chambers over it; and the house and grounds will also be much adorned and improved after the business season is over.

The favorite and cosy old "Atlantic" House, also, under Mr Lougee, has lost none of the popularity Mr. Philbrick won for it; and many a reader will be glad to learn that it is to be kept open all the year round, for a winter pleasure house is much needed in our vicinity. How nice it will be, to be able to get a dinner at Rye Beach, on a bright Autumn day, after the leaves have all changed color or been blown away; and to know you can shelter yourself and team, when you would enjoy a storm; and when you wish to go sleigh-riding, singly or in grand parties, here is just the place. Heigho! we rejoice that again there is to be a respectable and well-kept house open for winter pleasuring. It reminds us of the days when Marm Hobbs's at Hampton, and Frink's at Greenland, were all the go with the young folks, and some who were not so young too. Let us try it once again and see how it seems—after the snow flies.

☞ The Clerk of the Weather must have forgotten himself on Friday, for the first day of Autumn was one of the hottest for the season. The mercury was "higher than 90°," and phew! what a dust. Things are beginning to suffer for want of rain, especially the fall feed.

☞ Every man, woman and child in town, and out of town, ought to arrange matters so as to attend the grand Fair at Concord next week, at least one day. The show will be fine, and the railroad arrangements for getting there are good.

POLICE COURT, Sept. 1st.—James Wiggin, a soldier, was found "calmly as to a night's repose," sleeping on a doorstep of a palatial mansion in this city on Thursday evening; and as it did not appear to the mind of a passing watchman that the doorstones of this dwelling were commonly used for such a purpose, he aroused James, and provided him with other quarters for the night. His hotel bills and incidental expenses were $6.86.

George Murray, a joyous, frisky son of Neptune, while in a sportive freak last evening, indulged heavily in bad rum, and so subjected himself to the penalty of the law—$3 fine and $3.86 costs.

☞ Rev. Wm. G. Nowell preached at the Universalist Church last Sunday, to good acceptance; and will occupy the same pulpit to-morrow.

☞ A beautiful shell boat, single skull, was exhibited Thursday afternoon, in front of the Post Office, Portland. She was built by Mr. Walter Brown for Mr. Robinson Williams of the Una Boat Club of Portland. The six-oared shell built by the same party, and exhibited about two weeks ago, has been tried and found to be a perfect success. She is owned by the North Star Club.—Walter finds a better market for his skill in Portland than in this city.

— At about 1 o'clock on Sunday morning a coach drove up to the New York hospital, and a patient was admitted, suffering, he said, from having swallowed his false teeth. The man was in fearful agony, feeling the teeth cutting his bowels. The resident surgeon made an examination, but could discover nothing, and the man was sent away unrelieved. His teeth were afterwards found in his bed, and he then felt relieved.

— A son of one of the "first families" in New York lately married a pretty Irish servant girl of whom he became enamored. The youth was sent to Europe once to break up his attachment and the girl discharged, but he staid in Liverpool only three days, and returning to New York hunted up the girl and married her secretly, greatly to the disgust of the old folks, who will not recognize her.

— The Nashville Times reports much excitement in that city in regard to the Champ Ferguson case. On Tuesday an indignant crowd gathered about the guard conducting him from the jail to the court room, with threats of lynching, that caused the wretch much uneasiness, and it was found necessary to reinforce the guard to prevent disturbance.

— The Cincinnati papers are chronicling the case of a gentleman who left that city largely in debt a few years ago, and who was recently heard from by his creditors in the shape of good bank checks, canceling all his old debts. He had "struck ile."

— A few days ago a policeman in Chicago, who had in charge a prisoner, was attacked by a gang of rowdies, whereupon, in self-defense, he fired on them, killing two brothers named Tracy. Good.

— Daniel Connery, who lived alone and in a very wretched manner at Lawrence, Mass., was found dead in his chair on Sunday. He was an elderly man and possessed considerable property.

YOU CAN'T OPEN YOUR LIPS, Ladies, without revealing whether you use the Fragrant Sozodont, or not. No occasion for words. Your teeth and breath speak for you. From the Portsmouth Journal

BRIDGE BURNED—The Eastern Railroad bridge over Town's Creek, Salisbury, Mass. was burned at an early hour Friday morning, causing a detention of the morning passenger trains. The fire was probably occasioned by sparks from the locomotive of the night freight train.

ANTIQUARIAN NOTIONS TURNED TO GOOD ACCOUNT.—We were this week informed of a most singular fortune arising from a desire to possess an old piece of furniture in accordance with the rage of the day. A lady now residing at Cape Elizabeth, in the vicinity of Portland two or three years since purchased at auction in Portsmouth an old mahogany chair with a haircloth cushioned seat, tacked round with brass nails. The price paid was fifty cents. After taking it home she undertook the repair of the cushion, and on opening discovered some papers, with the whole value of which the public have not been made acquainted. It is said that an important will of one of the Earl of Derby family, was here brought to light, which sent a large estate to different heirs from those who have inherited it. Information it is said was sent to England, and a special messenger was sent out who gave the lady a large reward. How much is not known, but as she was enabled to invest $50,000 in government stocks last year, it is thought that she made a profitable business in her chair speculation. The name of the lady is Mrs. Mayberry. Our informant is Mr. F. P. May of Greenland, who has resided in her neighborhood and has seen the chair since the treasure has been developed.

THE PHILHARMONIC SOCIETY.—We are requested to say that this Society will renew its meetings next Wednesday evening, at Mercantile Hall, when it is understood there will be a full attendance of the members, together with a number of those who propose to join. The Society is in good hands. The members have learned to appreciate the services of the musical director, Mr. Warren K. Day, who has shown himself a master of the principles of the art of music, and attained no slight reputation as a gentlemanly, efficient teacher. With his assistance, and the aid of one of the best pianists in the city, the society intends not only to keep alive, but to flourish and to make itself known to the public.

Samuel T. Hatch, Esq. recently Provost Marshal of St. Louis, called on us this week, being on a visit to his old place of residence.

In the list of tax-payers in Boston who were natives of Portsmouth, published recently, we overlooked the names of John S. and David Webster, each of whose income is about $30,000 a year.

Cyrus T. Lane, of Candia, has been appointed Route Agent between Concord and Portsmouth, at the rate of $700 per annum, from September 1st, in place of Wm. Conn, of Portsmouth.

TAKE CARE OF YOUR BANK BOOK.

Loren Heath, a sailor, whose term of service in the Navy expired about a year ago, deposited $400 in the Portsmouth Savings Bank. He became intoxicated soon after and lost his deposit book, and then called upon the Bank to pay the $400. As the book was outstanding and the deposit payable to the person who produced the book, the Bank declined to pay the $400 unless the depositor would indemnify it for paying without the book. This Heath declined to do and sued the Bank.

This is the first suit ever brought by a depositor against our Savings Bank. Deposit books have occasionally been lost, but the depositors, upon giving suitable indemnity, have received the money and interest. At the last Law Term the Supr. Court decided that the Bank were not bound to pay a depositor unless he produced his deposit book, or indemnified the Bank for paying without the book. The following is the substance of the opinion of the Court:

Heath v. Portsmouth Savings Bank.

BARTLETT, J.—Upon the case stated we must take the clause in the deposit book to have made part of the contract between the plaintiff and defendant. White v. Bank, 22, Pick. 183; Eaves v. Bank, 27, Conn. 284; Wallace v. Bank, 7, Gray 187. Under the contract the Bank would be as much entitled to the production and offer of the book upon a demand for the deposite as the maker of the note payable to bearer, to the note when its payment is demanded; and we therefore think the case falls within the principle laid down in Stone v. Clough 41, N. H. 296 & 7; and see Freeman v. Boynton 7 Mass. 486. As no indemnity was offered the Bank, it was in no default when this action was commenced—the question raised here did not arise and was not decided in Workers v. Bank 27. N. Y. 548. 5 Duer 72. Whether under the law of this State the Plff's. remedy in case of the loss of such an instrument should be sought or could more correctly be had in equity, is a question not now before us.—[Authorities omitted.] There must be a nonsuit.—Goodall for Plff. Hackett for the Bank.

SUPREME JUDICIAL COURT.—At the adjourned Law Term of the Supreme Judicial Court held at Manchester on the 24th inst. the following orders were made in actions upon the Rockingham Docket:—

Jane S. Wood v. William H. Wood—Divorce decreed.

Elizabeth Barlow v. Josiah Barlow—Divorce decreed.

Charles W. Nutter & ux. v. F. W. DeRochemont—Plaintiff's exception over-ruled; defendant's demurrer sustained; defendant's motion to commit an auditor denied.

Lorin Heath v. Portsmouth Savings Bank—Plaintiff nonsuit.

Chauncey Burton v. Levi Jewell—Judgement on the verdict for defendant.

COAL AT COST.

INTERESTING TO COAL CONSUMERS.

A LIMITED number of SHARES in the "EAGLE HILL MUTUAL COAL CO." Are offered to the citizens of Portsmouth and vicinity, if applied for immediately.

SHARES $9.00, which entitles the Shareholder to ONE TON OF COAL (2240 lbs) AT ACTUAL COST every year, a saving of about $3.00, besides receiving a pro rata share of the profits realized from the sale of the surplus Coal upon the investment, which thus far has been about 2 per cent. a month, cash paid to Stockholders.

This Coal is of the very best quality, free from Slate and all impurities. A cargo has just been landed from schr. Mary H. Banks, at Sheafe's Wharf, where the Coal can be seen.

This Coal Mine is inexhaustible. The Coal could not all be taken out in one hundred years.

— The Sandusky (N. Y.) Register says: The grapes are ripening very rapidly. On the island, we are informed they are ripening very fast, and that the rot has entirely ceased. There are very few vineyards that the rot has done any amount of damage to, and unless they are yet visited by some unlooked for and unheard of catastrophe, the crop will be larger by almost half than ever before known.

PETROLEUM IS KING!

THE

UNION OIL STOVES!

Patented April 11, 1864, and Jan. 17, 1865.

A COMPLETE APPARATUS

—FOR DOING THE—

COOKING

And all the work of a Family of any size,

AT LESS THAN

One-Third the Cost of Wood or Coal!

THIS NEW

PETROLEUM Cooking APPARATUS

Is WARRANTED to do all the work of a common Cooking Stove, at a great saving of time, trouble and expense. Having the fullest confidence in its utility, we offer it to the public as the

Only Kerosene or Coal Oil Stove

that will Bake, Broil, heat Flat Irons, &c., with entire satisfaction. It may be used in Kitchen or Parlor, without Dirt, Ashes, Smoke or Odor.

The ordinary Stove Furniture is used, with the addition of the "Flat Iron Heater." Kerosene Oil is used, and, at one dollar a gallon, it will cost for each Burner used, thereby saving the cost of the Stove in the expense of Fuel in a short time.

ONE CENT AN HOUR

"How long does it take to cook anything with one of these stoves?" is a question often asked. In answer, we can say from actual experiment that

2 quarts of water can be boiled in	15 minutes
Common potatoes baked	" 20 "
Flour Biscuit baked	" 15 "
And three good-sized Flat Irons heated in	15 minutes.

By adding a sheet iron drum to the Stove, it will warm a small-sized room in cold weather.

For use in the night in case of sickness, one of these Stoves is invaluable, as it can be put in operation in one minute.

☞ EXCURSION PARTIES will find it very useful, occupying very little space, and capable of doing a large amount of Cooking.

COAL AT COST.

EAGLE HILL MUTUAL COAL COMPANY.

This Company is organized on the mutual plan, the same in principle as the Insurance Companies, and has none of the features of the speculative movements of the day. Its officers are among the solid men of Boston, and are known as gentlemen of integrity, who have never been associated with any of the speculative operations of the times.

The Colliery is one of the best and most extensive in the coal region, produces a coal far superior to any used in this market, and from its advantages can mine cheaper than most others. It has been operation over six months, has more than 4000 stockholders, has delivered coal at a saving of $3 to $4 per ton from regular market prices, and has paid cash dividends of 4 per cent.

Any one who will take the trouble to investigate the facts, will see at once that the croakings of coal monopolists have no application to this company, and that it is as safe and sure as any railroad or bank stock in the market.

YOUNG MEN.

Young Men addicted to secret habits, who have impaired their healths and destroyed the vigor of their minds, thus depriving themselves of the pleasure of the Married Life, are notified that in consulting Dr. J. Teller, they will find a friend to counsel and a Physician who has cured thousands, in almost every part of the United States, who applied to Dr. T. broken down in health, now rejoice in all that makes life desirable and man happy. The reader is of course aware that the delicacy of this subject will prevent a more minute description of this terrible disease.

DR. TELLER'S GREAT WORK.

A book for everybody.—Startling disclosures. Dr. TELLER's great work for the Married or those contemplating marriage—300 pages—full of plates—price 25 cts. Sent to all parts, under seal, by mail, post paid. 50,000 copies sold the past year. The single Married and the Married Happy. A lecture on Love, or how to choose a Partner—a complete work on Midwifery. It contains hundreds of secrets, never before published.—Warranted to be worth three times the amount asked for it. 25 cents, in specie or postage stamps, including vail, will secure a copy by return mail. Dr TELLER has devoted a lifetime to the cure of those diseases upon which his books treat.

TO THE LADIES.

DR. TELLER still continues the only Agency in America, for the sale of Dr. Vichot's Italian Female Monthly Pills. The sale of more than 20,000 boxes establishes their reputation as a female remedy, unapproached, and far in advance of every other medicine—for stoppages, irregularities, and other obstructions in females.

CAUTION.—Married ladies in certain delicate situations should avoid their use. For reasons obvious to them, the medicines accompany each package, for the guidance of patients. On the receipt of $1, (the price per box,) these Pills will be sent, by mail or express, to any part of the world, secure from curiosity or damage.

Office hours from 8 A.M. to 8 P.M., and on Sundays from 9 to 5 P.M.

N. B.—Persons at a distance can be cured at home by addressing a letter to Dr. J. Teller, enclosing a remittance. Medicines securely packed, from observation, sent to any part of the world. All cases warranted. No charge for advice.—N. B.—No students or boys employed. Notice this, address all letters to

Important to the Afflicted.

DR. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, continues at his office, Nos. 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, BOSTON, on all diseases of a PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE, such as Seminal Weakness, and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. D. has now the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that have never, since he first introduced them, failed to cure the most alarming cases of CONGERRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS.—Dr. Dow devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the subject for the duties of business or society. Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with elegant rooms, and charges for board moderate.—Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving descriptions of your cases. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Capotes, warranted the best preventive. Order by mail. Three or $1 and a red stamp.

Highly Important to Females

IN DELICATE HEALTH.

Dr. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No. 7 Endicott Street, Boston, is consulted daily for all diseases incident to the female system. Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience in the cure of diseases of women than any other physician in Boston. Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment. Dr. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to an office practice for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United States.

N. B.—All letters must contain one dollar, or they will not be answered. Office hours from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M.

THE MAGEE

COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber would especially call the attention of the public to the

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We invite all those in want of the very best Stove in the market, to examine the

MAGEE COOK.

Also on hand an assortment of the different sizes

—of the—

MAGEE PARLOR STOVE

with and without ovens, which are too well known to need any recommendation.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"

VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING

FURNACES.

The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which lights them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq.,	Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill,	Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell,	John Sise, and others.

NOTES OF FORMER DAYS.

Collected and Collated by UNCLE TOBY.

Small Pox, 1778—Pest Island—Plan of Portsmouth—Gen. Whipple—Dr. Stiles.

March 16. The town determined to establish a hospital for inoculating persons with small pox. A committee was appointed to apply to the committee of safety for leave to inoculate, which was granted. The Pest, Henzell's, and Salter's Islands, were fixed upon, as suitable places for the hospital. Regulations were established for the government of it, and the whole was put under the care of a committee, who were to give permission to the surgeons, or physicians, to inoculate. No person was allowed to visit the hospital without leave from the committee, nor to be inoculated without a written license from them; and previous to obtaining the license, he was obliged to deposit in the hands of the committee a sum sufficient to defray all the expense. No person was allowed to leave the hospital in less than twenty-one days after inoculation, nor until he had procured a certificate from his physician, that he was free from infection, and was thoroughly cleansed by a person appointed for that purpose by the committee. The physicians were allowed eight dollars for each patient under their care, excepting every tenth person, who was a pauper sent by the committee, and who was inoculated and attended through the disorder gratis. There were two classes carried through this disorder, containing about four hundred and twelve persons in all, at the expense of sixteen dollars each.

In the month of June, Nathaniel Adams and John Parker, jr. completed a survey of the town, and made a plan of it. At their request the town appointed a committee to name the streets, which was accordingly done, and the names entered on the plan. They presented the plan to the selectmen for the use of the town, who placed it in Union Hall.

A detachment of milita under General Whipple, accompanied by a large number of volunteers from Portsmouth, joined General Sullivan in the invasion of Rhode Island, which was in possession of the British.

Doctor Stiles had been elected President of Yale College in Connecticut, of which he received official information the last autumn. Whilst he had this appointment under consideration, the north church and parish in Portsmouth on the 27th of January, unanimously invited him to settle with them in the work of the ministry. On the 18th of March, he informed the society, that he had concluded to accept the presidency, and should be obliged to quit them. About the middle of June, he took leave of his friends here, gratefully acknowledging the many favours and testimonies of their friendship and affection, and removed with his family to New Haven.

He was born at North Haven, in Connecticut, the 10th of December, 1727, was educated at Yale College, and was graduated in 1746, and at that time, "he was esteemed one of the most perfect scholars, that had ever received the honors of that seminary." He was chosen a tutor in 1749, and having made some proficiency in the study of divinity, commenced preaching. He had a fine classical taste, and a familiar acquaintance with the latin language, which he wrote with great facility in a pure and elegant style. He was troubled with a hectic complaint, on which account he found preaching prejudicial to him. He therefore determined to quit that profession, and turned his attention to the law. He was admitted to the bar in 1753, and continued in the practice of the law two years; during which time he pursued his studies with unremitted perseverance for the purpose of gaining an extensive knowledge of that science. In May 1775, the second church and congregation in Newport gave him an unanimous call to settle with them in the ministry, which, by the advice of his friends, he accepted. In 1765, he received the degree of Doctor in Divinity from the University of Edinburgh. He continued at Newport until his congregation were dispersed by the British taking possession of that place in 1776. The next spring he removed to Portsmouth. His great learning and eloquence, his easy and polite address made him very popular, and the people parted with him with great reluctance. He was an accomplished gentleman; affable, mild and pleasing in his manners, and entertaining in conversation; his company was courted by all ranks and ages in society. "Doctor Stiles had every literary honor, which his country could bestow upon him; was a member of many learned societies abroad, and was the intimate friend and correspondent of the first characters in Europe and America."

Doctor Stiles died at New Haven, the 12th of May, 1795.

American and Foreign Patents.
H. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)
76 State street, opposite Kilby street,
Boston.
After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.
The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.
These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necess.y of a journey to Washington, to procure patents, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.
"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.
Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges." JOHN TAGGART
During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications, which he prosecuted with the usual success, of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents. R. H. EDDY.

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 4, 1865.

WRECK OF THE U. S. STEAMER LANCASTER.—A Fearful Tornado.—The U. S. steamer Lancaster, the flag-ship of Admiral George F. Pearson, encountered a tremendous tornado off the Pacific coast on the 20th of July, during which the steamer was made a complete wreck. An account of it is given in a private letter from Lieut. F. D. Webster, of this city, and from which we have been allowed to extract as follows:

On the evening of the 20th, about 11 o'clock, we were on the quarter-deck, talking of the fine weather we were having. The remark was made, "It looks as though we would have a breeze before morning," so we retired, hoping that we might. About 12 it commenced to freshen up, and continued until the next afternoon, blowing pretty hard. We then thought it would clear off, and so shook out the reefs in our topsails, but it was hardly done when we were struck by a tornado, throwing us on our beam ends—carrying away all sail, just as though they had been ribbons. I never shall forget the scene. The gale increased at night, and at 10 o'clock we gave up hopes of seeing the dawning of another morning. We could neither lay down, sit down, or stand,—and the ship with her immense battery, labored terribly; every sea would strain her—parting knees and drawing bolts. Every one was called to save the ship; and at 11 o'clock we were struck by a monstrous sea just forward of the beam, carrying everything before it, staving her ports in, and flooding the gun deck, deluging the wardroom, staving our boats to atoms, and wounding men by knocking them from stem to stern. The excitement at this time was terrible. Our boilers gave out, and our engine would not keep us head on to the gale; our sail was gone, our main-topgallantmast and foremast gone, and we were at the mercy of the waves,—tumbling in the trough of the sea, which seemed almost to envelope us at every lunge we made. We trembled, and expected every minute we would catch another sea which would surely send us to the bottom. What a night it was!—perfectly fearful—although I felt calm, and prepared to go down on the ship before morning. Fortunately the next sea that struck us came over the starboard bow, and did no damage, save deluging our staterooms. The ship when struck would tremble like a leaf, and would almost part asunder.

Thus we lingered through the night,—so dark and the wind blowing so hard that an order could not be given as usual, but had to be passed from one man to another, while they clung to ropes for their lives. Some sailors below (one year's men) were so timid as to be down on their knees praying for deliverance. By morning it lightened up a little, but kept on about the same for three days. And such days I never shall forget. Some of our officers, who have been to sea for the last 25 years, and been in a great many gales, say they never saw one that equalled this on the first night, and made up their minds we were all lost. I cannot portray the scene to you—neither can I write it; and, as our Captain says, "Could an artist paint the dangerous situation we were in, we would be frightened to look at it." When we went to San Francisco we had a pretty good blow, but this was more of a hurricane. It was perfect agony to be in the ship. A dead light on the berth deck was stove in, and we were just swimming in water. All the hatches that could be were battened down. Some could not be. What was more unfortunate, at two different times the ship was on fire all around the boilers, and with much difficulty it was extinguished.

Now that the scene is over, I have no desire to talk about it or write about it, as I do it so much injustice. All I can say is, I, and we all, gave up, and trusted to Providence in carrying us through. I had such a peculiar feeling when it was said we must go down if struck by another sea! I felt that my death would be quick and easy, and I was ready, and gave up all hopes of being saved. Could you see the ship today—a perfect wreck! She that was looking so beautiful a week ago, is now all used up. Even the oakum between the seams in her decks has been pressed out an eighth of an inch, so great was the strain. She labored dreadfully in the sea, and seemed to twist to pieces at every plunge; but she has safely delivered us, and we all can be thankful. What will become of her now, I cannot say. We shall remain at Acapulco for repairs for awhile. I don't think we shall arrive at that port in time to catch the mail steamer: if not, this letter will be detained two weeks. We expected to have got in yesterday, but now it will be four days. This gale was off the Gulf of California, about two hundred miles from land.

— Election in Vermont to-morrow.

— Complaints of the drouth come to us from all quarters.

— Orders have been issued to muster out thirty more regiments of infantry, cavalry and artillery.

— The attic of the Boston and Worcester Railroad depot, in Boston, occupied by furniture dealers, took fire on Friday, causing a damage of some thousands of dollars.

— A letter from Capt. Anderson of the Great Eastern, published in the New York Post, shows that he is sanguine as to ultimate success, and says Mr. Field and all on board share his hopefulness.

— The meeting of the creditors of the firm of Ketchum, Son & Co., on Friday, after a full discussion, agreed upon a settlement. The creditors are to accept sixty per cent of the amount of their claims. All the property of the firm is to be given into the charge of assignees.

WAIFS FROM AN ESTRAY. — Lexington, Aug. 31, 1865.—"Whoso once drinks of the Mississippi," saith the old Spanish proverb, "shall return thither again." Whosoever has known the rural delights of this little old town will desire to revisit the scene again, and this is the reason your correspondent occasionally inflicts upon you a letter from this locality.

We searched Boston in vain for an excitement. A statue of Alexander Hamilton, carved from Concord granite by Dr. Wm. Rimmer, has just been placed upon a pedestal in Commonwealth avenue. It was presented to the city, free of all expense, by Thos. Lee of Brookline. At the picture stores we found quite a number of paintings to repay our inspection, and flatter ourselves that we have discovered an important omission in Bierstadt's great picture of "Mount Hood," not hitherto remarked by any of the critics who have scanned this painting. After a careful scrutiny of the canvas, I am satisfied that nowhere on all the rocks presented by the artist are to be found the characters "S. T—1860—X.," and as I have never been able to find a locality exempt from them, I don't think A. B. can be true to nature.

The Normal Class in the New School of Gymnastics, as taught by Dr. Lewis, pursue their course of instruction at the Lexington House. The class is quite large and exercises admirably. Besides the personal supervision of Dr. L., the class has the benefit of the teachings of Miss Haskell, so favorably known in your city. Among the pupils I notice "Mattie, the vegetarian wherryman," whose lithe, muscular figure, as shown in the various gymnastics, gives promise of an opponent hard to be beaten at the oar. The class graduates at Tremont Temple, on the 15th Sept.

The great success of Dr. Lewis' experiment of a boarding school for young ladies wherein physical culture should be a prominent feature, has led to preparations for the second term on a grand scale. Twenty teachers are engaged, including, besides those who have hitherto been so successful, such names as B. J. Lang for the piano, Virginia F. Townsend in elocution and belles lettres, Miss Peabody formerly of the Boston Kindergarten, and others.

The apple crop in this vicinity is next to nothing, owing to the ravages of the canker worm.

The octagonal church at East Lexington, formerly occupied by the First Universalist Society, was sold at auction last Friday. It is surmounted by a lattice-work spire, looking like an immense hoop skirt.

While in Augusta I visited the office of the Kennebec Journal, and was pleased with the neatness, convenience and extent of the office in its various departments, its facilities for the execution of book and job work rather exceeding anything I had expected to find in that locality. IOX.

A PHYSICIAN KILLED.—In the village of South Dedham, about 12 miles from Boston, early Friday morning, Mrs. Carlos Marston, wife of Dr. Marston, physician of that place, arose from her bed about 2 o'clock, and taking a revolver, which was kept loaded in the house, she shot her sleeping husband, and immediately afterward their little daughter, closing the terrible tragedy by killing herself. The shots were fatal, and all expired within a few moments. Mrs. Marston had been suffering some time from severe illness, and was undoubtedly laboring in a fit of insanity when she performed the triple homicide. The daughter was about 10 years of age.

☞ The funeral of Mr. E. E. Whitehouse, drowned on Tuesday near the Shoals, took place on Thursday afternoon, at the Freewill Baptist Church, in Gonic. From an extended account in the Boston Journal we extract as follows:

Some weeks since, in speaking of life and death, Mr. W. expressed a wish that Rev. B. F. Eaton of the Dover Univeralist Church should preach his funeral sermon when he should die, little thinking his wish would so soon come to pass. The train from Dover brought up a large number of friends, including the Masons of Dover. The services at the church were as follows: Dirge as the procession entered the church, by the organist, Mrs. C. W. Brown; the beautiful anthem, "Come ye disconsolate," by the choir. The other services consisted of reading of selections of the scriptures, hymns, prayer by Rev. Prescott Fay of Rochester, and a touching and impressive sermon by B. F. Eaton of Dover, from the text in the 17th Psalm, 15th verse, prayer by Rev. W. T. Smith of Gonic, and the concluding anthem, "Peace, troubled soul."

☞ The fraud brought to light in Baltimore upon the government by means of fraudulent muster rolls, based upon forged descriptive lists, issued by Capt. D. S. Breckwith, Assistant Commissary of Musters for that Department, promises to assume large proportions. Breckwith and a number of his accomplices in the fraud are now in close confinement there. The accomplices of Breckwith would personate different parties, going from one hospital to another assuming to be sick, obtain their discharge and then draw the money from the paymasters, and divide the spoils with Breckwith.

— The Hamilton camp meeting closed on Saturday, the attendance having been very large. Forty societies had their tents well filled. The dust in that vicinity has been fearful, as we noticed on passing there a day or two since.

Local.

☞ The Traveller's Insurance Company of Hartford, Conn., have inaugurated a new feature in the matter of railroad travel, this Company proposing to insure the life of every passenger, said passenger purchasing a ticket, which can be obtained for the sum of ten cents, in connection with the regular railroad fare. Having thus fortified himself, the traveller by rail, in case of personal injury causing total disability, will receive fifteen dollars per week for a period not exceeding twenty-six weeks.—Or in the event of his death, caused by accident to any public conveyance provided for the transportation of passengers, if happening within three months from the time of his injury, the sum of three thousand dollars will be paid to his legal representatives.

It is said that almost every passenger avails himself of this new insurance arrangement, upwards of fifty having been sold on one train on the Concord and Portsmouth railroad yesterday. Mr. Wm. H. Alexander, the ticket agent on the C. & P. road, is also agent for the sale of the insurance checks.

MUSIC.—Messrs. Editors:—While listening to the superb music of our excellent Portsmouth Cornet Band, this evening, in their close rehearsal room, I am prompted to ask, why we have not had, or cannot have, one or two promenade concerts per week on Market Square, or some other appropriate place. I hear that the Band have tendered their services gratuitously to the City Government, if they would erect a stand for the purpose; but for lack of appreciation, or some other reason, I believe that their services have not yet been accepted! I hear also that there are many citizens who are ready and willing to contribute liberally for the support of such an entertainment. As everything is propitious, why can we not have some music through the present month? EXCELSIOR.

☞ Mr. Saml. Lamprey, too long and too favorably known in this city as a teacher of dancing to require commendation from us, will open his school for juveniles on the 13th inst. See his advertisment.

AGENTS WANTED

FOR

The Secret Service, the Field, the Dungeon, and the Escape.

BY ALBERT D. RICHARDSON,

N. Y. Tribune Correspondent.

70,000 Copies Sold in Sixty Days!

The most interesting and exciting book ever published, embracing Mr. Richardson's unparalleled experience for nearly two years, "travelling into" the South in the secret service of the "Tribune" at the outbreak of the war; with our armies and fleets, both East and West, during the first two years of the rebellion; his thrilling capture; his confinement for twenty months in seven different Rebel prisons; his escape, and almost miraculous journey by night of nearly 400 miles. It will abound in stirring events, and contain more of the fact, incident and romance of the war, than any other work yet published. Horace Greeley says of it:

"A great many books will yet be written concerning this war, in addition to the many already in print; but not one of them will give, within a similar compass, a clearer, fuller, more readable account, entirely from personal observation, of the nature, animus, purposes, tendencies and instrumentalities of the slaveholders' Rebellion, than does the unpretending narrative of Mr. Richardson."

Teachers, ladies, energetic young men, and especially returned and disabled officers and soldiers, in want of profitable employment, will find it particularly adapted to their condition. Send for circulars. Address

CAUTION FROM THE

AMERICAN WATCH COM'Y.

It having come to our knowledge that imitations of the American Watch have been put upon the market in great number, calculated by their utter worthlessness to injure the reputation of our genuine products, to protect our own interests and the public from imposition, we again publish the trade marks by which our Watches may invariably be known.

We manufacture four styles of Watches.

The FIRST has the name "AMERICAN WATCH CO., Waltham, Mass.," engraved on the inside plate.

The SECOND has the name "APPLETON, TRACY & CO., Waltham, Mass.," engraved on the inside plate.

The THIRD has the name "P. S. BARTLETT, Waltham, Mass.," engraved on the inside plate.

All the above styles have the name American Watch Co. painted on the dial, and are warranted in every respect.

The FOURTH has the name "WM. ELLERY, Boston, Mass.," engraved on the inside plate, and is not named on the dial.

All the above described Watches are made of various sizes, and are sold in gold or silver cases as may be required.

It is hardly possible for us to accurately describe the numerous imitations to which we have alluded. They are usually inscribed with names so near approaching our own as to escape the observation of the unaccustomed buyer. Some are represented as made by the "Union Watch Co., of Boston, Mass.,"—no such company existing. Some are named the "Soldier's Watch," to be sold as our Fourth or Wm Ellery style, usually known as the "Soldier's Watch." Others are named the "Appleton Watch Co.;" others "P. S. Bartley," instead of our P. S. Bartlett; besides many varieties named in such a manner as to convey the idea that they are the veritable productions of the American Watch Company.

We also caution the public, and particularly soldiers, against buying certain articles CALLED watches, so freely advertised in illustrated papers as "Army Watches," "Officers' Watches," "Magic Time Observers," "Arcana Watches," &c., the prices of which are stated to be from seven to sixteen dollars. A good watch, in these times, cannot be afforded for any such money.

A little attention from buyers will protect them from gross imposition.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS A GENERAL ASSISTANT OF NATURE.

What is health? What is disease?

Health is when the supply and expenditure are equal. Disease when the supply and expenditure are unequal.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS impart certain expulsive powers to all matters in the body whose life is below the standard of the surrounding party, or which have remained longer than the time nature designed. So in fevers and in all that class of cases which run into mortification BRANDRETH'S PILL have marvelous curative qualities. Our bodies are continually changing, and it is by this change we live. Should matter remain in organs beyond the time nature designed, pain and inflammation set in, which is nothing more than a preparatory effort for our good. All Brandreth's Pills are supposed from the results to do is simply au25 JOSEPH H. FOSTER.

Local.

A STABBING AFFRAY.—A serious affray occurred in this city on Friday evening, whereby a man named Joseph Carlton will probably lose his life. It appears that the altercation commenced in one of the low liquor dens on State street, a number of men assaulting a soldier; and the latter starting to run up State street, closely followed by his pursuers, after having proceeded some half dozen rods, turned and stabbed Carlton in the left lung, making a frightful incision, which was afterward sewed up by Dr. Goodwin, who was obliged to take a number of stitches to prevent the lungs from protruding. A man named John Sheehan was arrested as the perpetrator of the deed, but no evidence appearing against him, he was discharged. It is said that Patrick Sheehan, who is missing, is the man who stabbed Carlton, and the Police are on his track.

POLICE COURT, Sept. 2.—John Barnes, for drunkenness, fined $3 and costs $3.86.

Charles H. Johnson, William Johnson and George Hadley, who, having a singular aversion to the parental roof, have been in the habit of taking up their abode for the night in the barn of Mr. George W. Tucker, adopting this romantic and primitive style of living, possibly on account of a love of adventure, but probably because their mental condition was such as to preclude the idea of reaching their several homes. Mr. Tucker has no barn-room to spare, and therefore complains. Fined $4 and one-third costs each, $1.97.

ACCIDENTS.—A man named Jas. Flynn, employed as a laborer on the Navy Yard, fell from the spar deck to the keelson of one of the vessels building there, injuring him severely, altho' we learn that he is doing well.

A day or two since, as the workmen of the Navy Yard were leaving their work and rushing out through the only means of egress from the Yard, (the gate at the bridge) making the usual noise naturally occurring from the sudden haste of so large a body of men, a horse attached to a buggy became frightened at the sight and noise, run back, capsizing the wagon, and throwing out the occupant, Lieut. H. J. Mitchell, injuring his face and head badly. From his appearance, it seems almost miraculous that he was not killed outright.

On Saturday morning, as the Navy Yard employees were crossing the Navy Yard bridge to commence work, a horse and carriage driven at a furious rate of speed passed through the crowd, knocking down an old man named Hubbard, tearing his clothes and injuring him quite badly.

On Saturday, a man named Andrew W. Brown, of Kennebunk, was slightly injured at the Yard, by a "cant-bar" striking him in the leg near the hip joint.

☞ A man named Ferdinand H. Howard attempted suicide on Saturday evening by shooting himself through the head with a pistol ball, which entered his forehead just above the left eye, penetrating the skull, and passed out through the side of the head. It is said that he will not recover. He has been a man of exceedingly intemperate habits and it is supposed that he was seized with a fit of delirium tremens. Howard was formerly a soldier and lost an arm in the service.

☞ There was quite a fire in the woods, on Lafayette Road, belonging to Mr. Langdon Whidden and Mr. Baleh, on Thursday and Friday—destroying the growth on twenty acres or more, with some fences; and endangering farm buildings. It was supposed to be incendiary, as it caught in several places at once. The bushes and trees were so dry, the flames ran to their very tops, and we could hardly see what stopped the fire.

☞ Water was so scarce on the Navy Yard on Saturday, that hardly any could be obtained for the oxen and horses used there. In fact, for the past two months, about half the oxen have been driven every morning, noon and night, across the bridge to Kittery Foreside, for water, and on Saturday morning this source of supply gave out, and the teamsters were obliged to drive their thirsty animals still further to enable them to quench their thirst.

☞ William Conn, esq., who has occupied the position of U. S. Mail Agent on the C. & P. R. R. for several years last part, has retired from the road, by reason of the appointment of Cyrus T. Lane of Candia. Mr. Conn, we have no doubt has most honestly and faithfully served the Government in his late capacity, and his acts of courtesy to the press and others will not be forgotten.

☞ The best move yet, next to rounding up the streets, is pruning up the trees on State street, Richards Avenue, and elsewhere. It ought to be done all over town, in streets, yards and gardens. There is no sense in letting the limbs grow so low you can neither walk, ride, see nor breathe under them. Thin 'em out, no matter who groans or growls.

☞ Ex-Gov. Haile was in this city last week the guest of Hon. Horton D. Walker, his brother-in-law.

☞ Commodore John C. Long, U. S. N., of Exeter, died at North Conway, N. H., of heart disease, on Saturday morning last. Com. Long was widely known and highly esteemed. He was 70 years of age, entered the naval service in 1812, and had seen about twenty-three years sea service. For the past few years he has resided in Exeter, and the remains have probably already reached that town for interment.

GOLD, Saturday, 144 1-4. Sent to Europe $105,000.

— Camp meeting at Kennebunk commences this evening, to continue until Saturday morning.

☞ Mr. A. M. Collins, late of Charleston, S. C., is to deliver a lecture in behalf of the Sons of Temperance, at the Methodist Church, on Monday evening.—His subject is Temperance and the Union. He has been a popular lecturer in Maine.

Our Children.—How much suffering might be saved them, and how many lives spared to us, did we but keep ready for use a few bottles of DR. BICKNELL'S SYRUP, which cures Dysentery, Diarrhea, Summer Complaint, or Pain or Cramp, or Distress from Eating.

FROM THE LAND OF SUNRISE, far off Asia, come the aromatic roots of which Fragrant Sozodont is composed. In this preparation the chemistry of the toilet has achieved its most remarkable triumph. Pure, unsullied teeth and agreeable breath, and absolute exemption from all diseases that effect the gums, are the results of a daily application of the Sozodont. sep4—3tcod 5

N. H. LAWS. 1865

Resolved, &c. That the sum of seven hundred and five dollars be, and the same is hereby, appropriated out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated, for the completion of the Gettysburg Cemetery, and the Governor is hereby authorized to draw said sum from the treasury by warrant, out of any money not otherwise appropriated; and that the further sum of one hundred and fifty dollars be, and hereby is, appropriated for the purchase of a musical instrument for the school-room of the House of Reformation, and the Governor is hereby authorized to draw his warrant for said sum out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated. Approved July 1, 1865.

Resolved, &c. That the sum of two thousand dollars be, and the same is, hereby appropriated for the education of indigent deaf and dumb persons of this State at the Asylum at Hartford, and the sum of two thousand dollars for the purpose of educating the indigent blind and partially blind persons of this State at the Institute for the Blind in Boston, and that said sums be respectively expended and applied for the benefit of such and so many of those persons as His Excellency, the Governor, shall elect and approve, and that the Governor is hereby authorized to draw said sum from the treasury by warrant. Approved June 29, 1865.

Resolved, &c. That the Adjutant-General cause to be inscribed upon placards to be attached to the staffs of the several Regimental-Flags, suspended in the City Hall, the name of the Regiment to which they belonged, and of the actions in which they were borne. Approved June 29, 1865.

Resolved, &c. That a sum not exceeding five hundred dollars, be, and the same is hereby, appropriated for the education of indigent idiotic, or semi-idiotic persons, under the care of the Massachusetts School for Idiotic and Feeble-Minded Youth, and that said sum, or so much thereof as His Excellency, the Governor, shall think expedient, be expended and applied for the benefit of such and so many of those persons as His Excellency, the Governor, shall elect and approve, and that the Governor be and he hereby is authorized to draw said sum from the treasury by warrant. Approved June 30, 1865.

Resolved, &c. That three suitable persons be appointed by His Excellency, the Governor, with the advice of Council, to revise, codify and amend the Statute Laws of New-Hampshire, with notice and reference to the revised and revised statutes of Massachusetts, and report to the legislature at some subsequent session, as soon as may be consistent with the performance of their duties.
Approved June 30, 1865.

Resolved, &c. That the sum of five hundred dollars be, and the same is hereby, appropriated for the contingent expenses of the State, and His Excellency, the Governor, is hereby authorized to draw that sum, from time to time, from the treasury for such expenditures as to him may appear necessary. Approved July 1, 1865.

Resolved, &c. That the additional five hundred copies of the Report of the Adjutant-General of the State, procured to be printed by him, be paid for by the State, and kept by the State for sale by the single copy at the cost of the same; that any copies of the regular edition remaining undisposed of be disposed of as follows:

One copy to each public library in the State; one copy to each commissioned officer in the service of the United States from this State during the late rebellion, who may apply for the same, one copy to the clerk of each city or town in the State, for the use of each city or town; one copy to each department of the General Government; one copy to each Congressional District; to the clerk of each city of the Smithsonian Institute, and the remainder to such public officers and institutions as he may think proper.
Approved June 30, 1865.

Resolved, &c. That His Excellency, the Governor, by and with the advice of the Council, be authorized to appoint two commissioners to consider the subject of the restoration of sea-fish to our waters, and the introduction of new varieties of fresh water fish, and to make a report of such facts and suggestions as may be material to the next session of the legislature, and also to the Governor, if they judge an earlier report to be expedient, and that such commissioners be authorized to confer with commissioners that may or may be appointed by the States of Massachusetts, Vermont and Connecticut, upon the subject of the restoration of sea-fish, and that His Excellency, the Governor, be requested to furnish the Governors of those States with a copy of this resolution.

Resolved, &c. That such commissioners be authorized to introduce into such of our waters as they may deem best suited therefor, the spawn of the black bass, land-locked salmon, and other varieties, if they deem it expedient, provided the expense do not exceed the sum of $100.
Approved June 30, 1865.

Resolved, &c. That the attention of the State of Connecticut be respectfully invited to the subject of the improvident destruction of the shad in the Connecticut river, and especially at its mouth, by means of gill-nets and otherwise, and that the State be earnestly requested, as matter of comity between sister States, to so regulate the fishing in that river as to allow the free and unobstructed passage of all kinds of sea-fish into it, during such portion of the time as will be sufficient to stock the upper waters of that river and its tributaries with a reasonable supply of such fish.

Resolved, &c. That His Excellency, the Governor, be requested to communicate the resolution of the State of Connecticut, and also of the States of Massachusetts and Vermont, copies of these resolutions, with a request that they be laid before their respective legislatures.
Approved June 30, 1865.

Resolved, &c. That the State of New-Hampshire will accept the provisions of the act of Congress of July 2, 1864, upon the subject of setting apart the old hall of the House of Representatives at Washington for the deposit of statuary from the several States, and will, at a future session of the legislature, make the necessary arrangements for furnishing statues of two deceased citizens of said State, illustrious for their historic renown, or from distinguished civic or military service, to be placed in said hall.

Resolved, That the further consideration of the subject embraced in the foregoing resolution be postponed to the next session of the legislature.

Resolved, That the Secretary of State be directed seasonably to furnish to the Department of State of the United States a certified copy of these resolutions.
Approved July 1, 1865.

Resolved, That whenever, upon the occurrence of extensive robberies or burglaries, persons charged with the same are found in other States, give notice to a large amount—proportioned to the value of the property intended—and shall forfeit said bonds, the amount so forfeited, after deducting the expenses and disbursements for the prosecution of said accused persons, to be audited by the county solicitors and the commissioners, shall be paid over, under the direction of the commissioners, to those who, in particular persons whose property has been thus feloniously taken. Approved June 30, 1865.

Resolved, &c. That the sum of one hundred and sixty-one dollars and seventy-three cents ($161.73) be, and the same is hereby, appropriated for the payment of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated, for the purpose of paying the deficiency in the appropriation made at the June session of the legislature, in the contingent expenses of the State House, and His Excellency, the Governor, be authorized to draw his warrant on the treasury therefor.
Approved June 28, 1865.

Resolved, &c. That the Governor and Council be authorized to appoint one suitable person in the city of Concord, who shall be required to make a report of the moneys from the State Prison, and assist them in obtaining places of employment. Approved June 28, 1865.

Resolved, &c. That the Governor be authorized to contract with Charles E. Morrison for so many copies of the Digest of New-Hampshire Reports, as, in preparation by him, for the use of the State, as are now taken by the State of the New-Hampshire Reports.
Approved June 28, 1865.

Resolved, &c. That the sum of fifty dollars ($50) be and the same is hereby, appropriated out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated, for the purchase of books and stationery for the use of the prisoners at the New-Hampshire State Prison, to be expended under the direction of the warden and chaplain, for the purposes above named; and that His Excellency, the Governor, be authorized to draw his warrant on the treasury therefor.
Approved June 28, 1865.

Whereas, owing to the destruction by fire of a large portion of the property of the Salmon Falls Manufacturing Company, situated in the town of Rollinsford, in the county of Strafford, during the June session of the Legislature, 1864, the proportionate share of that town had been fixed and determined, said town of Rollinsford has been subjected to a disproportionate share of the State tax therefor assessed and to be paid in the present and unequal burden, which would otherwise have been borne by the State, in consequence of the accidental destruction of property by fire, as aforesaid. Approved July 1, 1865.

Resolved, &c. That Daniel S. Dunmoor be authorized to procure such assistance as he may need as Engrossing Clerk, to enable him to complete his labors by Saturday morning. Approved June 30, 1865.

COAL AT COST.

EAGLE HILL MUTUAL COAL COMPANY.

This Company is organized on the mutual plan, the same in principle as the Insurance Companies, and has none of the features of the speculative movements of the day. Its officers are among the solid men of Boston, and are known as gentlemen of integrity; they have never been associated with any of the speculative operations of the times.

The Colliery is one of the best and most extensive in the coal region, produces a coal far superior to any used in this market, and from its advantages can mine cheaper than most others. It has been operation over six months, has more than 4000 stockholders, has delivered coal at a saving of $2 to $4 per ton from regular market prices, and has paid cash dividends of 4 per cent.

Any one who will take the trouble to investigate the facts, will be satisfied that the combination of coal monopolists have no application to this company, and that it is as safe and sure as any railroad or bank stock in the market.

QUICK CURES AND LOW PRICES.

Over Twenty Thousand Patients Cured Annually!

DR. J. TELLER continues to be confidentially and successfully consulted on all forms of private diseases, at his old Established Hospital, No. 5 Beaver Street, Albany, N. Y. Twenty years devoted to this one particular branch of practice, enables him to perform cures such as no other Physician can, and his facilities are such (being in correspondence with the most eminent Physicians of the Old World), as to enable him to offer, as well as the latest remedies for these diseases, offer inducements to the unfortunate of a quick and reputable cure, to be obtained at no other office in America.

In Syphilis, Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Stricture, Enlargement of the Testicles and Spermatic Cords, Bubo, Ulcerated Throat, Sore Nose, Tender Shin Bones, Cutaneous Eruptions, Biles, Ulcers, Abscesses, and all other impurities of the system, we perfectly under the control of the Doctor's Medicines, and have been tested in more than 20,000 cases annually, with immense Success.

YOUNG MEN.

Young Men addicted to secret habits, who have impaired their healths and destroyed the vigor of their minds, thus depriving themselves of the pleasure of the married state, are notified that in consulting Dr. J. Teller, they will find a friend to console and a Physician who has cured thousands, is almost in every part of the country, and who applied to Dr. T. broken down in health, now rejoice in all that makes life desirable and manhappy. The reader is of course aware that the delicacy of this subject will prevent a more minute description of this terrible disease.

DR. TELLER'S GREAT WORK.

A book for everybody.—Startling disclosures. Dr. TELLER's great work for the Married or those contemplating marriage—200 pages—full of valuable information, with Medical Advice, sent by mail, post paid, 50,000 copies sold the past year. The single Married and the Married Hap-

A lecture on Love, or how to choose a Partner—a complete work on Midwifery. It contains hundreds of secrets, never before published.—Warranted to be worth three times the amount asked for it. 25 cents, in specie or postage stamps, inclosed, will secure a copy by return mail. Dr. Teller's Lecture on the Marriage Relation, or cure of those diseases upon which his books treat.

TO THE LADIES.

DR. TELLER still remains the only Agency in America for the sale of Dr. Dubois' Italian Female Monthly Pills. The sale of more than 20,000 boxes establishes their reputation as a female remedy, unparalleled, far in advance of all other medicine—for stoppages, irregularities, and other obstructions in females.

CAUTION.—Married ladies in certain delicate situations should avoid their use. For reasons see directions which accompany each package, for the guidance of such ladies. The regular price of $1, (the price per box,) these Pills will be sent, by mail or express, to any part of the world, secure from any curiosity or damage.

Office hours from 8 A. M. to 8 P. M., and on Sundays from 2 to 5 P. M.

N. B.—Persons at a distance can be cured at home by addressing a letter to Dr. J. Teller, enclosing a remittance. Medicines securely packed from observation, sent to any part of the world. All cases warranted. Fee, $5 for advice.—N. B.—No students or boys employed. Notice this, address all letters to

Important to the Afflicted.

DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, No. 7 Endicott Street, BOSTON, on all diseases of a PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE. By a long course of study and practical experience of twenty-five years, Dr. Dow has now the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that have never, since he first introduced them, failed to cure the most alarming cases of GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS—Dr. Dow devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the subject for the enjoyment of business or society. Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be treated with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.—Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving descriptions of your cases. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Capsules, warranted the best preventive. Order by mail. Three or $1 and a red stamp.

Highly Important to Females

IN DELICATE HEALTH.

Dr. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No. 7 Endicott Street, Boston, is consulted daily for all diseases peculiar to the female system. Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience in the cure of diseases of women than any other physician in Boston. Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment. Dr. Dow, since 1845, has confined his whole attention to his office practice for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United States.

THE MAGEE

COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber would especially call the attention of the public to the

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We invite all those in want of the very best Stove in the market, to examine the

MAGEE COOK.

Also on hand an assortment of the different sizes

—of the—

MAGEE PARLOR STOVE

with and without ovens, which are too well known to need any recommendation.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"

VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING

FURNACES.

The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some succeeding but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell, John Shea, and others.

The Chronicle.

THE SITUATION IN LOUISIANA.—Hon. John Covode, in a recent speech at Cleveland, Ohio, had something to say upon the state of affairs in the Southwest, which is thus sketched:

"He remarked that he had been recently sent by the Government to look into the condition of affairs in the Mississippi States, and had come home very much discouraged with the prospect. Most of his time had been spent in Louisiana. He found there that the officers who had been elected by the Union party, finding the rebel sentiment strongest, had gone over with them. The Governor, after loud professions of loyalty, after joining the Union League, so soon after being placed in authority had deserted and betrayed the party that elected him. More than one hundred rebel officers were discharging the duties of the government under him, dressed in their rebel uniform. Our men are discouraged and threaten to leave the country if the army is withdrawn.

The Governor claims from the National Government, pay for liberated slaves, yet refuses to assist in the payment of the National debt. He claims, in the event they do not receive pay for their slaves, they shall be sent out of the country—to Mexico or elsewhere. Ma. Covode has been up and down the country, and found no white man doing any kind of manual labor; the negroes did it all. Who would do the work if the negroes were sent out? The Governor replied: Whites from the North, or from abroad. He was answered that when whites sought the South it would be as owners and not as servants."

PACIFIC RAILROAD MONOPOLY.—From San Francisco we learn that the Central Pacific Railroad Company have purchased a controlling interest in the Valley Railroad, extending from Sacramento city to Falson, thereby securing the central route between Sacramento and Washoe via Placerville, and retaining also the original route to Washoe via Dutch Flat, and are buying up and consolidating Stages, Stage Routes, &c.

The people of Washoe and along the Placerville route are greatly disappointed as it affects their interests unfavorably.

The opinion gains ground that under the present plan of building the Pacific Railroad it must become, when completed, a very expensive monopoly, having power to charge such rates for freight and passage as may unnecessarily retard the development of the country traversed.

Newspapers urge that, as Government furnishes the means of constructing the road, it ought to induce its army engineers and soldiers to take charge of the work and complete it speedily, on Government account, thus retaining the power in the hands of the Government, and make it one of the cheapest roads in America, which would assist in the immense development of our empire of mineral and agricultural wealth during the present generation.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— The Statesman adds this to the record of "smart old men:"

Passing, on Tuesday afternoon last, a field in East Concord, in which were several cocks of second growth grass, who should come to the bars at the roadside but Mr. Asa Maynard, who cut the grass and had prepared it for a night in the dews and fog of the Turtle Pond neighborhood. Mr. Maynard informed us that if he lives until the 8th of next December he will be 95 years of age! He came to Concord from Sudbury, Mass., 63 years ago.

The Lebanon Free Press tells of this "spry old lady:"

At Bradford, a few days since, while a few young ladies were exercising themselves in horseback riding, with but indifferent success, an old lady, Mrs. Mary Presby, 88 years of age, a relative of the girls, asked the privilege of taking hold of the bridle, which being granted, she led the horse to the block, mounted, rode a half mile and back, and dismounted, as our informant says, "in good shape."

THE CABINET ORGANS,
Manufactured by
MASON & HAMLIN, Boston,
For Families, Churches, and Schools.
PRICES:—$110, $120, $140, $160, and upward, according to the number of stops and style of case.
They are elegant as pieces of furniture, occupy little space, are not liable to get out of order, and every one is warranted for five years
They are recommended by TWO HUNDRED of the most distinguished
Musicians, Organists, and Artists
of America, as unquestionably PAR SUPERIOR to all other similar instruments. Among those who have given written testimonials to the superiority of THE CABINET ORGAN are such men and musicians as embrace a great part of the musical talent of the country.
It must be readily admitted that an instrument which receives the indorsements of such an army of the most competent musical judges, must possess most decided points of excellence and superiority; and a careful and candid inspection will satisfy any one for himself that such is the case.
All persons interested are invited to send for full description of these instruments, with styles and prices.

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, 8 dur ing the Act of 1857.)
76 State street, opposite Kilby street,
Boston.
After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Research made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.
The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.
Also, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessary of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON,
Late Commissioner of Patents.
"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their claims in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.
Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges." JOHN TAGGART During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his practice, made or contested applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents. R. H. EDDY.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 5, 1865.

MISSISSIPPI.—It is reported, on the authority of the Woodville (Miss.) Republican of the 15th ult., that such a conflict has arisen between Gov. Sharkey, the military authorities and Sec. Seward, as to give reason to believe that the Governor intends sending in his resignation. The military, it appears, refused to obey a writ of habeas corpus issued by Judge Merwin of Warren county. Gov. Sharkey telegraphed to Washington a statement of facts; Secretary Seward replied that Mississippi was still under martial law, and the military were supreme.

One of the best things Gov. Sharkey can do, (says Uncle Toby) would be, to resign as quick as possible. It would be best for Mississippi, best for the Union, best for the workingmen of Mississippi, best for everybody. We have had some knowledge of his course for many years: we remember well the monstrous accounts of riot and destruction in Jamaica, that used to come via Havana to New Orleans, and thence be retailed through the press over the country, about twenty years ago; many of which accounts we knew to be false when they came, and then branded them as improbable; and all of which were in due time proved to be a pack of lies. And we remember, after Mr. Sharkey's return from the West Indies, a great deal too much about his career as a Judge. His appointment as Governor was a surprising event to us; but we are not surprised at any conflict between him and the higher powers, nor should we be in the least displeased if he should resign, and retire to private life or to some other land.

AFFAIRS IN TEXAS.—The Shreveport News of the 12th has the following:

Corn is abundant at fifty cents per bushel. It will probably be worth thirty cents when the new crop is fit for use.

There is a great deal of sickness and a heavy mortality among the freed people in this city and vicinity. Exposure, idleness and want seem to be the principal causes of the great fatality which prevails among them.

There has been a very large falling off in the quantity of cotton brought in on wagons within the last week.

A public meeting was held at the Court House on Saturday last. A committee was appointed and a set of resolutions was adopted approving of President Johnson's course, indorsing the policy of Gov. Wells and recommending the different parishes to hold meetings to express the sentiments of the people. The taking of the oath of amnesty was also strongly advised.

Reports of yellow fever in Texas are contradicted.

The Galveston News notices the revival of various institutions of learning throughout the State, and their preparations for an active and industrious fall term.

W. P. Johnson, brother of the President, has been appointed Surveyor of Customs at the port of Velasco, Texas.

Immense droves of beeves are now on their way from Texas to New Orleans.

[Texas, we think, has in Gov. Hamilton, a safe and proper man to trust with the experiment of reconstruction. He has been a refugee at the north, during most of the war; and has some proper conception of the facts that we are a Nation, and that the People of the United States, having formed a Government for themselves, are determined to sustain it, not only against the attacks of rebels in one section, but also against the wiles of traitors and dupes in all sections.

JUSTICE VINDICATED.—The Washington Correspondent of the Boston Advertiser writes as follows, under date of Sep. 3.

The attorneys of Colonel Schirmer, late commander of the 15th New Heavy Artillery, are making an effort to get their client pardoned, or his sentence commuted. Schirmer was tried recently before a court martial in this city, and found guilty of enormous frauds upon the government whilst acting as colonel of his regiment and during the organization of the regiment. He was sentenced to pay a fine of ten thousand dollars, and to be imprisoned three years. He was arrested in July last year, and remained in the Old Capitol prison about five months. He was then released on parole, and again imprisoned two months in the winter. During all this time no charges had been preferred against him. His case was brought before the military committee of the House of Representatives, and upon the statement of his indignant friends, one of the members of the House offered a resolution upon which a fierce discussion arose, during which the memorable speeches of Hon. Winter Davis, Dawes of Massachusetts, Kasson of Iowa, and others were made, attacking Mr. Stanton for the arbitrary arrests of Schirmer and others. Schirmer's case was then supposed to be one of injured innocence. The result of this trial shows that he was not imprisoned amiss, notwithstanding any objections that may have been raised as to the form or anomalous continuance of the imprisonment. Schirmer's case is but the type of many of the arbitrary arrests and long imprisonments about which the Secretary of War was savagely attacked last winter, in Congress and by the copperhead press.

[Sec. Stanton has been one of the best abused men in Washington—and has borne the abuse as well as any other man ever did.]

— Bishop Colenso has got back to Natal. He has received a present of $15,000, to enable him to prosecute his biblical enquiries.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— A young girl named Moore had her arm broken on Thursday last, while at work in the Cocheco Mills, Dover.

—— Rev. J. W. Chickering is to be installed pastor of the 2d Church in Exeter, on Wednesday.

—— Counterfeit 50 cent bills are in circulation; engraving coarse; owl's face and woman's face no expression; engraving on back narrower than the true bills.

—— It is said Dr. Nat. Batchelder of Epping has sued Ex-Gov. Berry for $10,000 damages, for his imprisonment at Fort Constitution. Don't think he will get it very soon: his punishment was not half he deserved.

—— At North Conway, Friday morning, at the house of Leavitt Eastman, several ladies and gentleman were firing pistols at a target—and one pistol, in the hand of Henry C. Mayer, in the hand of Henry C. Mayer, was accidentally discharged through the head of Miss Fanny McGregor, who, crying out "O God," fell dead. The deceased was a daughter of James McGregor, President of State Bank, Boston.

—— Dr. Carlos Marston, who was killed by his wife at Dedham, Mass., is said to be 42 years of age, a native of Sutton, and formerly a Universalist minister, a man of excellent character. Mrs. M., it is said was a Miss Tanney, of Lebanon, and was married near 15 years since; but becoming a Spiritualist, left her husband 10 years ago, and lived with her sisters, but after a time returned to her husband. The little girl Cora was an adopted child. The homicide was deliberately and craftily planned; and no doubt exists of the woman's insanity.

RAILROADS.—"The Saco Democrat understands that the York & Cumberland Railroad Co. will, another year, extend their line from Buxton to Great Falls via Alfred. We hope it may prove true. The Portland Press, however, says that the line is to be continued via Alfred to Rochester, N. H., cutting the Conway and the Cocheco Railroads at that point, which will be brought 38 miles nearer Portland than Boston."

We clip the above from the Biddeford Journal. Some twelve or fifteen years ago, after work had been commenced on the York & Cumberland at Great Falls, and the piers for the bridge partially constructed across the Salmon Falls river, and the road graded for a mile or more in places nearly parallel to the highway from Great Falls to Rochester; a preliminary examination was made of the route from Alfred to Rochester, with a view to the feasibility of a direct route from Portland to New York, via Nashua, Worcester, &c. The result of the examination showed the route much more feasible to Rochester from Alfred than to Great Falls, and much shorter.

It would also run five or six miles further north of the Boston & Maine road, and pass through a much better country for business, and at Rochester would have the benefit of a competing point to Boston via the Eastern or Boston & Maine roads—the Eastern controlling and managing the Great Falls & Conway, and the Boston & Maine controlling and running the Dover & Winnipisseogee. At Rochester it would connect Portland with Northern and Eastern New Hampshire via the above named roads. Twenty-three miles would connect Rochester with the Portsmouth & Concord Road at Candia, and give a direct route from Portland to New York, via Manchester, Nashua and Worcester.

From Alfred to Rochester a railroad can be built cheaper than any other piece of road of the same length in New England; and for ten miles after leaving Rochester toward Candia, the land is peculiarly favorable, being level, with no large streams.

For the above reasons we believe the statement of the Press correct, that when the York & Cumberland is built, it will come from Alfred to Rochester. Our merchants have bought many of their heavy goods in Portland for some years, but having to pass over three roads in less than 50 miles, it makes the freights higher than from Boston. Since the preliminary survey, which made a decided change in the views of the managers of the York & Cumberland, East Rochester has grown to be quite a manufacturing place on the line of the route surveyed, while the building of the Concord Road through Manchester would make it easy for Portland to realize her ambition long entertained, of a direct route to New York.—Rochester Courier.

☞ On horror's head horrors accumulate. Last week a woman named Perkins, wife of a respectable well-to-do farmer, near Brantford, U. C., finding herself upon her death-bed, sent for a clergyman and confessed that she had at different periods of her life committed six murders, and all by poison, four children and two adults; and to make the matter still more revolting, the fact that two of the former were her own children, and one of the latter her first husband's. The children were murdered in England, and the adults in Canada.

John Caten, a soldier belonging to the 7th N. H., came to Saco last Wednesday, and during the day was very free with his money. He was "spotted" by some of the roughs, and in the evening between 9 and 10 he was assaulted on Scammao St., and robbed of $65. Two men were arrested the next day for the robbery but there being no proof against them they were let off. We understand Wm. Scamman, esq., was assaulted the same evening, near the same place.—Biddeford Journal.

THE WIRE TRIAL goes on, and evidence accumulates against poor W., a fearful pile; but we have not room for it.

DEAFNESS AND CATARRH.—We call special attention to the card of Dr. Campbell of New York, which may be found in another column. Dr. Campbell is a regularly educated physician, who for a number of years has made the treatment of Deafness and Catarrh his exclusive study and practice, and the numerous testimonials he publishes from some of the most prominent citizens of Dover, Saco, York, Manchester and elsewhere, are ample and most convincing proofs of the extraordinary success he has achieved. He will remain at the Franklin House until Sept. 30th, where all suffering from diseases of the head, ears or throat can consult him. The Doctor's testimonials are from our very close vicinity, and those who doubt have ample opportunity to investigate for themselves, which Dr. C. specially invites. We are permitted to select and publish the following from among his numerous certificates:

CERTIFICATE OF MR. WM. GRANT.

SACO, ME. Sept. 1, 1864.

I have been deaf in both ears for the last seven years; not able to converse with any one. Dr. Campbell, at the Saco House, has most wonderfully restored my hearing, so that I now hear as well as I ever did. Those who doubt can call on me at my farm, in York, and hear the testimony of my neighbors, or inquire of the proprietor of the Saco House. Those who are deaf will never regret consulting Dr. Campbell, and I earnestly advise every one to do so. I am sixty-seven years of age.

WILLIAM GRANT, York, Me.

CERTIFICATE OF MRS. S. ADAMS.

SACO, ME., Sept. 10, 1864.

Under Dr. Campbell's thorough and scientific treatment I am happy to testify that I have been cured of a catarrhal affection of the mouth and throat, with which I have been troubled for the past two years. I take pleasure in recommending Dr. C.

MRS. SELUCUS ADAMS, School street.

CERTIFICATE OF MR. DEMERRIT.

FARMINGTON, N. H., April 22, 1864.

I have for three years been totally deaf in my right ear and have suffered much from intensely painful noises in the head. I consulted Dr. Campbell, at the American House, in Dover, and can now hear the faintest sound with my right ear as well as the left. The noises in my head have entirely gone, and I can never express my gratitude to Dr. Campbell for the immense benefit he has afforded me. JOSEPH L. DEMERRITT.

THE DROWNING ACCIDENT.—The Rochester Courier gives some additional particulars, and corrects some errors in the reports of the deaths of Messrs. Whitehouse and McDuffee. The Courier says that from all the facts and incidents, it is surmised that the boat was run down by some of the coastwise schooners or steamers plying between Boston and Portland. The fact that the bow of the boat is considerably scarred and rubbed; that the anchor rope is very smoothly cut off and the anchor with most of the rope gone; that the boots of Mr. McDuffee were found in the boat, and that Mr. Whitehouse's body was without coat,—all go to prove that they were anchored in the night time, and that they saw some heavy craft bearing down upon them, and made every effort the few moments would allow to save themselves. The sea being unusually smooth at the time, and the boat being found near the waters usually the course of all coast-wise craft—and the watch of Mr. W. (which was found in his shirt pocket) being stopped at half-past four, all lead to this conclusion."

"A small valise belonging to McDuffee, and a telescope were found in the boat. Another large valise belonging to Mr. W., and his coat, hat, etc., were gone. His watch chain was also not found, but instead a string was tied into the button-hole of his shirt—which was probably a precaution of his own against losing his watch. McDuffee was the son of John McDuffee, Esq., President of Rochester Bank, and was not the cashier, or his younger brother, as has been reported. He was unmarried, thirty-five years of age, about the same as Mr. Whitehouse, and had been to sea most of his life,—being considered an expert as a sailor. The report that his body was seen at the time the boat was found is a mistake. No trace of it has been discovered."

☞ The "Philharmonic" will re-assemble to-morrow evening. See the Secretary's notice. The Society has procured a new and splendid Hallet, Davis & Co. piano for their rehearsals; and we understand a superb full Concert Grand from the same celebrated makers, is speedily to be placed in the Temple, for their Concerts and other use.

☞ A grand chance for an Excursion to-morrow night. Lamprey's Quadrille Band, besides the full Portsmouth Cornet, will be on hand, and give all bands good opportunity to show the "foot." See the managers' advertisement.

☞ The new House on Pleasant street, near Water, advertised at auction on Saturday, was knocked off by Mr. Wendell to Mr. Henry R. Stoddard, for $4500. The premises are said to have cost about $6000.

AGENTS WANTED

FOR

The Secret Service, the Field, the Dungeon, and the Escape.

BY ALBERT D. RICHARDSON,

N. Y. Tribune Correspondent.

70,000 Copies Sold in Sixty Days!

The most interesting and exciting book ever published, embracing Mr. Richardson's unparalleled experience for four years. Travelling thro' the South in the secret service of the "Tribune" at the outbreak of the war; with our armies and fleets, both East and West, during the first two years of the rebellion; his thrilling capture; his confinement for twenty months in seven different Rebel prisons; his escape, and almost miraculous journey by night of nearly 600 miles. It will abound in stirring events, and contain more of the fact, incident and romance of the war, than any other work yet published. Horace Greeley says of it:

"A great many books will yet be written concerning this war, in addition to the many already in print; but not one of them will give, within a similar compass, a clearer, fuller, more readable account, entirely from personal observation, of the nature, animus, purposes, tendencies and instrumentalities of the slaveholders' Rebellion, than does the unpretending narrative of Mr. Richardson."

Teachers, ladies, energetic young men, and especially returned and disabled officers and soldiers, in want of profitable employment, will find it particularly adapted to their condition. Send for circulars. Address

Special Notices.

CAUTION FROM THE

AMERICAN WATCH COM'Y.

It having come to our knowledge that imitations of the American Watch have been put upon the market in great number, calculated by their utter worthlessness to injure the reputation of our genuine products, to protect our own interests and the public from imposition, we again publish the trade marks by which our Watches may invariably be known.

We manufacture four styles of Watches.

The FIRST has the name "AMERICAN WATCH CO., Waltham, Mass.," engraved on the inside plate.

The SECOND has the name "APPLETON, TRACY & CO., Waltham, Mass.," engraved on the inside plate.

The THIRD has the name "P. S. BARTLETT, Waltham, Mass.," engraved on the inside plate.

All the above styles have the name American Watch Co. painted on the dial, and are warranted in every respect.

The FOURTH has the name "WM. ELLERY, Boston, Mass.," engraved on the inside plate, and is not named on the dial.

All the above described Watches are made of various sizes, and are sold in gold or silver cases as may be required.

It is hardly possible for us to accurately describe the numerous imitations to which we have alluded. They are usually inscribed with names so near approaching our own as to escape the observation of the unaccustomed buyer. Some are represented as made by the "Union Watch Co., of Boston, Mass.,"—no such company existing. Some are named the "Soldier's Watch," to be sold as our Fourth or Wm. Ellery style, usually known as the "Soldier's Watch." Others are named the "Appleton Watch Co.;" others "P. S. Bartlett," instead of our P. S. Bartlett; besides many varieties named in such a manner as to convey the idea that they are the veritable productions of the American Watch Company.

We also caution the public, and particularly soldiers, against buying certain articles CALLED watches, so freely advertised in illustrated papers as "Army Watches," "Officers' Watches," "Magic Time Observers," "Arcana Watches," &c., the prices of which are stated to be from seven to sixteen dollars. A good watch, in these times, cannot be afforded for any such money.

A little attention from buyers will protect them from gross imposition.

THE BEST STRENGTHENING Plaster is the Porous Plaster of Dr. Allcock. They are warranted to keep good twenty years, but may be returned for fresh plasters without charge.

IMPORTANT QUALITIES.

They will cure a Weakness in the Back, Pain in the Side, a Lameness of the Knee, or of the Ankles, or Cold Feet, sooner and with more comfort than any other application.

KNOXVILLE, Albany Co., Jan. 16, 1852.

DR. T. ALLCOCK—Dear Sir: Seventeen years ago I was sorely injured in my back. At length I was induced to use your plasters. I wore one constantly for six months, and did more hard work during that six months than in the preceding fifteen years. I have not worn a plaster for over eighteen months, and have had no return of the gnawing pain and weakness in my back, but have been entirely well.

I am your obedient servant,

BRANDRETH'S PILLS A GENERAL ASSISTANT OF NATURE.

What is health? What is disease?

Health is when the supply and expenditure are equal. Disease when the supply and expenditure are unequal.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS impart certain expulsive powers to all matters in the body whose life is below the standard of the surrounding party, or which have remained longer than the time nature designed. So in fevers and in all that class of cases which run into mortification BRANDRETH'S PILL have marvelous curative qualities. Our bodies are continually changing, and it is by this change we live. Should matter remain in organs beyond the time nature designed, pain and inflammation set in, which is nothing more than a preparatory effort for our good. All Brandreth's Pills are supposed from the results to do is simply

ASSISTING THESE EFFORTS OF NATURE.

We have put up and sold this article for over 30 years, and can say in confidence and truth of it what we have never been able to say of any other medicine—never has it failed in a single instance to effect a cure, when timely used. Never did we know an instance of dissatisfaction by any one who used it. On the contrary, all are delighted with its operations, and speak in terms of commendation of its magical effects and medicinal virtues. We speak in this matter of "what we do know," after 30 years experience; and pledge our reputation for the fulfillment of what we here declare. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the syrup administered.

Local.

THE WEATHER.—Aside from the serious discomfort we all experience in breathing the clouds of dust raised by every passing breeze or following nearly every movement of man or beast, the dry weather is having a very damaging effect upon fruits and late vegetables. Pears, peaches and grapes, are falling prematurely, rotting upon the trees or dying with the rust. The crop of berries, which was so profuse at first, promises to meet an untimely end. Wild cherries we find to consist of a black skin drawn tightly over a stone. In some quarters the farmers are very anxious for the safety of their late potatoes. In some places they are injured beyond remedy by the drouth, and in many other will be unless rain comes speedily and in great abundance. Corn is also suffering badly for want of rain. Fires prevail in the woods and fields, and our atmosphere is murky with smoke. Passengers in the late train from Boston, report continuous fires along a great part of the road in this State, on Saturday evening. This Monday morning the wind has veered around to the northeast, and we hope by the time this paragraph is in print we may be called upon to produce our umbrella.

☞ The funeral services of Commodore John C. Long, whose death we announced in our issue of Monday, took place in Exeter on Sunday afternoon, from his late residence. It was very large and imposing being attended by a large concourse of relatives and friends of the deceased, the Rev. Dr. Burroughs of this city officiating. The pall bearers were Capt. J. R. Goldsborough, Capt. Charles W. Pickering, Paymaster Horatio Bridges, Chief of Bureau of Provisions and Clothing, Paymaster C. J. Emery, Surgeon A. S. Gibon, Paymaster Wm. H. Thompson, Lieuts. Henry J. Bishop and George G. Stoddard, U. S. Marines.

Commodore Long entered the Navy as a Midshipman on the 18th of June, 1812, and proved a valuable and energetic officer, and a thorough gentleman. His total sea service was 23 years and 3 months; shore duty, 13 years and 4 months, and 15 and 11 months unemployed. His last sea service closed in August, 1859, when he commanded the U. S. frigate Minnesota.

☞ Chales Carle, who used to drive a Stage Coach from Portsmouth to Portland, before the days of Railroads, has been employed in Portland ever since in conveying the mails to and from the trains: but we learn from the Press that he sold his teams to the Eastern Express Co., last week, laid down his whip, and drives no more.—The Press tells a story of him on this wise. Mr. Paine, who owned or directed the line, when C. drove, ordered its drivers to start punctually at the time set. That time happened to be 4 A. M.; Mr. P. was going to Boston, and was seen by C. to be coming; but he started at 4, and left P. behind, who took a special team and overtook C. commending his promptness.

POLICE COURT.—Sept. 4.—Laroy Louie, a Frenchman, drunkenness, fined $3 and costs, $3.86. Committed.

Thos. Clark, same offence and same expense. Committed.

Almira Hodgdon, keeping noisy and disorderly house, bound over in the sum of $100 for her appearance at the full term of the Supreme Judicial Court.

Anna Blaisdell, night walking, sent to the House of Correction for 30 days and pay costs 5.91.

☞ A man named Isaac Butler, a carpenter from Kennebunk, Me., was run over on Monday at Kittery Foreside by a horse and carriage and quite seriously injured. Mr. Butler has been employed on the Navy Yard many years.

☞ Mr. Hanson Hoyt of Christian Shore, employed on the Parrott house on Middle Street, on Saturday last fell a distance of twenty feet, injuring him badly.

☞ On Monday morning orders were received for the two companies of Heavy Artillery stationed at Fort Constitution to proceed to Concord for the purpose of being mustered out. They will be relieved by two companies of the Veteran Reserve Corps.

THE FREEWILL BAPTISTS.—The Dover, N. H., Morning Star, the organ of this denomination, gives some statistics respecting its membership. In 1844, when their number was largest, the membership was 61,372. In 1853 it had fallen off to 47,930. In 1860 it had increased to 59,791, and now it is 55,676. But in some respects they have prospered. In 1843 there were only 125 churches that were able to support ministers, and the pastors of the other societies were compelled to labor a portion of the time to earn their living. Now, three hundred ministers are supported, their houses of worship having increased in number and excellence, their missionary work has largely increased, and they have added to the number and character of their denominational schools.

GOLD, Monday, 144 1-8.

The Exeter Ballot says that our Mayor Shaw recently drove through that place with his handsome team of four horses, on his way to Rye Beach. That champagne dinner, Hackett, not only made you see double but quadruple. The mayor drives only a one horse team, and hasn't been near Rye Beach, but luxuriates at Saint's Rest. —Biddeford Journal.

Now we shan't attempt to answer for any or all of the Major's sayings or doings—much less for Mayor Shaw's. Both are of age, and can speak for themselves—ask them. But in this case, we have just one word to say to the Journal: the Ballot item said Shaw came with "4 horse power;" and we do know the said Mayor did leave the "Saint's Rest" for a little, to try the waters of Rye Beach, and see a few of the gentiles and world's people.

☞ The sum due publishers of newspapers for printing the New Hampshire Laws of June session, 1865, is $20.80. Hardly enough to pay for setting the types. Rich pap that, truly. We wonder how long it would take to fat up a publisher on that, with things at present prices.

☞ The rebel ex-envoy Mr. Mason, writing to the London Times, says orders were immediately forwarded to stop the Shenandoah's cruise on the termination of the war. We should think the war lasted as long as the ship's commission held out—unless she is a pirate. There are two very ugly horns to this dilemma.

☞ It is said that there were 15,000 persons on the Alton Camp Ground on Thursday of last week, which is unprecedented in the annals of camp meeting history.

— The small increase of the Public Debt for August, and the fact that there are forty millions of gold in the Treasury, causes a good deal of congratulation in Government circles.

— Bishop Green of Mississippi charges his clergy not to pray for the President till civil rule is established there. Paul charged the Christian Church to pray for all men,—for kings and all in authority.

— Many persons, some of eminence, are leaving the Church of England, and entering the Church of Rome.

Our Children.—How much suffering might be saved them, and how many lives spared to us, did we but keep ready for use a few bottles of DR. BICKNELL'S SYRUP, which cures Dysentery, Diarrhœa, Summer Complaint, or Pain or Cramp, or Distress from Eating.

☞ In North Carolina the freedmen are making fall crops on the government farms. The offenders in cases of cruelty to negroes have been arrested and are awaiting trial. In some cases the blacks are treated in a spirit of fairness, but more frequently they are abused and oppressed to a shameful degree. The right to punish them is still claimed by their employers, and a few assert that they will either have the blacks as slaves, or exterminate the whole race.—The actions of the blacks in a great number of instances are equally unfortunate and fitful. Some are determined to be dependents, and idly roam about, refusing steady employment, being so filled with suspicion that they will assent to no contract.

— The Memphis Bulletin relates the case of a Southern female refugee who had only one faded calico dress that she wore upon her back. A benevolent gentlemen had a collection taken up for her, and realized $15 for her benefit. She at once repaired to a dry goods store where she paid $13 for a lace collar.

ABOUT PRESERVING THE EYES, some one has lately cautioned, as injurious, dipping the face in a basin of cold water and opening the eyes. Now we know of a far advanced individual, who has not failed for thirty years, or more, to souse his face into a vessel of cold water, every morning, summer and winter, and wash his eyes (with the lids,) until they begin to ache; and that man has had no disease of the eyes since and can read a diamond bible without spectacles, with a good light, although bordering on ninety years.

N. H. LAWS, 1865.

AN ACT in addition to an act entitled An act in relation to married Women, passed July 4, 1860.

Be it enacted, &c.

Section 1. That every married woman, and every woman hereafter married, shall hold to her own use, free from the interference or control of her husband, all property acquired or inherited, bequeathed, given or conveyed to her, either before or after marriage, provided such acquiring, conveyance, gift or bequest, is not occasioned by payment or pledge of the property of the husband.

Sec. 2. The husband of any married woman making a will in accordance with section three of the act to which this act is in addition, shall, if no provision is made for him, in the will, if he shall waive such provision, as he may waive it, receive the same distributive share from his deceased wife's estate as she would receive from his estate in a like case if she died and she intestate.

Sec. 3. If any married woman, holding personal property in her sole and separate use in accordance with this act, or the act of which this is in addition, shall die intestate, said property shall vest and be administered as is provided by section 1 of chapter 207 of the laws of 1862.

Sec. 4. Nothing in this act shall be construed as to in any way affect any ante-nuptial agreements, or marriage settlements, or the husband's right as a tenant by courtesy.

Sec. 5. All acts and parts of acts inconsistent with this act are hereby repealed.

Sec. 6. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

Approved July 1, 1865.

Joint Resolution in favor of the New-Hampshire Historical Society.

Resolved, &c. That the sum of five hundred dollars be, and the same is hereby, appropriated to the New-Hampshire Historical Society, to aid in procuring and preserving the manuscript records and papers relating to the Colonial History of New-Hampshire, and in publishing such parts of the same as the said society shall judge expedient, and for like purposes; said sum to be paid out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated. Approved June 30, 1865.

Resolved, &c. That the sum of six thousand dollars be, and the same is hereby, annually appropriated for the maintenance of indigent insane persons belonging to this State at the Asylum for the Insane, for such and so many as His Excellency, from time to time, approves; provided that not less than two thirds of said sum shall be applied annually to the support of private patients, exclusive of paupers maintained at public charge; and further, that the sum of one hundred dollars be, and the same is hereby, annually appropriated toward the support and increase of the library for the insane; and the superintendent of said asylum, from time to time, as occasion may require, to draw his warrant upon the treasury for the purpose of said appropriation.

And be it further resolved, That all previous resolutions making annual appropriations for the support of the indigent insane be and the same are hereby repealed.

Approved June 28, 1865.

Resolved, &c. That our Senators in Congress be instructed, and our Representatives be requested, to urge, as a wise and just measure, the assumption by the General Government of the State debts incurred in defence of the Union during the late rebellion.

COAL AT COST.

EAGLE HILL MUTUAL COAL COMPANY.

This Company is organized on the mutual plan, the same in principle as the Insurance Companies, and has none of the features of the speculative movements of the day. Its officers are among the solid men of Boston, and are known as gentlemen of integrity. We feel sure that those associated with any of the speculative operations of the times.

The Colliery is one of the best and most extensive in the coal region, produces a coal far superior to any used in this market, and from its advantages can make cheaper than most others. It has been operation over six months, has more than 4000 stockholders, has delivered coal at a saving of $2 to $4 per ton from regular market prices, and has paid cash dividends of 4 per cent.

Any one who will take the trouble to investigate the facts, will see at once that the complaints of coal monopolists have no application to this company, and that it is as safe and sure as any railroad or bank stock in the market.

QUICK CURES AND LOW PRICES.

Over Twenty Thousand Patients Cured Annually.

DR. J. TELLER continues to be confidentially and successfully consulted on all forms of private diseases, at his old Established Hospital, No. 5 Beaver Street, Albany, N. Y. Twenty years devoted to this one particular branch of practice, enables him to perform cures such as other Physician can, and his facilities are such (being in correspondence with the most eminent Physicians of the Old World,) of obtaining the Secret as well as the latest remedies for these diseases, offer inducements to the unfortunate of a quick and rapid cure, to be obtained at no other office in America.

In Syphilis, Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Stricture, Enlargement of the Testicles and Spermatic Cords, Bubo, Ulcerated Throat, Sore Nose, Tender Shin Bones, Cutaneous Eruptions, Biles, Ulcers, Abscesses, and all other impurities of the system, are perfectly cured by Under the Doctor's Medicines, and have been tested in more than 20,000 cases annually, with immense Success.

YOUNG MEN.

Young Men addicted to secret habits, who have impaired their healths and destroyed the vigor of their minds, thus depriving themselves of the pleasures of the Married Life, are notified that in consulting Dr. J. Teller, they will find a friend to console and a Physician who has cured thousands, in almost every part of the United States, who applied to Dr. T. broken down in health, now rejoice in all that makes life desirable and man happy. The reader is of course aware that the delicacy of this subject will prevent a more minute description of this terrible disease.

DR. TELLER'S GREAT WORK.

A book for everybody—Startling disclosures. Dr. TELLER's great work for the Married or those contemplating marriage—300 pages—full of plates—price 25 cts. (sent to all parts, under seal), by mail, post paid. 50,000 copies sold the past year. The single Married and the Married Happy. A lecture on Love, and how to obtain it—a complete work on Midwifery. It contains hundreds of secrets, never before published.—Warranted to be worth three times the money asked for it. 25 cents, in specie or postage stamps, inclosed, will secure a copy by return mail. Dr. TELLER has cured a Gentleman of the cure of those diseases upon which his books treat.

TO THE LADIES.

DR. TELLER still remains the only Agency in America, for the sale of Dr. Nichols' Italian Female Monthly Pills. The sale of more than 20,000 boxes establishes their reputation as a female remedy, unprovoked, and far in advance of every other medicine—for stoppages, irregularities, and other obstructions in females.

Caution.—Married ladies in certain delicate situations should avoid their use. For reasons see directions which accompany each package, for the guidance of the unfortunate. In receipt of $1, (the price per box,) these Pills will be sent, by mail or express, to any part of the world, secure from curiosity or damage.

Office hours from 8 A.M. to 8 P.M., and on Sundays from 9 to 5 P. M.

Letters from a distance can be cured at home by addressing a letter to Dr. J. Teller, enclosing a remittance. Medicines securely packed from observation, sent to any part of world. All cases warranted. No charge for advice.—N. B.—No students or boys employed. Notice this, address all letters to

Important to the Afflicted.

DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, No. 2 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, BOSTON, on all diseases of a PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE. By a long course of study and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. D. has now the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that have never, since the first creation, failed to cure the most alarming cases of GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS.—Dr. Dow devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, rendering the unfortunate individual for business or society. Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.—Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving descriptions of your cases. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Capotte, warranted the best preventive. Order by mail. Three or $1 and a red stamp.

Highly Important to Females

IN DELICATE HEALTH.

Dr. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No. 7 Endicott Street, Boston, is consulted daily for all diseases incident to the female system. Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience in the cure of diseases of women than any other physician in Boston. Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment. Dr. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to his office practice for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United States.

N. B.—All letters must contain one dollar, or they will not be answered. Office hours from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M.

THE MAGEE

COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber would especially call the attention of the public to the

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and and-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water: also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We invite all those in want of the very best Stove in the market, to examine the

MAGEE COOK.

Also on hand an assortment of the different sizes

—of the—

MAGEE PARLOR STOVE

with and without ovens, which are too well known to need any recommendation.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"

VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING

FURNACES.

The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

SPANISH ROUGE,

FOR POLISHING,

XL

Or Cleaning Gold, Silver, Silver Plated, Britannia, Brass, Tin, Steel, Iron, Copper, Glass, or Metal of all kinds. For the purpose intended this article cannot be excelled. For twenty-five cents invested in a package of this, will add more to the looks of a home than one hundred dollars spent in new furniture. Every article of any kind of metal about the house can be kept to look like new. How much pleasanter all are when everything looks bright and clean, which causes a smile upon the faces of all. The labor of keeping every article of metal polished with the Spanish Rouge is reduced to a mere pastime and pleasure. It removes the tarnish at the brush of the hand. It is a mineral without any composition whatever, therefore free from injury.

Put up in three different qualities, for the finest Gold to the coarsest Metals.

Try the Spanish Rouge, and it will become a household word and a great assistant. Every person who has a ring or ear-drop, to an engine manufacturer, needs it. For sale by Druggists and Grocery Dealers everywhere.

REMARKABLE ESCAPE.—The Boston Herald states that "at about 1 o'clock on Friday morning as two young men were driving over Chelsea bridge in a buggy towards Boston, they came in contact with some plank and timber which formed an inclosure on the north side of the bridge, where workmen are engaged in laying down new plank and otherwise repairing the bridge. The horse was going at rapid speed at the time, and when within a few feet of the plank, which were piled up some six feet in height, he made a jump, clearing himself from the carriage, and went over the plank through the space which was open, into the Mystic river. The horse was not hurt, and swam to the timber yard near by and landed on terra firma. He was taken to Wiley's stable in Charlestown. The carriage was not damaged, with the exception of the breaking of the whiffle tree, and then the young men were left seated in the carriage without a horse to bring them to Boston. It was indeed remarkable that they escaped being drowned or injured."

It may be worth while to ask what two young men were doing there at that hour in the morning? and whether they were sober.

AN OLD SETTLER.—Dr. S. D. York, a resident of Lowell, but for the last ten years a farmer in Windham, N. H., yesterday gave us a rather curious account of a discovery in natural history made by himself and son while chopping in his forest last Friday. In felling a large white oak tree, two feet, through at the foot, after cutting in about eleven inches from the surface, a small cavity was reached, though the wood about it was sound, and in this cavity was found a live tree-frog, of small size, but answering very well, both in color and form, to the description of this species of frog as given by naturalists. The frog dropped out with the chips, and, though beheaded by the stroke of the axe, wriggled his legs for moments. Dr. York states that the surface of the tree's trunk was perfectly sound, both wood and bark, and fifty rings were counted from the cavity to the surface of the tree, indicating that the frog had been a tenant for fifty years.—Lowell Citizen.

— The number of operatives in twelve large manufactories in Lowell is now 8,807, against 12,044 in 1861.

— At the Waverly Gold Mines, near Halifax, N. S., 1200 ounces per month of the precious metal is taken out, yielding the proprietors a profit of over $1200.

— Horace Greeley is to deliver the annual address at the Minnesota Agricultural Fair. An exchange says that his subject will probably be "The Eradication of Weeds."

— Mr. C. F. Luckey of Tennessee was among the unsuccessful applicants for pardon at Washington lately. He proposes to change his name to U. N. Luckey.

— A young girl who had run away from home in Altoona, Pa., to join a circus, leaped from a train going thirty miles an hour, the other day, to avoid capture, and strange to say, was uninjured. She evidently has chosen her proper profession.

— George K. Smith of Cleveland was arrested for stealing a guitar from a young woman. She called upon him, and he so convinced her of his changed character that she intends to marry him so soon as he gets out of prison!

— The champion boatmen, the Biglins, have made a match for $2000 with the Ward brothers, to be rowed on the Hudson river, half-way between New York and Newburg, respectively the residences of the competitors, on the 25th inst.

— All the crops in Georgia, except peaches and apples, are very poor. Nearly the entire State has suffered from a protracted drouth, not enough cotton being made for domestic wants. Consequently, at the end of the year the people will not have the means to begin the work of restoring their ruined homes and broken fortunes.

— A singular incident occurred in England recently. The catacomb vaults on the west side of Kensal Green Cemetery were found on fire. Five coffins were destroyed and a great many seriously burnt. The origin of the fire was unknown. It is in this cemetery that Hood, Leech, Thackery and other eminent men are interred.

American and Foreign Patents.
H. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.]
76 State street, opposite Kilby street,
Boston.
After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantage for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.
The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.
These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessary of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.
"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.
Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me EIGHTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unanimity is proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges." JOHN TAGGART
During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents. R. H. EDDY.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 6, 1865.

SOUTH CAROLINA.—The Charleston (S. C.) Courier says the following extract is from a letter addressed by Gov. Perry to a prominent citizen of Charleston:

"If you take the oath (of amnesty) and apply for a pardon, it is to be presumed, after the approval by me, that it is granted, and you are entitled to vote or serve in the convention, although your pardon may not have been returned or received by you."

Gov. Perry has not the sanction of President Johnson for this course; his proceeding is certainly extraordinary—nothing less than an usurpation of the pardoning power.

MISSISSIPPI.—A Jackson (Mississippi) dispatch to the Memphis Bulletin says the action of Gen. Osterhaus in taking a prisoner from the court room while on trial for an offence against the civil law, created much excitement among the people, but confidence is felt that the President would sustain Gov. Sharkey. It is doubtful whether Pres. J. can long sustain the Shark.

VIRGINIA.—A Virginia paper says that the supply of game in that State is extraordinary. The woods swarm with squirrels, there are crowded settlements of rabbits, while the partridges are so numerous that they come up in flocks to the very doors of the farm-houses, and take "pot-luck" with the farmers' chickens.

Oysters are to be very plenty this season, and the reason is that along the shore of Virginia are vast beds of the bivalves that have lain undisturbed during the last four years, with nothing else to do but grow large and get fat.

The farmers in the Shenandoah valley are making great exertions to put in a large wheat crop this fall.

It is said the ex-rebel Gen. Lee has accepted the Presidency of Washington College.

WASHINGTON ITEMS, of the 4th.—The Internal Revenue receipts to-day reached four millions two hundred thousand dollars, the largest sum ever reached in one day.

Judge Advocate Chipman spent to day in classifying witnesses for the Wirz trial, to avoid repetition of evidence. A large number of witnesses will be discharged.

The rebel Capt. Winder, who was at Andersonville with Wirz, is placed in the Old Capitol Prison. He claims that he acted under orders in the management of the prison-pen.

It has been circulated that Jeff. Davis will be tried right away. It is understood, however, that his trial will not take place till October, and then it will be before Chief Justice Chase, at Norfolk, Va.

It is not believed here, as stated in English journals, that the President has invited John Bright to visit the United States as the guest of the nation; and certainly the Navy Department has no knowledge that the Colorado or any other vessel has been designated to bring him to this country.

HARDLY UP TO THE MARK.—Three of the Methodist Bishops of the South have issued pastoral manifestoes in which they have at length recognized the miserable failure to destroy the political unity of the country, but they are more intractable on the subject of church re-union with their Northern bretheren, claiming that the latter have repulsed previous advances made with this object, and insisting that future proposals must come from the Northern churches.

CONTRACTS for postal service in the South, now being made with railroads and steamboats, are taken at an average of fifty per cent. less than before the war. In one case $27,300 is now paid where it formerly cost the Government $158,000. There used to be a great deal of talk about the devotion of Yankees to the "almighty dollar," and the chivalry used to sneer at it, as if the dollar was of no account among them; but this item shows that big swindles were practiced on the United States, in money as well as other things.

☞ At Augusta, Me., Monday night, five barracks at Camp Coburn belonging to the Government, were totally destroyed by fire. Three barracks and a sutler's building were also partially destroyed by being torn down. Loss about $3000. The fire was probably set, by design.

☞ At Petroleum Centre, Penn., a fire was kindled by a spark from a laborer's pipe, Saturday morning, which first destroyed 300 barrels of oil and a tank at Anderson's well's, when the tank burst, spreading destruction over an acre of territory. Two engine houses, two derricks and a refinery were destroyed. The whole town was at one time threatened. The loss is estimated at $11,000. Rather a dear pipe!

— At North Berwick, Me., 24th Aug., Mr. John Fernald, aged 70, ate supper as usual, but as he arose from supper, complained of a bad feeling at the stomach, and took a seat in another room, where he appeared to drop asleep. Attempting to awaken him, his wife perceived that he slept the sleep of death.

CONCORD, Sept. 5.

Dear Chronicle: Here I am, at the Fair and "the Fair" it is, sure enough; greater than ever New Hampshire, if not New England, ever saw before, in many respects, and as a whole. I have no time now for specifications; and indeed do not mean to give you much regular detail at all,—for that is not my way, you know, but shall try and let you have daily, a few jottings on whatever I think of interest to your readers.

Concord is full of people—"chuck, ram, cram, brimfull"—and oh the dust! But the managers of the Fair and the City, have done all they can for the comfort and accommodations of the crowds; and between our friends of the Phenix Hotel, and the "Editorial Committee on Receptions," and numerous other hospitable acquaintances here, I expect to be able to "continue to the end," if I dont get smothered or buried in the dust.

The general Exhibition opened this (Tuesday) morning, and will continue till Friday night. Any horses in New England that have never trotted for money, went for a $75 purse this afternoon—the result of which, this leaves too early for me to learn. There was an interesting Farmer's discussion at the City Hall in the evening, and Exhibition in Eagle Hall.

On Wednesday, stallion's of New England complete for premium of $300. Thursday will be the grand day, if any day be grander than the others. Of which, hereafter. Ever yours, JOTTER.

RICHMOND.—A Richmond letter in the Baltimore American says the late public meeting at Richmond was a dead failure. For various reasons the greater portion of the citizens manifest a determination not to have anything more to do with politics, and therefore would not have turned out in any event. But there was one reason more potent than all the rest for their absence. The band began playing shortly before five o'clock, the hour fixed for the meeting, and at the first tap of the drum the negroes commenced running from all quarters—men, women and little children. As citizens would arrive and see this state of things, they would quietly go off and leave the ground to the freedmen, having no power to remove them. The result was that not more than two hundred whites remained. The writer says the speeches of Messrs. Syms, Daniel and Macfarland on the occasion had better have been left unsaid. A correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer thus referrs to this meeting:

"The invitation to the President to visit Richmond is likely to prove a failure, inasmuch as His Excellency has been thoroughly posted in the materials of the late mass meeting, and the vindictive spirit exhibited by Messrs. Syms and Daniel in their speeches. Both of those gentlemen showed that they, at least, were not subdued, if overthrown; and that they were anxious to get rid of the military, for reasons they dared not express."

LOUISIANA.—New Orleans correspondence says Gov. Welles of Louisiana has ordered the seizure of all cotton purchased by Henry W. Allen, formerly rebel Governor, to be turned over to the benefit of the State.

— Bernard Mooney of Lubec, while eating his dinner at Eastport, Me., the other day, was choked to death by a piece of beef, which he attempted to swallow.

— On Monday, the propeller Mollison exploded her boiler when near Trenton, N. J., on her return from New York, killing a lady and seriously injuring the captain and engineer.

— It is reported that R. J. Race, conductor of the mail train, and James White, of the express train, on the Long Island Railroad, have been arrested on a coroner's warrant.

— A large barn belonging to Hon. Dan'l W. Lord, in Kennebunkport, was burned at 3 o'clock Monday morning, with 50 tons hay. Loss $2000. No insurance. Probably incendiary.

— The editor of the Maine Farmer says apples are scarce because the farmers do not renew their trees. He says the young orchards promise well this year, while the old orchards make the meanest display of fruit for many years.

— Over one-half the claims for pension, bounties and back pay are presented for the soldiers gratuitously by the Sanitary Commission. The total number of naval prize claims received during the month of August was 2506, of which 1738 were settled by the payment of $182,532.

— "Judge Wright and his four sons," who were killed the other day in Missouri, were a set of bushwhackers; and as they were passing on towards a prison and trial, they made a rush to escape, and were shot down by the guards, who only performed their duty.

— The N. Y. Herald's Chattanooga correspondence gives a gratifying account of the management by the military there. The colored troops evince most excellent discipline, which is very necessary, as there are some seven millions of dollars worth of public property there.

Local.

RYE BEACH AND THE SHOALS.—Our attentive Baltimore correspondent "Rockingham County," (whom, by the way, we do not know,) writes us from Rye a glowing account of a trip to Smith's Isles, in the beautiful yacht Eclipse, Capt. Varrell—by "a small but select party, consisting of some of the fair ladies of Rye, with a sprinkling of gentlemen, (who got up the affair) and who had one of the most pleasant and agreeable events of the season, on Thursday last." He says:

It is unnecessary to say a word in praise of the "Eclipse" or her gentlemanly commander. Everything connected with the boat is perfect, and the run over only occupied one hour, with a high sea running; and in a few minutes all were ashore on Star Island, where we found good accommodations at the "Atlantic House," which, with a capital dinner, and the unremitting attentions of the proprietor, Mr. Caswell, made us all feel perfectly at home. A stroll around the Island, visiting all the objects of interest, was a very pleasant feature of the occasion; and some of the ladies (who, it appears, do not have many rocks on their places of abode,) would insist on stopping, every step, and taking a stone for a relic; and before the walk was ended, the gentlemen had about as big a load on their hands as they were able to carry, and it was a serious question whether the "Eclipse" would be able to get back under such a load of ballast.

After some fine singing with the nice piano in the Atlantic parlor, at five o'clock the sound was given, "All Aboard," and at six we were at Rye Harbor, the run having been made in about 45 minutes; and you will pardon us if we say that we think your steamer would have hard work to beat that time. After we got in, and aboard the carriages in waiting, it was proposed to serenade those who did not go, on account of the weather in the morning, and the motion prevailed; and for the next two hours the time was passed in letting the "stay behinds" know that we had been to the "Shoals," and had a good time.

The season at the Beaches is now about over, and it has undoubtedly been the most prosperous of any on record. It only requires a liberal amount of capital expended to make "Rye Beach" one of the most fashionable summer resorts in this country; and it is to be hoped that before long it will be seen by those who have money to invest.

In conclusion let me say, that my season at Rye Beach has been most pleasant, and that I shall return to the South invigorated and refreshed, taking along with me the always cherished opinion, that there is no place like "dear New England," after all.

Truly Yoors, R. C.

☞ The list of public men, who to their other honors can add th t of having been a printer, is quite large, but such instances are rare with the opposite sex, probably from the small number of females who have "had a hand in the pi." A private letter from the editor of the Waltham Sentinel informs us that the wife of Gen. Banks was formerly a compositor in his office.

— The commandant of the post at Paducah, Ky., recently issued an order for the release of certain negroes who had been incarcerated in the city prison for violation of the municipal law. Thereupon the municipal authorities at once ordered the release of all white prisoners, and informed the Governor of their action.

— In New York city, on Monday, a riot occurred among members of the 47th regiment, waiting at the Battery Barracks to be conveyed to Hart's Island. Stones, clubs and muskets were used. The efforts of officers to quell the disturbance proving unavailing, a squad of regulars with loaded muskets were drawn up, when the rioters dispersed, leaving several of their comrades on the ground badly injured. Several were put under arrest. Rum is said to be the cause.

Coal at Cost.

Interesting to Coal Consumers.

A LIMITED number of SHARES in the Eagle Hill Mutual Coal Co.

Are offered to the citizens of Portsmouth and vicinity, if applied for immediately.

SHARES $0.00, which entitles the Shareholder to ONE TON OF COAL (2240 lbs.) AT ACTUAL COST every year, a saving of about $3.00, besides receiving a pro rata share of the profits resulted from the sale of the surplus Coal upon the investment, which thus far has been about 2 per cent. per month, cash paid to Stockholders.

This coal is of the very best quality, free from Slate and all impurities. A cargo has just landed from the schr. Mary H. Banks, at Sheaf's Wharf, where the Coal can be seen.

This Coal Mine is inexhaustible. The Coal could not all be taken out in one hundred years.

NEW HAMPSHIRE BIRD LAW.

AN ACT to promote the interests of Agriculture.

SEC. 1. That if any person shall at any season of the year, take, kill or destroy any of the birds called robins, thrushes, larks, blue-birds, orioles, sparrows, swallows, martins, woodpeckers, bob o'-links, yellow-birds, linnets, fly-catchers, or warblers; or shall, between the 1st day of March and the 1st day of July in any year, take, kill or destroy any of the birds called snipes, wood-cocks, plovers, rails, yellow-legs, or sand-pipers; or shall between the 1st day of March and the 1st day of August in any year, take, kill or destroy, or shall at any season of the year ensnare or entrap any of the birds called partridges, or grouse, or quails, or shall within the respective times aforesaid, sell, buy, or have in possession, any of said birds, taken or killed, whether in this State or elsewhere,—he shall forfeit for every rail, partridge, grouse, quail, wood-cock, snipe or plover, taken, killed or had in possession, the sum of Three Dollars; and for each of the other birds named above, the sum of One Dollar; to be recovered by complaint before any Justice of the Peace.

SEC. 2. Any person owning or occupying land may forbid the destruction of birds on the same at any season of the year, by public notice in any newspaper published in the County, or by posting notice on the land; and any person taking or destroying birds on said land, in defiance of said prohibition, shall be subject to the penalty of One Dollar for each bird so destroyed, in addition to the penalties named in section first of this bill.

SEC. 3. It shall be the duty of the Selectmen of towns, and of the Mayor and Aldermen of cities, throughout this State, to cause the provisions of this act to be enforced within their respective limits.

SEC. 4. All forfeitures or penalties recovered for violation of any of the provisions of this act, shall inure, one-half to the use of the complainant, and one-half to the use of the town or city where the same shall be recovered. Approved, June 30, 1865.

AGENTS WANTED

FOR

The Secret Service, the Field, the Dungeon, and the Escape.

BY ALBERT D. RICHARDSON,

N. Y. Tribune Correspondent.

70,000 Copies Sold in Sixty Days!

The most interesting and exciting book ever published, embracing Mr. Richardson's unparalleled experience for four years, Travelling thro' the South in the secret service of the "Tribune" at the outbreak of the war; with our armies and fleets, both East and West, during the first two years of the rebellion; his thrilling capture, and confinement for twenty months in scores of different Rebel prisons; his escape, and almost miraculous journey by night of nearly 400 miles. It will abound in stirring events, and contain more of the fact, incident and romance of the war, than any other work yet published. Horace Greeley says of it:

"A great many books will yet be written concerning this war, in addition to the many already in print; but for twenty months to my give, within a similar compass, a clearer, fuller, more readable account, entirely from personal observation, of the nature, animus, objects, tendencies and instrumentalities of the slaveholders' Rebellion, than does the unpretending narrative of Mr. Richardson."

Teachers, ladies, energetic young men, and especially returned and disabled officers and soldiers, in want of profitable employment, will find it particularly adapted to their condition. Send for circulars. Address

CAUTION FROM THE

AMERICAN WATCH COM'Y.

It having come to our knowledge that imitations of the American Watch have been put upon the market in great number, calculated by their utter worthlessness to injure the reputation of our genuine products, to protect our own interests and the public from imposition, we again publish the trade marks by which our Watches may invariably be known.

We manufacture four styles of Watches.

The FIRST has the name "AMERICAN WATCH CO., Waltham, Mass.," engraved on the inside plate.

The SECOND has the name "APPLETON, TRACY & CO., Waltham, Mass.," engraved on the inside plate.

The THIRD has the name "P. S. BARTLETT, Waltham, Mass.," engraved on the inside plate.

All the above styles have the name American Watch Co. painted on the dial, and are warranted in every respect.

The FOURTH has the name "WM. ELLERY, Boston, Mass.," engraved on the inside plate, and is not named on the dial.

All the above described Watches are made of various sizes, and are sold in gold or silver cases as may be required.

It is hardly possible for us to accurately describe the numerous imitations to which we have alluded. They are usually inscribed with names so near approaching our own as to escape the observation of the unsuccessmed buyer. Some are represented as made by the "Union Watch Co., of Boston, Mass.," no such company existing. Some are named the "Soldier's Watch," to be sold as our Fourth or Wm. Ellery style, usually known as the "Soldier's Watch." Others are named the "Appleton Watch Co.;" others "P. S. Bartley," instead of our P. S. Bartlett; besides many varieties named in such a manner as to convey the idea that they are the veritable productions of the American Watch Company.

We also caution the public, and particularly soldiers, against buying certain articles CALLED watches, so freely advertised in illustrated papers as "Army Watches," "Officers' Watches," "Magic Time Observers," "Arcana Watches," &c., the prices of which are stated to be from seven to sixteen dollars. A good watch, in these times, cannot be afforded for any such money.

A little attention from buyers will protect them from gross imposition.

Agents for the American Watch Company,

BRANDRETH'S PILLS A GENERAL ASSISTANT OF NATURE.

What is health? What is disease?

Health is when the supply and expenditure are equal. Disease when the supply and expenditure are unequal.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS impart certain expulsive powers to all matters in the body whose life is below the standard of the surrounding party, or which have remained longer than the time nature designed. So in fevers and in all that class of cases which run into mortification BRANDRETH'S PILL have marvelous curative qualities. Our bodies are continually changing, and it is by this change we live. Still there is matter remain in organs beyond the time nature designed, pain and inflammation set in, which is nothing more than a preparatory effort for our good. All Brandreth's Pills are supposed from the results to do is simply

ASSISTING THESE EFFORTS OF NATURE.

Lieut. Commander Homer C. Blake has been ordered to duty in charge of the Navigation Department at this Navy Yard.

☞ Growler objects to our weather item, saying that the weather as a topic is used up. That would be no more than a just retribution upon the weather, for it has pretty nearly "used up" most of us by the long continued drouth. But when Growler further mentioned that if the subject was ever verbally called to his attention by a friend, he requested him to "dry up," we squelched him with the simple query "dost thou?"

☞ A pen-and-ink dabbler of the Biddeford Journal who is as much distinguished for his veracity as his ability, in a letter from Kittery Navy Yard a few days since containing an allusion to a party of celebrated gentlemen visiting the Yard, says that "they returned in season to take the 5 o'clock train for Canada!" Wonder if they were exiles? Or were they after Sanders?

—The Unitarian Church in Concord was opened last Sunday. Rev. Mr. Haskell of Salem was preacher. Rev. Mr. Hatch took a seat in the pulpit in the morning, and read a protest against the Society's action.

GOLD CASE.—The case of Charles G. Anthony, charged with defrauding the agent of ex-Gov. Gilmore of New Hampshire of $12,000 by false representations concerning a Nova Scotia gold mine, was again before the courts in New York on Monday. Wm. Barnds of Nova Scotia, a mining engineer, who superintended the quartz crushing mill of the company, testified that the best lead yielded only about three ounces of gold to seven tons; less than five ounces of gold was obtained from twelve tons. The remaining testimony was unimportant, and the case was postponed.

☞ By a New York telegram of Tuesday—

President Johnson is stated to have made a very important declaration to the Alabama Delegation, who complained to him of the blighting effects of confiscation in that State. He replied to them that no confiscation could take place or have legal effect except after a legal conviction of the parties for treason.

The effect of such a decision will upset and render null and void every act of confiscation that has been enforced at the South.

Very important, if true,—but it has a strong odor of falsehood.

☞ MISSISSIPPI.—Gen. Slocum has put a summary stop to the re-arming of the State of Mississippi, as ordered by the Provisional Governor Sharkey, who, for the greater peace and security of property, directed the formation of one company of infantry and one of cavalry in each county. Gen. Slocum, who commands the Military Department of the State of Mississippi, considers that the peace will be better preserved by the United States forces under his command than by a volunteer and irregular State force, which must be composed mainly or wholly of those lately in rebellion against the Government. He therefore orders not only that this contemplated levy cease, but that all arms in possession of private citizens shall be forthwith surrendered to the United States officers. It is not the policy of the General Government to put arms into the hands of the insurgent States until they are fully reconstructed and military law has ceased to be enforced, and the rebellion is treated as a thing of the past.

PRENTICE ON SANDERS.—Harper's Weekly contains a portrait of George N. Sanders, engraved from a likeness furnished by himself on the ground that the pictures heretofore purporting to be of him were caricatures. Perhaps the pictures of Satan haven't done justice to the great original. Can't his Satanic Majesty furnish the Harpers with a portrait?

—Some returned black soldiers in Boston, being drunk, have got into difficulty and some mischief in Sudbury, Richmond and North streets, in the night time—almost exactly as drunken white men do at the same times and places.

—A correspondent of the Herald says that upwards of 50,000 Southerners have got in readiness to emigrate to Brazil, and have sent agents there to report on the advantages offered. Should their report be favorable, many more will go. No doubt many of them could be spared as well as not. Workingmen will not go. But the number sounds big. It is doubtful whether 20,000 will go—except on paper. Going by water is quite another thing—and in Brazil free negroes hold office.

Morning Chronicle.

— The Providence Journal relates that not long since in a town in Connecticut a girl of the mature age of 15 made a runaway match. She had five dollars in her pocket. After meditating on the best mode of appropriating it for the purchase of her trousseau, she decided to devote the whole to the purchase of a hoop skirt, and thus thoroughly equipped she set out on her journey.

— A widow named Geggie, living near Schull, Ireland, was strangled in a very singular manner recently. She had gathered a quantity of weeds to make manure, and after filling her basket rested it on the ditch, putting the strap of it around her neck, preparatory to carrying it on her back. The basket overturning suddenly, the strap was twisted around her neck and she was almost immediately choked.

— There were grand doings at Indore (Central India) at the end of May, in honor of the marriage of one of the Holkar's sons. The bridegroom is only six years old, while the bride is but three. The head ornaments of one of the elephants were made of pure gold, 2400 tolas, each tola costing 17 rupees. The Holkar exhibited all his treasures, and a salute of 210 guns announced to the people the union of the happy pair.

SUFFERERS

From Dyspepsia

READ! REFLECT!! ACT!!!

TARRANT & CO.

Gentlemen,

I am a resident of Curacoa, and have often been disposed to write to you concerning the real value of your SELTZER APERIENT as a remedy for indigestion and dyspepsia. I desire to express to you my sincere gratitude for the great benefit the SELTZER has done my wife.

For four or five years my wife has been sadly afflicted with Dyspepsia, and after being under the treatment of several Doctors for two or three years, she was finally induced to seek the advice of a learned Physician, Doctor Cabinis, of Venezuela, who immediately recommended her to use EFFERVESCENT SELTZER APERIENT. She began to improve at once and is now PERFECTLY WELL.

I feel it to be my duty for the good of humanity to make this statement, feeling that a medicine so valuable should be widely known.

Trusting that you will give this publicity, and repeating my earnest gratitude and thanks,

I am very respectfully yours,

S. D. C. HENRIQUER, Merchant, Curacoa, S. A.

New York, June 28th, 1865.

WE ASK

The suffering millions in our land to give this remedy a trial, convinced that by its timely use many may be relieved, many cured of

Dyspepsia, Heartburn, Sour Stomach, Sick Headache, Dizziness, Indigestion, Piles, Costiveness, Bilious Attacks, Liver Complaints, Rheumatic Affections, &c.

Read the Pamphlet of Testimonials with each bottle, and do not use the medicine against the advice of your Physician.

Coal at Cost.

The Eagle Hill Mutual Coal Company.

The subscriber has succeeded in obtaining a limited number of shares in this popular Company, which has proved such a success in Boston and vicinity, for the purpose of enabling the citizens of Portsmouth to obtain their coal at a saving of three or four dollars per ton. Full information will be given and a small amount of stock furnished on application to

JOHN S. HARVEY,

Je20 47 Congress st., Portsmouth.

COAL AT COST.

EAGLE HILL MUTUAL COAL COMPANY.

This Company is organized on the mutual plan, the same in principle as the Insurance Companies, and has none of the features of the speculative movements of the day. Its officers are among the solid men of Boston, and are known as gentlemen of integrity, who have never been associated with any of the speculative operations of the times.

The Colliery is one of the best and most extensive in the coal region, produces a coal far superior to any used in this market, and from its advantages can mine cheaper than most others. It has been operation over six months, has more than 4000 stockholders, has delivered coal at a saving of $3 to $4 per ton from regular market prices, and has paid cash dividends of 4 per cent.

Any one who will take the trouble to investigate the facts, will see at once that the croakings of coal monopolists have no application to this company, and that it is as safe a share as any railroad or bank stock in the market.

A lecture on Love, or how to choose a Partner—a complete work on Midwifery, containing hundreds of secrets, never before published.—Warranted to be worth three times the amount asked for it, 25 cents, in specie or postage stamps, inclosed, will secure a copy by return mail. Dr TELLER has devoted a lifetime to the cure of those diseases upon which his books treat.

TO THE LADIES.

DR. TELLER still remains the only Agency in America, for the sale of Dr. Aichol's Italian Female Monthly Pills. The sale of more than 50,000 boxes establishes their reputation as a female remedy, unapproached, and far in advance of every other medicine—for stoppages, irregularities, and other obstructions in females.

CAUTION.—Married ladies in certain delicate situations should avoid their use. Are recommended in cases where a company each package, for the guidance of patients. On the receipt of $1, (the price per box,) these Pills will be sent, by mail or express, to any part of the world, secure from curiosity or damage.

Office hours from 8 A. M. to 8 P. M., and on Sundays from 9 A. M. to 2 P. M.

N. B.—Persons at a distance can be cured at home by addressing a letter to Dr. J. Teller, and obtaining a remedy. Medicines carefully packed from observation, sent to any part of the world. All cases warranted. No charge for advice.—N. B. No students or boys employed. Notice this, address all letters to

Important to the Afflicted.

DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, Nos. 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, BOSTON, on all diseases of a PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE. By a long course of study and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. Dow has now the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with relief in a manner, since he first introduced them, failed to cure the most alarming cases of GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS.—Dr. Dow devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and vicious habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for business or society. Persons who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.—Medicines sent to any part of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving descriptions of your cases. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Capsule, warranted the best preventive. Order by mail. Three or $1 and a red stamp.

Highly Important to Females

IN DELICATE HEALTH.

Dr. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No. 7 Endicott Street, Boston, is consulted daily for all diseases incident to the female system. Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience in the cure of diseases of women than any other physician in Boston. Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment. Dr. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to an office practice for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United States.

N. B.—All letters must contain one dollar, or they will not be answered. Office hours from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M.

THE MAGEE

COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber would especially call the attention of the public to the

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shovelling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We invite all those in want of the very best Stove in the market, to examine the

MAGEE COOK.

Also on hand an assortment of the different sizes

—of the—

MAGEE PARLOR STOVE

with and without ovens, which are too well known to need any recommendation.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"

VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING

FURNACES.

The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pots used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 30 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Blendum,
Henry F. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

Or Cleaning Gold, Silver, Silver Plated, Britannia, Brass, Tin, Steel, Iron, Copper, Glass, or Metal of all kinds. For the purpose intended this article cannot be beat. Twenty-five cents in Powder in a package of this, will add more to the looks of a home than one hundred dollars spent in new ware. Every article of any kind of metal put up in this way will add to the look like new. How much pleasanter all are when everything looks bright and clean, which causes a smile upon the faces of all. The labor of keeping every article of metal polished with the Spanish Rouge is reduced to a mere pastime and pleasure. It removes the brush at the first touch of the Rouge. It is a mineral without any composition whatever, therefore can do no harm.

Put up in three different qualities, for the finest Gold to the coarsest Metals.

Try the Spanish Rouge, and it will become a household word and a great assistant. Every person who has a ring or car-drop, to an engine manufacturer, needs it. For sale by Druggists and Grocery Dealers everywhere.

—The following method of testing the purity of coffee is based upon the well-known fact that coffee increases in volume and decreases in weight when roasted. When thrown into a vessel filled with boiling water raw coffee sinks, roasted coffee floats on the surface of the water. Now chicory (containing no carbonic acid—for it is the expulsion of the carbonic acid which makes the roasted grains of coffee lighter,) undergoes no such change during the process of roasting. It sank in water when raw; it sinks in water when roasted. When you buy coffee, roast it; then throw some of it into boiling water; all that floats is pure coffee; whatever sinks is chicory. If the coffee neither sinks nor swims but droops with a tendency to the bottom, the coffee is pure, but it has been kept so long, or it has been from some cause or other so damaged as to have lost a good deal of its virtue.

THE CABINET ORGANS.
Manufactured by
MASON & HAMLIN,
For Families, Churches, and Schools.
PRICES:—$110, $130, $140, $160, and upward, according to the number of stops and style of case.
They are elegant as pieces of Furniture, occupy little space, are not liable to get out of order, and every one is warranted for five years.
They are recommended by TWO HUNDRED of the most distinguished
Musicians, Organists, and Artists
of America, as unquestionably FAR SUPERIOR to all other similar instruments. Among those who have given written testimonials to the superiority of THE CABINET ORGAN are such men and musicians as embrace a great part of the musical talent of the country.
It must be readily admitted that an instrument which receives the indorsements of such an array of the most competent musical judges, must possess most decided points of excellence and superiority; and a careful and candid inspection will satisfy any one for himself that such is the case.
All persons interested are invited to send for full description of these instruments, with styles and prices.

American and Foreign Patents.
R. R. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1857.
76 State street, opposite Kilby street,
Boston.
After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal advice or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but from the thorough it invents have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.
These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All models of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.
"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.
Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending; such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."
JOHN TAGGART
During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twelve rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents. R. H. EDDY.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 7, 1865.

A PLEA.—Four hundred of the ladies of Holly Springs, Mississippi, have signed a petition to President Johnson soliciting executive clemency for Jefferson Davis. They demand the tribute of honesty for the party at the South engaged in the recent conflict, that Davis was only the representative of the defeated party, at whose bidding only he acted; that Southern people have suffered enough, and that fraternal feeling between the North and South can be more effectually restored by mildness and clemency than by punishment of "those who, by reason of common toil, dangers and privation, are and must ever be dear to every true Southerner."

That is to say, the big rebel is very dear to all the little rebels, and therefore, he must be spared.—Is it so? says Uncle Toby;—then let us turn the picture, and look on the other side. He is the Representative Man of the party who aimed to destroy our government and rule us with the slave driver's whip,—and who, say those "ladies" are now defeated! Thank God they are so: but at what cost! How dear is Jeff. Davis to us? The rebellion, which these ladies say he represents, has cost us the lives of 100,000 of our best and bravest sons and brothers, husbands and lovers. He has cost us the crippled limbs and shattered frames of 100,000 more. He has cost us the loss of our commerce by his pirates, and he has cost a huge national debt, which his confederates and allies at the North are even now trying to show can never be paid, and at the same time trying to plead for the saving of his neck. He and his party are very dear to us.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— Rev. B. P. Talbot, rector of St. James' Church, Woonsocket, died at Claremont on Monday. His health had been declining for some time past.

—— Mr. N. Hebard of Meriden has two pigs not five months old that will dress over 250 pounds each. There is no doubt that a man who keeps such pigs will be happy"

—— The Coos Republican states that Montreal capitalists have actually bonded a tract of land on Hall's Stream, eight miles from Canaan Corner, and that they are to commence the sinking of a petroleum well thereon, the present fall. It is said that the indications for oil are good and that they were first discovered by some parties engaged in digging a common well, when at the depth of 12 feet.

— In Hartford, Conn., on Sunday evening, one Wm. Dwyer, living in a place called "Figville," was drunk, and laid on the floor of his bed-room. His wife supposed him to be asleep, and carried on a talk with Daniel Sullivan, which the husband understood, and the guilty couple completed their criminal connection in the room where Dwyer was still lying, asleep as they thought; but he sprang up and dealt a blow at Sullivan, who also arose to retaliate, but Dwyer stabbed him through the abdomen and tumbled him down stairs head foremost, where he died. Dwyer is arrested and admits the fact. All three were natives of Ireland.

—— A fire broke out in the woods on "Birch Plains," so called, at Hookett, on Sunday last, which has continued to rage, to an alarming extent, ever since. It has already burned over two hundred acres of land, belonging to the Amoskeag Company Luke Martin and Mr. Roby. The efforts of over a hundred men have failed to check it in the least. About eighty more men were sent up Tuesday, in hopes to be able to stop the progress of the conflagration, which threatens to destroy about one thousand cords of wood owned by Thos. Head, Jesse Galt, J. T. Goss, Gen. Natt Head and others. Should the fire once reach it, to stop it would be impossible, as there is no water in the vicinity.

MEXICO. — The Tribune's Matamoras correspondent, who has had an interview with Gen. De Leo of the liberal party, says he learned from him that the wants of the liberals are such that if not soon relieved the cause will be lost. They have no money, arms, ammunition, clothing, nor even provisions, and if the United States does not immediately lend assistance, there will soon be no liberal party in Mexico to be assisted. The total force they now have in the field amounts to only 18,600 men.

UTAH.—The Union Vidette, published at Great Salt Lake City, in Utah, has a long editorial on the subject of polygamy in that territory, which, it assures its readers, is in danger of early suppression at the hands of the federal government.

GOLD, Wednesday, 144 3-4. Sent to Liverpool $170,000.

— Foster & Merrism's foundry at Meriden, Conn., was burned about 3 o'clock Sunday morning Loss $5000; insured $3000. The machine shop was saved.

CAUSES OF DISEASE.—A family living in Fishkill, N. Y., consisting of seven persons, lost six of their number by death between the 28th of July and the 17th of August. They lived, it is said, in a house surrounded on all sides by large trees, shutting out the sun nearly all the day. The sink drain was also allowed to wind its slow course through the yard, and to these two circumstances, not uncommon, the deaths were all attributed by the attending physician. We have known, says the Boston Journal, instances where houses completely shut in by shade trees have produced constant sickness in the family, and the death of a majority of its members arising from debility or consumption. The trouble disappeared with the letting in of the sun. In many a house in villages and in the country where there is no excuse for such neglect, the reservoirs of waste matter from the house are allowed to lie uncovered, or conducted on to the grass or garden, and left to breathe out dangerous exhalations in the air. Thus the owners of situations possessing every natural advantage for health, allow them to sink to the level of the city, where such evils cannot always be avoided. While the guardians of a city are particularly bound to have a care for cleanliness in this season of dreaded visitation, it becomes all persons everywhere to see that every precaution is taken to insure a good sanitary condition of their dwellings.

GEORGIA.—The Macon correspondent of the Augusta Transcript, after referring to the briskness of trade in that city, says a new feature in trade has exhibited itself, which promises much good to the South. It is the resort of merchants to Louisville and Cincinnati for their supplies of new goods and western products, as not more than half the time is consumed by the merchant in getting his supplies compared with receiving them from New York. It is also said that the goods can be purchased as cheaply in western cities as in New York.

Numerous outrages occur in Macon, particularly at night, and the citizens are much endangered while walking the streets by colored sentinels, who are quick to fire if one does not halt instantly upon being challenged. The editor of the Journal and Messenger, the publication of which was interdicted, has been released from imprisonment, but does not resume his position.

IMMENSE VEIN OF COAL IN KANSAS.—The Leavenworth (Kansas) Journal learns that the party sent out to explore the Smoky Hill route discovered a vein of coal along the Smoky Hill seven feet thick, extending for sixty-five to seventy miles. The supply to all appearances is inexhaustible. There are also acres upon acres of iron ore. The mineral wealth of the extreme western part of the State is of immense value. The valleys are rich and productive and capable of sustaining a dense population.

☞ The total number of freedmen in the District of Columbia, in charge of the Freedmen's Bureau on the 31st of August, was, according to the report of Surgeon Robert Reyburn, just made to the Bureau, twenty-five thousand seven hundred and forty-eight, of which number seven hundred and seventy-two are receiving medical treatment. Surgeon Reyburn's report shows that but five hundred and nineteen are receiving rations from the government, without rendering an equivalent. The number of freedmen thus given is much larger than was anticipated.

MEXICO.—A rumor comes from Santa Fe via Denver, that the French have occupied Chihuahua, Juarez and his Cabinet fled to El Paso, which is at present the headquarters of the Mexican government, and indications are that Juarez will soon be driven from this last foothold on Mexican soil, and become a fugitive within the borders of the United States.

☞ From the publisher, James Miller, 522 Broadway, N. Y., we have received the New Path for the current month, a magazine which by fearless criticism seeks not only to elevate the standard of art, but to make application of whatever is artistic to our homes and daily lives, — In Vermont on Tuesday, there were copious rains, the first in several weeks.

— The Connecticut river at Hartford was forded by a team on Saturday—a circumstance which was never known to have taken place before. The river is very low at present.

— In Troy, N. Y., Wednesday afternoon, a destructive fire occurred below Canal street, taking both sides of Broadway, including Uford & Lapham's steam-planing mill, to the Exchange. Twenty-five brick buildings burned. Loss $75,000 to $100,000. The fire was stopped at the Exchange.

— On Wednesday morning, the Erie Railroad express train on the Pennsylvania Railroad coming east, met with a dreadful accident near Duncannon, by which three persons were killed. The boiler of the locomotive burst, killing the engineer, fireman, and a stranger riding on the locomotive. The baggage master was also slightly wounded.

Local.

☞ Incited by the success of "Mrs. Grundy" as a caterer to the taste of the reading public, we have (in the absence of the proprietor,) engaged the services of a comic editor. He makes his debut with

THE LAST CONUNDRUM.

Why is a cobbler the greatest of spirit rappers?

Because many of his Fox-inge are better than the originals, and every time he taps a boot there appears a new Sol(e)on!

That's awl he has furnished us for to-day, but we think it sufficient to make our contemporaries wax wroth and bristle up for fear such an addition to our corps may cause a gap in their circulation not easily heeled.

☞ The Beater Hay Press (manufactured by a company of which Major Hackett of this city is President,) has been exhibited at St. John, N. B., in the presence of a large number of gentlemen, who are taking an interest in the machine, and was much admired by all. The manager bored a hole with an auger in the centre of one of the bales after it had been bound, and he informed us that water poured into this hole would not be absorbed by the hay in half an hour, so closely is it pressed together.

☞ A bona fide live horse, purchased of Judge Butler at Nottingham, by Mr. Oscar Laighton, of the Appledore House, Isles of Shoals, was taken on board a schooner on Wednesday, and towed out by the steamer Pioneer. This the first animal of the kind which ever set foot on these rugged isles, we believe,—and the change of climate, scenery and surroundings must be somewhat novel to the horse.

☞ On the 5th inst. a fire broke out in the blacksmith's shop of Mr. John Avery, Cape Neddick, which was almost entirely consumed. It was with difficulty that Mr. Avery's house was saved from the flames, being quite closely connected. Men worked with a will, and by tearing away the roof and other portions, the flames were kept in such subjection as not to leap over the three or four feet that separated it from the house.

☞ We are pleased to notice a number of small dwellings in process of erection at the westerly end of the city. The class of dwellings suitable for mechanics or persons of small means has long been inadequate to the demand.

☞ The numerous friends of Rev. Dr. Peabody have been gratified by his presence in our city for a day or two past. The sight of his familiar face was almost as welcome as the rain.

☞ The honest finder of the $1500 in bonds was rewarded with $25—as we learn from the man himself—and not $100, as stated.

☞ The Drought continues very sharp here up to Wednesday.

☞ We would acknowledge the courtesy of Dr. Dio Lewis in furnishing us with tickets to the graduting ceremonies of his school of Musical Gymnastics, at Tremont Temple, Boston, Sept. 15. Forty ladies and gentlemen in gymnastic costume will execte 145 exercises in the New School, and several fine Boston artists will contribute by song and instrumental music to the interest of the occasion. Proceeds to be given to the N. E. Hospital for Women and Children.

MRS. ACKERMAN of this city, the author of the well-known, beautiful little poem, entitled "Nothing but Leaves," will soon be tempted, we should think, to write another, entitled "Nothing but Thieves," for her lines are appropriated by versifying pirates in all parts of the country. It is only a fortnight since one of our correspondents exposed one "S. J. Vial," who had inserted a mutilated version of "Nothing but Leaves" in a hymn book, and had given the author no credit for her work. We now have before us the National Intelligencer, which is enriched with a correct copy of the verses, contributed as original by some one who sends them from "Garratt's Hotel, Petersburg, Va., March 16th." Poor verses would not be stolen so often.—Providence Journal.

☞ The Phrenological Journal for September has a brief but good notice of Gen. Grant—with what the book itself calls "is very indifferent portrait of a remarkable man." There is also a good essay on Jealousy.

VERMONT ELECTION has gone as was expected, only a little more so. The vote is lighter than last year, by about a quarter part. 25 towns give Dillingham, Union, for Governor, 5076; Davenport, Dem., 1554. Compared with last year both parties have fallen off; and the democratic vote loses more per cent. Only one town, as far as heard from, gives a Democratic majority, and only two have made any gain on the vote of last year. The Republicans have more than held their own, except in the House, where the Democrats seem to have gained a few members.

— Mrs. Hannah F. Gould, the poetess, died at Newburyport on Tuesday. She was a woman of rare excellence as well as intelligence, a model daughter, and a true christian. Her age must be about 70.

☞ A Raleigh N. C., dispatch of Sept. 1, says, Judge Carter, who has returned from an extensive trip through the Southern States, states that cruelty to freedmen and numbers of homicides among them by the whites are increasing to a fearful extent, especially in places where the troops are being withdrawn. The Judge has a copy of the Southern Sun, which says "if the Yankees are alarmed at the killing of a few hundred negroes a day in States where they have the protection of Yankee troops, to a certain extent, what will be their alarm after the departure of the military forces and and re-admission into the Union of these States as a sovereign powers, who will then have a complete organization of militia in each county, which will give the South a standing army which can bid defiance to the world."

AGENTS WANTED

FOR

The Secret Service, the Field, the Dungeon, and the Escape.

BY ALBERT D. RICHARDSON,

N. Y. Tribune Correspondent.

70,000 Copies Sold in Sixty Days!

The most interesting and exciting book ever published, embracing every thrilling incident and veiled experience for four years. Travelling thro' the South in the secret service of the "Tribune" at the outbreak of the war; with our armies and fleets, both East and West, during the first two years of the rebellion; his thrilling capture; his confinement for twenty months in seven different Rebel prisons; his escape, and almost miraculous journey by night of nearly 400 miles. It will abound in stirring events, and contain more of the fact, incident and romance of the war, than any other work yet published. Horace Greeley says of it:

"A great many books will yet be written concerning this war, in addition to the many already in print; but not one of them will give, within a similar compass, a clearer, fuller, more readable account, entirely from personal observation, of the union, anti-slavery, patriotic, heroic and instrumentalities of the slaveholders' Rebellion, than does the unpretending narrative of Mr. Richardson."

Teachers, ladies, energetic young men, and especially returned and disabled officers and soldiers, in want of profitable employment, will find it particularly adapted to their condition. Send for circulars. Address

CAUTION FROM THE

AMERICAN WATCH COM'Y.

It having come to our knowledge that imitations of the American Watch have been put upon the market in great number, calculated by their utter worthlessness to injure the reputation of our genuine products, to protect our own interests and the public from imposition, we again publish the trade marks by which our Watches may invariably be known.

We manufacture four styles of Watches.

The FIRST has the name "AMERICAN WATCH CO., Waltham, Mass.," engraved on the inside plate.

The SECOND has the name "APPLETON, TRACY & CO., Waltham, Mass.," engraved on the inside plate.

The THIRD has the name "P. S. BARTLETT, Waltham, Mass.," engraved on the inside plate.

All the above styles have the name American Watch Co. painted on the dial, and are warranted in every respect.

The FOURTH has the name "WM. ELLERY Boston, Mass.," engraved on the inside plate, and is not named on the dial.

All the above described Watches are made of various sizes, and are sold in gold or silver cases as may be required.

It is hardly possible for us to accurately describe the numerous imitations to which we have alluded. They are usually inscribed with names so near approaching our own as to escape the observation of the unaccustomed buyer. Some are represented as made by the "Union Watch Co., of Boston, Mass.,"—no such company existing. Some are named the "Soldier's Watch," to be sold as our Fourth or Wm Ellery style, usually known as the "Soldier's Watch." Others are named the "Appleton Watch Co.," others "P. S. BARTLEY," instead of our P. S. Bartlett; besides many varieties named in such a manner as to convey the idea that they are the veritable productions of the American Watch Company.

We also caution the public, and particularly soldiers, against buying certain articles CALLED watches, so freely advertised in illustrated papers as "Army Watches," "Officers' Watches," "Magic Time Observers," "Arcana Watches," &c., the prices of which are stated to be from seven to sixteen dollars. A good watch, in these times, cannot be afforded for any such money.

A little attention from buyers will protect them from gross imposition.

IMPORTANT QUALITIES.

They will cure a Weakness in the Back, Pain in the Side, a Lameness of the Knee, or of the Ankles, or Cold Feet, sooner and with more comfort than any other application.

Knoxville, Albany Co., Jan. 16, 1852.

Dr. T. ALLCOCK—Dear Sir: Seventeen years ago I was sorely injured in my back. At length I was induced to use your plasters. I wore one constantly for six months, and did more hard work during that six months than in the preceding fifteen years. I have not worn a plaster for over eighteen months, and have had no return of the gnawing pain and weakness in my back, but have been entirely well.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS A GENERAL ASSISTANT OF NATURE.

What is health? What is disease?

Health is when the supply and expenditure are equal. Disease when the supply and expenditure are unequal.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS impart certain expulsive powers to all matters in the body whose life is below the standard of the surrounding party, or which have remained longer than the time nature designed. So in fevers and in all that class of cases which run into mortification BRANDRETH'S PILL have marvelous curative qualities. Our bodies are continually changing, and it is by this change we live. Should matter remain in organs beyond the time nature designed, pain and inflammation set in, which is nothing more than a preparatory effort for our good. All Brandreth's Pills are supposed from the results to do is simply

ASSISTING THESE EFFORTS OF NATURE.

☞ The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Portsmouth Steam Factory was held in this city on Thursday. The report of Treasurer, etc., were read and accepted and the following board of Directors were chosen: Ichabod Goodwin, Wm. Jones, John A. Blanchard, Wm. Sheafe, Nathan'l Goddard, John Knowlton, Wm. Stearns. Ammi R. H. Fernald was reelected Proprietor's clerk. A resolution was passed authorizing the President and Treasurer to make valid conveyances by deed of whatever property shall be sold under the notification of the Injunction lately granted by the Supreme Judicial Court. The meeting then adjourned.

☞ Mr. A. M. Collins, of Charleston S. C., who has lectured on loyalty and temperance, in Maine, for some time past, gave two of his lectures at the Methodist Church in this city, on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, to attentive audiences. The lectures were rather talks on temperance and intemperance, than set or formal discourses: but there was a power of description, an earnestness of exhortation, and a force of invective against the vice and the traffic, that interested all, and doubtless impressed some. Mr. C. was born in New York, is of French parentage, and shows his origin in his language and gesture.

POLICE COURT, Sept. 6.—It is not an uncommon thing for neighbors to dispute together in regard to their fancied rights or wrongs. So the public will not be astonished to learn that John Reagan, Esq., whose place of residence is on Russell street, held a confab with his Hibernian brethren and sisters on Tuesday evening in regard to domestic matters. The evening was warm, and the conversation imbibing some of the heat, waxed hot, until the vigilant guardian of the night appears and "bids the raging tumult cease," at the same time taking Mistber Reagan along wid him to the station house. The next morning $6.86 is exacted from John for the privilege of discussing abstract questions of law.

Michael Gilligan was drowned about a fortnight since (at least so the paper said,) and two or three days after celebrated the joke by getting powerfully drunk, and at a still later date (Sept. 5.) he again makes merry over the fact of having secured some pension money, which he never expected, and the shock he experienced on its receipt overcame him, but not quite so much as the quart of rotgut which he procured and deposited in his stomach about three minutes after he pocketed his pension greenbacks. The speedy manner in which Mr. Gilligan "went through" this little pile would indicate that Michael will never become a millionaire. He was unable to find $6.86, the amount of fine and costs, and so goes up to the H. of C.

Bartholomew Sullivan is endeavoring to reform himself by drinking rum in so large quantities as to disgust his inner man with the beverage. But Bart's stomach won't stay disgusted, but cries out "give, give," until the owner of it is found in the gutter; the musculo-membranous reservoir costing him $6.86.

☞ We hear a report on the street, which, if it be true, reflects severely on the Surgeon at the Navy Yard, and would seem to need investigation. A man named John Paul, while engaged at work, was struck in the back of the hand by a pick wielded by another workman. The point of the pick came out through the palm of the hand, lacerating the cords and producing a painful wound. Mr. Paul was carried to Surgeon's office and that official sent for. He answered the call, said he was at dinner, and did not wish to be disturbed, looked at the wound, and told the man if he would wait until he had concluded his meal he would dress it afterward. As our information goes, the man actually lay upon the grass-plot in front of the office, suffering great pain, for about half an hour before the Surgeon returned to dress his hand. We hope, for the sake of humanity, that we have been misinformed in this matter.

THE VALUE OF IF.—An item of copy said, "If Gov. Perry's course in South Carolina was not authorized by the President, it was usurpation." A compositor omitted the if, and thus asserted what we do not know to be true, though it is probable.

— In Colorado, the constitutional election returns are sufficient to indicate that the constitution is carried by a large majority.

— Daniel Webster, a son of Col. Fletcher Webster, and grandson of the great Daniel Webster, died at Marshfield, Mass., on Saturday, aged 25 years.

— At the Winchester (Ky.) Fair, which closed Aug. 31, a condemned government horse took the first premium offered for saddle horses.

— The steamer Montano, for Rio Janeiro, takes out Minister Washburn to Paraguay and a number of Southerners to Brazil. The latter go for information prior to effecting a permanent settlement for others from the South.

CONCORD, Sept. 6.

The showers this morning have kept down all dust nicely, and put the streets, road and track in the best of order. Our idea of the number of the people here, as given you yesterday, was necessarily taken in part from the statements of others, as I had but just arrived here, and was rather overestimated. There are many visitors, and all the hotels are running over; but the attendance as yet is not immense, though gaining hourly. The show of stock is no doubt the best ever seen in the country, and includes the great 4000 lb. white ox Gen. Grant, which is the handsomest animal we ever saw, of any description. There is also another steer here almost as big, but not half so fine; and Mr. Ray's great heifer of 2760 lbs., from Dunbarton. The sheep can't be equalled in the world. The show of fruit, vegetables and fancy goods is not large nor extra, so far as we have discovered. And from the lower portion of our own State, there is almost nothing sent. Mr. Schammon of Stratham has some good stock, and Mr. Ephraim Pickering of Greenland a nice colt.

The trot Tuesday afternoon, for all untried horses, was naturally a rather jumbled-up affair, and won by Ethan Allen, jr., in 2:46, beating Jones' mare and Tony Pastor. Another match between Draco Prince, Belle of Boston, Black Warrior and Green Mountain Boy, was won by Draco Prince in 2:43 1-2.

The Farmers' discussion, last night, was on fruit, and was exceedingly interesting. This afternoon there is a grand stallion trot; and for both Thursday and Friday, good trotting, &c. Plenty of attraction.

Yours, JOTTER.

— Houses are in great demand in Philadelphia, and the supply is altogether insufficient.

— Com. John Rodgers has been detached from the iron-clad Dictator and ordered to the Vanderbilt, in which steamer he will proceed, as his flag-ship, to San Francisco, accompanied by one or more iron-clads, to be stationed permanently there for harbor and coast defence.

— We are glad to see it stated that the Freedmen's Bureau has received contributions amounting to nearly three thousand dollars, for the use of the Freedmen, from benevolent persons and societies in New England.

— The rebel Gen. Jenkins, indicted for the burning of Chambersburg, and for whom Gov. Curtin made a requisition on Gov. Pierpont, is beyond the reach of civil or military authorities now, having died from the effect of wounds.

Have you tried DR. BICKNELL'S SYRUP? It cures Dysentery, Diarrhea, &c., and is the pleasantest and best medicine ever made. It contains no opiates or anything that can harm you.

NOTICE.

I profess to be in communion with the DEAD. I have instructions from the Spiritual World daily, hourly, minutely, and every tick of time. I am quickened in thought to do and know the life of God. It is all invisible. It is all incontrovertible. God lives in his elect. All things must forever exist, and man must learn that eternity is now, never to-morrow. Eternity is to-day, and all men must be in the true and real.

Morning Chronicle.

— John Mann, of Randolph, Mass., died on the 28th ult., aged 87 years and 9 months. He was the oldest man of the town, and was the youngest and last living of a family of eighteen children. One of the incidents of his life was in the war of 1812, when our ports were blockaded by British cruisers. He drove a four-ox team from Boston to Richmond, Va., carrying a load of domestic cotton goods, and returning with a load of tobacco. This was the first ox team ever seen at Richmond, and it excited great interest.

PETROLEUM IS KING!

THE

UNION OIL STOVES!

Patented April 11, 1864, and Jan. 17, 1865.

A COMPLETE APPARATUS

—FOR DOING THE—

COOKING

And all the work of a Family of any size,

AT LESS THAN

One-Third the Cost of Wood or Coal!

THIS NEW

PETROLEUM Cooking APPARATUS

Is WARRANTED to do all the work of a common Cooking Stove, at a great saving of time, trouble and expense. Having the fullest confidence in its utility, we offer it to the public as the

Only Kerosene or Coal Oil Stove

that will Bake, Broil, heat Flat Irons, &c., with entire satisfaction. It may be used in Kitchen or Parlor, without Dirt, Ashes, Smoke or Odor.

The ordinary Stove Furniture is used, with the addition of the "Flat Iron Heater." Kerosene Oil is used, and, at one dollar a gallon, it will cost for each Burner used, thereby saving the cost of the Stove in the expense of Fuel in a short time.

ONE CENT AN HOUR

"How long does it take to cook anything with one of these stoves?" is a question often asked. In answer, we can say from actual experiment that

2 quarts of water can be boiled in 18 minutes
Common potatoes baked " 30 "
Flour Biscuit baked " 15 "
And three good-sized Flat Irons heated in 15 minutes.

By adding a sheet iron drum to the Stove, it will warm a small-sized room in cold weather.

For use in the night in case of sickness, one of these Stoves is invaluable, as it can be put in operation in one minute.

☞ EXCURSION PARTIES will find it very useful, occupying very little space, and capable of doing a large amount of Cooking.

Coal at Cost.

The Eagle Hill Mutual Coal Company.

The subscriber has succeeded in obtaining a limited number of shares in this popular Company, which has proved such a success in Boston and vicinity, for the purpose of enabling the citizens of Portsmouth to obtain their coal at a saving of three or four dollars per ton. Full information will be given and a small amount of stock furnished on application to

COAL AT COST.

EAGLE HILL MUTUAL COAL COMPANY.

This Company is organized on the mutual plan, the same in principle as the Insurance Companies, and has none of the features of the speculative movements of the day. The subscribers, who have solid men of Boston, and are known as gentlemen of integrity, who have never been associated with any of the speculative operations of the times.

The Colliery is one of the best and most extensive in the coal region, and produces a coal far superior to any used in this market, and from its advantages can mine cheaper than most others. It has been operated for over six months, has more than 4000 stockholders, has delivered coal at a saving of $2 to $4 per ton from regular market prices, and has paid a dividend of 4 per cent.

Any one who will take the trouble to investigate the facts, will see at once that the crookings of coal monopolists have no application to this company, and that it is as safe and sure as any railroad or bank stock in the market.

Important to the Afflicted.

DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, Nos. 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, BOSTON, on all diseases of a PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE. By a long course of study and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. D. has now the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that have never, since he first introduced them, failed to cure the most alarming cases of GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS.—Dr. Dow devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for business or society. Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.—Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving descriptions of your cases. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Capsules, warranted the best preventive. Order by mail. Three or $1 and a red stamp.

Highly Important to Females

IN DELICATE HEALTH.

Dr. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No. 7 Endicott Street, Boston, is consulted daily for all diseases incident to the female system. Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience in the cure of diseases of women than any other physician in Boston. Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment. Dr. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to an office practice for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United States.

N. B.—All letters must contain one dollar, or they will not be answered. Office hours from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M.

SUFFERERS

From Dyspepsia

READ! REFLECT!! ACT!!!

TARRANT & CO.

Gentlemen,

I am a resident of Curacoa, and have often been requested to write to you concerning the real value of your SELTZER APERIENT as a remedy for indigestion and dyspepsia. I desire to express to you my sincere gratitude for the great benefit the SELTZER has done my wife.

For four or three years my wife has been sadly afflicted with Dyspepsia, and after being under the treatment of several Doctors for two or three years, she was finally induced to send to me for a of a learned Physician, Doctor Cabialis, of Venezuela, who immediately treated her with your EFFERVESCENT SELTZER APERIENT. She began to improve at once and is now PERFECTLY WELL.

I feel it to be my duty for the good of humanity to make this statement, feeling that a medicine so valuable should be widely known.

Trusting that you will appreciate this publicity, and repeating my most grateful and thanks,

I am very respectfully yours,
S. D. C. HENQUER,
Merchant, Curacoa, S. A.

New York, June 28th, 1865.

WE ASK

The suffering millions in our land to give this remedy a trial, convinced that by its timely use many may be relieved, many cured of Dyspepsia, Heartburn, Sour Stomach, Sick Headache, Dizziness, Indigestion, Fullness, Costiveness, Bilious Attacks, Liver Complaints, Rheumatic Affections, &c.

THE MAGEE

COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber would especially call the attention of the public to the

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad iron heater combined, by which the odor of cooking meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We invite all those in want of the very best Stove in the market, to examine the

MAGEE COOK.

Also on hand an assortment of the different sizes

—of the—

MAGEE PARLOR STOVE

with and without ovens, which are too well known to need any recommendation.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"

VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING

FURNACES.

The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would invite those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pots used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

IMPORTANT ORDER.—Circular No. 15 from Freedmen's Bureau, just issued, rescinds circular 13 of July 13, and in lieu thereof defines lands to be abandoned when the lawful owner shall have been voluntarily absent therefrom aiding rebellion.

Second—Property shall not be regarded as confiscated until after decree has been made by the U. S. Court.

Third—Lands under control of the bureau shall be set apart as provided by act—that is, forty acres to each loyal refugee and freedman.

Fourth—That no property shall be restored to former owners, unless authorized by the Commissioner of the Bureau.

Fifth—Assistant Commissioners are to make accurate descriptions of property, keeping records thereof, and forwarding duplicates to Washington. They will also set apart such as may be deemed necessary for immediate use of refugees and freedmen.

Sixth—Assistant Commissioners shall restore to owners property held as abandoned which does not manifestly fall within the definition of abandoned under the statute.

Seventh—Former owners claiming property on the ground of having been pardoned by the President, shall forward applications to the Commissioner, accompanied by copy of pardon and proof of title and residence, and that the property was not confiscated, or, if libeled, that the proceedings have been discontinued.

[The above is according to law, and differs widely from the statement made by a wiseacre a day or two ago, that no confiscation was valid till the owner was convicted of treason; and that the President said so!]

THE CABINET ORGANS.
Manufactured by
MASON & HAMLIN, Boston,
For Families, Churches, and Schools.
PRICES:—$110, $130, $145, $160, and upward, according to the number of stops and style of case.
They are elegant as pieces of Furniture, occupy little space, are not liable to get out of order, and every one is warranted for five years
They are recommended by TWO HUNDRED of the most distinguished
Musicians, Organists, and Artists
of America, as unquestionably FAR SUPERIOR to all other similar instruments. Among those who have given written testimonials to the superiority of THE CABINET ORGAN are such men and musicians as embrace a great part of the musical talent of the country.
It must be readily admitted that an instrument which receives the indorsements of such an array of the most competent musical judges, must possess most decided points of excellence and superiority; and a careful and candid inspection will satisfy any one for himself that such is the case.
All persons interested are invited to send for full description of these instruments, with styles and prices.

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837,
76 State street, opposite Kilby street,
Boston,
After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to procure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.
The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a very large collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.
These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessary Journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.
"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.
Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN separate applications, all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."
JOHN TAGGART
During eight months, the subscriber, in courses of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.
R. H. EDDY.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 8, 1865.

☞ Half the ingenuity displayed by rascals, to obtain money dishonestly, would give them a good living in almost any honest employment. The last "dodge" comes to us from South Salem, Mass., where, late on Tuesday evening, as Mr. C. H. Chase was proceeding home, he saw a man apparently drunk lying across the sidewalk. He assisted the man to rise, and helped him along on his way, as he said he was going to Marblehead, without the slightest suspicion of danger—the full moon making the way almost as clear as by daylight. The strange man suddenly delivered a stunning blow upon the eyes and forehead of Mr. Chase, felling him to the ground, and the first consciousness Mr. Chase had was that the man was rifling his pockets. A wallet with a considerable sum of money was secured by the thief, who then snatched Mr. Chase's watch and attempted to make off. Mr. Chase recovered enough to rise, and gave immediate pursuit, when the man returned and gave another blow, more violent than the first. Mr. Chase soon recovered from this, and obtaining help, gave immediate pursuit, but the villain escaped.

IOWA POLITICS. — The Democrats of Iowa, being in a hopeless minority, did not think it advisable to run the old party machine under its regular name. They called a "Soldiers' State Convention," which met at Des Moines on the 23d ult. Among others present was Fitz John Porter. The Democratic wire-pullers began their work by showing their hands against every person not opposed to negro suffrage and the taxation of government bonds, whereupon more than one-half of the soldiers present withdrew, held a separate meeting, and appointed a committee to draft an address declaring that they had no sympathy with the objects of the meeting. The remainder of the Convention nominated Gen. Thomas H. Benton, a Republican, for Governor, and completed a State ticket. The next day the copperhead convention met and adopted the "Soldiers' Union ticket," declaring it "inexpedient to nominate another." Thus it happens that there is no Democratic party in Iowa, at least till after election. In the meantime Gov. Stone, the regular Union and Republican candidate, is running with a popularity that ensures his triumphant re-election.

ALABAMA.—Provisional Governor Parsons of Alabama has issued a circular to the judges and magistrates of the State, urging them to conform to the exigencies of the times, and receive negro testimony in their courts, as the less of the two evils. He tells them that the law of Congress establishing the Freedmen's Bureau requires the Commissioners of the Bureau in the various States to adjudicate in all cases where the rights of the freedmen were concerned, if the local Courts refuse to do them justice as freedmen, or reject their testimony in difficulties between themselves or between them and whites. Therefore, unless they acquiesce and receive the testimony of negroes in their courts, where the habits and character of the negro are best understood, martial law will be substituted, and military courts will be established to adjudicate between the whites and negroes. Any evident denial of justice will result in the same way. The Governor reminds them that it will be much better to have the laws administered by citizens of the State than by strangers.

WASHINGTON ITEMS. — The Times' Washington despatch says the President has been informed by prominent citizens of Virginia that the freedmen there contemplate an insurrection; and a patrol of citizens on the police system, under the Department commander, in various counties, has been authorized.

Ex-Gov. Brown of Ga. has been pardoned.

The Herald's dispatch says the revolting character of the evidence against Wirz is said to be wearing heavily upon the mind of the accused.

The demand for farm laborers in Maryland is so great that agencies have been established in Washington. One of these agencies has sent 800 negroes from Virginia to that State during the past month.

SEE-SAW.—First, there was a report that Gov. Sharkey had authorized a Mississippi Militia to keep order (?) 2. We had a report that the military commander there by order of the President of the U. S., had nipped the nuisance in the bud; and now, 3d, we get a report that the President has sustained Gov. Sharkey.—This last report comes from Jackson, Miss., and seems doubtful.

— The hub factory of Martin K. Bates, at West Granville, Mass., was set on fire on the 1st by a little boy, seven years old, who thought it would make a pretty blaze. The factory and a large storehouse and 2000 sets of hubs were entirely consumed. Loss $2500; no insurance.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— Wolfeborough imports ice from Meredith.

—— Nashua wants more post office room, as the males are obliged to stand in the street while the mails are being sorted.

—— A store was broken open at Centre Harbor, Wednesday night. One robber is caught.

—— The citizens of Mill Village are contemplating changing the name of their locality, and in view of the business of the place, calling it Mechanicsville.

—— Mr. Wentworth Canney discharged a cannon shot gun at a flock of 13 ducks, in Batem's Pond, Ossipee, a few days ago, killing 7 of the 13, and wounding several others.

—— Mrs. Mary E. Hall, the wife of Moses W. Hall, a former private of the 7th N. H. regiment, died very suddenly at the Port Royal House, Port Royal, S. C., on the 26th ult. Mrs. Hall was from Concord.

—— One day last week week a horse in Ossipee ran away with a carriage containing Mrs. S. J. Quarles and Miss Frank Ayers. Mrs. Quarles was very badly hurt, her forehead coming in contact with the step of the door of the Pine River House, as she was thrown from the carriage. It was a very narrow escape for the ladies.

—— On the 1st inst., at Henniker, a staging erected around a blacksmith's shop, for shingling the roof, broke down, precipitating three men—Thomas Brown, Cyrus Whitman and Alonzo R. Flanders—into the river below. Mr. Brown was rescued from the water, which covered his head where he laid, and was badly bruised on the head and face. Mr. Whitman had a leg broken, and Mr. Flanders an ankle dislocated. All were badly bruised and jarred, but are since doing well.

—— On Wednesday, Rev. John W. Chickering, Jr., late of Springfield, Vermont, was installed pastor of the 2d Congregational Church of Exeter. Reading of Scripture, by Rev. J. H. Stearns of Epping; Prayer, by Rev. E. D. Eldridge of Kensington; Sermon from Colossians 4: 17, by J. W. Chickering, D.D., father of the candidate; Charge to the Pastor, by Rev. Mr. Parsons of Derry; Right Hand of Fellowship, by Rev. E. Robie of Greenland; Address to the People, by Rev. Geo. M. Adams; Prayer, by Rev. E. Chapman of Newmarket; Benediction, by the Pastor.

—— The people of "Briar Hill," North Haverhill, have been considerably excited of late. A few days ago, while Sheriff Mack was in the discharge of his official duties in that neighborhood, his horse was shot dead while passing through a piece of woods. His wife was with him at the time. A man named Josiah Wiloby has been arrested and bound over for trial. The same day the barn of Mr. Joshua Carr was found to be on fire, but the flames were extinguished. Two or three days later it was again on fire; and this time, entirely destroyed, with all its contents, including 25 tons of hay and 50 bushels of wheat. Loss $1000. Two or three days later an unoccupied house close by was discovered on fire, but it was saved without much damage. Suspicion was directed to a boy of ten years, living with Mr. Carr, who was charged with the crime, and finally confessed it.

☞ The Chattanooga Gazette says a difficulty occurred at Knoxville between W. S. Hall, clerk of the Circuit Court at Knoxville, and a young man named Baker, late of the rebel army, resulting in the death of Hall. Baker was committed to jail, but the citizens got him from the sheriff and hung him in the street.

A very excited state of feeling exists between the whites and blacks of Chattanooga.

☞ Returns to the U. S. Agricultural Department for August show the corn crop to be enormous. Its excess over past years will more than compensate for the deficiencies in wheat. The potato crop is unusually large and promises well. Buckwheat, a minor crop. Onions promise an unprecedented yield. Cereal exportations will probably be larger than ever before.

— A company with a capital of $100,000 are successfully working a soapstone quarry at Groton, Mass.

— Documentary evidence taken from the rebel archives, showing that Davis, Seddon and other leading rebels were cognizant of, and authorized the Andersonville cruelties, is now reported to be in the hands of the Judge Advocate of the Wirz Commission.

— Capt. Ludlow of the ship Isaac Howland, captured and burned by the pirate Shenandoah, writes the Sag Harbor Express stating the facts of his capture, and also that when the pirate boarded the Favorite, Capt. Young of that vessel attempted to shoot Waddell the commander of the Shenandoah with a bomb-gun, but unfortunately the mate had removed the cap from the gun, unknown to the Captain. He was told that it was sure death to him to shoot. He replied, "I die willingly, could I kill that wretch." The pirates immediately handcuffed him, and put him in the coal-hole of the pirate.

☞ It is a stale joke to call a railroad baggage master "the baggage smasher," though not always so much of a joke to the owners of the trunks, but we doubt if any railway official has kept up his reputation in this line any better than the carriage breakers have sustained their role in this city during the present season. Shattered shafts, fractured felloes, snapped springs, and all the various mishaps that go to constitute broken buggies, have multiplied to such an extent that we have been fain to cease attempting to record them. On Wednesday evening, on Vaughan street, a buggy came to grief, having one of its hind wheels almost entirely crushed and the hind spring broken. Even our rural friends seem touched with the mania, for not long since we noticed a heavy wagon lying on its side near the Academy and an immense load of straw in the street, doubtless to show which way the wind blew. As it is an ill wind which blows nobody any good, our smiths and carriage makers probably reap the harvest.

☞ We were carried many years back in imagination yesterday morning, on seeing some soap bubbles, blown by some early riser, gracefully floating past our office window. Beautifully tinted by the early morning light, they mounted until lost in ether, or were wafted by a passing zephyr against some obstacle and broken; like most other illusions of this life, their glories were of short duration, and, once gone, their rainbow hues return no more forever. The best use we know for a pipe is to blow soap bubbles.

☞ Our comic editor having overslept himself, we were obliged to put on a "sub" yesterday, and below we give the substance of his cogitations:

"WITH VERDURE CLAD."

The children who obtain their clothing by the sale of greens.

SUN SHADE.

A delicate name for the present fashionable color of ladies' hair in Paris.

☞ Rev. E. H. Chapin has been engaged to deliver a lecture before our Lyceum this season, the committee, after two years' trial, having succeeded in securing his services. Among the Secretary's mass of correspondence is a letter written off Teneriffe, by the well-known traveller, Rev. J. C. Fletcher, now on his return from Brazil, via Europe. He will reach home next month, and will give one of his fine lectures before the Lyceum.

[Communication.]

☞ The friends in this city of George W. Ackerman, formerly in the employ of Ball, Black & Co., New York, will regret to learn that he was drowned last Wednesday, while out fishing, off Greenwich Point, Conn. He was an honest, upright and steady young man; loved and respected by all who knew him. May our loss be his gain. T.

☞ Dogs again venture forth into our streets, and, judging from the number of juvenile specimens we have seen recently, their number will soon be as large as before the late raid of the canine Borgia.

FENIAN TROUBLES IN MISSOURI.—Last week, according to a correspondent of the Tribune, the Deputy Head Centre of the Fenian Brotherhood of Missouri died at St. Paul. His body has been brought to St. Louis and a funeral service and oration advertised to take place at St. Patrick's Church. Archbishop Kenrick thereupon issued a bull prohibiting the use of St. Patrick's Church for the delivery of an oration or other religious ceremony to take place on that occasion. He also directed the Superintendent of the (Catholic) Calvary Cemetery not to admit any procession of men or women bearing the insignia of Fenianism within the gate of the cemetery. Not satisfied with this, Archbishop Kenrick has further informed the Roman Catholics of St. Louis that the members of the Fenian Brotherhood are not admissable to the sacraments of the church so long as they are united with that association, which, he says, he has always regarded as immoral in its objects, the inciting of rebellion in Ireland, and a quasi military organization to be made effective in case of a war with England. This declaration against the Fenians has roused the same indignation among the St. Louis Catholic Fenians as elsewhere.

— Patrick Tomey is in Portland jail, to be tried at the Supreme Court for indecent assault on a respectable young woman, whom he followed in the street, Friday evening.

— A dispatch dated Augusta, Ga., Aug. 31, says: Three fast young men, of the best families, called out Capt. Heasley, 33d U. S. Colored Troops, last night, and brutally murdered him. A commission has been ordered to try them.

— Miss Melia King, of Portland, employed in a shop there was returning home late on Wednesday evening, when she was assaulted by four soldiers, one of whom attempted to hold her. Her screams brought a gentleman to her rescue, and the rascals ran. Three of them have been arrested.

☞ The Portland Star learns that an attempt was made Tuesday evening by some scoundrels to throw the afternoon train from Boston off the track near Kennebunk. An old rail was placed across the track, which broke the cow-catcher as it came against it; fortunately no injury resulted to the train. About half a mile further on, the engineer discovered some sleepers piled on the rail, but not in season to reverse the engine. The engine plunged into the pile and scattered them. The shock of these collisions was so slight that none of the passengers were made aware of the obstructions, or of the narrow escape they had from instant death or terrible disaster.

On Wednesday, Officer Burnham of Portland arrested Horace P. Willard in Kennebunk, who has confessed to the deed, saying he was in liquor when he did it. Willard was carried to Portland and locked up for examination. He has been an inmate of State Prison, and has a wife and six children at Alfred.

☞ Copious rains have recently fallen in some parts of New England and portions of the Middle States. A severe thunder storm visited Philadelphia on Monday afternoon. The Inquirer reports that for one hour the rain poured down in a continuous sheet, flooding the streets, filling the inlets, and sweeping everything before it that could be floated away. Much damage was done at the depots in the upper part of the city, in the loss of fuel and other property. In many places the water reached the floor of the cars, and it was with much difficulty that they were drawn through the streets. The Schuylkill was considerably swollen, and in some instances the wharves were submerged and valuable property carried off by the force of the current.

— A Cairo paper says that at the hanging of two negroes in that city, "everything passed off most pleasantly.

AGENTS WANTED

The Secret Service, the Field, the Dungeon, and the Escape.

BY ALBERT D. RICHARDSON,

N. Y. Tribune Correspondent.

70,000 Copies Sold in Sixty Days!

The most interesting and exciting book ever published, embracing Mr. Richardson's unparalleled experience for four years, Travelling thro' the South in the secret service of the "Tribune" at the outbreak of the war; with our armies and fleets, both East and West, during the first two years of the rebellion; his thrilling capture; his confinement for twenty months in seven different Rebel prisons; his escape, and almost marvelous journey by night of nearly 400 miles. It will abound in stirring events, and contain more of the fact, incident and romance of the war, than any other work yet published. Horace Greeley says of it:

"A great many books will yet be written concerning this war, in addition to the many already in print; but not one of them will give, within a similar compass, a clearer, fuller, more reasonable account, entirely from personal observation, of the nature, animus, purposes, tendencies and instrumentalities of the slaveholders' Rebellion than does the unpretending narrative of Mr. Richardson."

Teachers, ladies, energetic young men, and especially returned and disabled officers and soldiers, in want of profitable employment, will find it particularly adapted to their condition. Send for circulars. Address

CAUTION FROM THE

AMERICAN WATCH COM'Y.

It having come to our knowledge that imitations of the American Watch have been put upon the market in great number, calculated by their utter worthlessness to injure the reputation of our genuine products, to protect our own interests and the public from imposition, we again publish the trade marks by which our Watches may invariably be known.

We manufacture four styles of Watches.

The FIRST has the name

"AMERICAN WATCH CO., Waltham, Mass.," engraved on the inside plate.

The SECOND has the name

"APPLETON, TRACY & CO., Waltham, Mass.," engraved on the inside plate.

The THIRD has the name

"P. S. BARTLETT, Waltham, Mass.," engraved on the inside plate.

All the above styles have the name American Watch Co. painted on the dial, and are warranted in every respect.

The FOURTH has the name "WM. ELLERY Boston, Mass.," engraved on the inside plate, and is not named on the dial.

All the above described Watches are made of various sizes, and are sold in gold or silver cases as may be required.

It is hardly possible for us to accurately describe the numerous imitations to which we have alluded. They are usually inscribed with names so near approaching our own as to escape the observation of the unaccustomed buyer. Some are represented as made by the "Union Watch Co., of Boston, Mass.;"—no such company existing. Some are named the "Soldier's Watch," to be sold as our Fourth or Wm. Ellery style, usually known as the "Soldier's Watch." Others are named the "Appleton Watch Co.;" others "P. S. Bartley," instead of our P. S. Bartlett; besides many varieties named in such a manner as to convey the idea that they are the veritable productions of the American Watch Company.

We also caution the public, and particularly soldiers, against buying certain articles called watches, so freely advertised in illustrated papers as "Army Watches," "Officers' Watches," "Magic Time Observers," "Arcana Watches," &c., the prices of which are stated to be from seven to sixteen dollars. A good watch, in these times, cannot be afforded for any such money.

A little attention from buyers will protect them from gross imposition.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS A GENERAL ASSISTANT OF NATURE.

What is health? What is disease?

Health is when the supply and expenditure are equal. Disease when the supply and expenditure are unequal.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS impart certain expulsive powers to all matters in the body whose life is below the standard of the surrounding party, or which have remained longer than the time nature designed. So in fevers and in all that class of cases which run into mortification BRANDRETH'S PILLS have marvelous curative qualities. Our bodies are continually changing, and it is by this change we live. Should matter remain in organs beyond the time nature designed, pain and inflammation set in, which is nothing more than a preparatory effort for our good. All Brandreth's Pills are supposed from the results to do is simply

ASSISTING THESE EFFORTS OF NATURE.

Local.

POLICE COURT, Sept. 7.—A young man whose name is suppressed by the request of his friends, stole a watch from a marine, and was bound over in the sum of $500. Committed to jail.

Johanna Berry is a poor, depraved specimen of femininity, and evinces her wretched depravity in various ways, among which is that of allowing her habitation to be visited by drunken and dissolute men, who unite with her in making night hideous with their demon yells. Joe Hannah is an old offender, and now she goes to jail to await trial in October.

☞ The Boston Journal, which has the reputation of carefulness in its digest of news items, as well as that of accuracy in its statements, a few days since published the following unintelligible piece of information:

"On Thursday last the house of Mr. Chester Hayes of Portsmouth, together with 75 tons of new hay, besides tools and implements of farming of various descriptions, were entirely destroyed by fire."

Our readers will hardly recognize the above as an item of ours published a few weeks ago, relative to the burning of a barn belonging to Mr. Charles Hayes. Houses in this locality are not of sufficient capacity to contain 75 tons of hay even, if the farmers were disposed to use them for such a purpose.

☞ Uncle Toby gratefully acknowledges the receipt of a dish of fine large Pears, presented by his friend Dow, of Newington Highlands.

☞ We saw a letter a few days since, directed to "mr capt B F wells fort esq constitution N. H." It may be all right, but we don't know the above gentleman.

☞ Rev. E. W. Allen has resigned the pastorship of the Congregational Church in South Berwick, to take effect Sept. 30.

"BOY ON BEHIND."—The Newburyport Herald thus relates how a boy in that city, while "hooking a ride," got hooked himself:

On Tuesday, a boy about four years old, named Goodwin, got on Mr. Chas. Smith's ice cart for a ride, and in attempting to get off, caught a hook on the cart in his belly, and hung there till he was rescued.

VERMONT.—During the days of Democratic ascendancy in the Union, it was said that the citizens of Vermont were divided into two parties—the people and the postmasters. Of late the election returns have indicated that the postmasters and people have united.

GOLD, Thursday, 144 3-4.

— The French wine crop will be abundant this year, and prices will have to come down.

— The stock of hemp in the two warehouses burned at St. Louis last week, valued at over $350,000, was almost totally destroyed.

— From the first of May last until the 31st of August, the pay department drew from the Treasury $192,542,095.49, wherewith to pay the troops.

— Gen. Sanborn has made a temporary treaty of peace with the Apache, Camanche and Kiowa Indians, and has ceased hostilities against them until a permanent peace can be arranged.

— A new Methodist church soon to be erected in Portland will seat about six hundred persons, and its cost is estimated at from twelve to fifteen thousand dollars. It will be a neat and substantial structure, of the Roman order of architecture.

— Some idea of the extent of business done at Calais, Me., may be gathered from the fact that during the year 1860 there were 994 arrivals of vessels at Calais, and 998 departures, and that since, business has been steadily increasing.

— The U. S. Navy Department has dispatched a gunboat via the river St. Lawrence to Detroit and the Lakes. This action of the government is important—terminating a long existing treaty stipulation restricting naval protection on our frontier waters.

— The Macon Telegraph, of Aug. 16th, gives the particulars of an assault by four highwaymen on Major Gen. Wilson as he was passing along Cotton avenue. Such a serious resistance was made by Gen. Wilson that three of the rascals were specially put to flight and the fourth captured.

— "An ye have taken the teetotal pledge, have ye," said somebody to an Irishman. "Indade I have, and I'm not ashamed of it aither." "And did not Paul tell Timothy to take a little wine for his stomach's sake?" "Indade he did; but my name is not Timothy and there's nothing the matter with my stomach."

— The last of the fishing fleet belonging to Nantucket, has arrived from the banks with a full fare of 750 quintals of fish. All the vessels have brought in full fares, and the business has been a greater success than was anticipated. All but one of the vessels are now out after mackerel, and the one last arrived will soon follow.

— Mrs. Eunice Forbes of Ashfield, Mass, is nearly 103 years old.

— South Carolina asks fewer pardons than any other State—and deserves fewer.

— Prentice says the Abolitionists are miserly because they are niggardly.

— There are 200,000,000 feet of lumber in the Penobscot this season.

— Three newspaper thieves were sentenced to 17 months imprisonment each, in Philadelphia, last week.

— Nickels are said to be a drug in Philadelphia. It must be a queer sort of pharmacy that recognizes them as such.

— Paul Morphy is preparing a standard work on chess, with a collection and analysis of his own games.

— The records of the Werz trial already fill 12,000 pages of foolscap. Four or five days more will probably finish the thing up.

— A son was born to the Supreme King of Siam by his eldest royal lady on the 23d of May. He is the seventy-third royal offspring.

— New York has 121 steamers, with a tonnage of 113,520, employed in the coastwise and Havana trade. All this is the work of the past six months.

— Major General Heintzleman has returned to his home, Manheim, Lancaster County, Pa., after an absence of twenty-five years.

— The number of steam vessels engaged in ocean or coastwise navigation, hailing from Boston, is forty, including several not yet constructed, but under contract.

— Ship Art Union, 750 tons, built at Newburyport in 1850, has been purchased by the State of Massachusetts, for a School ship in connection with the present ship Massachusetts.

— A raspberry bush at Globe Village, Southbridge, Mass., set out last Spring has attained a height of eighteen feet. Perhaps that is a sufficient reason for raspberries being so high this season.

— The drop-curtain of Barnum's new museum bears an elaborate and faithful representation of the old Museum, beneath which is the inscription, "It still lives, and rises phenix-like from its ashes."

— In Philadelphia, last week, one hundred and fifty cures were captured, of which fourteen were redeemed. The rest will reappear in the shape of soup, suspender buttons and parasol handles, law book covers and various other articles. Nothing of the dead dog is wasted but his dying groan.

— A Life Assurance Company in London, "The General Provident Assurance Company," has opened a special section for persons treated by the homœpathic system, at a lower premium than that charged on other lives.

— Mrs. John Stewart, in Norwich, Conn., planted three peach stones in a box in her garden. Only one came up, and that one tree bears three different kinds of fruit, ripening at different periods—and she don't know what to think about it.

Have you tried Dr. BICKNELL'S SYRUP? It cures Dysentery, Diarrhea, &c., and is the pleasantest and best medicine ever made. It contains no opiates or anything that can harm you.

FROM THE LAND OF SUNRISE, far-off Asia, come the aromatic roots of which Fragrant Sozodont is composed. In this preparation the choicest of the toilet has achieved its most remarkable triumph. Pure, unsullied teeth and agreeable breath, and absolute exemption from all diseases that effect the gums, are the results of a daily application of the Sozodont. sep4—Stead 5

NOTICE.

I profess to be in communion with the DEAD. I have instructions from the Spiritual World daily, hourly, minutely, and every tick of time. I am quickened in thought to do and know the life of God. It is all invisible. It is all incomprehensible. God lives in his elect. All things must forever exist, and man must learn that eternity is now, and never to-morrow. Eternity is to-day, and all men must be in the true and real.

Morning Chronicle.

— A Washington correspondent says "there is good authority for denying the statement that Gen. Lee is engaged in writing a history of the war from a rebel standpoint. He has had numerous offers from publishers on both sides of the Atlantic to do so, but has declined all of them." Gen. Lee is wise in declining. He knows the rebellion was a bad job, and thinks the less he says about it the better.

— There is a piece of marsh adjoining the Methodist parsonage in Byfield that has been on fire for two months. They set the grass on fire, and that spread to the bushes and trees, and finally to the peat formation, and it will not now be extinguished till we have heavy rains. It has burned big holes in the earth several feet deep.

— A novel "bachelor's" association has been founded in Vienna; the object of the Society is to promote matrimony by keeping a register of all marriageable ladies of admirable character and free from extravagant tastes. PETROLEUM IS KING!

THE

UNION OIL STOVES!

Patented April 11, 1864, and Jan. 17, 1865.

A COMPLETE APPARATUS

—FOR DOING THE—

COOKING

And all the work of a Family of any size,

AT LESS THAN

One-Third the Cost of Wood or Coal!

THIS NEW

PETROLEUM Cooking APPARATUS

Is WARRANTED to do all the work of a common Cooking Stove, at a great saving of time, trouble and expense. Having the fullest confidence in its utility, we offer it to the public as the

Only Kerosene or Coal Oil Stove

that will Bake, Broil, heat Flat Irons, &c., with entire satisfaction. It may be used in Kitchen or Parlor, without Dirt, Ashes, Smoke or Odor.

The ordinary Stove Furniture is used, with the addition of the "Flat Iron Heater." Kerosene Oil is used, and, at one dollar a gallon, it will cost for each Burner used, thereby saving the cost of the Stove in the expense of Fuel in a short time.

ONE CENT AN HOUR

"How long does it take to cook anything with one of these stoves?" is a question often asked. In answer, we can say from actual experiment that

2 quarts of water can be boiled in	15 minutes
Common potatoes baked	" 30 "
Flour Biscuit baked	" 15 "
And three good-sized Flat Irons heated in	15 minutes.

By adding a sheet iron drum to the Stove, it will warm a small-sized room in cold weather.

For use in the night in case of sickness, one of these Stoves is invaluable, as it can be put in operation in one minute.

☞ EXCURSION PARTIES will find it very useful, occupying very little space, and capable of doing a large amount of Cooking.

The Eagle Hill Mutual Coal Company.

The subscriber has succeeded in obtaining a limited number of shares in this popular Company, which has proved such a success in Boston and vicinity, for the purpose of enabling the citizens of Portsmouth to obtain their coal at a saving of three or four dollars per ton. Full information will be given and a small amount of stock furnished on application to

COAL AT COST.

EAGLE HILL MUTUAL COAL COMPANY.

This Company is organized on the mutual plan, the same in principle as the Insurance Companies, and has none of the features of the speculative movements of the day. Its officers are among the solid men of Boston, and are known as gentlemen of integrity, who have never been associated with any of the speculative operations of the times.

The Colliery is one of the best and most extensive in the coal region, produces a coal far superior to any used in this market, and from its advantages can mine cheaper than most others. It has been operation over six months, has more than 4000 stockholders, has delivered coal at a saving of $3 to $4 per ton from regular market prices, and has paid cash dividends of 4 per cent.

Any one who will take the trouble to investigate the facts, will see at once that the crookings of coal monopolists have no application to this company, and that it is as safe and sure as any railroad or bank stock in the market.

QUICK CURES AND LOW PRICES.

Over Twenty Thousand Patients Cured Annually!

DR. J. TELLER continues to be confidentially and successfully consulted on all forms of private diseases, at his old Established Hospital, No. 5 Beaver Street, Albany, N. Y. Twenty years devoted to this one particular branch of practice, enables him to perform cures such as no other Physician can, and his facilities are such (being in correspondence with the most eminent Physicians of the Old World,) of obtaining the latest as well as the latest remedies for these disease, offer inducements to the unfortunate of a quick and rapid cure, to be obtained at no other office in America.

In Syphilis, Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Stricture, Enlargements of the Testes and Spermatic Cords, Bubo, Ulcerated Throat, Sore Nose, Tender Shin Bones, Cutaneous Eruptions, Blotches, Ulcers, Abscesses and all other Impurities of the system, are perfectly under the control of the Doctor's Medicines, and have been tested in more than 20,000 cases annually, with Immense Success.

YOUNG MEN.

Young Men addicted to secret habits, who have impaired their healths and destroyed the vigor of their minds, thus depriving themselves of the pleasure of the Married Life, are notified that in consulting Dr. J. Teller, they will find a friend to counsel and a Physician who has cured thousands, in almost every part of the United States, who applied to Dr. T. broken down in health, now rejoice in all that make life desirable and man happy. The reader is of course aware that the delicacy of this subject will prevent a more minute description of this terrible disease.

DR. TELLER'S GREAT WORK.

A book for everybody.—Startling disclosures. Dr. TELLER's great work for the Married or those contemplating Marriage—200 pages—full of plates—price 25 cts Sent to all parts, under seal, by mail, post paid. 50,000 copies sold the past year. The simplest and the most Married Reply. A lecture on Love, or how to choose a Partner—a complete work on Midwifery, it contains hundreds of secrets, never before published—Warranted to be worth three times the amount asked for it. 25 cents, in specie or postage stamps, inclosed, will secure a copy by return mail. Dr TELLER has devoted a lifetime to the cure of those diseases upon which his books treat.

TO THE LADIES.

Dr. TELLER still remains the only Agency in America, for the sale of Dr. Michel's Italian Female Monthly Pills. The sale of more than 20,000 boxes annually, is a sufficient proof of its female remedy, unapproached, and far in advance of every other medicine—for stoppages, irregularities, and other obstructions in females.

CAUTION.—Married ladies in certain delicate situations should avoid their use. For reasons self-evident they are not advertised in any case, for the guidance of patients. On the receipt of $1, (the price per box,) these Pills will be sent, by mail or express, to any part of the world, secure from curiosity or damage.

Office hours from 8 A.M. to 8 P.M., and on Sundays from 9 to 12 M.

N.B.—Persons at a distance can be cured at home by addressing a letter to Dr. J. Teller, enclosing a remittance, and medicines securely packed from observation, sent to any part of the world. All cases warranted. No charge for advice.—N. B.—Only Gentlemen Boys employed. Notice this, address all letters to

Important to the Afflicted.

DR. J. TELLER continues to be consulted at his office, Nos. 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, BOSTON, on all diseases of a PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE. By a long course of study and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. D. has now the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with remedies never before, since he first introduced them, failed to cure the most alarming cases of GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS.—Dr. Dow devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases, and by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for business or society. Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.—Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving descriptions of your cases. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Capotes, warranted the best preventive, Order by mail. Three or $1 and a red stamp.

Highly Important to Females

IN DELICATE HEALTH.

Dr. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No. 7 Endicott Street, Boston, is consulted daily for all diseases incident to the female system. Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience in the cure of diseases of women than any other physician in Boston. Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment. Dr. Dow, since 1846, having confined his whole attention to an office practice for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United States.

N. B.—All letters must contain one dollar, or they will not be answered. Office hours from 8 A.M. to 9 P.M.

SUFFERERS

From Dyspepsia

READ! REFLECT!! ACT!!!

TARRANT & CO.

Gentlemen,

I am a resident of Curacoa, and have often been disposed to write to you concerning the wonderful virtues of your SELTZER APERIENT as a remedy for indigestion and dyspepsia. I desire to express to you my sincere gratitude for the great benefit the SELTZER has done my wife.

For four or five years my wife has been sadly afflicted with Dyspepsia, and after being under the treatment of several Doctors for two or three years, she was finally induced to seek the advice of a gentleman who had been cured by your SELTZER APERIENT, who immediately treated her with your EFFERVESCENT SELTZER APERIENT. She began to improve at once and is now PERFECTLY WELL.

I feel it to be my duty for the good of humanity to make this statement, that a medicine so valuable should be widely known.

Trusting that you will give this publicity, and repeating my sincere gratitude and thanks,

I am very respectfully yours,

S. D. C. HENRIQUEZ,

Lieutenant, Curacoa, S. A.

New York, June 28th, 1865.

WE ASK

The suffering millions in our land to give this remedy a trial, convinced that by its timely use many may be relieved, many cured of Dyspepsia, Heartburn, Sour Stomach, Sick Headache, Dizziness, Indigestion, Costiveness, Bilious Attacks, Liver Complaints, Rheumatic Affections, &c.

Read the Pamphlet of Testimonials with each bottle, and do not use the medicine against the advice of your Physician.

THE MAGEE

COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber would especially call the attention of the public to the

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We invite all those in want of the very best Stove in the market, to examine the

MAGEE COOK.

Also on hand an assortment of the different sizes

—of the—

MAGEE PARLOR STOVE

with and without ovens, which are too well known to need any recommendation.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"

VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING

FURNACES.

The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large portion of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

The Chronicle.

— The Sandusky Register is informed that some time since $18,000, collected for the McPherson Monument, had been placed in the hands of a "gentleman," residing in Washington, who ran away with it.

— Good cooking apples are selling in Lewiston, Me., for ninety cents per bushel. The makers of cider are buying windfall apples in the very best apple regions at forty cents the bushel.

— A piece of board flying from a circular saw at Erie Pa., a few days since, struck Joseph Evans on the throat with such force as to sever the windpipe and arteries instantly. He survived some minutes.

— Mrs. Doctor Mary E. Walker has been refused an appointment as surgeon in the regular army with the rank, uniform and pay of Major. She served in that capacity with Sherman's army in Georgia, with considerable distinction.

— Among the leading rebels who left this continent and declare they will never return, are Generals Magruder, Kirby Smith, Preston, Hindman, Price and Breckinridge. Pity the list was not longer. Among those who would like to do the same, if they could, are Jefferson Davis and Wirz.

— Many of the Georgia, Alabama and Mississippi planters are making preparations to move during the coming autumn into Louisiana, chiefly along the banks of the Red river, for the purpose of raising cotton. In most cases they are hiring their former slaves. The wonderful fertility of the Red river lands holds out great inducements to cotton growers.

— An interesting trial took place in Ravenna, Ohio, last week, under the Ohio liquor law. A returned soldier named Greer, while in a state of intoxication, was robbed of one hundred and two dollars by some unknown persons. His wife brought suit for damages against the saloon keeper who sold him the liquor, and obtained a verdict in her favor of one hundred and forty dollars.

— Mr. Benjamin Brown died at his residence in Waterford, Conn., on the 2d inst., aged ninety-six years. He fought in the war of the Revolution, and bore arms in the defence of New London on the 6th of Sept. 1781, carrying a musket all the night previous, though but a lad, and was the first to descry the British fleet, and give the alarm of their approach on that ever memorable morning.

— The office seekers are not all dead yet.—Preston King the new Collector at New York, has about 1000 offices at his disposal and there are already nearly 20,000 applicants. There are 1500 applicants for the position of third auditor of the treasury at Washington, now held by John Wilson of Chicago, who is suggested as the probable chief of the executive bureau, provided that Congress authorizes it.

— The Grand Jury at Bedford, Penn., have presented a true bill in the case of John P. Reed, jr., indicted for the murder of Deputy Provost Marshal Jackson Grouse, on the 1st of August last, and ignored the bill against Menzel Reed and Schell Reed. Immediately after his discharge Menzel Reed was arrested by the U. S. Marshal, on a charge of treason against the U. S.—This Menzel Reed joined the rebel army during the invasion of the State in 1863. He was conveyed to Pittsburg to await trial.

THE CABINET ORGANS.
Manufactured by
MASON & HAMLIN, Boston,
For Families, Churches, and Schools.
PRICES—$110, $130, $140, $160, and upward, according to the number of stops and style of case.
They are elegant as pieces of Furniture, occupy little space, are not liable to get out of order, and every one is warranted for five years.
They are recommended by TWO HUNDRED of the most distinguished
Musicians, Organists, and Artists
of America, as unquestionably FAR SUPERIOR to all other similar instruments. Among those who have given written testimonials to the superiority of THE CABINET ORGAN are much men and musicians as embrace a great part of the musical talent of the country.
It must be readily admitted that an instrument which receives the indorsements of such an array of the most competent musical judges, must possess most decided points of excellence and superiority; and a careful and candid inspection will satisfy any one for himself that such is the case.
All persons interested are invited to send for full description of these instruments, with styles and prices.

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)
76 State street, opposite Kilby street,
Boston.
After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into Ancient or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice given on patent matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.
The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.
These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessary of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.
"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.
Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges." JOHN TAGGART During eight months, the subscriber, in court of his large practice, made on twelve rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents. R. H. EDDY.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 9, 1865.

GREAT FENIAN DISPLAY AT ST. LOUIS. There was a great turn-out of the Irish population of St. Louis on Sunday last, on the occasion of the burial of Henry Clarence McCarthy, the second head of the Fenian Brotherhood in the United States. On the Thursday night previous, they had quite an excited meeting over the course of the Archbishop, which lasted until 2 o'clock in the morning. Resolutions were passed to bury the remains of their deceased brother according to the original programme, in spite of the Archbishop.

Accordingly on Sunday, the customary religious rites were performed in church, after which the body was removed to Mozart Hall and placed upon an alter surrounded with Fenian banners and emblems and funeral lights. Thousands of people flocked to the hall to view the remains. In the afternoon a funeral oration was delivered to an immense out-of-door assemblage by James J. McBride, in which the principles and plans of the order were eloquently set forth. The body was then escorted by a procession over a mile in length, with five or six bands of music and a gorgeous display of banners and devices to Calvary Cemetery, where all the badges and devices of the brotherhood were laid aside and the members entered the consecrated grounds simply as citizens. The Democrat says the demonstration was immense in numbers and unchecked in enthusiasm.

From the "American Ballot," Sept. 7th.

VALEDICTORY.—With the present issue the publication of the AMERICAN BALLOT will be suspended,—whether temporarily or permanently it is for the citizens of Exeter and the Republicans of Rockingham county to determine. For nearly eleven years we have labored to sustain it, and with less remuneration than would satisfy the most humble laborer. We have given our best efforts in the cause of Republicanism—now happily triumphant in the State and nation, toiling mechanically by day and mentally by night, with all the ability we possessed; and while, through the success of the party whose principles we sustained, others have secured places of honor and emolument, we have toiled on, asking for nothing but a remunerating support in the work in which we were engaged.

So far from receiving that, we have expended all the income derived from job-printing in sustaining our paper, and now find that we are daily growing poorer by its continuance. We can, therefore, sustain it no longer. If the people do not want it, we do not desire to publish it; and for that reason we have determined to discontinue its publication.

The few persons to whom we have expressed our intent have signified regret that the paper should be discontinued, and expressed surprise that a Republican paper should not find support in the heart of a County in which about six thousand votes are cast for the principles it advocates; but we know our labors have been unrewarded and that we have reached the limit our ability to support it. With a conscientiousness that we have exhausted our resources in the effort to sustain the publication, we graciously retire from the editorial field.

Persons indebted to us for the Ballot, for advertising, and for job-printing, will believe our assurance that we need the amount of our dues; the few friends who have paid in advance shall have the surplus refunded, and creditors are requested to observe the injunction, "Have patience, and I will pay thee all."

THOS. J. WHITTEM.

How it may be done.—Since our decision to suspend the publication of the Ballot has been made known to our intimate friends they ask what can be done to secure its continuance or to ensure the resumption of its publication. To this we answer: There are six thousand Republican voters in the County of Rockingham. If one or two influential men in each town in the County can be induced to work for it, a subscription list of two or three thousand may easily be obtained, which would guarantee the publication. We do not ask them to do this for us, but are willing to give place to any one who can better serve the interest of the town, the County or the State; and we will cheerfully do our part to sustain the new publisher, whoever he may be. We have supported the paper until our means are exhausted. The load is too much for one man without capital to carry, as we have found to our cost. If the Republicans of the County desire that the publication shall be resumed, they must say for it.

— In suspending the publication of the Ballot we desire to state, distinctly, that it has never been the organ of any man or clique. For all that has appeared in its editorial columns we are alone responsible, as we never could submit to any dictation, if it were suggested, and none of our friends ever attempted even to advise us as to what course to pursue. For all the Ballot's sins, of omission or commission, but one person is responsible, and that is the humble individual whose name appears as its publisher, and who now,as gracefully as he can, bows his adieu to his patrons.—Ballot.

—— Warren H. Smith, of Sanbornton, a former railroad contractor, fell from the bridge which he is building between the town of Hill and Sanbornton, a distance of twenty-four feet, among rocks and floating timbers, and was severely injured, barely escaping with his life. Insured in the N. Y. Accidental.

— It is but 18 years since the first mormon emigrants entered Utah.

THE FAIR.—The great feature of the day, Wednesday, at Concord, was the stallion trot for $300, open to all New England—$150 to go to the first, $100 to the second, and $50 to the third best in the race, which was mile heats, best 3 in 5.

A. P. Morrison of Boston entered what they call the chestnut stallion "Fearnought," being nothing less than the slashing five-year old "sorrell" colt raised by Mr. Wm. Brown of Stratham; which, after Hon. Smith had driven once or twice, Mr. Morrison came down and paid $1500 or $1800 for, (cheap, for a "colt" that showed better than '40 without training,) and now values him at a round $10,000! We dislike to see any horse bandaged and stockinged and padded and cushioned up, as Fearnaught was, and Ticonic, Empress, and most of the other trotters usually are—but it is necessary until they can handle their legs better, or they will cut themselves all to pieces. There seems to us something radically wrong in the necessity for it.

George P. Maynard of Boston entered the old, original bay stallion "Ethan Allen," who is beautiful and game as ever; but is now about seventeen years old, and can't be expected to come to time so often and so strong as the young ones,—and they vanquished him, but not ingloriously.

Then there was the handsome but "heavy" blood bay "Ticonic," belonging in Waterville, Me.,—a strong and game horse, but carrying meat enough for a dray-horse.

The race was a very pretty and interesting one; the horses nearly evenly matched, and warmly contesting each of the four heats. Ethan took the first in 2:38; but tired ere the close of the second, which Fearnaught took from him in 2:36—good time for this half-mile track; Fearnaught also took the third in 2:40, and the fourth in 2:39—Ethan going all to pieces, and "Ticonic" improving and coming in second on both, winning second money, and Ethan was declared distanced.

The attendance was very large, and the display of fine turnouts and richly-dressed ladies was superb. Among others we noticed several handsome black spans, one of Mr. Sprague of Providence, also of Dr. Loring of Salem, and Mr. Carlos Peirce of Boston, (and we couldn't help thinking that it some folks paid all their old debts, they couldn't afford to drive such a nice team and keep so much pampered neat stock.) Ex-Gov. Gilmore sported a good span of bays, also Dumas of the Phenix, Hon. Onslow Stearns and hosts of others. There was a beautiful span of grays to a buggy, and another ad tandem, which to our mind is the gayest of all teams; and if you are "able" to drive three or four in that way, as they do in New York in sleighing times, the more the merrier; but horses and riders must know their business. There were also hosts of good single teams, but very few that we saw, in the most stylish mode of all, on horseback, except the numerous and well-appointed marshals. The whole scene—as the eager and and animated thousands watched the noble contesting horses, from stands and seats and all over the grounds—was beautiful; and as the atmosphere cooled off at the close of day, was exceedingly enjoyable.

The crowds of people on Thursday morning were immense, and hourly increased, but all was quiet and pleasant, except the dust. Among the exhibition at Eagle Hall, we noticed a rich assortment of Harnesses, from Mr. James R. Hill's great Concord manufactory—all of the solid and handsome work for which he is distinguished literally the world over, from California to Australia—not gotten up specially and fancifully for the occasion, but taken right out as they hung in his cases. Also some good firm harnesses of similar character, from Mr. J. D. Johnson, also of "Concord," whose work is also worthy of that brand, and to go alongside of Downing & Abbott's indestructible carriages, and Hill's unexcelled harness-work.

The exquisite milled Blankets, from the mill at Wolfeborough, also attracted much attention. They are the finest and most beautiful we ever saw—delicate enough for the bridal couch of a princess, and soft as the velvet cheek of mother's first and always sweetest cherub. We had no idea anything nearly so nice could be turned out in New Hampshire—as the blankets, we mean, for there are plenty of girls in the Granite State, nature's true princesses; and as for babies, why, the excellence of this the most important production is proverbial.

There was a fine Grape display, both of hot-house and out-door varieties; and among the hardy ones, the new seedling of Mr. George Main of Concord, (brother of Mr. Charles Main of Portsmouth and San Francisco,) and which bears his name of "Main Grape," is deservedly attracting much attention. Mr. Main has had great success as an amateur fruit grower, and exhibited some superior plums, among other things; and the original vine of his grape is immense in growth and profuse in bearing, beyond anything we ever saw. The fruit is of good size and flavor, in appearance something resembling the Hartford, and ripens about the middle of August—and we regard it as a valuable variety. Mr. Packer, who seems to delight in serving his fellows, on Wednesday evening invited the numerous representatives of the press in town to test the quality of the Main grape, and furnished piled up baskets of the rich purple bunches, from Mr. Main's bounty, to which ample justice was done.

Perkins, Stern & Co. made a "refreshing" display of their pure California Wines—which, wherever known, are decided to be unequalled in quality.

The Leavitt Sewing Machine, which without change of tension, runs from several thicknesses of leather to a single thickness of cloth, was observed with wonder and admiration by constant throngs of people.

At the Field, among the myriads of curious and interesting machines, implements and fixtures, we can only mention a few which seem to us particularly meritorious. First, is a curious improved force pump, patented by A. Carver, Little Falls, N. Y. It has the advantage of being double action, and capable of being converted into a force or suction pump, equally suitable for families, hotels, railroads or oil mills, and to any purpose to which a pump can be applied. It is very thoroughly made, and apparently entitled to its claim to be the best force or suction pump in use. Manufactured by W. & L. E. Gurley, Troy, N. Y., and also for sale by the owners, A. Carver & Co., Little Falls, N. Y., and Cornish & Condon, 179 Broadway, N. Y.

There was also a new Portable Fence, by Clapp & Blanchard, Montague, Mass., which interested us much, and which we regard of great value to farmers and gardeners.

One of the most beautiful, almost artistic displays, was that of the splendid copper Weather Vanes manufactured by A. L. Jewell & Co., of Waltham, Mass. Decidedly the finest articles of the kind manufactured in the country. Nothing adds so much to a fine building, flag-staff or premises of almost any kind, as one of these neatly designed and richly-gilt symbols of the nation, farm stock or other occupation—of which we shall have more to say hereafter.

The trot of Thursday, between Empress, Blackstone Belle and the Farmer's Daughter, was easily won by the first. The attendance was large, and all things bright and fair, except the dust, which was absolutely intolerable.

The Fair closed on Friday, in grand style,—Gov. Smyth giving his Address to an immense gathering of people, and several interesting trials of speed winding up all.

Communication.

NEWCASTLE SHARP SHOOTERS—dangerous to the Navigators upon the Piscataqua. Leaden hail rattling upon its waters, in all directions.

Mr. Editor: On Thursday afternoon at about half-past 4 o'clock, as I was proceeding down river with a part of my family in a small row boat, we heard at short intervals the quick sharp report of rifles echoing from shore to shore, and presently when off Newcastle, a ball struck the water with a whistle and a splash, not ten yards distant from the boat; others we saw which fell short of us but in our direct line. We shouted for the perpetrators to stop firing until we should be out of range, but they heeded not and continued to blaze away. Luckily we escaped, and on our arrival at Kittery Point we learned that the boatmen there had been subjected to the same hazards. In one instance a bullet was sent directly through the gunwale of a boat passing up the river. The attention of the commanding officer at Fort Constitution or of the authorities at Newcastle should be called to this matter,and an immediate stop put to such a hazardous target shooting, or we shall soon have the tragedy of Pest Island enacted again. CAUTION.

☞ Rev. J. L Hatch, of the Unitarian Church in Concord, says: "Sunday, Sept. 3d, Mr. Haskell and myself were both ten minutes, at least, late—detained by a friendly conference elsewhere respecting the services. Before commencing the regular services, Mr. Haskell repeated what I had said, saying he would not have come had he known of any claim on the pulpit, and that in fulfilling the engagement according to his agreement, he must not be understood as taking any part against his brother in the ministry, or in favor of the course of the Parish Committee. * * * I read an exposition of the law from the pen of Judge Davis of Maine, that a minister cannot be dismissed on doctrinal grounds, against his will, until it is decided by an Ecclesiastical Council that those grounds applied to him are sufficient. * * * * More than two moths ago I offered to immediately resign my relation upon receiving three months pay in advance, or to leave the whole matter to the decision of an Ecclesiastical Council, both of which propositions were rejected." [So it seems the trouble is not yet ended.]

— Fourteen boys in Portland, unable to raise the tin to get into the theatre, effected an entrance by raising a window, but were put out by the police.

AGENTS WANTED

FOR

The Secret Service, the Field, the Dungeon, and the Escape.

BY ALBERT D. RICHARDSON,

N. Y. Tribune Correspondent.

70,000 Copies Sold in Sixty Days!

The most interesting and exciting book ever published, embracing Mr. Richardson's unparalleled experience for four years. Travelling thro' the South in the secret service of the "Tribune" at the outbreak of the war; with our armies and fleets, both East and West, during the first two years of the rebellion; his thrilling capture; his confinement for twenty months in seven different Rebel prisons; his escape, and almost miraculous journey by night of nearly 400 miles. It will abound in stirring events, and contain more of the fact, incident and romance of the war, than any other work yet published. Horace Greeley says of it:

"A great many books will yet be written concerning the war, in addition to the many already in print; but not one of them will give, within a similar compass, a clearer, fuller, more readable account, entirely from personal observation, of the nature, animus, purposes, tendencies and instrumentalities of the slaveholders' Rebellion, than does the unpretending narrative of Mr. Richardson."

Teachers, ladies, energetic young men, and especially returned and disabled officers and soldiers, in want of profitable employment, will find it particularly adapted to their condition. Send for circulars. Address

CAUTION FROM THE

AMERICAN WATCH COM'Y.

It having come to our knowledge that imitations of the American Watch have been put upon the market in great number, calculated by their utter worthlessness to injure the reputation of our genuine products, to protect our own interests and the public from imposition, we again publish the trade marks by which our Watches may invariably be known.

We manufacture four styles of Watches.

The First has the name

"AMERICAN WATCH CO., Waltham, Mass.," engraved on the inside plate.

The SECOND has the name

"APPLETON, TRACY & CO., Waltham, Mass.," engraved on the inside plate.

The THIRD has the name

"P. S. BARTLETT, Waltham, Mass.," engraved on the inside plate.

All the above styles have the name American Watch Co. painted on the dial, and are warranted in every respect.

The FOURTH has the name "WM. ELLERY Boston, Mass.," engraved on the inside plate, and is not named on the dial.

All the above described Watches are made of various sizes, and are sold in gold or silver cases as may be required.

It is hardly possible for us to accurately describe the numerous imitations to which we have alluded. They are usually inscribed with names so near approaching our own as to escape the observation of the unaccustomed buyer. Some are represented as made by the "Union Watch Co., of Boston, Mass.,"—no such company existing. Some are named the "Soldier's Watch," to be sold as our Fourth or Wm Ellery style, usually known as the "Soldier's Watch." Others are named the "Appleton Watch Co.;" others "P. S. BARTLEY," instead of our P. S. Bartlett; besides many varieties named in such a manner as to convey the idea that they are the veritable productions of the American Watch Company.

We also caution the public, and particularly soldiers, against buying certain articles CALLED watches, so freely advertised in illustrated papers as "Army Watches," "Officers' Watches," "Magic Time Observers," "Arcana Watches," &c., the prices of which are stated to be from seven to sixteen dollars. A good watch, in these times, cannot be afforded for any such money.

A little attention from buyers will protect them from gross imposition.

Agents for the American Watch Company.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS A GENERAL ASSISTANT OF NATURE.

What is health? What is disease?

Health is when the supply and expenditure are equal. Disease when the supply and expenditure are unequal.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS impart certain expulsive powers to all matters in the body whose life is below the standard of the surrounding party or which have remained longer than the time nature designed. So in fevers and in all that class of cases which run into mortification BRANDRETH'S PILL have marvelous curative qualities. Our bodies are continually changing, and it is by this change we live. Should matter remain in organs beyond the time nature designed, pain and inflammation set in, which is nothing more than a preparatory effort for our good. All Brandreth's Pills are supposed from the results to do is simply

ASSISTING THESE EFFORTS OF NATURE.

Duren's Celebrated Catarrh Snuff is the best known remedy for Headache, Cold in the Head, Snuffles, Impaired Voice, Bronchitis, and Catarrh. Few persons appreciate the diseases arising from disordered nasal organs. Sight, hearing, taste, and smell are frequently ruined by a cold in the head. The gas generated by the use of this snuff cleanses the entire head, and restores proper articulation. Its effects are pleasant and wonderful. It contains no tobacco nor other injurious ingredient. Colleges, Societies, States, and the most eminent of the Medical Faculty have awarded it testimonials and premiums.

Local.

A GOOD PAPER STOPPED.—We regret that the "Ballot" is dead. We give Br. Whittem's valedictory in full, elsewhere, as a part of our local history. We say we regret the stopping of the paper, which we regard as final; for it has ever been, under whatever name, a valuable publication, creditable at once to the publisher and the community—always able and interesting, and independent and outspoken to the last degree of manliness. We never regarded that, nor indeed any of the weekly papers, as much of a competitor of ours; and if we had, we are always sorry to see honest industry and well-directed talent unsuccessful. And while (we regret to say) the Ballot has never gone out of its way to compliment this Chronicle; we are glad to remember now, that we have on all occasions, in public and private, acknowledged the worth of our cotemporary. And the discontinuance of such a publication, as an educator and instructor of the community, is a calamity always; for besides the influence for good, of every decent newspaper,—nothing influences more the character and standing of a town, abroad, than the number and kind of its newspapers. If we owned Rockingham County, we wouldn't have the Ballot stopped for two thousand dollars.

As to the reasons for discontinuing the paper—the great one in all such cases is sufficient—that it don't pay. But it might have paid well, in our opinion, had the publisher possessed as much business talent as literary (or newspaper) ability—had he been as good at managing the cash-box as the copy-box. Parties are certainly ungrateful, as well as Republics; for if there be one man who has deserved well of the Republicans in this city and county, and merited the fattest office and the richest pap, in it that man is the editor of the Ballot. But as he never scratched and scrabbled for the spoils, he never got much. And if we were in his place, (and now we are not in his place, too,) we should prefer to fail without public office, rather than flourish with it, if it must be obtained under the usual conditions.

As to the resumption of the paper, we doubt if it can be done, though a new and younger man, who is smart enough and willing to work hard enough, would here find a chance to chain himself to a heavy load, as almost all country papers are. One fact is, that the price charged for the paper has always been too low. Newspapers are the cheapest things in all creation, and printers and editors generally the poorest paid of any occupation or profession in the known world, although the most valuable, next to farmers—who themselves also would not be any better paid, but that they have the matter rather more in their own hands. And speaking of this, the most foolish move that any set of intelligent men ever made, was the Boston paper publishers' recent reduction of price, for which there was neither reason or excuse. And when we of this Chronicle join in any such plan, or follow such a foolish example, may our right hand forget its cunning—in fact, we sha'n't do it, till after that happens. Will all interested, please take notice. We regaad the laborer worthy of his hire; and if any man works harder than the editor, or deserves higher pay, we don't know who he is. And whatever others may do to cut down prices below living rates, we don't propose to commit pecuniary suicide just yet.

Of course the fault of starvation prices for newspapers lies with the printers themselves, since nobody else has any control over the matter; and too many of these, themselves allow the man who gets a cent a month for his money, or the other man who pays 10 cents for his cigar or glass of ale, to growl his newspaper out of him for a three-cent bit, or a paltry dollar and a half a year.

We might pursue this subject further—it is a theme we love, and always wax earnest if not eloquent upon; but never mind more now. Suffice it to say that poor Whittem has gone under at last—though he and his paper deserved a better fate. Several years ago, when the old "Messenger" was on its last legs, and before it shifted itself into the Ballot, Br. W. offered to sell out to us; but some delay on our part offered opportunity for the new project, which now failed. We refer to this, simply to say, that we should be glad to furnish our Weekly Gazette to any of the Ballot subscribers who may wish.

☞ Died at the House of Correction in this city, Sept. 7, an unknown man about 22 years of age, calling himself Thomas Clark. He was committed on the 4th inst. for drunkenness, and he died of delirium tremens. He stated that he had been attacked with the same malady two or three times before, and that his Doctor had told him he would die if he had it again. Yet he drank and took the terrible consequences. No young man who uses strong drink at all, can be safe from such a fate, whatever may be his position or his imagined self control. And yet the thousand daily customers of the dramshop and bar, walk recklessly over this volcanic path.

☞ A few days since a surgeon's steward at the Navy Yard Hospital at this station was appointed to take the place of Mr. James Trefethen, and after holding his position for a day or two, suddenly decamped, taking with him surgical instruments, and other articles to the value of about $100. Our city police were immediately notified of the fact of his escape, and measures were taken to apprehend him. After a lapse of about forty-eight hours he was secured by Officer Eastman of the Third Station, Boston, together with all the stolen property. The criminal was delivered up to the authorities of Kittery for trial before the U. S. District Court to be held Sept. 23d.

☞ At a caucus held in Kittery on Thursday evening, for the nomination of a candidate for Representative, Jeremiah Gunnison, esq., arose, and after complimenting the successful nominee, suggested that he (the candidate) ought to use his influence in endeavoring to bring about a system of taxation that would include United States' bonds, adding that there were six hundred thousand millions of these Government securities locked up by the rich men of the country.

☞ Ferdinand H. Howard, the man who shot himself a few days since, died on Friday afternoon.

DR. CAMPBELL'S visit to Portsmouth is unavoidably postponed until Sept. 26, owing to the great number consulting him in Manchester. He will positively be at the Franklin House, Thursday Sept. 26th.

MEXICO.—The N. Y. Herald's Vera Cruz correspondence says the Liberals captured the town of Tehaucan with its garrison, made a large haul of stores and specie, and then, the place being of no use to them, abandoned it. The Imperialists were chuckling over the supposed material reduction of Sheridan's force in Texas. It will require Imperialist forces amounting to one hundred thousand men to subjugate the country. The guerrillas still give great trouble to Maximilian's troops, and there is apparently no improvement in the social or moral condition of the country.

—An Indian Commission of U. S. officers and Indian chiefs, is in session in Arkansas. A bitter feud exists between the rebel and loyal full and half-blood Indians, which will interfere seriously with the work of the Commission. The Indians will object to the emancipation of their slaves,—but they must come to it.

—Two men travelling southward, with a large amount of bogus money, were hanged by exasperated parties at Snake River, U. T., in July.

IROQUOIS INDIANS!

Morning Chronicle.

☞ Newburyport furnishes a couple of refreshing items, in this season of "short fruit crops:"

Mr. William L. Dodge of that city, has an apple tree that this season bore fifteen bushels of Porter apples.

The old Allen Pear Tree, known to be 227 years old, has yielded nobly this year, in spite of age and drouth. The gathering produced eight and a quarter bushels of as handsome, wholesome Orange Pears as any one could desire—an example of prolific bearing which degenerate modern growth may well envy. The veteran deserves a handsome premium.

The workingmen of Wheeling, Va., have formed a joint stock company with a capital of twelve thousand dollars, for the purpose of establishing a first class grocery store, from which they are able to obtain their family supplies at the lowest cash rates, the profits to be distributed pro rata among the stockholders.—Exchange

That is a Union Store on a large scale. If they have honest and capable managers, well: but if the reverse the stock will soon be below par.

ANOTHER IRON CLAD SPOILED.—The Philadelphia Ledger says it is feared that after all the money and mechanical skill expended on the iron-clad Tonawanda—a sister monitor to the Monadnoc—that she will prove a total failure, owing to the miscalculation of the weight of the ship and the displacement of water. Already she is as far down as she was designed to be, and she has but half of her coal on board, none of her stores. The light draught monitors had the same fault, and they would have been useless but that they have been raised a foot or more. The defect in the Tonawanda may be remedied in the same manner.

☞ Chicago papers tell a tale of robbery and murder. A drunken stranger took two waiter girls and two men to ride one evening. The hackman drove to a vacant lot and there the men robbed their victim, and placing his head under the wheels drove over his neck. They then sent the girls home and threw the body into the river, where it was found by the police. The girls revealed the crime, and the murderers were arrested. The murdered man had not been identified.

— A very loquacious lady offered to bet her husband five pounds that she would not speak a word for a week. "Done," cried the delighted husband, instantly putting down the money, which the lady as soon took up and put in her pocket, observing naively, that she would secure it until the bet was decided. "Why," said her husband, "I've won already," and required her to fork over. "Not at all," said the lady, "you are mistaken in the time—I mean the week after I am buried." The lady went shopping the same afternoon.

Coal at Cost.
The Eagle Hill Mutual Coal Company.
The subscriber has succeeded in obtaining a limited number of shares in this popular Company, which has proved such a success in Boston and vicinity, for the purpose of enabling the citizens of Portsmouth to obtain their coal at a saving of three or four dollars per ton. Full information will be given and a small amount of stock furnished on application to
JOHN S. HARVEY,
Je20 47 Congress st., Portsmouth.

COAL AT COST.
EAGLE HILL MUTUAL COAL COMPANY.
This Company is organized on the mutual plan, the same in principle as the Insurance Companies, and has none of the features of the speculative movements of the day. Its officers are among the solid men of Boston, and are known as gentlemen of integrity, who have never been connected with any of the speculative operations of the times.
The Colliery is one of the best and most extensive in the coal region, produces a coal far superior to any used in this market, and from its advantages can sell cheaper than any others. It has been operation over six months, has more than 4000 stockholders, has delivered coal at a saving of $3 to $4 per ton from regular market prices, and has paid cash dividends of 4 per cent.
Any one who will take the trouble to investigate the facts, will see at once that the combination of coal monopolists have no application to this company, and that it is as safe and sure as any railroad or bank stock in the market.

Twenty years devoted to this one particular branch of practice, enables him to perform cures such as no other Physician can, and his facilities are such (being in correspondence with the most eminent Physicians of the Old World,) of obtaining the safest as well as the latest remedies for these diseases, offer inducements to the unfortunate of a quick and rapid cure, to be obtained at no other office in America.
In Syphilis, Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Stricture, Enlargements, Pain in the Spermatic Cords, Bubo, Ulcerated Throat, Sore Nose, Tender Shin Bones, Cutaneous Eruptions, Blies, Ulcers, Abscesses, and all other impurities of the system, so perfectly under the control of the Doctor's Medicines, and have been tested in more than 20,000 cases annually, with immense Success.
YOUNG MEN:
Young Men addicted to secret habits, who have impaired their healths and destroyed the vigor of their minds, thus depriving themselves of the pleasure of the Married Life, are notified that in consulting Dr. J. Teller, they will find a friend to counsle and a Physician who has cured thousands, in almost every part of the United States, who applied to Dr. T. broken down in health, now rejoice in all that makes life desirable and man happy. The reader is of course aware that the delicacy of this subject will prevent a more minute description of this terrible disease.
DR. TELLER'S GREAT WORK.
A book for everybody.—Startling disclosures. Dr. TELLER's great work for the Married or those contemplating marriage—300 pages—full of plates—price 25 cts. Sent to all parts, under seal, by mail, post paid. 50,000 copies sold the past year. The single Married and the Married Happy. A lecture on Love, or how to choose a Partner—a complete work on Midwifery, it contains hundreds of secrets, never before published.—Warranted to be worth five times the amount asked for it. 25 cents, in specie or postage stamps, inclosed, will secure a copy by return post. Dr Teller's advice is worth a lifetime to the cure of those diseases upon which his books treat.
TO THE LADIES.
DR. TELLER still remains the only Agency in America, for the sale of Dr. Nichol's Italian Female Monthly Pills. The sale of more than 20,000 boxes establishes their reputation as a safe remedy, unapproached, and far in advance of every other medicine—for stoppages, irregularities, and other obstructions in females.
Caution.—Married ladies in certain delicate situations should avoid their use. For reasons see directions which accompany each package, for the guidance of patients. On the receipt of $1, (the price per box,) these Pills will be sent, by mail or express, to any part of the world, secure from observation. Address
Office hours from 9 A.M. to 8 P.M., and on Sundays from 2 to 5 P.M.
N. B.—Persons at a distance can be cured at home by addressing a letter to Dr. J. Teller, enclosing a remittance. Medicines securely packed from observation, and sent to any part of the world. All cases warranted. No charge for advice.—N. B.—No students or boys employed. Notice this, address all letters to

Important to the Afflicted.
DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, No. 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, BOSTON, on all diseases of a PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE. By a long course of the most practical experience on a gigantic extent, Dr. D. has now the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that have never, since the first introduced them, failed to cure the most alarming cases of GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.
SEMINAL WEAKNESS.—Dr. Dow devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins both body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for business or society. Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.—Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving descriptions of your cases. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Caputles, warranted the best preventive. Order by mail. Three or $1 and a red stamp.
Highly Important to Females
IN DELICATE HEALTH.
Dr. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No. 7 Endicott Street, Boston, is consulted daily for all diseases incident to the female system. Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience in the cure of diseases of women than any other physician in Boston. Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment. Dr. Dow, since 1845, has devoted his whole attention to an office practice for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledged no superior in the United States.
N. B.—All letters must contain one dollar, or they will not be answered. Office hours from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M.
CERTAIN CURE
in all cases, or No Charges Made.
Among the physicians in Boston, none stands higher in the profession than the celebrated DR. DOW, No. 7 Endicott street. Those who need the service of an experienced physician and surgeon should give him a call.
P. S.—Dr. Dow imports and has for sale a new article, called the FRENCH SECRET. Order by mail. Two for $1 and a red stamp.

SUFFERERS
From Dyspepsia
READ! REFLECT!! ACT!!!
TARRANT & CO.
Gentlemen,
I am a resident of Curacoa, and have often been disposed to write to you concerning the real value of your SELTZER APERIENT as a remedy for indigestion and dyspepsia. I desire to express to you my sincere gratitude for the great benefit the SELTZER has done my wife.
For four or five years my wife has been sadly afflicted with Dyspepsia, and after being under the treatment of the most eminent Physicians for three years, she was finally induced to seek the advice of a learned Physician, Doctor Cabinis, of Venezuela, who immediately ordered her to use your EFFERVESCENT SELTZER APERIENT. She began to improve at once and is now PERFECTLY WELL.
I feel it to be my duty for the good of humanity to make this statement, feeling that a medicine so valuable should be widely known.
Trusting that you will give this publicity, and repeating my earnest gratitude and thanks,
I am very respectfully yours,

THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.
The subscriber would especially call the attention of the public to the
MAGEE COOK STOVE,
as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.
There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.
The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.
For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.
We invite all those in want of the very best Stove in the market, to examine the
MAGEE COOK.
Also on hand an assortment of the different sizes
—of the—
MAGEE PARLOR STOVE
with and without ovens, which are too well known to need any recommendation.
"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING
FURNACES.
The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.
For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.
The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.
To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the
MAGEE FURNACE.
The fine or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.
No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.
This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.
These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.
For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.
They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:
Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

The Chronicle.

— The Philadelphia Inquirer has a story of a young lady who was thrown violently out of a wagon in the streets of that city, by the sudden starting of the horse. Fortunately, however, as she fell her "waterfall" turned outward, and her head, instead of coming in contact with the the cobblestones, was very nicely protected by the capillary cushion, which projected from the back of her bonnet. Her life was undoubtedly saved in this way.

— The Prince of Wales' yacht is most magnificently decorated and arranged. The saloon, or centre compartment, is fitted with Spanish mahogany, walnut tree, and birdseye maple. It has a balance table, and there are bookcases, wine-lockers, cupboard for wine-glasses, decanters, etc. The fire place has a handsome marble chimney-piece, with mirror above. The ladies' cabin aft, is superbly fitted up with mirror, couches and spring cushions covered with crimson silk, marble washstand and a salt water bath below the floor. The saloon, ladies' and captain's cabins have all Brussels carpets, and red silk curtains are fitted for the skylights in the saloon and ladies' cabin. The handles and finger-plates on the doors are of amber. All the furniture is French polished. The yacht is cutter built, is 86 tons and is called the "Dagmar."

GENTLEMANLY DEPORTMENT. — "All I ask," said old Mr. Turveydrop, the model of gentlemanly deportment, when the marriage of his son was about to secure at least two good servants instead of one—"All I ask is the simple comforts of a home: my morning biscuit and coffee, a stroll or afternoon ride in the park, a dinner of simple game, ducks and wine, an evening at the opera, and to be relieved of the cares and vexations of business, so annoying to one whom nature has fitted for a higher sphere To you, my dears, I resign the entire attic, exclusive control of the preparation of our frugal repast, absolute charge of my wardrobe and of our dancing pupils. Attend faithfully to the business, my dears, and you will find that no delight equals the consciousness of daily performing our duties. God bless you." Such in substance was the amiable condescension with which Mr. Turveydrop extended his paternal blessings on the young Turveydrop and Miss Jellyby.

MISSOURI BAPTISTS REFUSING THE OATH.—The thirteenth annual meeting of the General Association of Missouri Baptists was held in Booneville on the 19th and 21st ult. About fifty members were present, and agreed to decline taking the oath required of ministers and teachers by the new Constitution.

— In Portland, on Thursday, during a dispute, a man in trying to strike Mr. Morse who had a babe in his arms, missed his mark and struck the child in the head, injuring it so severely that it is feared the child will die from the effects of the blow.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 11, 1865.

☞ Uncle Toby has seen an earnest appeal, in a loyal paper, for the repeal of the act of Congress which frees 7-30 bonds from taxation,—because forsooth a popular cry may be raised against it which will occasion its repeal; and the advice is, to make the repeal come before the clamor, and so save the Republican party from defeat.

This is very singular advice. In the first place, repeal will not produce the desired effect;—for every bond is a contract between the U. S. and the holder, and must be fulfilled. If there is not power enough in the U. S. government to protect its own issues,—then it must pay the penalty, either by reimbursing the bondholder, or by seeing its own credit so sunk as to make the national debt much bigger instead of smaller; and thus the simpletons who clamor against this, must pay heavier taxes, in another form, than they pay now,—and not be any more equally taxed than at present.

It is much more important that the U. S. Government should keep its faith, than that any party should keep its power;—and we have no doubt its faith will be kept. But if the Union party could keep its power (or keep its men in office,) by adopting a dishonest, rebel, copperhead course, who would be benefitted? None but a few men who would draw salaries.

A Democratic paper in Vermont, just before election, hit the nail on the head, by saying it was folly to rail against these bonds, or to suppose they would be repudiated or could be taxed. It stated farther, that, as the bonds run out and become due, the United States would doubtless replace them by other bonds with lower interest.

It is not true that all these bonds are held by rich people; for many of them are held in $50 and $100, by people who have only one each. They are, however, held more by loyal men and women, than by copperheads and traitors!—and partly for this reason they are assailed.

Undoubtedly the rich, even the rich copperheads, may now prefer them to other stock: but this is of no consequence. And if it were possible (as it is not,) to reach the great mass of these bonds by any new quackery of legislation, the really shrewd monied men would still be as much ahead of the flats and novices as they are now.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— Ex-Gov. John Page died at Haverhill, Sept. 8.

—— A young man at Plymouth committed suicide last Wednesday. He is said to have been insane, and in that condition to have stolen a horse, and when arrested took poison.

—— A town meeting will be held in Exeter Sept. 12, to choose a committee to locate the lot for the Robinson Female High School Seminary. Also a Building Committee, and a Committee to take care of the funds, which is said will be about $225,000. Stephen Thing's farm, rear of Dr. Gorham's house, is the location now talked of, as the most pleasant and beautiful place for the location of the building. Also, to see if the citizens of Exeter will vote to accept the will.

IN CALIFORNIA, the Union Ticket is elected, generally.

GOLD, Saturday, 144 3-4. Sent to Europe, $217,000.

— Typhoid fever is very prevalent in Richmond, and quite fatal. Fever and ague are also giving the people the "shakes."

— The only Laundry that exists for washing the soiled linen and clothing of Portlanders, is located at Saccarappa, six miles distant from the city.

— In New York, on Friday afternoon the boiler of the Mahattan Soap Company's manufactory burst killing two persons and wounding three.

— The famous New York Engine Company, Americus No. 6, goes out of existence. Its property, sold at auction the other day, embraced two pianos, half a dozen sumptuous sofas, lace and damask curtains, immense mirrors and many valuable portraits. The company has been something of a political power.

— A gentleman who recently arrived at St. Louis from Denver says he passed and met three thousand wagons on the great thoroughfare, traveling along without molestation. All the wagons passed belonged to and were filled with returning Montana gold hunters, who were satisfied with their trip out there.

— A male chimpanzee has just been received at the London Zoological Gardens, and had a hearty welcome from the female chimpanzee there. They rushed into each other's arms like stage lovers. They kissed each other, then the male patted the female's face, danced round her, took her round the waist, as if he was going to waltz, when they expressed their joy by dancing and howling in ludicrous concert.

THE GRAND VETERAN LEAGUE of New Hampshire met at Concord Wednesday evening, and held an adjourned session on Thursday. A form of organization was adopted. From the preample of the constitution it appears that the chief objects of this association are to keep alive a proper military spirit in New Hampshire; to foster the patriotic military associations of the past four years, and to organize and maintain such institutions and means as may be required for the proper comfort and support of New Hampshire's disabled comrades of the army and Navy, and their dependants. The officers are: President, Brig. Gen. A. F. Stevens of Nashua; Secretary, Lt. Col. Ira McL. Barton of Newport; Treasurer, Major Henry McFarland of Concord; Auditor, Col. Walter Harriman of Warner; Chaplain, Rev. Henry E. Parker of Concord. A council of twenty-five officers has for its Chairman, Maj. Gen. S. G. Griffin.

ALABAMA AND GEORGIA.—The Mobile Tribune says the beautiful little town of Marietta is still one mass of ruins, and the greater part of those who dwelt there in happiness are now homeless and almost helpless. So it is with the entire section of country from Atlanta to Chattanooga.

Almost all the the white troops have been removed from Macon. The city has become comparatively quiet, with few offenses against the laws.

GENEROSITY.—Some years ago a native of this city, now residing in Boston, met there a man intoxicated and in want. The man said he had been led away and was desirous of assistance. He was taken in, and when sober, money was furnished him to return to his home in New York. Recently that man, ever after sober and respectable, died rich, and remembering with gratitude the kindness long ago shown him by one who acted the the part of a Good Samaritan, bequeathed him thirty thousand dollars.—Newburyport Herald.

ROMANTIC MARRIAGE.—A marriage at Greenland has a little of the romantic about it. The bridegroom when in the army advertised for lady correspondence. The bride had a love for writing and sportively wrote the soldier a letter under a fictitious name, "Jenny Ellsworth." It was replied to and several letters passed, as well as miniature likenesses. The soldier took a fancy to the style of the writer, took a fancy to the picture, and last winter took a journey to Greenland, where he had never been before, and made inquiry at the depot for Jenny Ellsworth. No one knew of such a name in Greenland, and he began to think he had been duped, when he produced the photograph from his pocket and asked if any one present knew it? "Oh, that is Jenny Brackett," they at once exclaimed. He soon found her residence, and a personal acquaintance of a few days resulted in a mutual good understanding. He returned to the army, and at the close of the war, after an honorable discharge, has again visited Greenland. "Jenny Ellsworth" has taken the name of Mrs. Bennett, and they have departed for his home in Tivoli, Minnesota. The brave deserve the fair.—Journal.

☞ The U. S. War Department has ordered the organization of a Military Commission at St. Louis for the trial of the parties arrested at various times on the charge of being concerned in the rebel plot to destroy steamboats on the Western rivers. The number of persons held under arrest on these charges is about twenty. The rebel Secretaries Mallory and Seddon, it is said, will be placed on the witness stand, and even Jeff. Davis' testimony may be required before the conclusion of the trial.—A dispatch to the Tribune states that the three prominent rebels above-named have been subpœnaed.

— A daily mail from Charleston to the North begins Sept. 1.

— The death of Governor Brough was caused by the following accident, as stated in the report of the surgeon: "About five or six weeks since he slightly injured his foot by stepping on a small pebble one evening—an injury which he supposed to be simply a bruise or sprain of the foot; and to rest that foot, walked aboutfor a week after, leaning heavily on a cane, which produced the same condition in his left hand." Had he used a cane with a hook for a head or handle, he would have avoided that wound.

— A Doctor of Divinity kindly announced to his morning congregation, in Boston, last Sunday, that owing to the heat—and the dust, there would be no afternoon service. This brings to mind what another reverend gentleman said years ago, when it began to rain, as, we have been thinking, it has never rained since: "My friends," he remarked before giving the benediction, "you need not come to meeting again to-day, but stay at home and read the good books you have or ought to have."

— From Egypt the Gazette du Midi give details of the ravages caused by the cholera, which has now almost ceased. In one village in the Delta, celebrated for the cultivation of water melons, the whole of the inhabitants died. Being unable to sell their fruit, they ate it themselves and died to the last man. It was necessary to employ forced labor to bury the last. In all it is said that 82,000 victims of the contagion and bad living were buried in Egypt in six weeks.

DR. KANE.—According to the Rochester (N. Y.) Union, a book is shortly to appear that will give some new facts in the history of Dr. Kane, the celebrated Arctic navigator. It seems that he was for several years engaged to Miss Margaretta Fox, one of the young ladies of spirit-rapping celebrity, with whom he fell in love while she was exhibiting as a medium in Philadelphia, she being then only fifteen years old. With the consent of her mother Dr. Kane removed her from all association with spiritualists and placed her in a private school near Philadelphia, to remain during his absence in the Arctic regions. On his return in 1855 they were to have been married; but the opposition of Dr. Kane's family was such that Miss Fox released him from his engagement.

He loved her, however, too well to live without her; and in April, 1856, the engagement was restored, with the understanding that it should be kept secret till the publication of Dr. Kane's great work should realize an independence for him. In October, 1856, his physician having ordered Dr. Kane to England, he was secretly married to Miss Fox, and made his will, leaving five thousand dollars to her in a private trust to his brother. His last letter was addressed to her. This legacy was not paid, and injurious reports being raised, Mrs. Kane sued for dower as the widow, and prepared a memoir, embodying one hundred and thirty-four of Dr. Kane's letters. The Doctor's family interposed to prevent the publication of the memoir, and agreed to pay the lady the interest of the money left her, and a sum down to repay her expenses; but they having failed to keep the agreement, the publication is now to be made in order to vindicate the character of the lady.

ITEMS FROM TEXAS.—Governor Hamilton has ordered the necessary steps to call a convention.

The Houston papers are filled with robberies and burglaries. A band of desperadoes under one Frazier are operating in Goliad county. One wagon train captured by them contained merchandise valued at $30,000. The goods were taken to Goliad, put in store, and sold in open day by the robbers.

The Indians have come within thirty miles of Austin. Higher up they are murdering men, women and children.

The cotton crop is injured by the worm.

A Houston letter says that the opening of the port of Galveston has given life to trade. Cotton has been rolling through the streets to the cars, and the crowded cotton sheds have been emptied. All the troops except a Provost Guard of three hundred men have left the city.

Gov. Hamilton's appointments give general satisfaction. A year of prosperity is looked forward to. Emigration from the North is solicited. The richest lands in the State are in the market. The freedmen give some trouble by violating their contracts in leaving the planters at the commencement of the picking season. Possibly the planters also give some trouble.

WASHINGTON ITEMS.—Hereafter the Southern mail service will self-sustained, owing to the great reduction in the amount of service and other economical measures.

Orders have been issued by the War Department to discontinue the brigades of the Veteran Reserve Corps round Washington.

The Herald's despatch says the Freedmen's Bureau learns from Tennessee, that while a large number of the former owners of slaves desire to co-operate with the Commission to secure tranquility, many refuse to accept the new condition of things, and resist the Government. The freedmen's courts are crowded with applicants for justice. Their scant and hard-earned wages are withheld, while the whip and shackles are in many localities as common as in the days of serfdom.

The Tribune's dispatch says the President, in a recent conversation with a Louisianian, says those who imagined him hostile to negro suffrage were mistaken. He urged this gentleman to advocate liberal views in Louisiana, and said—"Why cannot you do as Massachusetts does? If a negro can read and write, let him vote. There are not five hundred in Louisiana who can stand the test; but it will be doing justice, and stop Northern clamor."

HORSES AGAINST INDIANS.—Another race has taken place on the Chicago Driving Park Course between Indians and trotting horses. The terms of the race were that the red men Deerfoot, Jacobs and Peters were to run four miles and a quarter while the horses trotted eight miles to harness. The distance was apportioned among the racers in the most advantageous way for all. Victory gave the laurels to the fleet men of the forest, who completed their distance in 20 min. 35 sec., beating the horses by sixty rods. Deerfoot made his first mile in the extraordinary time 4.42. This is the fifth contest of the kind at Chicago, and all have been won by the Indians.

☞ Is there any limit to human carelessness? Last Thursday, in Tennessee, there was a dreadful explosion on the Northwestern Railroad. The train consisted of eight cars and passenger coaches, and there were nearly two hundred passengers on board. The two foremost cars contained powder, shot and shell, and it is supposed that sparks from the locomotive communicated with the powder through cracks in the cars, causing the explosion. Seven persons were killed, the engineer badly and the conductor slightly injured. The engine was totally wrecked. The concussion was terrific, and shook the buildings in town like an earthquake. [We never before heard of powder and passengers on one train. Were the managers of the road drunk, or only crazy?]

AT WASHINGTON, on Friday, Judge Advocate Chipman said that while Wirz was an atrocious criminal and responsible for a great many crimes, there are others above and higher than he whom the Government will seek to hold responsible for greater crimes. This was the theory of the Government and the purpose for which the record evidence was introduced this afternoon before the Millitary Commission. Among those present at the trial as spectators were the Hon. Arthur Kincaird, a member of the British Parliament, and Lewis J. Jennings, the correspondent of the London Times.

— A man was held for trial in the Boston Police Court on Thursday on a charge of larceny of 20,000 feet of gas, having by some ingenious contrivance connected his pipe with those of the company, without the use of a meter. Fizzle says he ought to have a light sentence.

NEW HAMPSHIRE BIRD LAW.

AN ACT to promote the interests of Agriculture.

SEC. 1. That if any person shall at any season of the year, take, kill or destroy any of the birds called robins, thrushes, larks, blue-birds, robins, sparrows, swallows, martins, woodpeckers, bob-o'-links, yellow-birds, linnets, fly-catchers, or warblers; or shall, between the 1st day of March and the 1st day of July in any year, take, kill or destroy any of the birds called snipes, woodcocks, plovers, rails, yellow-legs, or sand-pipers; or shall between the 1st day of March and the 1st day of August in any year, take, kill or destroy, or shall at any season of the year ensnare or entrap any of the birds called partridges, or grouse, or quails, or shall within the respective times aforesaid, sell, buy, or have in possession, any of said birds, taken or killed, whether in this State or elsewhere,—he shall forfeit for every rail, partridge, grouse, quail, wood-cock, snipe or plover, taken, killed or had in possession, the sum of Three Dollars; and for each of the other birds named above, the sum of One Dollar; to be recovered by complaint before any Justice of the Peace.

SEC. 2. Any person owning or occupying land may forbid the destruction of birds on the same at any season of the year, by public notice in any newspaper published in the County, or by posting notice on the land; and any person taking or destroying birds on said land, in defiance of said prohibition, shall be subject to the penalty of One Dollar for each bird so destroyed, in addition to the penalties named in section first of this bill.

SEC. 3. It shall be the duty of the Selectmen of towns, and of the Mayor and Aldermen of cities, throughout this State, to cause the provisions of this act to be enforced within their respective limits.

SEC. 4. All forfeitures or penalties recovered for violation of any of the provisions of this act, shall inure, one-half to the use of the complainant, and one-half to the use of the town or city where the same shall be recovered. Approved, June 30, 1865.

AMERICAN WATCH COM'Y.

It having come to our knowledge that imitations of the American Watch have been put upon the market in great number, calculated by their utter worthlessness to injure the reputation of our genuine products, to protect our own interests and the public from imposition, we again publish the trade marks by which our Watches may invariably be known.

We manufacture four styles of Watches.

The FIRST has the name "AMERICAN WATCH CO., Waltham, Mass.," engraved on the inside plate.

The SECOND has the name "APPLETON, TRACY & CO., Waltham, Mass.," engraved on the inside plate.

The THIRD has the name "P. S. BARTLETT, Waltham, Mass.," engraved on the inside plate.

All the above styles have the name American Watch Co. painted on the dial, and are warranted in every respect.

The FOURTH has the name "WM. ELLERY Boston, Mass.," engraved on the inside plate, and is not named on the dial.

All the above described Watches are made of various sizes, and are sold in gold or silver cases as may be required.

It is hardly possible for us to accurately describe the numerous imitations to which we have alluded. They are usually inscribed with names so near approaching our own as to escape the observation of the unaccustomed buyer. Some are represented as made by the "Union Watch Co., of Boston, Mass.,"—no such company existing. Some are named the "Soldier's Watch," to be sold as our Fourth or Wm Ellery style, usually known as the "Soldier's Watch." Others are named the "Appleton Watch Co.;" others "P. S. BARTLEY," instead of our P. S. Bartlett; besides many varieties named in such a manner as to convey the idea that they are the veritable productions of the American Watch Company.

We also caution the public, and particularly soldiers, against buying certain articles CALLED watches, so freely advertised in illustrated papers as "Army Watches," "Officers' Watches," "Magic Time Observers," "Arcana Watches," &c., the prices of which are stated to be from seven to sixteen dollars. A good watch, in these times, cannot be afforded for any such money.

A little attention from buyers will protect them from gross imposition.

Agents for the American Watch Company,

BRANDRETH'S PILLS A GENERAL ASSISTANT OF NATURE.

What is health? What is disease?

Health is when the supply and expenditure are equal. Disease when the supply and expenditure are unequal.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS impart certain expulsive powers to all matters in the body whose life is below the standard of the surrounding party or which have remained longer than the time nature designed. So in fevers and in all that class of cases which run into mortification BRANDRETH'S PILL have marvelous curative qualities. Our bottles are continually changing, and it is by this change we live. Should matter remain in organs beyond the time nature designed, pain and inflammation set in, which is nothing more than a preparatory effort for our good. All Brandreth's Pills are supposed from the results to do is simply

KNOXVILLE, Albany Co., Jan. 16, 1852.

Dr. T. ALLCOCK—Dear Sir: Seventeen years ago I was sorely injured in my back. At length I was induced to use your plasters. I wore one constantly for six months, and did more hard work during that six months than in the preceding fifteen years. I have not worn a plaster for over eighteen months, and have had no return of the gnawing pain and weakness in my back, but have been entirely well.

Durno's Celebrated Catarrh Snuff is the best known remedy for Headache, Cold in the Head, Snuffles, Imperfect Voice, Bronchitis, and Catarrh. Few persons appreciate the diseases arising from disordered nasal organs. Sight, hearing, taste, and smell are frequently ruined by a cold in the head. The gas generated by the use of this snuff cleanses the entire head, and restores proper articulation. Its effects are pleasant and wonderful. It contains no tobacco nor other injurious ingredients. Colleges, Societies, States, and the most eminent of the Medical Faculty have awarded it testimonials and premiums.

Sold by all Druggists for 25 cents per box. Can be sent by mail on receipt of 30 cents for one box, or $1 for four boxes. Address JAS. DURNO, P. O. Box 1235, New York City.

New Music.

"THE CHORUS WREATH," with a good assortment of Music Books and Sheet Music, for sale by J. H. FOSTER. 26

Local.

☞ The Shoalers and their guests, at Appledore, saw a novel sight, on a bright morning last week, when Bill Perkins drove the old "Butler Mare" round the Island—probably the pioneer enterprise of the sort. The fact is, the Laighton boys,—intending to clear the rocks out of their beach basin, and to make a better path up over their hill, and execute other improvements, got Perkins to buy them a horse—a veritable mare, and not a horse-marine, though the idea of such an animal at the Shoals, is enough to make a horse laugh.

But no matter—Perkins goes to Sherb Somerby, and buys the Butler mare—and if "the old whip" isn't a judge of a horse, this was once a Judge's mare, at any rate. And so, in full view of Old Tom and all who lustily shook their sides,—Bill mounts and rides to the summit—a more novel if not grander spectacle than Napoleon on the Alps; then harnesses into a hand-cart, and drives about "the lawn"—then hitches on to the boats, and draws them into winter quarters—and performs other feats never attempted before on that stage, at all events.

This is the first horse known by the oldest inhabitant, to have ever appeared on Sir John Smith's Isles; or rather on the Appledore, for it is said a horse was cast at Rye, several years ago, and taken to Gosport on hay spread in a gondola; but of his history or success we know nothing. Suffice it to say, there is no doubt, and will be no dispute, but the proprietors of the Appledore House have got the best horse in town; nor will anybody question that the horseman on this occasion, did the thing up in his usual good style and skilful horsemanship.

POLICE COURT, Sept. 9.—A gentleman for fast driving, was fined $4 and costs $4.59. From this sentence he appealed and gave bonds in the sum of $30. Better pay up, and drive slower when the Marshal is round!

Mary Hennessy, a young woman of Celtic extraction, is addicted to the habit of drinking as much rum as she is able to buy, beg or steal. She is not driven to the bottle through desperation in order to drown some real or imaginary trouble, but imbibes on account of her innate love of liquor, which is the more unfortunate from the fact that Mary is comely in her personal appearance, and might be a useful woman, instead of a besotted wretch. Such is life, however, and we are more ready to mourn over the victims of the bowl and lament the terrible evils of intemperance, than to go to work and endeavor to reform the unfortunates. Of course Miss Hennessy was fined $3 and costs $3.86, and as she had no money and no friends was sent to the H. of C.

AGRICULTURAL EXHIBITION IN PORTSMOUTH.—We noticed this week, at the store of Mr. H. M. Clark, a handsome and unique lot of vegetables, placed there by Mr. E. B. Towle, who is entering largely into the cultivation of garden vegetables, in Hampton Falls, N. H. The Egg Plant is seldom seen in our market, but it is said to be a nice table luxury. Gherkin Cucumbers are also new articles to many, and are excellent for pickling. These together with a lot of Pomo Tomatoes, large, smooth and tempting, and several heads of cauliflower, were samples of Mr. Towle's products; and together with a monstrous cabbage, weighing twenty pounds, which Mr. T. brought from Mr. Merrill's garden at Salem, Mass., formed an exhibition which would stand well in any of our great horticultural shows.—Journal.

For the Chronicle.

INCIDENT of my ride home from the Fair at Concord. It is well known that certain would-be wits, and habitual growlers, always indulge in remarks not complimentary to the C. & P. R. R. whenever the train stops at a station where they do not want to get off. Well, our train halted at a way-side depot, and had not been waiting two minutes, before a fellow declared aloud that the conductor and his men had "gone blueberrying." "That joke is very stale," was the quick rejoinder of Major H.; "you had better go burying too." The fellow was completely switched off, and the laugh came in on a turn-table.

AN OTHER.—"Have some corn?" was the question, popped to a sober-looking passenger "No", said he, with a serious tone of voice, but a sly wink of the eye, "I don't want any. But I guess Hiram Hayes will buy some; he has got a coop full of chickens in the baggage-car." The refreshment vender, quickly hopped to a corn-er, and covered his ears with both hands, knowing that a laugh was ear-repressible.

FAIR SEER.

☞ The rehearsal of the Philharmonic Society will take place at Mercantile Hall on Wednesday evening at half-past 7 o'clock. The attendance of every member is requested, to act upon matters of special interest.

☞ The Haevy Artillery, lately the garrison at Fort Constitution, passed through our city on Saturday, on their way to Concord, to be mustered out of the U. S. service.

☞ Commander H. C. B. Caldwell has been ordered to this Navy Yard as Chairman of the Inventory Board and Survey, and has entered upon his duties.

☞ Carlton, the young man who was stabbed in the stomach a few days ago, will not survive. He was said to be dying on Sunday, mortification having taken place, and probably ere this paragraph reaches the eye of the reader the poor fellow will have breathed his last. His dying testimony relative to the circumstances of the murder was given before the proper authorities on Saturday evening. His statement in regard to the man who committed the fatal deed, is very clear and positive.

☞ As the Eastern train was going into Lynn on Friday evening it was thrown from the track by a misplaced switch, and the new and splendid engine Rockingham was made a perfect wreck. As they were running slowly the cars were not much injured, neither were any of the passengers. The damage will amount to about $20,000, enough (the Boston Courier thinks) to pay careful switchmen for some time.

AFRAID TO LAUGH.—Ladies sometimes repress their laughter to avoid revealing the discoloration and imperfection of their teeth. Fair ones, we would advise you to try the Fragrant Sozodont. It will remove, at once, all impurities, arrest the progress of decay, and whiten such parts as have already become black by decay, and leave the breath as fragrant as a rose. e1 lod1w 6

My child is safe, and I am much relieved. DR. BICKNELL'S SYRUP did the cure. American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY,

SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,

Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)

76 State street, opposite Kilby street,

Boston.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on the shortest notice, with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would said that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All needs of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."

CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakeable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges." JOHN TAGGART

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twelve rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents. R. H. EDDY.

AGENTS WANTED

FOR

The Secret Service, the Field, the Dungeon, and the Escape.

BY ALBERT D. RICHARDSON,

N. Y. Tribune Correspondent.

70,000 Copies Sold in Sixty Days!

The most interesting and exciting book ever published, embracing Mr. Richardson's unparalleled experience for four years. Travelling thro' the South in the secret service of the "Tribune" at the outbreak of the war; with our armies and fleets, both East and West, during the first two years of the rebellion; his thrilling capture; his confinement for twenty months in seven different Rebel prisons; his escape, and almost miraculous journey by night of nearly 400 miles. It will abound in stirring events, and contain more of the fact, incident and romance of the war, than any other work yet published. Horace Greeley says of it:

"A great many books will yet be written concerning this war, in addition to the many already in print; but not one of them will give, within a similar compass, a clearer, fuller, more readable account, entirely from personal observation, of the nature, animus, purposes, tendencies and instrumentalities of the slaveholders' Rebellion, than does the unpretending narrative of Mr. Richardson."

Teachers, ladies, energetic young men, and especially returned and disabled officers and soldiers, in need of profitable employment, will find it particularly adapted to their condition. Send for circulars. Address

COAL AT COST.

EAGLE HILL MUTUAL COAL COMPANY.

This Company is organized on the mutual plan, the same in principle as the Insurance Companies, and has none of the features of the speculative movements of the day. Its officers are among the solid men of Boston, and are known as gentlemen of integrity, who have never been associated with any of the speculative operations of the times.

The Colliery is one of the best and most extensive in the coal region, produces a coal far superior to any used in this market, and from its advantages can mine cheaper than most others. It has been open over six months, has more than 4000 stockholders, has delivered coal at a saving of $3 to $4 per ton from regular market prices, and has paid cash dividends of 4 per cent.

Any one who will take the trouble to investigate the facts, will see at once that the croakings of coal monopolists have no application to this company, and that it is as safe and sure as any railroad or bank stock in the market.

PETROLEUM IS KING!

THE

UNION OIL STOVES!

Patented April 11, 1864, and Jan. 17, 1865.

A COMPLETE APPARATUS

—FOR DOING THE—

COOKING

And all the work of a Family of any size,

AT LESS THAN

One-Third the Cost of Wood or Coal!

THIS NEW

PETROLEUM Cooking APPARATUS

Is WARRANTED to do all the work of a common Cooking Stove, at a great saving of time, trouble and expense. Having the fullest confidence in its utility, we offer it to the public as the

Only Kerosene or Coal Oil Stove

that will Bake, Broil, heat Flat Irons, &c., with entire satisfaction. It may be used in Kitchen or Parlor, without Dirt, Ashes, Smoke or Odor.

The ordinary Stove Furniture is used, with the addition of the "Flat Iron Heater." Kerosene Oil is used, and, at one dollar a gallon, it will cost for each Burner used, thereby saving the cost of the Stove in the expense of Fuel in a short time.

ONE CENT AN HOUR

"How long does it take to cook anything with one of these stoves?" is a question often asked. In answer, we can say from actual experiment that

2 quarts of water can be boiled in 15 minutes
Common potatoes baked	" 30	"
Flour Biscuit baked	" 15	"

And three good-sized Flat Irons heated in 15 minutes.

By adding a sheet iron drum to the Stove, it will warm a small sized room in cold weather.

For use in the night in case of sickness, one of these Stoves is invaluable, as it can be put in operation in one minute.

☞ EXCURSION PARTIES will find it very useful, occupying very little space, and capable of doing a large amount of Cooking.

THE MAGEE

COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber would especially call the attention of the public to the

CELEBRATED AND UNEQUALLED

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease or management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We invite all those in want of the very best Stove in the market, to examine the

MAGEE COOK.

Also on hand an assortment of the different sizes

—of the—

MAGEE PARLOR STOVE

with and without ovens, which are too well known to need any recommendation.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"

VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING

FURNACES.

The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pots used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq.,	Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill,	Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell,	John Sise, and others.

LIFE AT THE "ATLANTIC," RYE BEACH.

As seen in one day.—including a drive to the house of Hon. Clement March, Greenland.

Ladies and gentlemen! I greet you all here,
With no pears nor peaches, champagne nor beer;
But only a side dish—through paper and pen—
Of a little "dry bread," which will scarce serve again.

Yesterday seemed one of bright sunshine to all:
In the morning, our breakfast received the first call—
Unless, to the Beach one or two went their way—
A call, before eating, at the "Ocean" to pay.

One, when we name him, we vow to adore! (Dorr)
A nominal claim on us, he has, if no more;
His companion you know—so I need not to name her;
Sunshine to all—most to those who can claim her.

Next, the "alley" to one sense made a loud call,
To knock down the ten pins with only one ball!
Not caring to count them by seven or eight,
But reckon the result of a ball rolling straight.

Then, all senses appealed to by ocean's loud roar,
Throwing waves, with their white caps, on the north shore;
Inviting all bathers—old, young, fat and thin—
To don their sea-dresses and bravely rush in.

As amusing a sight as old Neptune e'er saw—
While watching the breakers come in with a roar,
Was the sight of the sea nymphs; some were quite frisky;
Others, shaking with cold—but only for whiskey!

When all were quite warm, with powers in full play,
The next thing to tempt was a game of Croquet;
All in fun—nothing like an attempt at a battle—
And not half the wrong that once followed—an apple.

After this and a lounge, to dinner we went;
On eating and drinking, all ever seem bent.
Soon after, we're called to unite in a drive,
Though on many such beaters not many would thrive.

We might think the one who led off the van
Had designs on our lives! (yet he seems a kind man,)
For the sun's scorching rays and dust blowing in clouds
Inclined us to think of no need, but of shrouds.

But after a while we reached a cool port;
Walked through the house—without giving a thought
To the "wooden bride" without—deaf, too, as a post!
And stole quite a march on the bachelor host.

While wandering around, from cellar to garret,
One March stole on us, and asked us to Claret!
Which all drank with a relish, and found it quite handy,
Except—when pain prompted—a small glass of Brandy!

We afterward roamed about house and through grounds,
And where grapes were gathered by tons and not pounds;
To the stables next followed—a fair calf was shown us!—
Would he have thought it our type, had he better have known us?

The only thing wanting to make all perfection,
In house or on grounds, was the thoughtful direction
Of a Wife!—a sad want in such need—
But we trust he will find one—a helpmeet indeed.

At last to the music-room,—where each one's choice
Was gratified by the sound of a sweet, charming voice.

Soon all bade adieu! had a drive most romantic,
By moonlight, to the hospitable walls of "Atlantic"

After a sumptuous repast, in no respects scrouge,
Prepared by kind orders of our pleasant host, Lougee—
We walked to the rocks; watched the moon's silvery light,
As it danced on the ripples, till the light hours of night.

The lashing of waves, too, o'er the rocks at our feet,
Speaking to each listening ear the lessons most meet;
Of Power and Wisdom in the Creator above,
Whom—through all works in Nature—we worship in Love.

Of Hope—to those longing for lov'd ones away!
Of Faith—to the wayward, whose thoughts sometimes stray!
Of Charity—to any, whose faults are not numbered!
Of Love—to all here, and those from us sundered!

The bright, glistening stars claimed their share of our thoughts,
And with Luna's pale light, their own calmness brought;
Each, following her orbit, as marked out by God;
May each of our paths be as faithfully trod.

Then, midnight claimed all, to rest and repose;
So my rhyme, like that day, must draw to a close.
Excuse the "dry toast," if it does not prove nourishing,
And believe, in our hearts only kindness is flourishing.

Now I find that my dish is already quite emptied;
But I beg you'll not think that the cook is demented!
Her ingredients are few—all packed in her brain!
But believe me; she hopes we may all meet again.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 12, 1865.

☞ In Tennessee, the Episcopal Convention has nominated for Bishop of Tennessee Rev. Charles L. Quintard, who for four years was Chaplain of the Rock City Guards, and afterwards of a rebel regiment from Nashville. He was unanimously elected on the first ballot. Some rebel soldiers on Wednesday night burned the freedmen's school at Decherd, Tennessee. Mr. Schuls, the teacher, was obliged to fly for his life. General Johnson, commanding the Middle District of Tennessee, has taken prompt measures to suppress these and other lawless acts. President Johnson will doubtless notice these items from his own State.

☞ A revolution is in progress in the United States of Columbia, which causes a smile to a citizen of these United States from its gigantic proportions, very similar to the Maori war which has so long vexed England in the exhibit of her authority over New Zealand. Three hundred men have invaded the State of Panama, for the purpose of overthrowing the present Government, and are opposed by about an equal number, with what success we are unable to determine from our files of Panama papers, though we don't think that it is of the slightest consequence. One Panama paper actually fears that the United States may be drawn into the quarrel!

THE CONGREGATIONAL CONVENTION which met last June in Boston, made two recommendations to the churches, one of which was that they should raise $750,000 for the purpose of carrying on the work of evangelization throughout our land, [having special reference to the re-constructed portion of it,] and the second, as preparatory to the first, was the observance of Friday 15th Sept. by all the churches of the denomination throughout the country as a day of prayer for a new and mighty baptism of the Holy Ghost, in order that as churches and as individuals they may realize the new and great responsibilities resting upon them and be prepared to meet them in a proper manner. If the South is to be truly regenerated, and exalted to that position which has made New England and the North what they are, it must have a free gospel and free schools, to which all the people can have access.

☞ One more idle statement is made about the trial of Jeff. D., viz that it will immediately follow that of Wirz;—and another, that he is to be tried at Richmond. The writers who make the statements know no more about the matter than the reader does. Our government keeps its own counsel in this particular.

VERMONT.—The Rutland Herald publishes a list of Representatives—106 Republicans and 7 Democrats.

— Late news from England, mention's the death of Judge Hilyburton, the author of Sam. Slick.

— It is said Gen. Slocum declined in advance, to be nominated, for any office this fall;—but as he is nominated in New York he may run.

— The election in Wilmington, Del., on Tuesday, resulted in the success of every Union candidate in every precinct in the city. There was not much excitement, and the poll was small, there being only 1415 votes cast.

— On Thursday last the amount of flour and grain on the canals from Buffalo and Oswego for tide water and New York as near as ascertained, was 8255 barrels flour, 200,000 bushels wheat, 1,657,000 bushels corn, 431,000 bushels oats, 19,000 bushels barley and 1700 bushels peas.

— A steam fire engine received in Charlestown, a few days since, from Manchester, has been sold to parties in New York at an advance of $500. Should a large fire occur before another engine is received, the profit of the transaction will be found less than it now appears.

— The telegraph has not conveyed the exact idea of the action of the Minnesota and Wisconsin Republican Conventions.—So far from condemning president Johnson on the one hand, and ignoring the right of free suffrage on the other,—they both passed thoroughly loyal and judiciously worded resolutions.

— The New York Daily News of Friday morning has not a word to say about the action of the Democratic Convention, its resolutions or candidates. This the Evening Post calls "speechless disgust." The News no doubt considers the convention to be a pack of hypocrites, and their resolutions a bundle of lies.

—The strong box of the U. S. ship Cumberland has been recovered by the sub-marine workmen employed in the work of raising the hull of that ship in Hampton Roads. The amounts reported as secured are very large.

— Dr. Kane's relatives say the story of his marriage with Miss Fox is a falsehood.

Correspondence of the Chronicle.

RYE, Sept. 9.

Messrs. Editors:—Like Othello, your correspondent finds his "occupation" "gone" with the sudden demise of the "Ballot," whose well-filled pages were always as welcome as the genial smiles of a time-honored friend. Its suspension severs the chain of my correspondence, which has extended over a period of seven years, and recalls many pleasing reminiscences of the connection. Since my first effusion was given to the public, (Aug. 28, 1858,) I have written for the Ballot one hundred and thirty "Letters from Rye," upwards of sixty columns of political editorials, comments upon passing events of the two past eventful years, besides Letters from Washington, the Army, &c., and occasional articles of a descriptive character. That there are many paragraphs in the collection that I would "willingly let die," I candidly confess; but as I cannot recall them, I can only make reparation by promising better things for the future, and apologize for any accidental injustice in the past. The personal comments that have occasionally escaped my pen with greater or less severity, have always been made with a conscientious regard for Truth and the Right—and if any sensitive individuals have felt the sting of their sarcasm, I can only recommend them to "grin and bear it" with philosophical calmness.

To the Editor of the "Ballot"—Mr. Whittem—permit me to express my sincere thanks for the many favors and kindnesses received at his hands, and to indulge the hope that he may yet be rewarded by the party whose principles he has advocated with so much zeal and ability. This much "obituary" in the transition of my correspondence to the "Chronicle," where I hope it may not prove wholly disagreeable.

The severity of the drought continues unabated. The intense heat has withered the vegetation, dried up the wells, and given us prematurely "the sere and yellow leaf." The corn and potato crop will be exceedingly light, compared with former years,—while of fruit there is a limited quantity—very limited—yet travellers tell us our "show" of fruit is better than elsewhere. That being the case, the people of "elsewhere" must be pretty "hard up" for cider and apples.

There is and has been for some weeks a great amount of sickness in town—the prevailing complaint being a malignant form of the dysentery, which has raged with great severity during the heated term. Several deaths have already occurred, and it is feared that other cases will result fatally.

Our fishing fleet, consisting of the schooner "Hero," Capt. Dearborn Locke, arrived home a few days ago, with the nice little pile of three hundred quintals of salted fish.

The famous "stumps" at Rye Beach were visible during the very low tide of Wednesday and Thursday. They are located nearly in front of the "Ocean House," some three or four hundred yards below high-water mark, and are seen only when the sand happens to "shift"—just in the nick of time to leave them exposed when the tide runs out farther than usual. They consist of a great collection of stumps—logs, broken trees, &c.,—some of them three feet through, and of great length. They have been visible only a few times within my recollection; and those who would feast their eyes upon this natural curiosity must closely watch the "moving of the waters." The stumps are in an excellent state of preservation, and I am ready to bet them "good" for the next hundred thousand years.

I am reluctantly compelled to spoil that fine sheep story that so many over-credulous individuals have so greedily swallowed, concerning the wonderful voyage of the fettered mutton that swam all the way from Gosport or some other foreign country—and which landed safely upon terra firma, and walked quietly away. It has been ascertained that the voyage of the novel navigator was not near so extensive as the imagination of the reporter, inasmuch as he (the sheep—not the reporter,) only "put off" from a neighboring point, and swam a few hundred yards along shore for the purpose of "cooling off."

I notice that some of the papers in the interior are bragging over what they term a "good shot," made by a gentleman in Wolfeborough, who fired into a flock of 13 ducks, killing seven and wounding two. This is perhaps "as well as could be expected" for that latitude; but if a coast gunner should seriously boast of such an plot, he would only be laughed at. I have known many better "shots" than that made by the gunners of Rye, North Hampton and Hampton. I recollect one instance of a gentleman killing eleven ducks out of a flock of twelve; another of seven sea-brants out of eight; two instances of annihilating a whole flock of coots five in number—besides innumerable slaughters in big flocks. These "crack" shots were all upon the wing, which is somewhat different from shooting birds quietly sitting in a pond. Gunning is carried on to a considerable extent here during the months of September and October,—and if any of our inland friends would witness good shooting, let them come down to Rye, or Hampton, or Great Bay, where Nat Gookin plants his artillery. The guns used for fowling purposes are—some of them—very ancient, and are not "burnished with silvery brightness," but then they will throw shot fearfully, and bear a charge of powder that in a still morning sounds like a field-piece. I only mention this matter incidentally, to show the world that all the good shooting isn't done in Wolfeborough.

BUGGINS.

Correspondence of the Chronicle.

BOSTON, Sept. 11.

Commander Chas. H. B. Caldwell has been ordered to special duty at Portsmouth Navy Yard, to make an inventory of all public property in the Naval Storekeeper's department of that yard.

Commodore John Rogers has been detached from the Dictator, and ordered to command the Vanderbilt, which vessel is to convey the iron-clad Monadnock around Cape Horn to the Pacific coast.

The last sea service performed by the late Commodore John C. Long was on the celebrated Merrimac, which was afterward appropriated by the rebels at Norfolk. The Merrimac was built at the Charlestown navy yard, and sailed as Commodore Long's flag ship in the fall of 1857.

The head salesman in the book store of E. P. Dutton & Co. (who succeeded Messrs. Ticknor & Fields in the retail book business in Boston) has been detected in stealing different sums of money, at different times, which have amounted in the aggregate to about $20,000. He received as pay (as head salesman) only $12 a week. The only wonder is that he hasn't stolen $40,000. It would have been more beneficial to the business community if he had. It is time that employers know that employees must live, and that $12 a week will not support even an unmarried man in Boston.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— At the recent annual meeting of the National Rifle Club for target practice at Waltham, Mass., the first prize was won by John J. Eastman of Concord, entitling him to the Presidency of the Club for the ensuing year; the possession of the gold medal of the Club for the period of one year, and the ownership of a silver medal suitably inscribed.

—— The town of Orford celebrated its Centennial Anniversary Sept 8. Gen. Gilman Marston of Exeter, a native of Orford, was President of the day, and on behalf of the citizens welcomed home the absent children in a cordial manner. Major Edgel, formerly of the New Hampshire Battery, was Chief Marshal. Rev. Wm. S. Palmer of Wells River, Vt., assisted by Revs. G. B. Dana of Missouri, and B. M. Tillotson of Manchester, all natives of Orford, was Chaplain. The address was given by Rev. Joel Mann of Hartford, Conn. Mr. Mann is a son of the first settler of the town, and is 76 years old. One of the speakers, Mr. Wheeler of New York, said, that on meeting Washington Irving there on one summer's day, that great lover and admirer of nature remarked to him: "Orford is the most beautiful town that I have seen in all my travels, and I think the most beautiful in the world."

☞ The N. Y. Commercial Advertiser of Friday says gold shows a slight downward turn, the quotations being 144 1-4 to 144 3-8. There is no inclination to speculate on the premium, and the current operations are wholly of a regular character.

It is noteworthy that there has been no speculative attempt to control the premium since the Ketchum disclosures, the moral of that event having apparently made its due impression upon a certain class of habitues of the Gold Room. [It would be well if the whole class were abolished.]

☞ The City of Mexico is under martial law. On the 25th ult. M. Zamancona, formerly Minister of State, Romeo Rubio and Gradariaga, ex-members of Congress, and M. Guzman, together with 26 others, were arrested and sent to San Juan De Ulloa for alleged conspiracy to kill Maximilian. French troops have been relieved from the line of the Rio Grande and native soldiers substituted. The disposition of the French troops to give and take offence is assigned as the reason for the change. Baron De Bruan had been dimissed for his insulting letter to Gen. Browne. No Confederate officer has yet been received into the service of the Empire.

NEW YORK AND MISSISSIPPI.—President Johnson has sustained Gov. Sharkey and his Mississippi Militia, and so repudiated Gen. Slocum's order which would have suppressed it. And in New York, the democratic party in State Convention assembled, have nominated Gen. Slocum as their candidate to head their State Ticket this year. Thus a commander, too radical for the president, is nominated by the conservatives in New York.

— It has been discovered in Richmond that those persons who took the oath of allegiance to the rebel Covernment renounced all allegiance to the United States or any State in the United States.

☞ We have received from the publishers, Blelock & Co., 19 Beekman street, New York, advance-sheets from "Camp-Fire and Cotton-Field," by Ths. W. Knox, special correspondent of the New York Herald. While connected with that paper, in accordance with instructions, he spared neither pains nor expense to obtain and forward the very fullest and most reliable intelligence, and thus his opportunities for extensive observation have been frequent and ample, while his personal experience was often of an exciting and romantic nature. 8vo. cloth, 524 pp., twelve superior illustrations, price $2.50. The work will be sold only by subscription, and the publishers want agents in every county and town, to whom most liberal terms will be given.

FAIRBANKS' IMPROVED SIFTER.

Indispensable in Every Family.

PATENTED JULY 11TH, 1865.

The King of all Sifters

For sifting Flour, Meal, Squash, Apple, Sugar, and every other article requiring a Sieve. It is the great desideratum long needed in every family, and will, by its strongness, capacity of work, and durability, ever stand pre-eminent in every household.

RAPID.—(It requires but one-tenth the time of the old method.)

NEAT, (The hands do not come in contact with the article sifted.)

There is no dust, no scattering of contents, no cold fingers.

DURABLE.—(It is warranted to last for years.)

GROCERS.—Use it to bolt their meal, saving time, expense and waste.

DRUGGISTS.—Pronounce it the most efficient article ever used by them for sifting purposes, mixing thoroughly whatever is placed in it.

It is equally useful in Spice Mills, and with Paint Dealers, for sifting Ochres, Whiting, &c.

For sifting Cream Tartar, nothing will take its place.

☞ Parties wishing to purchase City or Town Agencies, can by the investment of a trifling capital realize from $10 to $20 per day.

SUFFERERS

From Dyspepsia

READ! REFLECT!! ACT!!!

TARRANT & CO.

Gentlemen,

I am a resident of Curacoa, and have often been disposed to write to you concerning the real value of your SELTZER APERIENT as a remedy for indigestion and dyspepsia. I desire to express to you my sincere gratitude for the great benefit the SELTZER has done my wife.

For four or five years my wife has been sadly afflicted with Dyspepsia, and after being under the treatment of several Doctors for two or three years she was finally induced to seek the advice of a learned Physician, Doctor Cabialis, of Venezuela, who immediately treated her with your EFFERVESCENT SELTZER APERIENT. She began to improve at once and is now PERFECTLY WELL.

I feel it to be my duty for the good of humanity to make this statement, feeling that a medicine so valuable should be widely known.

Trusting that you will give this publicity, and repeating my earnest gratitude and thanks,

I am very respectfully yours,
S. D. C. HENRIQUER,
Merchant, Curacoa, S. A,

New York, June 28th, 1865.

WE ASK

The suffering millions in our land to give this remedy a trial, convinced that by its timely use many may be relieved, many cured of

Dyspepsia, Heartburn, Sour Stomach, Sick Headache, Dizziness, Indigestion, Piles, Costiveness, Bilious Attacks, Liver Complaints, Rheumatic Affections, &c.

Read the Pamphlet of Testimonials with each bottle, and do not use the medicine against the advice of your Physician.

CAUTION FROM THE

AMERICAN WATCH COM'Y.

It having come to our knowledge that imitations of the American Watch have been put upon the market in great number, calculated by their utter worthlessness to injure the reputation of our genuine products, to protect our own interests and the public from imposition, we again publish the trade marks by which our Watches may invariably be known.

We manufacture four styles of Watches.

The FIRST has the name "AMERICAN WATCH CO., Waltham, Mass.," engraved on the inside plate.

The SECOND has the name "APPLETON, TRACY & CO., Waltham, Mass.," engraved on the inside plate.

The THIRD has the name "P. S. BARTLETT, Waltham, Mass.," engraved on the inside plate.

All the above styles have the name American Watch Co. painted on the dial, and are warranted in every respect.

The FOURTH has the name "WM. ELLERY Boston, Mass.," engraved on the inside plate, and is not named on the dial.

All the above described Watches are made of various sizes, and are sold in gold or silver cases as may be required.

It is hardly possible for us to accurately describe the numerous imitations to which we have alluded. They are usually inscribed with names so near approaching our own as to escape the observation of the unaccustomed buyer. Some are represented as made by the "Union Watch Co., of Boston, Mass.,"—no such company existing. Some are named the "Soldier's Watch," to be sold as our Fourth or Wm Ellery style, usually known as the "Soldier's Watch." Others are named the "Appleton Watch Co.," others "P. S. Bartley," instead of our P. S. Bartlett; besides many varieties named in such a manner as to convey the idea that they are the veritable productions of the American Watch Company.

We also caution the public, and particularly soldiers, against buying certain articles CALLED watches, so freely advertised in illustrated papers as "Army Watches," "Officers' Watches," "Magic Time Observers," "Arcana Watches," &c., the prices of which are stated to be from seven to sixteen dollars. A good watch, in these times, cannot be afforded for any such money.

A little attention from buyers will protect them from gross imposition.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS A GENERAL ASSISTANT OF NATURE.

What is health? What is disease?

Health is when the supply and expenditure are equal. Disease when the supply and expenditure are unequal.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS impart certain expulsive powers to all matters in the body whose life is below the standard of the surrounding party or which have remained longer than the time nature designed. So in fevers and in all that class of cases which run into mortification BRANDRETH'S PILL have marvelous curative qualities. Our bodies are continually changing, and it is by this change we live. Should matter remain in organs beyond the time nature designed, pain and inflammation set in, which is nothing more than a preparatory effort for our good. All Brandreth's Pills are supposed from the results to do is simply

ASSISTING THESE EFFORTS OF NATURE.

Duno's Celebrated Catarrh Snuff is the best known remedy for Headache, Cold in the Head, Snuffles, Imperfect Voice, Bronchitis, and Catarrh. Few persons appreciate the diseases arising from disordered nasal organs. Sight, hearing, taste, and smell are frequently ruined by a cold in the head. The gas generated by the use of this snuff cleanses the entire head, and restores proper articulation. Its effects are pleasant and wonderful. It contains no tobacco nor other injurious ingredient. Colleges, Societies, States, and the most eminent of the Medical Faculty have awarded it testimonials and premiums.

Sold by all Druggists for 25 cents per box. Can be sent by mail on receipt of 30 cents for one box, or $1 for four boxes. Address JAS. DUNO, NO. F O. Box 1235, New York City.

☞ As one of Portsmouth's fair daughters was sailing with one of our most experienced and successful sea captains, on the North Mill Pond, last Thursday afternoon, the boat was somehow capsized, and its occupants suddenly immersed in the briny deep—we don't know how deep. A person on shore seeing them in their perilous position, put off in a boat and rescued them from a watery grave, perhaps. At any rate, "by the holy Moses," they were as wet as if they had been out in more Rains than we have had for a month, or than there seems to be any Idea of getting.

☞ The boating season, as such, has nearly closed, and although it has been enjoyed to its fullest extent we do not remember that we have been called upon to chronicle a single accident in our harbor having a fatal termination. Even Portsmouth Bridge has failed to exact its accustomed tribute of human life, making this season one without a precedent for many years past.

☞ We are indebted to Mr. Jas. S. Pierce for late Panama papers.

☞ Among other curious information it is said, that though the South is all but destitute of horses, cattle, implements, fabrics, groceries—everything she most urgently needs, and has been accustomed to buy—her people are hoarding gold! The story planters who say they cannot pay wages for labor are selling cotton for twenty cents per pound in gold rather than thirty-two in greenbacks; and this gold they are putting aside. It is a fact that, while the South urgently needs almost everything else, gold by the half million is moving from New York Southward to be exchanged for cotton. This tends to keep gold at a little higher premium, and at the same time it shows the fools are not all dead. Having seen their own confederate scrip become worthless in the markets they are afraid of all paper. Hating the power that they must obey, they distrust its greenbacks, and so hoard a little gold, at a considerable loss. The great body of the people, especially the working people, of the South, do not hoard, but use their money.

FROM SAVANNAH.—Gen. Steadman has issued an order that he has been informed firearms are distributed over the State in the hands of designing men, and directs that all such arms be turned over to the Provost Marshal within 30 days. After that time the Provost Marshals shall seize all they can find and arrest the parties having them. Gen. Steadman's information was of important character, shadowing forth another rebellion.

☞ John M. Way, of Roxbury, Mass., has brought a suit against four or five of his neighbors, who compelled him to hoist the Union flag, and do sundry other loyal acts, against his will, about the time Pres. Lincoln was murdered.—He lays the damages at $10,000, which will do him much good—when he gets it.

— The mystery in regard to the corpse shipped to Webster, Mass., on the 25th ult., is solved. It was shipped by Lieutenant Robinson, a Quartermaster at Newport News, and was the body of his step-father, Mr. Nathan Childs, who died there a month ago. There was a box of tools shipped at the same time, and the address of the two boxes got changed, thereby sending the corpse to the wrong party and the tools to the bereaved friends.

— Mr. C. R. Brown, of Saratoga, has a gold coin about the size of a half eagle, for which he has refused $1200, valuing it at the modest figure of $2000. It was found in Siddon, Syria, and is said to be a coin of Philip II, father of Alexander the Great, and consequently is 2200 years old.

— Advices from New Zealand, June 28, say the natives are still in insurrection, intrenched in a strong position besieged by the British troops. It was reported that the rebels offered to surrender, but the report is contradicted.

— During an irksome delay of two hours on the Troy and Boston Railroad the other day, two young men, just to kill time, proposed to young ladies respectively, and a clergyman being at hand, were married on the spot.

— A grand-daughter of Chief Justice Marshall recently applied to the Freedmen's Relief Society in Richmond for food to keep her family from starving. She had abundance till the rebellion broke out.

— "Pit Hole," Penn., was thus named in consequence of an extraordinary pit about three miles from the city. Its depth has not been fathomed, but stones thrown into it are never heard to drop.

— Cockroaches may be destroyed by placing a vessel two-thirds full of water sweetened with molasses where they can get on the vessel at night. They will be found drowned in the morning.

— The Vicksburg Journal of the 29th states that a heavy ironed and strongly guarded prisoner was locked in jail there, supposed by some to be John Surratt.

— Home, the medium, has passed the summer in Russia, staying for a number of weeks at one of the crown palaces at Peterhoff, where he held seances.

My child is safe, and I am much relieved. DR. BICKNELL'S SYRUP did the cure. It has saved thousands, and will save thousands more, from those dire diseases, such as Dysentery, Diarrhea, Cholera Infantum, &c. If mothers knew its worth, none would be without it. It is safe and reliable for old or young. sep11

AGENTS WANTED

FOR

The Secret Service, the Field, the Dungeon, and the Escape.

BY ALBERT D. RICHARDSON,

N. Y. Tribune Correspondent.

70,000 Copies Sold in Sixty Days!

The most interesting and exciting book ever published, embracing Mr. Richardson's unparalleled experience for four years. Travelling thro' the South in the secret service of the "Tribune" at the outbreak of the war; with our armies and fleets, both East and West, during the first two years of the rebellion; his thrilling capture; his confinement for twenty months in seven different Rebel prisons; his escape, and almost miraculous journey by night of nearly 400 miles. It will abound in stirring events, and contain more of the fact, incident and romance of the war, than any other work yet published. Horace Greeley says of it:

"A great many books will yet be written concerning this war, in addition to the many already in print; but not one of them will give, within a similar compass, a clearer, fuller, more readable account, entirely from personal observation, of the nature, animus, purposes, tendencies and instrumentalities of the slaveholders' Rebellion, than does the unpretending narrative of Mr. Richardson."

Teachers, ladies, energetic young men, and especially returned and disabled officers and soldiers, in want of profitable employment, will find it particularly adapted to their condition. Send for circulars. Address

Coal at Cost.

The Eagle Hill Mutual Coal Company.

The subscriber has succeeded in obtaining a limited number of shares in this popular Company, which has proved such a success in Boston and vicinity, for the purpose of enabling the citizens of Portsmouth to obtain their coal at a saving of three or four dollars per ton. Full information will be given and a small amount of stock furnished on application to

JOHN S. HARVEY,

COAL AT COST.

EAGLE HILL MUTUAL COAL COMPANY.

This Company is organized on the mutual plan, the same in principle as the Insurance Companies, and has none of the features of the speculative movements of the day. Its officers are among the solid men of Boston, and are known as gentlemen of integrity, who have never been associated with any of the speculative operations of the times.

The Colliery is one of the best and most extensive in the coal region, produces a coal far superior to any used in this market, and from its advantages can mine cheaper than most others. It has been operation over six months, has more than 4000 stockholders, has delivered coal on a saving of $3 to $4 per ton from regular market prices, and has paid cash dividends of 4 per cent.

Any one who will take the trouble to investigate the facts, will see at once that the croakings of coal monopolists have no application to this company, and that it is as safe and sure as any railroad or bank stock in the market.

One-Third the Cost of Wood or Coal!

THIS NEW

PETROLEUM Cooking APPARATUS

Is WARRANTED to do all the work of a common Cooking Stove, at a great saving of time, trouble and expense. Having the fullest confidence in its utility, we offer it to the public as the

Only Kerosene or Coal Oil Stove

that will Bake, Broil, heat Flat Irons, &c., with entire satisfaction. It may be used in Kitchen or Parlor, without Dirt, Ashes, Smoke or Odor.

The ordinary Stove Furniture is used, with the addition of the "Flat Iron Heater." Kerosene Oil is used, and, at one dollar a gallon, it will cost for each Burner used, thereby saving the cost of the Stove in the expense of Fuel in a short time.

ONE CENT AN HOUR

"How long does it take to cook anything with one of these stoves?" is a question often asked. In answer, we can say from actual experiment that

2 quarts of water can be boiled in	15 minutes
Common potatoes baked	" 30	"
Flour Biscuit baked	" 15	"

And three good-sized Flat Irons heated in 15 minutes.

By adding a sheet iron drum to the Stove, it will warm a small sized room in cold weather.

For use in the night in case of sickness, one of these Stoves is invaluable, as it can be put in operation in one minute.

☞ EXCURSION PARTIES will find it very useful, occupying very little space, and capable of doing a large amount of Cooking.

THE MAGEE

COOKING STOVE.

The subscriber would especially call the attention of the public to the

CELEBRATED AND UNEQUALLED

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shovelling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We invite all those in want of the very best Stove in the market, to examine the

MAGEE COOK.

Also on hand an assortment of the different sizes

—of the—

with and without ovens, which are too well known to need any recommendation.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"

VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING

FURNACES.

The subscriber, being the Sole Agent in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pots used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.
